Memorandum to Mr. Rosen
Re: March on Washington
August 28, 1963
Summaries Re Principals Involved

There are set forth below brief summaries concerning the individuals who have been identified by literature concerning the March and by Bureau sources as comprising the principals in the event.

CHAIRMEN:

Roy Wilkins (age 62)
Executive Secretary, NAACP

Wilkins has been associated with the NAACP since approximately 1931. During the 1930's and 1940's various communist publications carried articles concerning Wilkins' activities when those activities coincided with programs sponsored by the Communist Party (CP). No information has been received, however, that Wilkins has ever been sympathetic to communist ideology. It has been reported that Wilkins has vigorously opposed communist infiltration in the NAACP and through the years has advocated peaceful methods of attaining racial equality. In June, 1963, he was arrested in Jackson, Mississippi, on a local charge in connection with integration/activities.

A. Philip Randolph (age 74)
President, NALC

Randolph has had a long career in the labor movement and was founder and president for many years of the International Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters. He was the subject of a security-type investigation in 1944 when allegations were received that he was affiliated with various communist front groups. It was determined that in 1940 he had publicly announced withdrawal from one such group because of reported communist influence in the organization and had, from time to time, disassociated himself from other groups for the same reason. His integration activities have, at times, paralleled CP activities; however, no information has been developed indicating Randolph is in sympathy with communist aims. Randolph has also been an advocate of pacificism.

James L. Parmer (age 45) Mational Director, COLS B. APPROX. 1910

Farmer, a Howard University graduate, has, in the past, been active as a labor leader and has long been connected with the integration nevement. He is an advocate of non-violent resistance in racial natters. In May and June, 1961, he was arrested by local officers in Jackson, Hississippi, charged with "breach of leace." He information appears in Dureau files indicative of any subversive affiliations concerning Farmer.

John Robert Lewis (ego 33) B. APPROX. 1940 Chairman, SICC

Lowis, a university student, has been arrested on various occasions since 1961 on local charges of "trespossing," et cetera, in connection with integration activities. The Dureau conducted a civil rights impulyy concerning one instance where it was alleged Lewis' civil rights had been violated during or arrest in Charleston, Missouri, by local officers. Lowis, in interview, stated unequivocally that no violence or abusive conduct was employed by arresting officers. No information is available which would indicate any subversive affiliations by Lowis.

Reverend Mertin Luther Hing, Jr., (age 34)

ling is the subject of a continuing security-type investigation and is included in Section A of the Reserve Index. He is closely associated with several individuals having subversive affiliations including a concealed member of the Cr who has described Hing as a wholehearted Harmist who has studied Harmism, believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion does not dare empose it publicly. Information has also been received that hing is currently romantically involved with a woman other than Mrs. Hing and has planned to meet her in Washington on August 28. He has been arrested on various occasions since 1956 on charges arising out of integration activities and also for traffic offenses.

Whitney Moore Young (age 42) B. APPROX. (1) | Executive Director, UL

Young is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and throughout his life has been employed primarily in the educational field. An applicant-type investigation conducted concerning Young in 1956 was favorable with the exception of information developed that a reference of Young's had allegedly associated with communists, received communist literature, and belonged to a communist front. No information indicating subversive affiliations on Young's part was developed.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONFITTIES: B. APPROX. 1915

Cleveland Llewellyz Robinson, Chairman (age 48) Vice-President, NAIC President, New York Chapter, NAACP

Robinson, a native of Jamaica, British West Indies, entered the United States in 1944. He has been active in the labor field as a union official and has been described as a figurehead in the union who merely does what he is told. A security-type investigation conducted concerning Robinson developed information from informants that he had formerly been a CP member but was expelled from the Party in 1952. It was also ascertained he had participated in various CP and communist front activities in New York City. In interviews with Dureau/Agents he has not been hostile but has advised he doesn't believe in security-type investigations and has refused to furnish any information.

Member, SNCC

Cox was one of three Howard University students who staged a sit-in demonstration in the Attorney General's Office in March, 1962. These students entered the Justice Building in midafternoon and had to be forcibly evicted from Mr. Kennedy's Office that night. They were protesting the jailing of several integrationists in Louisiana. No information is available which would indicate any subversive affiliations on the part of Cox.

Ann Arnold Hedgeman, also known as BAPPROX / YOU Lirs. Herritt A. Hedgeman (age 64) Coordinator for Special Events National Council of Churches

A loyalty-type investigation was conducted concerning Hedgeman in 1949 in view of her reported membership in a communist front organization in the 1930's. At that time she was an assistant to the administrator of the Federal Security Agency. She was considered eligible for Government employment by the Loyalty Review Board. The investigation determined that in connection with work involving fair employment practices she appeared before some groups that were CP dominated and also had some associations with individuals who had been active in CP activities. Persons acquainted with her described her as an active integrationist but anticommunist. She has been interviewed on various occasions by Bureau Agents and has exhibited a very uncooperative attitude and an aversion to investigations of Government employees conducted by the FBI. She has further advised Bureau Agents that she feels her race was being discriminated against and that undoubtedly numerous members of her race had become interested in the CP because various programs offered by the CP espoused equality. After resigning her Government position in 1953, she became an administrative assistant to Mayor Wagner of New York City. She has continued to be extremely active in Negro organizations.

Reverend Thomas Kilgore, Jr. Vice President, New York Branch, NAACP

Rilgore during the period 1949 to 1959 was reportedly active in various functions sponsored by communist front groups. In this connection, he was a member of the sponsors committee for the Paul Robeson Welcome Home Rally held in June, 1949, active in the American Peace Crusade, a sponsor of the New York Peace Institute and in 1959 was reportedly to act as New York City area leader for the "Clergymen's Appeal" of the Committee to Secure Justice for Norton Sobell.

Reverend George Lawrence Regional Representative, SCLC (1962)

In 1960 Lawrence was described as President of the Antioch Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. No information is available indicative of any subversive affiliation by Lawrence.

Senior Field Representative, CORE (1961)

McCain has been with CORE since 1957 and is the former president of the MACP in South Carolina. He was formerly employed as a teacher in South Carolina and unverified allegations have been received that he was fired by two Megro high schools for stealing money. It was reported in October, 1946, that McCain while president of a teachers' association appeared as a "platform guest" at an annual meeting of the Southern Megro Youth Congress, a cited organization. The Bureau has had considerable contact with McCain in connection with the Freedom Rides. He was a complainant in a civil rights inquiry in Movember, 1961, wherein it was alleged he had been discriminated against in the purchase of a bus ticket in Jackson, Mississippi. McCain instituted a civil suit in 1962 against Louisiana State officials and hotel officials after having been refused the rental of a room in New Orleans.

Gloster Bryant Current (age 50)
National Director of Branches, NAACP

Current has long been active in the NAACP in Detroit and New York City and has frequently criticized public officials and law enforcement agencies for nonactivity concerning Negro problems and for their attitude toward the Negro race. A security-type investigation conducted during the 1940's revealed information concerning Current's participation in activities of several communist front groups and his associations with several known communists. He has, however, been described since that time as definitely anticommunist. He has repeatedly accused the CP of trying to stir up trouble and racial tension in the NAACP. He has been interviewed many times by Bureau representatives and has always been cooperative.

Walter Philip Reuther (age 55) President, CIO Division, AFL-CIO B. APPROX.

Reuther was afforded an applicant-type investigation in 1955 and 1956 which included inquiries concerning allegations of his affiliation with the CP and the Socialist Workers Party in the 1930's. Allegations that he was a member of the aforementioned parties were not substantiated during the investigation. It was developed that he reportedly broke with communist factions in labor in 1939 and since that time has been a subject of attack by Soviet publications and the communist press in the United States. He was arrested on one occasion in 1937 by Detroit authorities in connection with a labor dispute. An unsubstantiated allegation was received by our Houston Office in 1960 that Reuther had deposited $10,000,000 in cash in various banks throughout Texas for the purpose of promoting the Kennedy election campaign. This information was furnished to the Department and no further investigation was requested. In June, 1963, information was received that a newly published book "The Far Right" referred to the memorandum from Reuther to the Attorney General concerning steps he felt should be taken to combat right-wing extremism. In this memorandum Reuther reportedly accused the Director of exaggerating the communict menace.

John A. Morsell (age 51)
Assistant to the Executive Secretary, NAACP

Morsell, a Columbia University graduate, for many years was active in the New York City Department of Welfare and in social research work. An applicant-type investigation conducted in 1951 developed no information which would indicate subversive affiliation by Morsell and the investigation was favorable. In his present capacity in the NAACP, he has actively supported the integration movement and in one speech in connection therewith advised he had urged Attorney General Mennedy to use force to bring the Governor of Mississippi and his henchmen to justice. He has corresponded with the Bureau on occasion requesting that the Director send messages of greeting to various NAACP functions. These requests have not been complied with.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

This source reported that the delegation of forty-one individuals will be selected by the committee and will be made up of unemployed Negroes, as well as Negroes who have professional standing in the community. Source reported that the forty-one individuals making the trip have not actually been selected as yet but that Reverend Sylvester Odom, the chairman of this committee, as well as Irving Andrews, the Colorado chairman of the NAACP, will be in the delegation.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported on August 20, 1963, that a screening committee will attempt to keep undesirable individuals out of the delegation. This source stated that undesirable individuals would include Norman Hodgett and any, other member of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

Subversive Ramifications

The first confidential source reported on August 19, 1963, that Norman Hodgett and several other members of the Denver Branch, SWP, have been attending meetings of this ad hoc committee primarily for the purpose of voting against any plans for sending the delegation from Colorado to Washington via air. Source stated that several members of the committee wanted to charter an airplane at the cost of $8,000 to take the Colorado delegation to Washington. Source advised that these plans were voted down with the assistance of Norman Hodgett and other members of the SWP.

A characterization of the Denver Branch, SWP, appears as an appendix hereto, and the sources mentioned therein have furnished reliable information in the past.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

The first source reported that Robert Trujillo, the secret temporary chairman of the Communist Party, Denver, has been attending meetings of this committee. Source reported that during discussions of the ad hoc committee on the manner of obtaining funds for the chartering of the bus, Robert Trujillo volunteered to advance to the committee the total cost of chartering the bus, i.e., $2,000. Source reported that Robert Trujillo has been asked to be a member of the delegation from Colorado.

The first source reported further that Robert Trujillo has been placed on a committee for the purpose of soliciting funds from business tirms in the penver area.

Mr. Guthman advised that the Metropolitan Police Department regularly receives requests for press passes from newspapers throughout the country so that their representatives may cover special events in Washington. He said that the practice of the Metropolitan Police Department in regard to these requests is to have Mr. Ben Gilbert, one of the editors of the Washington Post, screen the names submitted to the police to make certain that they are not objectionable and are acceptable to the Washington Press Corps. Mr. Guthman said that in connection with the 8/28/63 march on Washington the police have received a letter signed by Eric Bert, managing editor of "The Worker" in New York, requesting passes for several individuals allegedly affiliated with the paper. This request was turned over by the police in accordance with their usual custom to Gilbert who in turn called Guthman to ascertain if it was satisfactory with the Department for such passes to be issued. In connection with these passes it is noted that the holders of such are allowed to cross streets. police lines, and are given other courtesies normally afforded other working press and not to the general public. This attached data regarding these individuals has been furnished to Guthman by your office.—Mr. Guthman has further been told that as far as the FBI is concerned we can see no reason why they should have the requested press passes or be furnished any other courtesies. It was pointed out to Guthman that the Communist Party, its officials and its members have defied the Attorney General and the United States courts by refusing to register as directed under the Subversive Activities Control Act. It was also stressed to Guthman emphatically, however, that a final determination as to any action must be made by the Department.

RECOMMENDATION:

For your information.

AUGUST 28, 1963 Racial Matters

The "Morning Freiheit" in its issue of August 18, 1963, page 1, columns 1 - 3, continued on page 4, column 3, reported that the Reform Rabbis, who are affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and the Central Conference of American Rabbis, urged the members of their congregations to exert all their efforts to help the Negroes in their struggle for civil rights. It was stated that these two organizations represent 650 Reform Temples in the United States and their appeal was directed to over a million members of these Temples.

In their appeal the Rabbis called for the boycotting of all companies, banks and businesses which practice discrimination against the Negroes and urged participation in the march to Washington on August 28th.

According to instant article, the spokesmen for the Reform Rabbis at a press conference which was held on August 15, 1963, at the "House of Living Judaism," 838 Fifth Avenue, New YArk City, declared that in the march to Washington hundreds of Rabbis will participate and they will carry signs with quotes from the Torah which condemns the curse of race hatred and discrimination.

A characterization of the "Morning Freiheit" is attached.

AUGUST 28, 1963

Howard Koch, Assistant Manager, Tamiami Trail Tours, Inc., 301 Northeast 1st Street, Miami, Florida, advised on August 19, 1963, that there have been no definite commitments made by any group to reserve buses for the purpose of attending the August 28, 1963, March on Washington, D. C. He advised that several days ago he received a telephone call from (FNU) Christon who said he was with the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), inquiring as to the possibility of reserving a bus to be used by a group, believed to be CORE, to go to Washington, D. C. He inquired as to prices and time schedules but made no definite commitment.

On August 20, 1963, source 1, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is familiar with the activities of CORE, advised that CORE and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) have not reserved any buses to be used to transport people to Washington, D. C. He advised that at the present time the number of special railroad cars to be used to transport people to Washington is not known at this time, but that these cars will be moved from Miami through Florida on a regularly scheduled train of the Atlantic Coast Line.

Source 1 advised that A. D. Moore, Head of Miami Chapter of CORE, spoke to a group of people at the Jewish Culture Center (JCC) on Miami Beach, regarding the August 28, 1963, march on Washington, D. C.

A characterization of the JCC is attached to this memorandum.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

go by train to Washington, D. C., to attend the August 28, 1963, march.

Source 2, who has furnished reliable information in the past and is familiar with certain phases of Communist Party activities in the Miami, Florida, area, furnished the following information on August 20, 1963:

A meeting was called by the Inter-Racial Mother's Club (IMC) on August 16, 1963, at the JCC, Miami Beach, Florida, to make plans for delegates participating in the march on Washington.

Source 2 advised on August 20, 1963, that the IMC is a group of Negro women organized to promote the integration of races and the source knows of no infiltration or indoctrination of this organization by the Communists.

Source 2 advised that at the meeting of the IMC, Mr. Moore, President of CORE, was the speaker of the evening and spoke about the terrible injustice to the Negro people. He stated none will be free unless all are free. Esther Feldman was Chairman of the meeting. She indicated she would not be going to Washington. The functioning committee has the responsibility of making all arrangements for train accommodations for those people planning to attend the march. The train is scheduled to leave Miami at 9:30 AM on August 27, 1963, and consideration is being given to having a march in Miami to see the delegates off.

Source 2 advised that an appeal for funds was made at this meeting and over $300.00 was donated besides Source also advised that Jennie Satkin is a member of the Beach Club and Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF).

June 13, 1963, that Martha Lenchus attends meetings of the town club of ELF.

Re: Jennie Jaffee

Source 2 has advised that Jennie Jaffee has attended meetings of GMBS and ELF as recently as June, 1963. This source advised on April 8, 1963, that on April 5, 1963, Jennie Jaffee was elected and installed as Treasurer of the GMBS, which meeting was held at the JCC.

Source 3 who is familiar with Communist Party activity in the Miami area, advised on January 26, 1956, that Jennie Jaffee's Communist Party membership was transferred to Florida, date not shown.

Information set forth above was furnished to Sergeant Sapp, Intelligence Division, Miami Police Department; Lieutenant Leslie Van Buskirk, Intelligence Division, Dade County Department of Public Safety, and Cecil Cheek, INTC Group, Miami, Florida, on August 20, 1963.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

JEWISH CULTURAL CENTER (JCC)

The records of the Circuit Court, Dade County, Miami, Florida, reflect that articles of corporation were filed by the Jewish Cultural Center (JCC) and on July 13, 1949, a charter was granted it. The JCC was established as a corporation "not for profit." The general nature of the object of the JCC is to preserve and extend Jewish culture, including, without limitations, educational, theatrical, musical, scientific and literary activities.

On July 27, 1953, a source advised it is his opinion that the JCC is a local "progressive" organization not directly connected with the Communist Party, USA (CP); that the JCC was started by some local members of the CP but not, in his opinion, at the orders of the CP; and that he believes the JCC was formed in order to provide a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups."

The source advised on January 5, 1955, that the JCC continued to act as a meeting place for "progressive Jewish groups" in the Miami area, and to rent space to any group meeting that qualification. He further advised the JCC in itself is not a Communist front organization but does permit such organizations to hold meetings at the Center.

On May 23, 1963, another source advised that the JCC is dominated by Communist Party sympathizers, and it continues to permit Communist front organizations to hold meetings in the Center.

GREATER MIAMI BENEVOLENT SOCIETY (GMBS)

On April 12, 1955, a source advised that a meeting of Lodge No. 192 of the International Workers Order (IWO) in Miami Beach, Florida, was held at the Jewish Cultural Center, 429 Lenox Avenue, Miami Beach, on March 27, 1955. At that time it was decided that in view of the dissolution of the IWO by the New York State Department of Insurance, the members vote to carry on their association and activities by adopting a new name. The members decided to adopt as a new name that of the Greater Miami Benevolent Society.

The source advised on June 17, 1960, that the Greater Mismi Benevolent Society continues to carry on the same program as formerly outlined by the IWO and to have substantially the same membership.

On May 23, 1963, this source advised that the officers of the Greater Miami Benevolent Society are Communist Party sympathizers and the members for the most part are Communist Party sympathizers.

The IWO has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

EMMA LAZARUS FEDERATION OF JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUBS

"The Jewish Fraternalist" dated October, 1947, self-identified as the official publication of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the International Workers Order (IWO), on page-6,—contained an article which disclosed that the Emma Lazarus Division (ELD) of the JPFO was to hold its first national convention in New York City on November 15 and 16, 1947, after having been first established at a National Women's Conference called three years previously by the JPFO.

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 25, 1951, contained a report of the National Convention of the ELD of the JPFO which took place in New York City on January 20 and 21, 1951. At this convention it was noted that the ELD changed its name to Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) and adopted a new constitution.

On April 25, 1963, a source advised that the ELF is one of several mass organizations comprising the Jewish cultural progressive movement. June Gordon, ELF Executive Director, who is a member of the New York State Communist Party (CP) Board and Committee, is the leading force in the organization, whose leadership is largely made up of communists.

The source stated that the ELF claims to be for peace and interested in protecting the rights of the foreign born. It is against the Ben Gurion Government of Israel, bomb testing, anti-Semitism, Negro discrimination, and the rearmament of West Germany.

The source related that the ELF renders support to and receives support from the "Morning Freiheit" and other Jewish progressive organizations.

The source also stated that the ELF is recognized by the CP, USA, as an important progressive national organization of women.

The address of the national office of the ELF is 160 Fifth Avenue, Room 911, New York City.

EMMA LAZARUS FEDERATION OF JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUBS (ELF) (MIAMI, FLORIDA)

A source in Miami, Florida, advised on May 23, 1963, that there are presently three Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) in the Miami area with a total membership of 120.

This source advised that the Town Club and Miami Beach Club were formed sometime prior to 1953, exact dates unknown.

The third and newest club, the English Speaking Ciclow which meets at Miami Beach, was formed on September 20, 1960.

This source also stated that the three clubs are presently affiliated with the national organization of the ELF.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RACIAL MATTERS

On August 19, 1963, a confidential source furnished information that the Buffalo Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Buffalo, New York, is continuing to work towards its goal of 100 passengers to travel by chartered bus from Buffalo, New York, to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, for participation in the March on Washington. This source stated that as of August 19, 1963, 54 persons had paid the $15.00 bus fare being charged for the round trip and that approximately 40 other persons indicated they are going but have not definitely committed themselves by payment of the fare. This source stated that a recent newspaper article containing a statement by the Buffalo Chapter NAACP President that over 100 persons in the Buffalo area had already signed for the trip as of a few days ago was inaccurate and that there were not yet 100 persons committed. The source added, however, that it presently appears the goal of 100 passengers and possibly a few over the goal will be reached before August 28, 1963.

An article in the August 16, 1963, edition of the "Buffalo Evening News," a daily newspaper published at Buffalo, New York, reflects that according to a statement by JOSEPH L EASLEY, President of the Buffalo Chapter NAACP more than 100 persons have signed for the trip by chartered bus in order to participate in the March on Washington.

An article in the August 21, 1963, edition of the "Buffalo Evening News" sets forth a statement by JOSEPHAEASLEY that he wanted to take note of the enthusiasm being expressed by the people in the Buffalo area concerning the August 28, 1963, March on Washington, D. C., for jobs and freedom. According to EASLEY the emphasis of the March is on jobs and on the economic effect of discrimination on Negro workers. He stated that because of the high rate of unemployment on the Niagara frontier the March is of special importance to the Buffalo area.

An article in the August 21, 1963, edition of "Buffalo Courier Express," a daily newspaper published at Buffalo, New York, reflects that the Most Reverend_JAMES A.XMC NULTY, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Buffalo has appointed the Reverends PAUL EBERZ and HAROLDXNUWER of Buffalo to participate in the March on Washington on August 28, 1963.

On August 19, 1963, Mrs. ANN WOLDT, Charter Coach Department, Greyhound Lines, Inc., Buffalo, New York, furnished information that the Buffalo Chapter, NAACP still has tentative reservations for five chartered buses, 38 passengers each, for travel from Buffalo, New York, to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, departing Buffalo at 12:01 AM and starting back from Washington, D. C., at 6:00 PM, the same date.

Mrs. WOLDT stated that as of August 19, 1963, no down payment or final confirmation had been made. She stated that in her most recent contact with a representative of the NAACP she put the organization on notice, that she could not make any definite commitment as to the number of buses which would be available until the down payment is received and that in view of the information she has received from the Central Office of Greyhound Lines, Inc., regarding other commitments, the company might not be able to supply five buses at Buffalo, New York, as requested.

CONFIDENTIAL

Mrs. WOLDT added that she has also received information from the Niagara Frontier Transit System, Inc., Buffalo, New York, that the Buffalo Chapter NAACP has also tentatively reserved five buses through that company for travel to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, apparently to cover the possibility that the Greyhound buses may not be available.

On August 19, 1963, R. H. KLAGER and ALEX TRUMBULL, Charter Bus Respresentative and Vice President, respectively, of the Niagara Frontier Transit System, Inc., Buffalo, New York, furnished information that the Euffalo Chapter NAACP has made a tentative reservation with this company for five chartered buses, each to carry 36 passengers for travel from Buffalo, New York, to Washington, D. C., and return. These buses would leave at 10:00 FM on August 27, 1963, and then leave Washington D. C., for the return trip at 10:00 FM on August 28, 1963.

Mr. TRUMBULL stated that as yet no down payment has been received to finalize the reservation and that the reservation must be confirmed by a down payment sometime during the week of August 19, 1963, or the buses will not be furnished as requested.

On August 19, 1963, a second confidential source furnished information that a joint effort is continuing at Rochester, New York, in an attempt to arrange for travel of 150 passengers to Washington, D. C., from Rochester, New York, on August 28, 1963, by chartered buses for participation in the March on Washington by the following organizations:

NAACP, Rochester Chapter; Congress of Racia+ Equality, Rochester Chapter; Monroe County Non-Partisan League; Action Council of Rochester, New York; Frederick Douglas League Non-Violent Committee; Rochester Area Council of Churches

This source stated that so many different committees are involved in the effort and are so loosely coordinated that any definite computation for commitments for the trip is difficult to make, but that a preliminary informal tabulation as of August 19, 1963, indicated that 75 person from the Rochester, New York, area consisting principally of members of the above named organizations have indicated they will make the trip. The source stated it appears the goal of 150 passengers will be reached.

According to this second confidential source four buses of the Western New York Motor Lines at Rochester, New York, have been reserved for the group that will make the trip and each person will be charged $11.00 for the round trip. Efforts to chtain donations from individuals who can not make the trip to defray the expenses of others who can make the trip have produced only two or three indefinite pledges of $11.00 each.

On August 16, 1963, C. B. CLEVELAND, Charter Service Representative, Western New York Motor Lines, Rochester, New York, furnished information that a tentative reservation has been made with this company by a Mr. CHARLES SIEGEL on behalf of the Congress of Racial Equality for four buses, each carrying 41 passengers, to travel from Rochester, New York, to Washington, D. C., and return. The buses would leave Rochester, New York, at 10:00 PM, August 27, 1963, arrive in Washington, D. C., at 7:00 AM, August 28, 1963, and then leave Washington at about 6:00 PM on August 28, 1963, for the return trip to Rochester.

It was agreed that these buses will be provided on the condition that the passengers carry no baggage except their lunch and that the buses will be parked in a designated area at Washington D. C., and not be used for any type of parade. The charge for each bus is to be $427.00.

CONFIDENTIAL

On August 19, 1963, Mr. CLEVELAND stated that to date no down payment had been received and that the above mentioned reservation had not been confirmed.

On August 19, 1963, Mrs. MARY HARTRICK, Charter Service Representative for Empire State Trailways, Batavia, New York, stated that this company operates the Western New York Motor Lines of Rochester, New York, and that a request for four chartered buses has been filed in Batavia by Western New York Motor Lines for travel from Rochester, New York, to Washington, D. C., and return on August 27, 28, 1963, the reservation having been requested by the Congress of Racial Equality at Rochester, New York.

Mrs. HARTRICK stated that this is not an additional reservation and that the total number of buses requested for travel from Rochester, New York, to Washington, D. C. by the Congress of Racial Equality is four.

On August 15, 1963, and August 19, 1963, Mr. WILLIAM FUDGE, Reservation Supervisor, United Air Lines, Rochester, New York, advised that arrangements for United Air Lines charter flight 5781-28 were made at Rochester, New York, by a Mrs. TYLER, telephone number GL 8-4360, who identified herself as a representative of the International Office of the United Auto Workers (UAW) Union, and who stated to Mr. FUDGE that the flight was being financed by the International Office of the UAW at Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. TYLER told Mr. FUDGE that the 60 passengers to make the flight are officials of the UAW Unions in the Western New York State area who will attend the March on Washington, and that they are scheduled to board the flight as follows:

40 at Buffalo, New York; 10 at Rochester, New York; and 10 at Syracuse, New York.

CONFIDENTIAL

Passenger lists are to be supplied prior to departure time. Mr. FUDGE stated the flight is scheduled to leave Buffalo at 6:00 AM, stop at Rochester and Syracuse, and arrive in Baltimore, Maryland, at 9:15 AM, all on August 28, 1963. From Baltimore, Maryland, to Washington, D. C., and return the UAW delegation will be transported by buses of the Hartford Motor Coach Company.

Mr. FUDGE stated that the cost of the charter flight will be $3,086.00, plus 5 per cent tax, plus $110.00 for the bus transportation. Mrs. TYLER also advised Mr. FUDGE that details of the travel by the UAW delegation are being coordinated by Mr. WILLIAM (HILGER of the UAW at Buffalo.

The 1963 Rochester City Directory lists Mrs. ELEANORE M. TYLER, Office Secretary, International Union of United Auto Workers of America, residence 1279 Blake Avenue. Telephone number GL 8-4360 is listed in the Rochester, New York, Telephone Directory for the United Auto Workers Union.

On August 19, 1963, a third confidential source furnished information that during the past several weeks the various UAW locals in the Western New York area have received information that the International Office of the UAW is financing the travel of a delegation from various UAW locals in the Western New York area to attend the March on Washington at Washington, D. C.

The source advised that a United Air Lines plane has been chartered and will leave Buffalo at 6:00 AM, August 28, 1963. The source advised that 40 individuals from Buffalo, New York, area, consisting of the President, the Shop Committee Chairman and other ranking officers of each UAW local, depending on the size of the local, are being designated to make the trip. Ten UAW local union officers are to join the flight at Rochester, New York, and ten more are to board the flight at Syracuse, New York.

CONFIDENTIAL

This third confidential source stated that. through his own connection with the labor movement in the Western New York area during the past several years he has come to know the identity of those individuals active in the labor movement reputed as having some connection with the Communist Party or . other "subversive" organizations. He pointed out that no individuals of this type to his knowledge are included in the UAW delegation which will be travelling to Washington, D. C., from the Buffalo area for participation in the March on Washington. He stated that leaders of the UAW local union in the Buffalo, New York, area have commented about the fact that they are making every possible effort to avoid any reputed or suspected "subversives" from becoming part of the UAW delegation.

An article in the August 20, 1963, edition of the "Buffalo Courier Express" reflects that WILLIAM S. HILGER, an International Representative of the UAW in the Buffalo, New York, area, will head a delegation of 48 UAW staff representatives and local presidents from Western New York to participate in the Civil Rights demonstration in Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963. The article contains information the the delegation will leave in a chartered plane from Buffalo early on August 28, 1963, and pick up five more UAW leaders in Rochester and seven in Syracuse.

On August 14, 1963, a third confidential source furnished information that four members of the Elmira, New York, Chapter, NAACP, will travel to Washington, D. C., by private automobile on August 28, 1963, to attend the March on Washington and that traveling with them will be a Professor THOMAS (ROBISCHON of Elmira College, Elmira, New York, who, although not a NAACP member has expressed a desire to participate in the March. The source stated these individuals intend to remain in Washington, D. C., for part of the day on August 28, 1963, and will start back for Elmira on the same day.

CONFIDENTIAL.

On August 15, 1963, a fifth confidential source advised that on that date ROSEMARY NEIDENBERG stated she had made a reservation for herself and her husband MILTON NEIDENBERG to travel to Washington, D. C., for the March on Washington on buses being chartered for the trip by the Buffalo Chapter NAACP. She stated she had made the reservation by telephoning the person named in the newspaper as being in charge of reservations.

According to the fifth confidential source Resemany Neidenberg stated also that Eddie and Jeanette Merrill are going to be in the Boston, Massachusetts, area on vacation in late August, 1963, and will proceed to Washington, D. C., for the March from there. The source also advised that ROSEMARY NEIDENBERG stated that she had been told by MILTON NEIDENBERG that if anyone made any inquiry of her for details about the trip to Washington, D. C., they should be told that their group is sending no private cars and that anyone who wants to go can make his own arrangements to travel on the chartered NAACP buses.

According to a sixth confidential source, MILTON NEIDENBERG is currently Organizer of the Buffalo Branch Workers Word Party (WWP); ROSEMARY NEIDENBERG is a member of the Buffalo Branch of the WWP; EDWARD WESLEY MERRILL, as of July, 1963, was a WWP member at Buffalo, New York, and a member of the National WWP Committee; JEANETTE MERRILL, as of July, 1963, was a member of the Buffalo Branch WWP Executive Committee.

On August 16, 1963, a seventh confidential source furnished information that at a meeting of the Erie County Communist Party (ECCP) held on that date at Euffalo, New York, it was decided that the ECCP should at least have a small delegation to attend the March on Washington and to observe what transpires. It was decided that this delegation can travel to Washington, D. C., on buses being chartered for that purpose by the Buffalo Chapter of the NAACP. As a result of discussion which followed, ROSE TOURALCHUK and IVORYAMC KENZIE, both currently members of the ECCP, agreed to make the trip to Washington and to pay the cost of their travel, which is $15.00 each. It was also decided that a third ECCP member will be designated to go and that the cost of travel via chartered bus for this third individual will be paid by the ECCP.

According to this seventh confidential source no particular instructions were given to the ECCP members who will attend the March on Washington, except that they should observe what transpires.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member, SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty - bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1962, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On April 18, 1962, the source stated that the head-quarters of the Workers World Party were located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO, aka. Du Bois Youth Group, San Francisco Du Bois Club, San Francisco Du Bois Youth Group, Student-Labor Alliance

A source advised that on January 31, 1963, the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco held its first general meeting at California Hall, Polk and Turk Streets, San Francisco, California. The aims of the club were put forth as follows:

- 1 alleviate the Negro problem in the U.S.
- 2 promote peaceful co-existence between the U.S. and Russia.
 - 3 promote and encourage Marxist doctrines and to bring about a socialistic government in the U.S.

This organization publishes a newsletter entitled, "San Francisco News & World Report." In its first issue, dated March 3, 1963, there was set forth a "Proposed Statement of Principles" in which the aforementioned aims were elaborated upon.

In this same issue of the "San Francisco News & World Report," the lead editorial in part describes the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco as "...a group of young people who are convinced that Socialism is the only answer to the many problems of our time and so find philosophical rapport with the life and thought of Dr. Du Bois, nevertheless we are weighted with humility in comparing our goals and ambitions with the genius of his life and work. As a source of inspiration the figure of W.E.B. Du Bois is unequaled in American history, but as a standard and example, we seem miserably lost in his shadow. We can only resolve that we do his name no dishonor, and whatever we may accomplish should be recognized as a supplement to his life work."

The November 25, 1961, issue of the "People's World," a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California, contains an

The same source advised that as of May, 1963, the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco has no permanent head-quarters, but the majority of its general meetings are held on Sunday afternoon at 307 Page Street, Apartment 3, San Francisco, California.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 21, 1963, that Irving Andrews, Chairman of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Reverend L. Sylvester Odom, Denver, Colorado, advised source during the late afternoon of August 20, 1963, that they had been dedeavoring to organize a Colorado delegation to participate in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. said they had been holding meetings at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Denver, and a group of people, some of whom they believe may be Communists, are attempting to take over the leadership of the Colorado delegation. Mr. Andrews and the Reverend Odom advised source these individuals are Ron Dorfman, who is connected with the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (IUMMSW), Denver; Linda Perlstein, who alleged recently came to Denver from Chicago, Illinois; Norman Hodgett, Jan Phillips and (first name unknown) Trujillo. Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

Andrews and Odom advised source that a friend of Harry Nier has also offered to contribute $1,000 toward the cost of the Colorado delegation's trip to Washington, D. C. They stated that the above-named individuals plan to ride the bus to Washington, D. C.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, and is cognizant of present plans of the Colorado delegation, advised on August 21, 1963, that a meeting will be held this evening to determine how much money has been collected for bus transportation to Washington and return for the Colorado delegation.

The second source identified (FNU) Trujillo as Robert Trujillo, temporary chairman of the Communist Party, USA, Denver; Norman Hodgett as Assistant Organizer, Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP); Jan Phillips and I Linda Perlstein as members of the Congress of Racial Equality. Source does not know Dorfman. Source identified Harry Nier as Chairman of the Denver Chapter, Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC).

Ronald Dorfman is Assistant Editor of the IUMMSW newspaper at Denver and is a recent arrival from Chicago.

The second source advised that Trujillo stated his offer to loan $2,000 to the committee for the cost of transportation has not as yet been accepted by the committee as $1,200 has already been pledged by other individuals.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

Characterizations of the Denver Branch, SWP; Denver Chapter, FPCC; and the IUMMSW appear as appendices hereto and the sources mentioned therein have furnished reliable information in the past.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC) DENVER CHAPTER

A source advised on December 15, 1960, that a meeting was held at the headquarters of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), on December 10, 1960, for the purpose of establishing a Denver chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. HOWARD WALLACE acted as chairman and an organizing committee was appointed.

HOWARD WALLACE has been identified by a source as a member of the Denver Branch, SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source, on May 9, 1961, advised that on May 5, 1961, the Denver Chapter, FPCC, was formed with the following elected officers:

HARRY KAUFMAN NIER, Jr., Chairman T. E. "DUKE" ROBERTSON, Jr., Secretary NORMAN HODGETT, Treasurer

NORMAN HODGETT has been identified by a source as a member of the Denver Branch, SWP.

The Denver Chapter, FPCC, has publicly announced as its purpose to help bring to light the truth about Cuba. It has indicated the FPCC is virtually the sole organized source of critical dissent from American-Cuban policy in the United States. Announced aims of FPCC are to end the ban imposed by the U.S. Government on travel to Cuba, to present those aspects of events in Cuba which the press in this country ignores, and to work toward re-establishment of diplomatic relations and travel between the United States and Cuba.

A source advised in April, 1962, that the Denver Chapter, FPCC, had almost ceased to exist at that time, but in June, 1962, stated that at a meeting of the Denver Branch.

SWP, HOWARD WALLACE proposed to reactivate the Denver Chapter, FPCC. Source advised that thereafter the Denver Chapter, FPCC, placed an advertisement in a Denver daily newspaper on June 21, 1962, concerning the travel ban to Cuba, sponsored several open meetings concerning the travel ban to Cuba, and sponsored the appearance of VINCENT TED LEE, National Director, FPCC, in Boulder and Denver, Colorado, during April, 1963.

JNTERNATIONAL UNION OF MINE, MILL ND SMELTER WORKERS (IUMMSW)

The 1955 edition of the Directory of National and International Labor Unions in the United States, U. S. Department of Labor Bulletin Number 1185, pages 3 and 4, reflects that the IUMMSW was expelled from the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO) on February 15, 1950, for being Communist dominated.

APPENDIX

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY - DENVER BRANCH

A source advised in June, 1960, that as of May 24, 1960, the National Office, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), notified SWP members in Denver, Colorado, that they had fulfilled the constitutional requirements for the establishment of a branch and would thereafter be designated as such.

A source advised on May 28, 1963, that the Denver Branch, SWP, collects dues from members, sends a portion thereof to the National Office, SWP, and follows instructions set forth by national officials of the SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

There are enclosed herewith nine copies for the Bureau, and four copies for WFO of a letterhead memorandum pertaining to developments to date in the plans of the Minnesota March to Washington Committee. The attached memorandum has been classified confidential since it contains information from MP T-1, which, if disseminated, could lead to the identification of this informant and impair her future effectiveness.

The attention of the Bureau and Washington Field is directed to the fact that JAMES LUGER, referred to in the attached memorandum as a passenger aboard the chartered plane, is a PSI of this division, symbol number MP 2359-S. He has been alerted to observe any evidences of Communist or otherwise subversive activities either aboard the plane or during the time the groups spend in Washington.

With reference to Chicago teletype to the Bureau, Buffalo, Cleveland, Minneapolis and WFO dated 8/15/63, concerning the Chicago International Program for Youth Leaders and Social Workers, inquiry was made at United Airlines, Minneapolis, where it was learned from VANCE H. HARMON on August 19, 1963, that a group of 25 individuals had a reservation on a United Airlines flight to Chicago on 8/25/63. The group intended to depart from

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RACIAL MATTERS

On August 20, 1963, MP T-1 advised as follows:

A meeting of a select group of the Minnesota March to Washington Committee was held during the evening of August 20, 1963, at Minneapelis, Minnesota. At this time the final selection, so far as possible, was made of persons who will be granted passage on the chartered American Airlines plane, which is scheduled to leave Minneapelis, Minnesota, at 3:00 a.m., August 28, 1963, for Washington, D. C., and to return to Minneapelis from Washington, D. C., at or about 7:30 p.m., on August 28, 1963.

During the course of this meeting it was decided that only 58 seats would be allocated. A previously held idea that some 90 reservations would be sold, thus necessitating a larger plane, was abandoned.

While the select group was passing on applicants for seats on the plane, a phone call was received by one of the members, presumably from Matthew Little, who has been a leader in the committee, who requested the name of Rose Renaud, also known as Rose Tillotson, be deleted from the passenger list. Hr. Little reportedly made this request because Rose Renaud was a leader locally of the Communist Party (CP). Rose Renaud, in fact, is the secretary of the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Cramunist Party, USA (MDDCP). Mr. Little also requested that to name of Oscar M. Mahlke, of Excelsior, Minnesota, be deleted from those assigned a seat. This again was apparently because information indicating that Mr. Mahlke had had some Communist affiliations.

On January 4, 1963, Norman John Boehnke advised that at a meeting of the MDDCP at the residence of Betty Smith, Minneapolis, Minnesota, on December 20, 1962, it was stated by those present that Oscar M. Mahlke was a member of Ralph Taylor's CP group. Norman Boehnke testified in behalf of the Government at a Subversive Activities Control Board Hearing at Washington, D. C., on January 29, 1963.

On August 20, 1963, MP T-2 advised that Betty Smith was a leading member of and Ralph Taylor was chairman of the MDDCP.

The approved list of persons travelling on the chartered plane, together with three individuals travelling independently but still considered a part of the Minnesota March to Washington Committee group, are set forth hereafter in this memorandum.

On August 21, 1963, MP T-3 advised as follows:

John Howard Tillotson, the grandson of Rose Renaud, is currently at a camp in New Jersey. John Tillotson plans to travel from New Jersey to Washington, to participate in the March on Washington. Robert Baum, a "chum" of John Tillotson, is also going to participate in the march.

(Robert Baum is listed hereafter as a passenger on the chartered airline, and will be characterized below.)

MP T-4 advised on July 3, 1963, that John Tillotson attended the annual Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) school from June 25, 1963, to June 30, 1963, at Camp Midvale, Wanaque, New Jersey. (The PYOC is characterized in the appendix.)

John Tillotson planned to remain at Camp Midvale until the end of August, 1963.

On August 20, 1963, MP T-2 advised that John Howard Tillotson is the grandson of Rose Renaud, secretary of the MDDCP. He recalled that some months ago a member of the MDDCP was requested by Rose Renaud to indoctrinate John Howard Tillotson into the Communist ideology.

On August 21, 1963, MP T-1 made available the list of approved passengers to travel to Washington and return on August 28, 1963, on the American Airlines plane chartered by the Minnesota March to Washington Committee. The list as submitted by her, is set out next below. Those names which are preceded by an asterisk will be characterized following the list.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

This third source advised that the bus will leave Denver early on August 25, 1963, and will arrive in Washington during the morning of August 28, 1963. The individuals in the bus plan to remain overnight at St. Joseph, Missouri, Indianapolis, Indiana, and Wheeling, West Virginia. Source stated that as they will have only one bus driver, that driver requires a ten-hour stop each evening.

Source advised that the screening committee is made up of James Reynolds, Negro, Director, Colorado Anti-Discrimination Commission; Reverend Sylvester Odom, Negro, chairman of the delegation; Norman Rodgett, white; Solomon Leroy Pelham, Negro; Irving Andrews, Negro, chairman, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Mrs. Jan Phillips, white, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) representative; Mrs. Ruth Briscoe, Negro, CORE representative.

On August 22, 1963, James F. Reynolds, Director, Colorado State Anti-Discrimination Commission, advised that he was concerned that Robert Trujillo had taken over a prominent part in the March on Washington movement. He stated that Trujillo had made a contribution of $100.00 in May to send delegates to Birmingham, and also about a week later contributed another $100.00. In addition to this, Trujillo contributed $25.00 to CORE at Denver to help get started the March on Washington movement. In addition, Trujillo has given checks for three fourths of the cost of the Trailways bus for the trip to Washington. Reynolds stated that in addition to Trujillo, he is concerned that Harry Nier, who is the leader of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) movement in Denver, plans to be on the bus. Reynolds stated that the present thinking is to send young people and those who are unemployed on the bus and that they would be screened carefully and would pledge that they would obey the leaders and conduct themselves in a nonviolent manner. He stated theré would be a leader responsible for each ten people on the bus.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

The second source has identified HARRY NIER as Chairman of the Denver Chapter, FPCC.

On August 21, 1963, PD Tl advised that "Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee" (FSNVCC) was the only group in Portland, Oregon, which was trying to promote mass Oregon participation in the March On Washington (MOW). The latter organization was informally organized in Portland on August 3, 1963, and has about 35 participants. The organization is acting as a clearing house and coordinating group for organizations and individuals who desire to contribute money to participate in MOW.

The FSNVCC has deposited $500 for a chartered Greyhound Bus to depart Portland at 4 am, August 25, 1963 for a round trip to Washington for Portland MOW participants. The bus would arrive Washington 5 am, August 28 and depart 9 pm same date for Portland.

FSNVCC has agreed to pay approximately $3100 for the charter, amounting to 33 fares at $96 each. In addition to the $500 deposited, the group must pay a balance of $2600 by August 24, 1963. On August 21, 1963, the group had only a total of $708 in donation from various individuals and churches. Only ten persons had agreed to make the bus trip—mainly Caucasian—some of whom would pay their own fare.

PD T1 advised that LARRY GORDON, Portland, and VALERIE TAYLOR, North Bend, Oregon, will travel on the FSNVCC

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 POSSIBLE SUBVERSIVE INFLUENCE

August 23, 1963

SYNOPSIS

The March on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1963, which has created nationwide interest, is being actively supported by various legitimate nonsubversive religious, fraternal, civil and labor organizations.

Current information developed as a result of our investigation of the Communist Party (CP), USA, activities does not indicate that this event was actually initiated by or is controlled by the CP. However, it is pertinent to note that when Martin Luther King, Jr., one of the leaders of the March, first conceived the idea of organizing the March on Washington, he discussed the matter with Stanley David Levison, a concealed CP member, and sought Levison's advice as to whether the time was right for such a move. Levison agreed "The time is now." The fact that King consulted Levison assumes additional significance in the light of information we received from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past to the effect that in May, 1962, a national functionary of the CPUSA commented that Stanley Levison, by reason of his association with the Martin Luther King movement, was doing the most important work in the Party at that time. With respect to Levison's Party connection, we received information in June, 1963, that although he still has strong communist convictions and still acts as an effective Party advisor to King, he has become critical of the Party's role in the civil rights movement. Levison said he does not consider himself to be under the control of the Party with respect to his dealings with King.

The Party is actively supporting the March, in spite of its awareness of a public statement by leaders of the March that they did not want "any communists." CP support of the March is manifested by endorsement of the March in the communist press to foster the illusion that the CP is a humanitarian group acting in the interest of the Negro, and by Party leadership urging rank-and-file CP members to clandestinely participate in the March. This clandestine participation is a Party tactic which is apparently being used in order not to alienate the organizations sponsoring the March since the Party views this event as a golden opportunity to reach a growing powerful mass movement for Negro civil rights.

The Party plans to distribute openly its literature, including 10,000 copies of a planned special edition of "The Worker," east coast communist newspaper, to March participants in various locations outside of Washington, D. C. In addition, the Party hopes to sell 10,000 of its pamphlets. No distribution of Party literature is planned in Washington, D. C., in deference to public announcements by leaders of the March that there is to be no literature of any type distributed in Washington during the March.

Coverage of communist activity in connection with the March is planned at present through six Bureau security informants who are coming to the March with local groups.

American communists in Mexico are supporting the March, including the collection of funds for the purpose of sending telegrams to March on Washington headquarters.

Endorsement of the March has been announced by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) (cited as subversive under Executive Order 10450) and instructions calling for participation have been issued by the Workers World Party (WWP), a splinter group of the SWP. No information has been received to indicate that Elijah Muhammad, leader of Nation of Islam (NOI), an all-Negro antiwhite cult, or NOI members plan to participate, although as with any large Negro gathering, the possibility exists that some members of the NOI will march as individuals.

CP leaders have stressed the fact that the March is not the be all and end all in itself. Events which subsequently flow from the March will be of utmost importance, such as following up on contacts now being made by CP members working in support of the demonstration. Utilizing the March, the Party has three basic general objectives:

- (1) Participation by CP members through legitimate organizations.
- (2) Attempt to get the Party line into the hands of sympathizers and supporters of the March through distribution of "The Worker" and Party pamphlets.
- (3) Utilize the March as a steppingstone for future Party activity through contacts now being made by Party members involved in the March.

It remains to be seen to what extent the Party will be successful in translating its efforts stated above into concrete results.

DETAILS

Utilization of the March to Further Aims of the Communist Party

The March on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1963, is an event which has created national interest and is being supported by such nonsubversive organizations as the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, Catholic Interracial Council, State Association of the Elks and the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches. The Communist Party (CP), USA, although it did not initiate nor is it controlling the March, is using this event for the purpose of promoting its own interest.

It is pertinent to note here, however, the conversation Martin Luther King, Jr., one of the March leaders, had with Stanley David Levison, a secret member of the Party, on June 1, 1963. It is known to us that Levison and King have been in contact with each other since December, 1956. early as September, 1958, Levison was described as one of King's chief assistants who spent considerable time advising and helping King, At one time, Levison and his brother, who is known as Roy Bennett, were organizers for the CP in New York. They are both currently known as secret members of the Party and in past years Levison and his brother, Roy Bennett, both have been heavy financial contributors to the CP. During the afore-mentioned conversation, King commented he had never seen the Negro community as aroused, as determined, and as enthusiastic as at that time. He said that "We are on the threshold of a significant breakthrough and the greatest weapon is mass demonstration." King added "We are at the point where we can mobilize all of this righteous indignation into a powerful mass movement." King suggested that there be a mass march of literally thousands and thousands of people on Washington. King said that even the threat of such a march might so frighten the President that he would have to do something. He asked Levison "Are we ready for that." In reply, Levison said two things would have to be considered: (1) There would have to be unanimity among all groups. (2) Would more pressure be generated on Washington by a series of local situations rather than by one mass march on Washington. King answered at length and was in favor of one mass march. He said he envisioned such an event would create such an impact that "something would have to give." He again asked Levison if the time was right for such a move. then agreed "The time is now."

Clarence Jones, Acting Executive Director of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, who was a participant in the conversation, suggested that King discuss his proposal with Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, NAACP, and A. Philip Randolph, President of the International Brother-hood of Sleeping Car Porters, before any announcement is made publicly concerning a mass march on Washington. At that point, King suggested that either Levison or Jones see A. Philip Randolph and that a statement be worked out along the lines of the new militancy throughout the country.

During the discussion, it was indicated that Clarence Jones had attended a meeting at which the National Council of Churches had expressed an interest in King's direct action approach. Levison asked Jones whether it would be possible to quote individuals without mentioning names who had attended the meeting as "this is new when white church leadership is looking for something in the way of direct action." Levison said this would give it the biggest, broadest front ever as "you can see the effect of Negroes joined by the National Council of Churches and not just Negro churches." The significance of this conversation is apparent when consideration is given to the fact that when King first was considering a march on Washington, he discussed it in detail with his contact in the CP and sought the advice of this communist as to whether the time was right for such a march. Additional significance can be attached to this conversation in the light of information we received from a source who has furnished reliable information in the past to the effect that in May, 1962, a national functionary of the CPUSA commented that Stanley Levison, by reason of his association with the Martin Luther King movement, was doing the most important work in the Party at that time. Information received in June, 1963, indicated that while Levison still retains his strong communist convictions and still acts as an effective Party advisor to King, he is becoming critical of the Party's role in the relationship. He believes the Party has lost prestige among Negroes lately because it has not been sufficiently aggressive and effective in promoting civil rights for the Negro and otherwise immersing itself in Negro causes. Levison said he does not consider himself to be under the control of the Party with respect to his dealings with King.

on August 2, 1963, CP-leaders in New York City—stated that the leaders of the March have not invited the Party to participate and in addition have publicly stated they did not want "any communists."

James E. Jackson, Editor of "The Worker," east coast communist newspaper, at a meeting of the CP National board held in July, 1963, commented on the Negro struggle and stated that "we" have to see in this the opportunity to build up friends with the objective of bringing them into the Party.

The possibilities inherent in this March as seen by the Party are indicated in a statement made by Gus Hall, CP General Secretary, in speaking to approximately 70 communists or communist sympathizers in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 31, 1963. He described the March as an indication of a peaceful transition toward socialism and, according to Hall, it is imperative that as many white people as possible participate. On August 2, 1963, Hall commented that the Party should not give the appearance that it is "taking over." (Along this line, Party leaders in early August, 1963, urged rank-and-file CP members to clandestinely participate in the March through legitimate organizations.)

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries, New York City, August 14, 1963, Phil Bart, CP National Organization Secretary, stated that there never has been a comparable figure in the past wherein hundreds of communists will actually be together with tens of thousands of others, as will take place in the March. Bart called for efforts to work with the idea of establishing connection with this new force. At this same meeting, Joseph Brandt, CP national functionary, commented that the Party has blended itself into this "movement" and, because persons in the March will be listening to our people, the question now arises as to what can be done with these people after the March.

From information we have received, it is apparent the Party anticipates that participation by its members in this event, which it feels is of great historical significance, will subsequently be used as a vehicle to reach a new massive force. Association with March sympathizers could well serve as components of a future picture painted by the Party, featuring itself as the champion of the Negro cause.

Party Program

As early as June, 1963, some semblance of a Party program began to jell and was outlined in an article appearing in the June 23, 1962, issue of "The Worker." This article suggested a program based on a report adopted at a recent national gathering of communist leaders. It called for:

(1) direct, mass, peaceful action pursued through the Negro people and their organizations; and (2) the support of white allies, beginning with organized labor. Included in the proposals were the withholding of Federal funds from states—which deny constitutional rights to its citizens; a petition to the Supreme Court to set a time limit of January 1, 1964, for compliance with its 1954 decision on the desegregation of public schools; and, if necessary, the federalization of the State National Guards.

By July 15, 1963, the Party had issued two directives "TO ALL (CP) DISTRICTS." One referred to an article in a recent issue of "The Worker" by James Jackson, which identified the "Dixiecrat" politicians and the "Northern Republican ultra-Rightists" as the enemies of the Negro movement. The "Directive" urged Party members to order reprints of this article for mailing to influential figures in Negro organizations, trade unions, fraternal orders and churches. The other "Directive" urged Party support of the March, which it described as "an event of the greatest historic importance."

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries in New York City on August 1, 1963, William Albertson, member of the CP National Board, stated that the Party must show the best of everything including the best picket lines and the best cadre fighting. He proposed that the Party open up a special headquarters in Washington, D. C. (This headquarters had not opened as of August 22, 1963.) At this same meeting, Jack Stachel, member of the CP National Executive Committee, commented that "we" decided that "we" will participate in the March by organizing a minimum of 100 people and by organizing pressure groups from New Jersey, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Participation of CP National Leaders

CP national leaders planning to attend the March include the following:

James Jackson, CP National Secretary for the South and Editor of "The Worker"

N.Y D.C

Louis Weinstock, CP National Committee member and Business Manager of "The Worker" Ny D.

William Patterson, Chairman, New York CP District

Thomas Dennis, Organizational Secretary, Michigan Mich D. C. CP District

Participation of Rank-and-File Party Members

While leaders of all major Party districts discussed participation in the March on Washington, actual organized participation is receiving its largest support in the New York City and Philadelphia areas.

In New York the 11th Assembly District CP Club, which had been advised that the CP should not be directly identified with the March but should participate in other groups, was making arrangements by August 7, 1963, for rail transportation to Washington. Five members of the Club pledged their attendance. Three members of the CP Peace Club, Brooklyn, New York, planned to participate in the March and will travel to Washington by train with a group from the 17th Assembly District, Brooklyn, New York. On August 7, 1963, it was reported that 100 members of the New York City Emma/Lazarus Federation of Jewish Womens Clubs, whose leadership consists largely of communists, will go to Washington by train. Steve Gordon, a CP member in New York as of DC January, 1963, is in charge of chartering a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) bus and recruiting persons to accompany the group. Jane Benedict, a member of the New York County CP as of March, 1959, and Chairman of the Metropolitan Council on Housing (MCOH), 1) a federation of tenant organizations in the New York City area, announced that four buses have been reserved for the MCOH delegation and that both she and Frances Goldin, CP member in New York as of April, 1962, plan to attend. On August 12, 1963, information was received that a group of New Jersey CP members planned to depart Lakewood, New Jersey, by his on the early morning of August 28, 1963, for Washington. The bus was chartered by an unidentified group.

In Philadelphia, the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC), which was initiated and founded by the CP of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware in October, 1962, decided on July 22, 1963, that it would take up the task of contacting people who would not be contacted by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and CORE. The ICC pledged two bus loads.

The Ad Hoc Committee concerning the March, which was set up in Philadelphia by the Socialist Youth Union (SYU), July, 1963, the Philadelphia affiliate of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC), is now known as the Philadelphia Youth Committee for Jobs and Freedom March." The PYOC was formed under the direction of the CPUSA, January, 1961, for the purpose of establishing a national youth group. The SYU expects to fill three buses.

In Detroit on July 17, 1963, Carl Winter, CP functionary, advised that the Party is not happy with President Kennedy's speaking out in favor of the demonstration since this will insure its peacefulness and diminish CP participation. In late July, 1963, William Allan, CP member, Michigan, stated that every Party club organization should try to recruit for the March and he hopes to see at least one chartered bus and several car loads of marchers from the west go to Washington.

In Chicago, Illinois, Claude Lightfoot, Chairman of the CP in Illinois and a National Vice-Chairman, stated in early August, 1963, that the CP of Illinois is attempting to get 500 white persons to go to Washington.

In Los Angeles, California, at a meeting of the Jewish Commission, Southern California District CP (SCDCP), on August 5, 1963, a recommendation was made for the SCDCP to send a representative to Washington on August 28. Ben Dobbs, Executive Secretary, SCDCP, had stated on July 30, 1963, that the SCDCP would not directly support the March by paying transportation costs due to lack of funds.

The Virginia CP State Executive Committee on July 14, 1963, proposed that work should begin on getting a delegation to go to Washington as participants or as onlookers.

In Seattle, Washington, the CP leaders of the Central District Youth Club are attempting to raise money with an apparent objective to cover expenses of bus transportation for a group to attend the March. According to a source, NAACP leaders in the State of Washington are having nothing to do with the communists.

Use of Party Literature

Much attention has been given the use of Party literature and a special edition of "The Worker" is being planned in connection with the March. Stachel, on August 7, 1963, proposed to leading CP functionaries that "The Worker" and other literature be distributed to delegations to the March. This was accepted but with the qualification that no distribution would be made during progress of the March. Louis Weinstock, General Manager of "The Worker," who originally planned to go to Washington on August 27, 1963, with 1,000 copies of "The Worker" in the trunk of his car, proposed, on August 14, 1963, that 10,000 copies of "The Worker" be distributed at bus and train terminals since there is to be no distribution in Washington, D. C. He also proposed that 10,000 pamphlets be sold at concentration points on the morning of August 28, 1963, and the remainder be sold after the demonstration.

Support of March by American Communists in Mexico

A group of American communists in Mexico are working actively to support the March. They have revived temporarily a defunct organization known as the League for Defense of Negroes and have been collecting funds to send telegrams of encouragement to the Washington headquarters for the March. Individuals in the group are writing the telegrams and attempting to secure on them the signatures of well-known persons in Mexico. To date, they have succeeded in obtaining the signatures of a number of prominent personalities, including that of the former Mexican President, Lazaro Cardenas. Haywood Hall, described as one of the most militant members of the group, reportedly has left Mexico City already with intentions of joining the March, and Albert Maltz, one of the well-known "Hollywood Ten," reportedly also plans to travel to Washington to take part in the demonstration.

FBI Coverage of CP Participation in March

Six security informants from various offices are scheduled to attend the March. These informants have been instructed to promptly furnish the Washington Field Office with all pertinent developments pertaining to communist efforts to influence the March.

Subversive Connections of Certain Leaders of March

Certain leaders of the March have some subversive connections. This has been covered in a separate memorandum, Scatterday to Rosen, dated August 20, 1963, captioned "March on Washington, August 28, 1963, Summaries Re Principals Involved," Scopy of which is attached.

Participation of Other Subversive Groups

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP), designated under Executive Order 10450, at its National Convention in July, 1963, officially endorsed the March as part of its policy to link the SWP with the struggle of the Negro people. The Workers World Party (WWP) issued instructions that all individuals attending the forthcoming national WWP conference in New York City should participate in the March. The WWP split from the SWP in 1959.

While there may be members of the Nation of Islam (NOI), an all-Negro, antiwhite cult which seeks separation of the races, participating in the March as individuals, as of August 14, 1963, there were no indications that Elijah Muhammad, the leader of the NOI, planned to be in Washington on that date or that the NOI planned to participate in the March in any way.

It is anticipated members of the NOI in Washington may attempt to sell copies of "Muhammad Speaks," NOI newspaper, during the March.

Evaluation of Party Influence and its Utilization of the March

Realizing that plans for the March on Washington are obviously being carried on successfully by other organizations, the Party is making an all-out effort to take advantage of this opportunity to further its cause. The Party has three basic objectives:

- (1) Participation by CP members through legitimate organizations
- (2) Attempt to get the Party line into the hands of sympathizers and supporters of the March through distribution of "The Worker" and Party pamphlets
- (3) Utilize the March as a steppingstone for future Party activity through contacts now being made by Party members involved in the March

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

On August 23, 1963, Mrs. Glenna Smith, 609 Main Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio, telephonically advised a Special Agent of the F.B.I. that she is the secretary of the Belmont County Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). She stated that the Belmont County Chapter, NAACP, along with the Ohio County Chapter, NAACP, Wheeling, West Virginia, have formed a March on Washington committee for the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. She continued that she had just received a telephone call from "The Intelligencer", a daily Wheeling, West Virginia, newspaper, advising her that one member of the committee, Genne Kuhn, 610 Front Street, Wheeling Island, West Virginia, was reportedly a member of the Communist Party. Mrs. Smith stated that Genne Kuhn is a member of the Ohio County Chapter, NAACP, but Mrs. Smith and other members of the Belmont County Chapter, NAACP, had never before received any information indicating that Kuhn was a member of the Communist Party.

Mrs. Smith voluntarily stated that her Chapter was concerned because they did not want anyone on the committee who might have communist connections.

The Communist Party, U.S.A., (CP), has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On August 23, 1963, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a Special Agent of the F.B.I. that a member of the Ohio Valley Section of the CP received, on August 22, 1963, an envelope with the return address of HX Carter, March on Washington Committee, 525 Vine Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio. Source stated that the envelope contained a mimeograph form letter seeking contributions and reservations for a chartered bus to take a local delegation to the March on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1963. The form letter stated that the delegation will have, among others, unemployed adults and young people. Among the members of the committee listed handling arrangements and publicity for this affair is Genne Kuhn, who has, im the past, been identified by source as the Chairman of the Ohio Valley Section of the CP. At the bottom of the mimeographed letter was a note written by Genne Kuhn which indicated that she considers her work on this committee to be important.

On August 23, 1963, a second source advised a Special Agent of the F.B.I. that approximately 50 persons from the Steubenville area are expected to attend the August 28, 1963, March on Washington. Source stated that this number is not definite but most of the people going from Steubenville are expected to drive in automobiles to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and board a special train for Washington. He stated that the train will leave Pittsburgh between 1:45 A.M. and 2:15 A.M. on August 28, 1963. He did not know the time that the train would arrive in Washington, but stated that the train is expected to leave Washington at about 7:00 P.M. on August 28, 1963, for the return trip.

On May 2, 1959, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed Morris Weiss at the May Day rally sponsored by the Trade Union Committee, 1959 May Day Celebration at Union Square, New York, New York.

TRADE UNION COMMITTEE 1959 MAY DAY CELEBRATION

On November 13, 1958, a source advised that during a meeting of the State Staff of the New York State Communist Party (CP) held on November 13, 1958, at CP headquarters, 23 West 26th Street, New York City, the question of May Day was raised. It was decided that they should start early and named LOUIS WEINSTOCK to be in charge of the committee to lay the foundation.

The February 22, 1959, issue of "The Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, on page 16, announced a conference for March 7, 1959, at Adelphi Hall, 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, for May Day plans. The announcement stated "commemoration of May Day is being planned by a group of trade unionists it was disclosed last week by the Sponsoring Committee for a May Day Celebration."

The March 15, 1959, issue of "The Worker," on page 5, contained an article concerning the above conference reflecting that May Day would be celebrated in Union Square and that LOUIS WEINSTOCK was elected Chairman of the Committee.

On April 22, 1959, another source made available a throw-away announcing that May Day would be celebrated on May 2, 1959, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Union Square under the sponsorship of the Trace Union Committee 1959 May Day Celebration, Room 3, 130 East 16th Street, New York City.

On December 9, 10, 1958, another source advised that LOUIS WEINSTOCK was then a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CP), representing the New York District of the CP.

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On August 23, 1963, PD T-1 advised "Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee" (FSNVCC), a. group newly organized to promote participation from. Portland, Oregon, in the March on Washington (MOW), had this date succeeded in obtaining enough paying participants and donations from others to finance a Greyhound bus for a round-trip to Washington. The bus will depart Portland at 4:00 a.m., Sunday, August 25, 1963, and arrive in Washington at 5:00 a.m., August 28, 1963. It will return to Portland, leaving Washington at 9:00 p.m., August 28, 1963, the day of the March. Approximately ten to fifteen persons from Seattle, Washington, are joining the bus in Portland and the remaining participants on instant bus will be from Oregon. It is expected that a total of 38 participants will be on the bus, the large majority of whom are Caucasians.

PD T-1 further advised that arrangements for the Seattle participants to join the Portland group were allegedly made by Milford Sutherland, Communist Party (CP) leader from Seattle. Among the Oregon participants are Denise Jacobson, Larry Gordon and Martina Curl, all Portland, and Valerie Taylor, North Bend, Oregon.

PD T-1 has advised that Larry Gordon is a member of the Youth Club, CP of Oregon.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

Assistant Attorney General John Douglas telephoned me last evening. He said, as we know, he had been assigned by the Attorney General to assist the Deputy Attorney General in coordinating matters for the Department in connection with the March on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1963.

Mr. Douglas stated that he had become concerned on reading several memoranda from the Bureau relating activity on the part of communist Party members in connection with the march. Douglas noted that he frankly has no idea what action the Department should take in this regard. He said he was, therefore, contacting us for any advice which we might have.

cause of the Communist Party if the Negro leaders of the August 28th march came out forcefully denouncing the communists and rejecting—their support. This would be a blow to the Communist Party since it would forestall later propagandizing of their efforts in support of the Negroes and the demonstration. There are leaders in the March on Washington movement who have consistently opposed the communists, such as, A. Philip Randolph, President of the Negro American Labor Council and Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP.

Sullivan and we are in accord that great damage would be done to the \S

This matter has been discussed with Assistant Director

Public denounciation of the Communist Party by responsible Negro leaders at the time immediately preceding the March on Washington, when public interest is high, would undoubtedly result in nationwide publicity. Our future ability to investigate the Communist Party would not in any way be jeopardized by this action.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN

If you approve, Mr. Douglas will be recontacted and it will be suggested to him that the Department might desire to, on a confidential basis, inform the responsible leadership of just what the communists are trying to do relative to this march, in order that these communist efforts may be publicly denounced. 2,1963

On August 22, 1963, a confidential source furnished information that the Buffalo Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), Buffalo, New York, presently has definite reservations from 123 people to travel by chartered buses from Buffalo, New York, to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, for participation in the March On Washington. The source stated it is estimated approximately three-fourths of the reservations have been paid for. The source added that the Buffalo Chapter NAACP is now raising its goal to about 200 participants from the Buffalo, New York, area and that it appears this goal will be met. Also, according to this source, the NAACP has been discouraging any travel to Washington, D. C., for participation on the March via private automobile, is recommending that participants bring their own lunches with them, and the source knows of no individuals or groups planning to travel by private automobile.

C., for participation in the March On Washington on August 28, 1963. Miss GENTRY was quoted as saying that about $975 has been collected from labor unions, local church and community organizations and individuals as a fund to be used for the $15.00 bus fare of people who want to go but cannot pay their own fare, and that this fund will pay for 65 people. It is also stated in the article that the NAACP advises bus riders that signs will be available in Washington, D. C., and that they should bring box lunches and a thermos of water.

An article in the August 23 edition of the "Buffalo Courier Express," a daily newspaper published at Buffalo, New York, reflects that according to a statement of JOSEPH SCIOLI, four members of the "political action civil rights committee of Local 593 - Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers" and also International Representative JOSEPH SCIOLI will participate in next Wednesday's civil rights demonstration in Washington. The article also reflects that Local 593 took up a plant gate collection at Anaconda American Brass Company and contributed most of the money to the NAACP to pay the fares of unemployed people who want to participate in the March On Washington.

A fourth confidential source furnished information during 1961 and 1962 that as of 1961 CP members at Buffalo, New York, were maintaining contact with JOSEPH SCIOLI, that as of 1961 SCIOLI requested CP literature, and that as of early 1962 SCIOLI was regularly receiving CP literature through a CP member at Buffalo, New York.

On August 22, 1963 ALEX TRUMBULL, Vice President, Niagara Frontier Transit System, Inc., Buffalo, New York, furnished information that on that date a representative of the NAACP had confirmed with a down payment a reservation of one chartered bus to carry 36 passengers to Washington, D. C., from Buffalo, New York, and return, departure time from Buffalo being 10:00 PM August 27, 1963, and departure time from Washington being 10:00 PM August 28, 1963. The NAACP representative told_Mr. TRUMBULL no additional Niagara Frontier Transit System buses would be needed.

On August 22, 1963 Mrs. ANN WOIDT, Charter Coach Department, Greyhound Lines, Inc., Buffalo, New York, furnished information that the Buffalo Chapter NAACP continues to hold a reservation for from four to six buses, 38 passengers each, for travel from Buffalo, New York, to Washington, D. C., and return on August 28, 1963. Mrs. WOIDT stated that although no down payment has been made she has been assured that at least four buses will definitely be used, and that payment will be made sometime prior to departure of the buses which will leave Buffalo at 12:01 AM August 28, 1963 and will leave Washington for the return trip at 6:00 PM August 28, 1963.

A fifth confidential source on August 22, 1963, furnished information that the NAACP, Rochester, New York, Chapter and Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Rochester, New York, Chapter working with other local anti-segregation and community groups has obtained 126 definite commitments from individuals in the Rochester, New York, area for travel to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, via four chartered buses to participate in the March On Washington. The source stated that travel to Washington by private auto has been discouraged and that to the source's knowledge only one CORE member is continuing to consider the possibility of proceeding to Washington, D. C., together with five to ten other CORE members who would use two private automobiles. The source believes these individuals will eventually decide to use the chartered buses. The source added that individuals making reservations for the chartered buses are being advised to take box lunches along.

On August 21, 1963, a sixth confidential source furnished information that he had been advised by a member of the United Auto Workers Union (UAW) delegation which will proceed via chartered airplane from Buffalo, New York, to participate in the March on Washington, that members of this delegation have received specific instructions to confine their activities in Washington, D. C., to participation in the March, to bring their lunches with them, and to patronize no Washington, D. C., establishments so as to avoid incidents.

On August 22, 1963, a seventh confidential source furnished information that MARTIN ZELMAN, Financial Secretary of the Erie County CP stated on that date that if the Erie County CP can send three or four people to the March On Washington they can say they have done their share. ZELMAN then indicated that ROSE TOURALCHUK, IVORY MC KENZIE, probably ANTHONY MASSA, and probably one other person will be going to Washington, D. C., by chartered bus just to see what goes on.

An eighth confidential source has furnished information in August 1963 that ROSE TOURALCHUK, IVORY MC KENZIE, and ANTHONY MASSA are members of the Erie County CP.

On August 22, 1963, a ninth confidential source furnished information that according to a statement made by ROSEMARY NEIDENBERG on that date, VERA SPRUILL will be going to the March On Washington and will travel on one of the NAACP chartered buses.

On August 23, 1963, a tenth confidential source furnished information that ROSEMARY NEIDENBERG and TED BAINES are going to the March On Washington via the NAACP chartered buses and that MILTON NEIDENBERG, husband of ROSEMARY, will not be going.

An eleventh confidential source has furnished information that as of July 1963 VERA SPRUILL, ROSEMARY NEIDENBERG, and WILFRED BAINES, also known as "TEDWBAINES, were members of the Buffalo Branch Workers World Party (WWP), Buffalo, New York.

A characterization of the WWP is attached hereto.

All confidential sources referred to herein and all sources referred to in the appendix have furnished reliable information in the past.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member, SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty - bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as itsgoal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1962, the source advised that this mino ity group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On April 18, 1962, the source stated that the headquarters of the Workers World Party were located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON August 28, 1963 RACIAL MATTERS

On August 26, 1963, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past made available a registration list of all persons who will travel from Boston to Washington, D. C., by chartered bus as participants in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. The list contains the names of two hundred and eighty-three persons. The source stated that the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) expects about five hundred participants from the Boston area. A few more are expected to register for the bus trip. The remainder will travel independently by train, plane or personal car and will be unorganized going to and returning from Washington, D. C.

The source stated the buses from Boston, Massachusetts, and those from Providence, Rhode Island, will rendezvous in New York City and proceed to Baltimore, Maryland, stopping for breakfast as previously planned at Bethel A. M. E. Church in Baltimore.

A review of the list of names furnished by the source determined that the list includes the following names:

ensemin MARACHEY

Berthe Goldberg 35 Nesfor the Constant Benjamin Landey 35 Nesfor Philipped Benjamin Landey 35 Nesfor P

On September 12, 1961, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Bertha Goldberg was present on August 23, 1961, at a meeting at Boston, Massachusetts, to form a Defense Committee for the Communist Party.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON, August 28, 1963

On November 6, 1961, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Benjamin Landey was present on November 5, 1961, at a District Committee meeting of the Communist Party, USA, New Rngland District, at Chelsea, Massachusetts.

On April 10, 1963, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past identified Edward S. Teixeira and Anne Burlak Timpson as members of the District Committee of the Communist Party, USA, New England District.

On November 23, 1962, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that at a District Committee meeting of the Communist Party, USA, New England District, held November 18, 1962, that Lewis Martin Johnson, a member of the District Committee, stated there are some persons in the Communist Party who should be carrying on in a bigger way and cited Tillyruth Teixeira as an example. Anne Burlak Timpson stated she was under the impression that Tillyruth Teixeira did not wish to be more active.

Two sources who have furnished reliable information in the past advised on August 26, 1963, that the Communist Party of New England has made no effort to enlist support for the March on Washington among its members beyond advising that anyone wishing to participate could register at NAACP Headquarters.

Mr. Richard Oakley, Charter Sales Division, Greyhound Bus Lines, 330 Stuart Street, Boston, Massachusetts, advised on August 26, 1963, that he is still holding ten Greyhound buses and five Wilson Line buses in readiness for the NAACP March on Washington. He has heard nothing recently from NAACP which would change his plans. However, he has not written up contracts for the buses as yet since he has no reassurance that that many buses will be needed.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON, August 28, 1963

Mr. James Whelan, Passenger Agent, New Haven Railroad, Boston, Massachusetts, advised on August 26, 1963, that the NAACP has no plans to use any trains out of Boston on the March on Washington. He stated that a fifteen car train will travel from Springfield, Massachusetts, through Hartford and New Haven, Connecticut, carrying one-thousand, two hundred and seventy-five passengers. It will leave Springfield, Massachusetts, at 11:40 P. M.

Mr. Daniel Herlihy, Passenger Agent, New Haven Railroad, Springfield, Massachusetts, stated the New Haven will transport about one hundred and seventy persons out of Springfield by train for the March on Washington, leaving 11:40 P. M., August 27, 1963. Mr. Herlihy stated he has heard about thirty more are traveling by bus.

On August 26, 1963, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that in connection with the March on Washington, four buses will leave Providence, Thode Island, one bus will leave Newport. Rhode Island, and one bus Woonsocket, Rhode Island, with March participants. Each bus will hold thirty-nine passengers. The ratio is four white for every three colored. About twice the number traveling by bus is expected to travel on their own by automobile, train or plane. Each bus will be in charge of two captains to maintain discipline.

from Port Angeles expected to participate in a demonstration at Seattle to coincide with the March on Washington on August 28, 1963.

On August 24, 1963, a second source advised that J.C. BURDICK, RAY, COOPER and EDDIE GIVENS, all CP members, were active in raising funds to send participants in the March on Washington who would travel by a chartered bus, leaving from Portland. Source indicated individuals taking part would leave Seattle the evening of August 24 for Portland. It was stated the Seattle commitment on travel expenses was $1,000.00, and Portland, $2,000.00. Seattle funds were being raised by the Central District Youth Club (CDYC), individual members of the King County CP, and other groups. Approximately $500.00 had been raised in Seattle by the evening of August 23, 1963.

A description of the CDWC as furnished by the second source is attached.

The second source named the following Seattle participants expected to leave via chartered Greyhound bus from Portland: Mother of EDDIE GIVENS, (GLADYS, HALL, GIVENS); two sisters of GIVENS, LEON GIVENS, brother of EDDIE GIVENS, PATTI RABBITT and MARION WHEELER.

On July 19, 1963, a third source identified PATTI RABBITT as Chairman of the Young Political Explorers League (YPEL). A characterization of the YPEL is attached.

The second source stated the delegation included "lots of people on the left and some others who were not". It was stated some of the participants might stay over in Washington, D.C., to take part in another demonstration which might be directed by Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING. Details on this were not available. Source stated the plans of EDDIE GIVENS were uncertain regarding attendance at the Washington, D.C. demonstration.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

CP, USA - MEGRO QUESTION

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On August 24, 1963, a fourth source advised that at the weekly meeting held that morning at Mount Zion Baptist Church, Seattle, EDDIE GIVENS announced that fourteen people from Seattle, two adults and twelve young folk, would—leave that night to join a busload leaving from Portland the next day. The source was of the belief that EDDIE GIVENS would be in the group.

GIVENS ammounced at the above meeting that the CDYC was now officially affiliated with "SNICK" (Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee). The fourth source advised that responsible Negro leaders in Seattle were concerned over the possible participation of EDDIE GIVENS in the Washington, D. C. demonstration and also CDYC's becoming connected with "SNICK", described by the fourth source as a legitimate organization.

The "Seattle Times" of August 24, 1963, a metropolitan daily of general circulation in Seattle, Washington, carried an article captioned "Freedom March Here Gets Interfaith Support" reflecting the following four Seattle residents would participate in the March to Washington: Reverend Dr. JOHN H. ADAMS, Chairman of the Central Area Committee on Civil Rights; the Reverence SAMUEL B. McKINNEY, a member of the city's Human Rights Commission; INFANTA SPENCE, a youth leader, and FLORENCE MARTIN.

According to the fourth source, Dr. ADAMS and Reverend McKINNEY are responsible leaders of the Seattle Negro community who are opposed to Communism. The fourth source stated INFANTA SPENCE was formerly active in CDYC but has now severed her commection with this organization and has declared her opposition to Communism. The source stated expenses were being borne by the combined established Negro organizations. The fourth source advised FLORENCE MARTIN was a responsible individual who had no connection with any Communist group.

On August 26, 1963, the third source advised MACK JONES, BILL CORR, JR. (both described by the source as members of the YPEL) and EDDIE GIVENS' sister, not further identified, left on August 24, 1963, to participate in the March on Washington. The source did not know the mode of transportation they planned to use.

CP, USA - NEGRO QUESTION

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

The third source advised adults going from the Seattle area included ELMER KISTLER, MARY SUTHERLAND, and MARGE RADER. The second source has identified all three of these individuals as leading members of the Northwest District CP with MARY SUTHERLAND noted as State Youth Director, Northwest District Communist Party.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

CP, USA - NEGRO QUESTION

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

CENTRAL DISTRICT YOUTH CLUB

The Central District Youth Club (CDYC) came into existence around the 1st of May, 1963. It originally consisted of about twelve members, several of whom were related to EDDIE GIVENS. The membership has grown to more than thirty-five and has broadened to include young people, for the most part, who were attracted to it as a result of publicity concerning its activities. The majority of members have no connection whatsoever with the CP and are not aware of the fact that CP members are leading the group.

The officers of the CDYC are believed to be EDDIE GIVENS, Chairman; RAY COOPER, Vice Chairman; and CARLYN KING, Secretary. RAY has commented on several occasions that it is very difficult for CP leaders to put their program across to the group because the members of the group lack political maturity. Activities of the CDYC, therefore, are often instigated by the group and followed by the CP leaders.

Some of the activities of the CDYC include art classes conducted by MARGARET COOPER, who is not a CP member. EDDIE GIVENS, RAY COOPER (husband of MARGARET COOPER) and CARLYN KING are members of the Communist Party.

The purpose of the CDYC is to develop the political awareness of the people involved in order to broaden the mass movement toward Socialism.

YOUNG POLITICAL EXPLORERS LEAGUE (YPEL)

A source advised that REE ANN HALONEN, daughter of OIVA HALONEN, who was then the Chairman of the Communist Party's Industrial Section at Seattle, had stated on July 29, 1957, that the youth group in Seattle was considering adoption of the name Young Political Explorers.

A second source advised that a meeting of the Communist Party Downtown Club in Seattle was held on October 30, 1958. WANDA HUBBARD, a Communist Party member, stated that she was the youth director of the Young Political Explorers. She stated there were two groups in Washington and the Seattle group had fifteen active members. The age limits were from twelve to twenty years of age. The purpose of the group was to examine all political ideas, including socialism.

A third source also reported on the CP Downtown Club meeting on October 30, 1958. WANDA HUBBARD stated that the youths had chosen the name of Young Political Explorers, which is a statewide Communist Party organization and was formerly known as the Labor Youth League. HUBBARD stated it is directly supported and directed by the Communist Party.

The Labor Youth League has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The second source advised on December 23, 1960, that the Young Political Explorers League was the teen-age group of the youth organization in Seattle.

A fourth source advised that MARY SUTHERLAND, Youth Director of the Northwest District of the Communist Party, stated on May 17, 1961, that she was handling two youth groups, one of which was the teen-age youth group.

A fifth source advised on July 2, 1963, that the Young Political Explorers League continues in existence in the Seattle area and is under the guidance and leadership of MARY SUTHERLAND.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

A characterization of the Denver Branch, SWP, appears as an appendix hereto and the sources mentioned therein have furnished reliable information in the past.

Howard Berndt, Sales Manager, Continental Trailways, Denver, advised on August 26, 1963, that the cost of chartering the bus by the committee for the March on Washington totaled $2,282. He stated that he recalls one of the checks given him in payment was in the amount of approximately $1,590 and was signed by one Robert Trujillo. Berndt stated that one Linda Perlstein, who gave an address of the Colorado State Office Building, was the individual who contracted for the chartered bus. He stated the individual who seemed to be in charge of the arrangements was James Reynolds, Director of the Colorado Anti-Discrimination Commission, State Office Building, Denver. Mr. Berndt advised there were thirty-nine passengers on the bus.

The second source has identified James Reynolds as a member of CORE.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

On August 26, 1963, Mrs. BETTY BRITT, Queen City Trailways Bus Company, Charlotte, North Carolina, advised that Jek Act 6 (4) has chartered one bus for travel to Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, and that the full amount of the contract, $490.30, has already been paid burk Act 6 (4) Mrs. BRITT advised that it is her recollection that the amount paid consisted of two checks, one in the amount of $400 drawn on the Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company, New York City, from the account of the "March on Washington" and signed by two persons, names not recalled. The second check, according to Mrs. BRITT, was in the amount of $90.30 and was a personal check on the account of Jek Act 6 (4) drawn on the Bank of Georgia at Atlanta, Georgia.

The files of the Passport Office, U. S. Department of State, as reviewed on April 22, 1957, by Special Agent WILLIAM F. O'BRIEN, JR., disclosed that JFK Act 6 (4) was born November 10, 1938, at New York City.

JFK Act 6 (4)

By means of a pretext telephone call placed by a Special Agent of the FBI on January 8, 1960, it was determined that JFK Act 6 (4) then resided at 636 West 174th Street, New York, New York.

The "New York Times" issue of July 30, 1957, contained an article regarding the World Youth Festival then in session at Moscow, Russia, which stated in part JFK Act 6 (4) . 636 West 174th Street, Manhattan, Junior at City College, went without sleep to keep things moving. He carried the United States flag at yesterday's opening, dipping it in salute to NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV and other Soviet dignitaries at the Lenin Stadium."

The "New York Times" issue of August 27, 1957, in an article from Peiping, China, contained the following information:

RE: MARCI: ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

"JAKE ROSEN of New York, one of the organizers of the group of Americans who visited China following the Moscow Youth Festival, arrived by air from Moscow today. ROSEN appealed to the Chinese Youth Federation not to deport SHELBY TUCKER, JR., one of the young Americans visiting Communist China who was told he would be expelled if he did not surrender his passport for Chinese immigration inspection. Moreover, ROSEN, who is known to some of his fellow delegates as 'the commissar', told Chinese authorities there had been a misunderstanding on the use of passports, and it is probably his fault as one of the organizers."

A characterization of the 6th World Youth Festival is contained in the appendix.

A source advised on September 22, 1959, that JACOBROSEN was named Director of Student Activities on the Communist Party Youth Commission.

A second source advised on April 11, 1962, that JACOB ROSEN had been expelled from the Communist Party, U. S. A., for factionalism and anti-party activities.

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

Mr. W. M. BRIZZELL, Manager, Queen City Coach Company, Wilmington, advised on August 27, 1963, that arrangements have been made by the Wilmington Youth Chapter and Wilmington Adult Chapter of the NAACP, Wilmington, North Carolina, for a total of six Queen City buses to transport their participants in the March on Washington. Each bus will carry an average of 38 Negroes. The buses will depart Wilmington, North Carolina, midnight August 28, 1963, in convoy, proceeding to a meeting point at Petersburg, Virginia, where they will join other buses scheduled from North Carolina.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

The North Carolina delegation will proceed in convoy from Petersburg, Virginia, to Washington, D. C. The six buses from Wilmington, North Carolina, will depart Washington, D. C., between 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., August 28, 1963, returning directly in convoy to Wilmington, North Carolina.

WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

Mr. STEVE SITZLER, Area Coordinator, Greyhound Bus Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, advised August 27, 1963, that one 37 passenger bus had been reserved and paid for ($359.70) by Reverend MELVIN C. SWANN, from Durham, North Carolina. This bus is scheduled to load at 1:30 a.m., August 28, 1963, at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, of which Reverend THOMAS SMITH is rector. Reverend SMITH is a CORE representative. A. B. REYNOIDS is to be in charge of the group. The number of passengers is unknown but will not exceed 37.

The bus will travel on U. S. 158 to U. S. 1 and rendezvous at the entrance of the Petersburg Turnpike with two buses from Greensboro and three buses from Durham, North Carolina. All six buses will then proceed in convoy to a designated parking area in Washington, D. C., and will leave Washington at 7:00 p.m., August 28, 1963, scheduled to arrive in Winston-Salem at 2:00 a.m., August 29, 1963.

A news story in the "Twin City Sentinel," a Winston-Salem daily newspaper, on August 26, 1963, quotes ANDREW B. REYNOLDS, JR., local coordinator of the civil rights march on Washington, as saying that approximately 50 people from the area would participate in the march.

GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

On August 27, 1963, ABRAHAM JOSEPH WHITTENBERG, former president of Greenville Chapter of NAACP, Greenville, South Carolina, furnished the following information:

Greenville Chapter of NAACP has chartered one 37 passenger bus of Welborn Bus Line, Liberty, South Carolina, for a trip to Washington, D. C. The bus will depart Springfield

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

Baptist Church, Greenville, South Carolina, 6:00 p.m., August 27, 1963, with a full load and proceed directly to Washington, D. C. The bus will then depart Washington at 6:00 p.m., August 28, 1963, for return to Greenville.

The bus passengers will consist of Greenville County, South Carolina, members of NAACP and whiskey and firearms will not be allowed on the bus. Each passenger will pay a fee of $5 for the round trip and NAACP local chapter will bear the remaining costs.

SIXTH WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL

The April 29, 1957, issue of "The New Leader," a weekly publication of the American Labor Conference on International Affairs, pages eight and nine, carried an article entitled "Moscow's Youth Festival." The article stated that communist parties and fronts throughout the world were trying to bring 30,000 young people to Moscow for the Sixth Festival of Youth and Students for Peace and Friendship, a biennial communist charivari which has taken place in Iron Curtain cities since 1947. The article stated that during the two Weeks of the Festival, the Kremlin would undertake to prove to thousands of young people from the free world that the future belongs to Soviet Communism. The article concluded by stating that the few million dollars which the Kremlin and its satellite countries were raising for this festival would probably be one of their cheapest investments in terms of political dividends.

The "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper which ceased publication on January 13, 1958, issue of May 3, 1957, page two, carried an article concerning the Moscow Sixth International Youth Festival, which stated that the Festival is scheduled to be held in Moscow from July 28, 1957, to August 11, 1957, and that the Russians expect some 35,000 visitors from 120 nations to attend.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUB OF SAN FRANCISCO, aka. Du Bois Youth Group, San Francisco Du Bois Club, San Francisco Du Bois Youth Group, Student-Labor Alliance

A source advised that on January 31, 1963, the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco held its first general meeting at California Hall, Polk and Turk Streets, San Francisco, California. The aims of the club were put forth as follows:

- 1 alleviate the Negro problem in the U.S.
- 2 promote peaceful co-existence between the U.S. and Russia.
- 3 promote and encourage Marxist doctrines and to bring about a socialistic government in the U.S.

This organization publishes a newsletter entitled, "San Francisco News & World Report." In its first issue, dated March 3, 1963, there was set forth a "Proposed Statement of Principles" in which the aforementioned aims were elaborated upon.

In this same issue of the "San Francisco News & World Report," the lead editorial in part describes the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco as "...a group of young people who are convinced that Socialism is the only answer to the many problems of our time and so find philosophical rapport with the life and thought of Dr. Du Bois, nevertheless we are weighted with humility in comparing our goals and ambitions with the genius of his life and work. As a source of inspiration the figure of W.E.B. Du Bois is unequaled in American history, but as a standard and example, we seem miserably lost in his shadow. We can only resolve that we do his name no dishonor, and whatever we may accomplish should be recognized as a supplement to his life work."

The November 25, 1961, issue of the "People's World," a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California, contains an

An article in the "Cleveland Press", a local daily newspaper, dated August 27, 1963, reflected that as all seats on chartered vehicles had been taken, a number of persons were planning to drive private automobiles to Washington. The article stated that local organizers of the march are urging persons not to drive because of traffic conditions.

An article in the "Cleveland Plain Dealer," daily Cleveland newspaper, dated August 27, 1963, reflected that about 350 persons attended a meeting on the evening of August 26, 1963, in Cleveland, called for the purpose of giving instructions to persons who will attend the march. RE MARCH ON WASHINGTON, AUGUST 28, 1963

VI. SUBVERSIVE RAMIFICATIONS

Communist Party (CP)

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

It is to be noted WF T-10 on August 5, 1963, advised that Claude Lightfoot recently stated the CP of Illinois is supporting the March on Washington and is attempting to obtain persons from Illinois to attend this march.

WF T-10 during August, 1963, identified Claude Lightfoot as the Chairman of the CP of Illinois.

It is to be noted still further that on August 20, 1963, WF T-11 and WF T-12 both reported Elizabeth Gurley Flynn spoke at a public conference at New York City on August 19, 1963, on the topic of "The Significance of the August 28 Freedom March to Washington".

According to informant, Flynn stated the significance of this march was to dramatize the Negro situation and the need for legislative action. Flynn specifically stated the claim has been made that communists are responsible for and have control of the march. She denied that this was true, stating that the Communist Party has been interested in the Negro situation long before the planned march to Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963.

WF T-8 on May 7, 1962, identified Elizabeth Gurley Flynn as the National Chairman of the CP, USA.

On August 14, 1963, WF T-13 advised that a meeting of the leading functionaries of the CP was held at CP head-quarters in New York City on that date and a discussion was held between these communist leaders concerning the forthcoming March on Washington.

RE MARCH ON WASHINGTON, AUGUST 28, 1963

James Lustig, from the State of New Jersey in attendance at this National CP meeting, commented that the most important aspect of the march itself is that participating organizations will hold a conference following the march and what will be decided at this conference will be as important as the march itself.

Phil Bart, in attendance at this National CP meeting, stated that there has not been a comparable period in the past wherein hundreds of communists will actually be together with tens of thousands of others in the march. He said efforts should be made to work with the idea of establishing connections with new forces.

WF T-14 on July 25, 1963, advised that a meeting of the CP was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on July 23, 1963. At this meeting Thomas Nabried, mentioned there will be a special issue of "The Worker" on the week end of July 27, 1963, and would contain articles regarding the March on Washington, August 28, 1963.

On August 13, 1963, WF T-15 identified Thomas Nabried as the Chairman of the Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD).

All sources mentioned in this memorandum, as well as those mentioned in characterization of Labor Negro Vanguard Conference (LNVC), have furnished reliable information in the past.

On August 27, 1963, a source advised that the current plans of the LNVC are to depart from Newark, New Jersey, at 12 midnight, August 27, 1963, after having a send-off rally in front of the Newark City Hall from 10 PM to 12 midnight.

A characterization of the LNVC appears in the appendix hereto.

This source advised on August 28, 1963, that three buses were loaded and ready to leave at 2:30 AM, that date, but that there were people standing around who had tickets assigning them to buses numbered as high as number six. A third source advised in December, 1955, that he was in possession of material dated April, 1955, which reflected that Esther Nette was willing to stay in the CP and work and abide by CP discipline, but did not agree with the Party concerning the expulsion of her brother from the CP.

LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE, formerly known as the Labor-Negro Vanguard Party

In a press release dated November 18, 1961, the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD PARTY (LNVP) stated:

"The growing influence of the irredentist forces upon the policies of our nation as indicated by the alarming drift towards war and the outlawing of the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) has accentuated the need for all radical, progressive and liberal forces to unite in a common party."

In a leaflet entitled "Call to Progressive Minded America" issued by the LNVP, its founding convention was scheduled for November 25, 1961, in New York City. The aims and purposes were listed as:

- 1. For the resurgence of the American Labor Movement.
- _2. For the winning of the struggle for Negro rights.
- 3. For an end of the cold war.
- 4. For economic security and higher mass living standards.
 - 5. For the end of the exploitation of man by man.

A source advised on December 19, 1961, that CLARENCE COGGINS is considered the Provisional Chairman of the LNVP. Other active members include BERNARD (WHITEY) GOODFRIEND, ALVIN OLIVER, WILLIAM CLARK, and RODNEY OLIVER.

A second source advised on December 12, 1959, that CLARENCE COGGINS, BERNARD (WHITEY) GOODFRIEND, ALVIN OLIVER, WILLIAM CLARK, and RODNEY OLIVER were all members of the Harriet Tubman Section of the Essex County, New Jersey, CP, which was expelled from the Party with no right of appeal by action of the 17th National Convention, CP, USA, being held December 10-13,1959.

A third source advised on March 7, 1962, that the SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP) and the LNVP are working closely in efforts to bring disgruntled CP members to their respective camps and are working jointly in the political field. FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, has asked SWP members to support the LNVP.

The third source advised on June 26, 1963, that due to mutual suspicion the drive toward unity between these two organizations has ceased.

On January 15, 1963, the first source advised that the LNVP is now using the name LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE (LNVC) and is the name the organization is now known by and under which name all leaflets are issued.

On June 28, 1963, the first source stated that the LNVC does not exist on a national scale; and although CLARENCE COGGINS, Chairman of the LNVC, has traveled through the eastern portion of the country to promote the LNVC, the only organized group to date exists in New Jersey.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON August 28, 1963 Portland, Oregon Activities RACIAL MATTERS

On August 28, 1963, PD T-1 advised that a Greyhound bus, chartered by a group calling itself Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (FSNVCC), described below, departed Portland, Oregon, about 4:00 a.m., August 25, 1963, for Washington, D.C.

The bus arrived at its destination on the morning of August 28, 1963, several hours behind schedule because of mechanical failure. The passengers, after participation on August 28, 1963, in a civil rights demonstration in Washington, D. C., were scheduled to board the bus on the evening of August 28, 1963, for a direct return to Portland. When the bus left Portland, there were thirty-six persons aboard and two more were scheduled to board at Caldwell, Idaho, making a total of thirty-eight, the vehicle capacity.

Of the thirty-six departing Portland, twenty-one were from Oregon, mainly Portland, and fifteen were from the State of Washington.

PD T-2 has advised that the FSNWCC is a group which has no official connection with the national organization, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, sponsoring integration, but which was organized on August 3, 1963, for the purpose of arranging Oregon participation in the March on Washington.

The FSNVCC considers itself as a clearing house for persons or organizations interested in attending the March on Washington or helping finance persons

A description of the CDYC as furnished by the third source is attached hereto.

On September 5, 1963, a sixth source furnished a mimeographed sheet obtained at the above CDYC meeting of September 4, 1963 which contained the following:

"The Central District Youth Club has become affiliated with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, a National Civil Rights Organization based in Atlanta and incidently one of the sponsors of the March on Washington...... CDYC sent 18 young people to Washington, D.C. to demonstrate in the 'March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom.'"

The Seattle Times, a metropolitan newspaper of general circulation, of September 1, 1963, carried an article captioned "Reds Fail To Control Rights Movement". This article reflects the results of an interview with Charles V. Johnson, President of the Seattle Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. A copy of this article is attached herewith.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON

CONSUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

CENTRAL DISTRICT YOUTH CLUB

The Central District Youth Club (CDYC) came into existence around the 1st of May, 1963. It originally consisted of about twelve members, several of whom were related to EDDIE GIVENS. The membership has grown to more than thirty-five and has broadened to include young people, for the most part, who were attracted to it as a result of publicity concerning its activities. The majority of members have no connection whatsoever with the CP and are not aware of the fact that CP members are leading the group.

The officers of the CDYC are believed to be EDDIE GIVENS, Chairman; RAY CGOPER, Vice Chairman; and CARLYN KING, Secretary. RAY has commented on several occasions that it is very difficult for CP leaders to put their program across to the group because the members of the group lack political maturity. Activities of the CDYC, therefore, are eften instigated by the group and followed by the CP leaders.

Some of the activities of the CDYC include art classes conducted by MARGARET COOPER, who is not a CP member. EDDIE GIVERS, RAY COOPER (husband of MARGARET COOPER) and CARLYN KIRG are members of the Communist Party.

The purpose of the CDYC is to develop the political agareness of the people involved in order to broaden the mass movement toward Socialism.

The Seattle Post Intelligencer, a metropolitan daily newspaper of general circulation, of September 14, 1963, carried a United Press International photo of ROSE and accompanying caption stating in part, "His arms held high, a demonstrator who identified himself as Seattle student Ken Rose, 21, sits on the floor in front of the House Un-American Activities Committee offices in Washington, D.C. He had been denied admission to the hearings....." The above photo accompanied an article datelined September 13, 1963, at Washington, D.C., regarding unruly demonstrators at the HCUA hearing concerning a top to Cuba by students who had not secured passports.

On September 11, 1963, a source advised that ROSE, described as a current member of the Communist Party in Seattle, has been traveling around the United States recently in the company of LESLIE APSTEIN, former College of Puget Sound student. Source advised that ROSE was reported to have been in Washington, D.C. at the time of the March on Washington demonstration, August 28, 1963. Source advised ROSE was expected to return to Seattle in about two months. The first source advised on August 6, 1963, that ROSE was the subject of concern on the part of the Communist Party in Seattle due to the fact that ROSE was alleged to be extremely depressed and to have been living more or less as an itinerant for some time.

RE: KENNETH AT AN ROSE

On September 13, 1963, a second source advised that during August, 1933, a Communist Party meeting had been held in Seattle concerning ROSE. It was stated ROSE had not been doing anything politically for months and they were trying to decide what to do about him.

Records-of-the Catholic Children's Services, 410
Marion Street, Seattle, reflect ROSE was born January 28, 1943 at Olympia, Washington, was committed to custody of the Catholic Charities as a child July 18, 1952 and resided in various foster homes from 1956 to August 28, 1960. In 1952 he was analyzed by a Catholic Children's Services psychologist who described him as "emotionally quite sick."

Records of the University of Washington reflect subject attended during the Autumn quarter 1960 and the Winter quarter 1961, following which he was dropped after being placed on probation.

On September 11, 1963, the first source advised that MELLINA JONES, described as a member of the Communist Party in Seattle, was among those who travelled on a chartered bus from Portland, Oregon to Washington, D.C. to take part in the March on Washington demonstration, August 28, 1963.

Reurairtel 10/6/63 which enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) based on information supplied by NY 4099-SP. [2 The LIM revealed that on 10/5/63 the source supplied information that Stanley Levison had accepted a request of Clarence Jones to meet him later that date at the Park Sheraton Hotel, New York City. Jones advised Levison that he had made arrangements to meet Martin Luther King, Jr., at that time and that he desired Levison to be there also. (a)

Your airtel 10/7/63 enclosed an LHM of same date. which also reported information obtained from NY 40.99-5% According to this source, on 10/5/63 King was in contact with the wife of Clarence Jones and asked her if Clarence and "his friend" (quite likely referring to Levison) could meet with him (King) at his hotel. Arrangements were made during a subsequent contact between King and Clarence Jones, according to the same source, to meet at the Park Sheraton Hotel where King was staying, the meeting to take place at 5 p.m. asked Jones if "our friend" (undoubtedly referring to Levison) would be coming with him. To this Jones said "Yes." Jones ·later contacted Levison and advised him that he had met with King and arrangements had been made for the three of, them to REC- 125 /// 2 meet later.

Neither communication revealed that this merrings was covered either by Agents of your office or through the use of most sensitive sources. ASAC Donald E. Rongy hastelephonically advised the Bureau that the meeting was not covered. This undoubtedly was an important meeting and we are now in the embarrassing position of knowing nothing of the results of this meeting nor do we have anyone who can testify that it actually occurred well in

The Bureau is most dissatisfied with the manner in which this matter was handled by the New York Office. It is apparent that it has been handled in a perfunctory manner-LTG/SFP:/km without receiving the investigative attention it required. Based on information available to your office, the importance of this meeting and appropriate coverage thereof are obvious. Your office is well aware that Levison, a secret member of the Communist Party, gravitated to King, a recognized leader of and spokesman for millions of Negroes, some time ago. Levison has applied dedication to the communist cause by expending prodigious efforts in King's behalf. This has reached the point where King now consults with and depends on Levison for guidance. King has recently adopted the precautionary measure of avoiding direct contact with Levison and instead consults with him by using Clarence Jones, an attorney, as an intermediary. (3)

The Bureau considers this to be one of the most important cases in the New York Office at the present time. A number of recent communications from the Bureau have served to impress upon your office the urgency and importance being attached by the Bureau to all aspects relating to the investigations concerning captioned and related matters. SAC Letter 63-50 (E) dated 10/1/63 is but one example of these communications.

This case should be the responsibility of ASAC Roney. You are therefore instructed to obtain from ASAC Roney his personal explanations as to the reason this meeting was not covered. His explanations should set forth what guidance he has given to this matter, as well as what remedial steps he intends to take to prevent a recurrence of this situation.

In addition, explanations of other responsible personnel should be obtained and submitted along with your personal recommendations as to administrative action.

It is noted that on August 9, 1952, CG 6065-S advised that on July 26, 1962, DANIEL QUEEN was heard to give instructions to a member of the Communist Party of Illinois that RONALD DORFMAN was to be contacted in reference to organizing a demonstration in support of integration in Cairo, Illinois.

Item 2 of the request impaired concerning a "library" of "handout" material maintained by "the New Left Reporting Unit" in 1970. The term "library" has been used by this Bureau to describe such material in a general sense. No formal, permanent, cataloged collection of material has existed. Rather, it has been the practice of supervisors bandling "New Left" potters to maintain in their office space copies of material which came to their attention in the course of their duties and which might be of value in quickly responding to requests for, or inquiries concerning, such material. This practice continues. The material consists of both classified and unclassified documents, such as articles by former Director J. Edgar Hoover, as well as newspaper clippings, magazine articles and pamphlets. No formal record has been maintained of the materials on hand at any particular date. Neither was any centralized, formal record made of the recipients to whom materials were furnished or what materials were furnished. "Communist Influence in Racial Matters (CIRM)" and documents responsive to your inquiry relating to the origin, approval investigation, rather than a program. Accordingly, no provisions were made for regular periodic reviews of this matter and no material relative to periodic reviews, such as would be available in the case of a program, have been located.

Items 12 and 13 related to the March on Washington and the Communist Party's influence in racial matters subsequent to the March on Washington. Compliance with these two requests involves location of approximately 250 volumes of material, their review and processing for delivery of those portions responsive to these requests. The magnitude of this undertaking, concurrent with the handling of the other extensive requests contained in the referenced August 20, 1975, request, has made it impossible to complete work on these two items to date. Our efforts to provide a comprehensive response to Items 12 and 13 are continuing on a priority basis and it is anticipated that delivery of desired materials to the Committee will be made by September 8, 1975.

Vice President Spiro Agnew called. He said he wanted to talk to me about something to see whether I could be of some assistance. He said he was really concerned about the continuing inflammatory promouncements of Julph D. Abernathy. I commented that he is one of the worst. The Vice President said he has seen some of the background material on him and he knows what that is, but it is beyond the pale as far as executive use is concerned. He said in view of what went on in Augusta and other places, it is important to have the information that revolved around this; the involvement of these people, what information we have, whether fleeing from looting or what is going on. He asked if there is any information available.

I told him we are working on these at the present time, both in Augusta, Atlanta, and Jackson, where the recent demonstrations have taken place. It said we have pretty well concluded our investigation at Kent tate. University as to the shooting and, as always happens, we found a considerable amount of firearms in the dormitories and rooms of the students, whether they used them or not is a question; some say there was sniping and some say there was not. It said the same is true at lackson as there are allegations of suppling at the troops before they fired and denials. We are interviewing all the idividuals who had any knowledge, students, et cetera. It said the problem at Kent was they closed the university and the students departed for all parts of the country, but we finished the preliminary report on that and will finish today the final report on Kent, while at Atlanta, Augusta, and Jackson, it will probably be another week before we will have the preliminary reports. It said it is six of one and a half dezen of another, as you can't say it is proper to shoot, but we found at Kent that they were throwing 'I pound rocks at the soldiers and they hit one Cuardsman in the back and knocked him down. have a demonstration today and the Guardsmen are present, but they have been blocking Highway No. 1 most every day. I said very fortunately, they have arrested and charged three of the leaders for the damage done to the Administration Building when they went in the other night and broke the furniture, et cetera.

The Vice President said what he wants to be able to do is bring out some facts the media conveniently overlooked. I said they never give the things that are being done constructively, many times by students, to try to prevent this, but they emphasize all the things these jerks are doing.

The Vice President said be saw a picture about Augusta showing some of the Negroes jumping out of store windows with loot and booty and fleeing and you never hear anything about that. He said whatever i can give him that can ameliorate some of the impact; that he understands some of these things are wrong and we are probably going to find some of the shootings showed too much force, but none the less, the people have to understand the very thrust of the newspaper articles is that a bunch of police shot down six Negroes and what happened before — why did they shoot at them — not just because they felt like killing people. I said they were severely provoked at Kentjand we will finish Augusta, Atlanta, and Jackson this week.

I told the Vice President I was sending to him Vednesday, the material Kent Crane asked for, which gives in summary the material we have sent in detail.

The vice President said he thought he was going to have to start destroying Abernathy's credibility, so anything I can give him would be appreciated. I told him I would be glad to. It said I was the only one who spoke out against lartin Luther King and I got hell, but I did not give a damn because it is more like bouquets than brickbats from some people. The Vice President said we can't let demagogues become martyrs and heroes. I said I had briefed the Appropriations Committee about his (King's) background and it has been effective recently because they have been trying to make a national holiday of his birthday, and many of the congressmen who know the facts are opposing it. I said I did not put it on the record, but I told the Appropriations Committee about his Piccadillos and his degeneracy as we had recordings, but it was never made public as I gave it off the record to the Committee and they have, in turn, briefed some of their colleagues, but I will see that he, the vice President, gets the details even before we finish the report.

The Vice President said he would like to be thoroughly conversant with all of that because if the crisis comes where we need to throw it, he will. I told him I would get it over in the next 24 to 48 hours as to the high-lights. The Vice I resident thanked me.

Very truly yours,

J.C. ACE ... J Pursuant to the Director's instructions, a speech by Abernathy, the President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, on 5/18/70 in New York City was covered by the New York Office. Essential information regarding the speech is included in the attached letter to the Vice President who requested to be advised regarding Abernathy's activities.

In connection with the coverage of the speech, it is noted that the field offices involved, Atlanta and New York, both did excellent work in learning of the location of the address on short notice. New York's work was especially noteworthy in securing a source who was able to cover the meeting. Atlanta was able to ascertain discreetly that Abernathy was not in Atlanta but was in New York City to speak before a meeting of Baptist ministers. location of the meeting could not be obtained in Atlanta on such short notice. Although there was no public advertising of the meeting, New York found most promptly through its investigation that Abernathy was speaking before a group of black Baptist ministers at 3 PM. New York was able to secure a source who could blend into this type meeting and equipped him with a recording device to tape the address. MAY 22 1970

Abernathy, in a highly emotional speech, called for the unification of black churchmen in the U.S. and for a re-examination of their nonviolent attitude. He implored them to take a more positive position in the racial struggle and beseeched them not to identify themselves with the late Martin Luther King, Jr., as the nonviolent struggle in the U.S. was dying out. He cited the recent shootings in Augusta, Georgia, and Jackson, Mississippi, as reasons for believing that nonviolence is dying. He accused Governor Lester Maddox of Georgia of giving local police, state police, and the National Guard wholesale authority to slaughter black people.

If you approve, attached letter to the Vice President will be sent. Tape of speech being reviewed by New York for any 100-442706 pertinent quotations which/will be sent to Vice President

Honorable Spiro T. Agnew The Vice President Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Vice President:

The following information from a source of this Bureau in the racial field is in response to your request to be advised regarding the activities of Ralph David Abernathy, the President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Abernathy spoke before a black Baptist ministers' conference at a church in New York City on May 18, 1970. In a highly emotional speech he called for the unification of black churchmen in the United States and for a re-examination of their nonviolent attitudes. He implored them to take a more positive position in the racial struggle and beseeched them not to identify themselves with the late Martin Luther King, Jr., since, according to Abernathy, the nonviolent struggle in the United States is dying out. He cited the recent shootings in Augusta, Georgia, and Jackson, Mississippi, as reasons for his belief that non-violence is dying. He alleged that Governor Lester Maddox of Georgia, whom he called "Governor Madman Maddox," gave local police, state police, and the National Guard wholesale authority to slaughter black people.

In accordance with the Director's memorandum dated 5-18-70, memoranda concerning recent racial disturbances at Jackson State College, Jackson, Mississippi, and in Augusta and Athens, Georgia, as well as information concerning a proposed mass march to Atlanta, Georgia, symbolizing the deaths of six Negroes in the Augusta disturbance, have been prepared and are attached.

These memoranda set forth summaries of information available at this time as to the events that took place in the disturbances in the three cities. At Jackson, Mississippi, the disorder began on the night of 5-13-70 when a crowd of 100 Negro students, later joined by 600 other persons, including hoodlum-types, engaged in extensive vandalism and rock throwing at white-occupied motor vehicles. Disorder erupted again the following night with numerous reports of sniper fire and attacks on police resulting in gunfire by the police. The gunfire left two Negroes dead and ten others wounded.

Riotous disorder in Augusta, which erupted 5-11-70, involved sniping, looting, and arson by crowds of rampaging Negroes and resulted in the deaths of six Negroes before order was restored.

The disturbances in Athens, which occurred on several days in the latter part of April and early May involved several firebombings and acts of disorder by young Negroes protesting the closing of a predominantly Negro school to conform with an integration mandate.

RACIAL DISORDER AT JACKSON STATE COLLEGE,

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI 1 - Mr. Trainor MAY. 1970

The Jackson State College, a state-supported coeducational Negro institution with a student body of approximately 5,000, is located in the Negro area of Jackson, Mississippi, about one mile from downtown Jackson. This college has been the scene of student disturbances in past years. In recent months sources of this Bureau have advised that many students at the school had acquired firearms and were retaining them in their dormitories. The Dean of Men reportedly expressed his concern in this regard to a gathering of students several weeks ago.

On the night of May 13, 1970, a crowd of approximately 100 students, protesting United States involvement in Cambodia and chanting antiwhite slogans, gathered on Lynch Street, which intersects the main campus, and threw rocks and bricks at passing motor vehicles occupied by white persons. motorist and one bystander were injured. The crowd subsequently increased to about 700 persons, made up mostly of According to a source, a number of black hoodlumtype youths, many of them "high" on liquor or narcotics, joined the students in the disorder. Members of the crowd threw objects at Negro campus police officers and at campus buildings, causing extensive window damage to dormitories and classrooms. Numerous pistol shots reportedly were fired into the air and at some buildings and motor vehicles by mob members. The disturbance was brought to a halt at about 2 a.m., May 14, 1970, when a combined force of city police officers and state troopers entered the campus at the request of the college President, John A. Peoples, Jr. Fourteen persons were arrested, including seven students, and all were charged with carrying concealed weapons.

Racial Disorder at Jackson State College, Jackson, Mississippi May, 1970

Disorder again occurred on the night of May 14, 1970, when a crowd of about 60 Negroes, including many nonstudents, assembled near Alexander Hall, a girls' dormitory which faces Lynch Street. Members of the crowd renewed their attacks on white-occupied motor vehicles with rocks and bricks. A source advised several tavern owners received anonymous telephone calls at this time urging them to spread the rumor that Mississippi civil rights leader Charles Evers and his family had been killed. By 11:30 p.m. the disorderly crowd had grown to over 200. A dump truck was set afire and police units moved into the area to clear the crowd to enable the fire department to extinguish the blaze.

Police reported that from the time they arrived in the area they were subjected to abusive language and became targets for rocks and bottles from the crowd of Negroes. Police also reported sniper fire coming from Stewart Hall, a men's dormitory also located on Lynch Street. A newsman reportedly stated that while following a fire truck on foot he heard a volley of shots and was told the shots were coming from a sniper located between two school buildings. One officer claimed he heard six small caliber shots in the area of Stewart Hall at the time the truck fire was being extinguished.

At about 12:15 a.m., May 15, 1970, a large contingent of city police officers and state troopers in riot gear, carrying rifles and shotguns, who had moved on to the campus reportedly was approached by a mob of about 200 students near Alexander Hall. The police fired three tear gas canisters at the crowd forcing it to retreat. The crowd, however, again came toward the police line hurling bottles and other objects, at which time the police allegedly opened fire. Two witnesses stated they heard the crash of a bottle and one small gunshot or firecracker just before the police fired. One officer reported that at about the same time he saw a muzzle flash in a window of Alexander Hall and another officer stated he saw a streak of fire emanate from a top window of another school building. Police reportedly entered Alexander Hall where they allegedly fired several shots.

As a result of the gunfire two Negroes, Phillip Gibbs, age 21, a Jackson State College student, and James Earl Green, a high school student, died. Ten other Negroes were wounded, three critically. Five Negroes, as well as three state troopers and two Jackson police officers, suffered other forms of injuries, minor in nature.

Two additional arrests of Negroes were made on the night of May 14, 1970, one being charged with carrying a concealed weapon and the other for assaulting a police officer. Property damage in the two nights of disorder from vandalism involving extensive window breakage has been estimated at $8,000 to $10,000. Some window breakage and damage to walls was also reported as a result of the gunfire.

A contingent of about 400 National Guardsmen who had been on standby in the area aided police in restoring order shortly after the gunfire had ended. A group of about 100 students went to the residence of the college president and demanded to see him but upon his refusal, they dispersed and caused no further disturbance.

Complete details regarding the disorder at Jackson State College and the circumstances surrounding the shootings are not yet available. State and local investigations to develop this information are underway. At the request of the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice, this Bureau is conducting a preliminary investigation into the shootings to determine if any Federal violations are involved.

On May 9, 1970, a 16-year-old Negro male, Charles Oatman, being held in the Richmond County Jail, Augusta, Georgia, for the March 31, 1970, gunshot slaying of his five-year-old niece was beaten to death by two other Negro juveniles incarcerated in the same cell.

On the evening of May 10, 1970, local authorities advised that a group of approximately 300 Negroes led by Negro City Councilman Grady Abrams and a "Committee of Ten," a group of local Negro citizens attempting to take a more active part in heiping Negro juveniles and the poor of the community, appeared at the County Jail seeking an explanation of the death. The demonstrators dispersed without incident after the Sheriff of Richmond County furnished an explanation of Oatman's death to the group.

On May 11, 1970, approximately 400 Negroes, primarily teen-agers, led by Abrams appeared at the Richmond County Municipal Building demanding improved conditions at the Richmond County Jail specifically relating to the handling of juvenile prisoners. When the Sheriff presented Abrams and his group with a list of plans worked out with the Chairman of County Commissioners toward the improvement of the handling of juvenile prisoners, Abrams appeared satisfied with the solution.

The local pastor of a Baptist church then spoke to the crowd stating that they were not there for violence. He then indicated that it was time for the crowd to disperse. While the demonstrators were in front of the Richmond County Municipal Building, however, several of them seized the state flag of Georgia and burned it. At approximately 4:15 p.m. the crowd began to disperse from the vicinity of the courthouse but a group of approximately 50 Negro teen-agers marched up a nearby street where they turned over gum ball machines. The demonstrators also broke several plate glass windows at business establishments in the vicinity.

At approximately 5:30 p.m. local authorities reported that some of the demonstrators had reassembled in the downtown Negro business district. Widespread looting and burning of white and Chinese business establishments of the Negro district then commenced. Police authorities reported that police and firemen responding to the scene were met with sniper fire. They advised that two gasoline stations, two supermarkets and several private homes were burned. Approximately 100 individuals including the local organizer of the Augusta chapter of the extremist Black Panther Party were arrested. The organizer was arrested on charges of inciting to riot. Officers of the Georgia State Patrol were called to the scene to aid members of the Augusta Police Department in attempting to quell the disorder. through the radio and television media, urged people to stay off the streets.

A curfew was placed in effect by the Mayor of Augusta beginning 12 midnight on May 12, 1970, to 5 a.m., on May 12. During the night of May 11-12, 1970, police authorities advised that approximately 200 to 250 rioters had been arrested, six rioters killed and 67 injured. Police reported that all of those arrested were believed to be Negroes. Approximately ten to twelve buildings were burned and 40 to 50 stores were broken into and looted, all of which were located in the Negro district but owned by whites and nonblacks. Local authorities also reported that rioters overturned and burned numerous cars and trucks. By 9 a.m. on the morning of May 12, 1970, approximately 1,000 Georgia National Guardsmen were on duty in the city of Augusta where they had been called by Georgia Governor Lester Maddox.

On May 12, 1970, the Richmond County Coroner's Office furnished the ages of the six Negroes killed during the rioting: 45 years, 39 years, 28 years, 20 years, 19 years, and 18 years. Police authorities at Augusta reported that the Negroes were presumably killed in an exchange of gunfire between snipers and police.

At a meeting of the City Council on May 12, 1970, the Mayor of Augusta read the following demands made by Negro leaders in Augusta in connection with the riot:

- 1. Amnesty for all arrestees.
- 2. Blacks in policy-making positions in city and county Government.
- 3. Positive minority hiring practices.
- 4. Investigation of county and city penal systems.
- 5. Community relations committee to be set up with subpoena powers.
- 6. Positive effort by city and county to recruit black investors along with private industry.
- 7. Periodic meetings of officiels to ascertain problems and moods of community.

Racial Disturbance Augusta, Georgia May 11-12, 1970

Councilman Grady Abrams and another member of the "Committee of Ten," however, stated they were not satisfied with the Mayor's response. The biggest demand of the Negro leaders was for amnesty for all individuals arrested during the disorder. The Mayor agreed to make an effort regarding the amnesty grant but indicated that individuals arrested on State charges were beyond his control.

During the evening hours of May 12, 1970, local authorities reported minor isolated sporadic outbursts of violence in Augusta but there was no organized effort to repeat the previous night's violence. One 17-year-old Negro male looter was shot and wounded during the evening hours of May 12, 1970. At 4:45 a.m. on May 13, 1970, the Augusta Police Department reported that all was quiet in the city with only a few arrests for curfew violations and intoxication.

On May 18, 1970, an official of the Augusta Police Department advised that preliminary information received by the police indicated that of the six individuals killed during the rioting, three were shot by police while looting; two others were found in the street by police after being shot by unknown persons; and one individual was killed by fellow looters.

On the morning of May 19, 1970, the Department of Justice requested preliminary investigation into the killing of six Negroes at Augusta. Previously this Bureau had been asked only to conduct a limited investigation.

Racial Disturbance in Athens, Georgia

The Chief of Police in Athens, Georgia, advised that Negro youths in Athens reportedly are dissatisfied with the manner in which the predominantly Negro Burney Harris High School is to be closed to conform to integration mandates this coming school year.

During the evening hours of April 29, 1970, approximately 175 Negro youths marched through the downtown area and several windows in business establishments were broken by the demonstrators, causing an estimated damage of $1.000. One Negro Temale was arrested for disorderly conduct.

During the evening of April 30, 1970, about 100 Negro youths assembled near a Negro housing development and began throwing rocks at passing automobiles. authorities ordered the youths to disperse, however, they ignored the orders and continued the rock throwing and began running into the street in an effort to interfere with traffic. Damage was estimated at $1,000. Seventy-three Negro youths were arrested for unlawful assembly. during the evening, two Negro adults were arrested near the Burney Harris High School in possession of four Molotov cocktails and charged with criminal possession of incendiaries.

On May 11, 1970, 200 Negro students from Burney Harris marched from a church to the downtown section and back to the church where they dispersed. This demonstration was conducted with a permit and no incidents occurred. police stated the demonstration was apparently a continuation of the resentment on the part of some of the students that Burney Harris be closed to conform to integration requirements.

During the evening of May 12, 1970, about 200 Negroes, making preparations to march, were requested by police to disperse and leave the area. Approximately 75 of the demonstrators who ignored the request began to march and were arrested for unlawful assembly. No acts of violence occurred.

During the early morning hours of May 13, 1970, fire bombings of three business establishments and the Clarke County Board of Education occurred. A Molotov cocktail used at the Eoard of Education building in an empty room having a concrete floor and brick walls caused no damage. Molotov cocktails thrown into the business establishments caused an estimated damage of $16,000.

On May 13, 1970, the Mayor of Athens, concerned over possible violence erupting, requested the Governor to send members of the National Guard into the area. Later that day 169 members of the 176th Military Police Battalion along with 20 Georgia State Troopers arrived in the city. During that night and the morning of May 14, the National Guard and the State Troopers patrolled the city. No incidents of disorder occurred.

During the evening of May 14, 1970, Hosea Williams, of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, spoke to a group of about 200 persons, both Negro and white, at a local church. Williams advocated a non-violent march by the Negroes through the city on May 15, 1970. On the evening of May 15, 1970, a group of about 500 persons, mostly Negroes, attempted to march on the city streets and were ordered by police to disperse. They failed to do so and attempted to march in the opposite direction. They then sat down at a busy intersection and refused to move whereupon about 225 were arrested. Several persons resisted arrest and were carried and pulled by the officers to army trucks and placed in the city and county jails.

Racial Developments Atlanta Division

During the evening of May 16, 1970, a group of about 150 to 200 black and white students met at a local church but did not attempt any marches and no incidents or arrests were reported.

The police advised that no meetings or demonstrations were held on May 17, 1970, and the National Guard and State Troopers were released on May 17, 1970.

The police advised that during this period no looting or injuries were reported.

Negroes Plan March from Perry, Georgia, to Atlanta, Georgia

A captain of the Georgia State Patrol advised there is reportedly a march planned to leave Perry, Georgia, on May 19, 1878, and scheduled to arrive in Atlanta, Georgia, on May 23, 1970. Six coffins symbolizing the six Negroes who were killed on May 11 - 12, 1970, during racial disorders in Augusta, Georgia, are to be carried on a wagon drawn by mules. Attempts are being made to recruit 50,000 marchers from Perry, Augusta, Athens and other areas in Georgia to participate in this march.

MILITANT STATEMENTS MADE BY

RALPH DAVID ABERNATHY,

PRESIDENT OF THE

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Abernathy purports to advocate nonviolence but has made a number of statements which, while not directly advocating violence, certainly invite violence. Examples of these statements follow.

In May, 1968, at the beginning of the Poor People's Campaign, a massive march on Washington, D. C., sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Abernathy told an audience in Atlanta, Georgia, "I don't want anyone to expect me to be Martin Luther King, Jr. I say to the Nation, to the United States, with Ralph Abernathy you've got hell on your hands." In the same month in Birmingham, Alabama, Abernathy said, "Under Doctor King we were just going to rock the boat, but under the leadership of Doctor Ralph Abernathy, I'm going to go a step farther. We're going to turn this Nation upside-down and right side up."

In May, 1968, at a speech in Atlanta, Georgia, Abernathy referred to an unpaid bill for generations of irresponsibility, oppression and neglect. He said, "The bill is going to be collected - willingly or unwillingly, in civilized decency and love or in fear and hate and the flames of destruction. Time is not running out, but rather, time has run.out."

MILITANT STATEMENTS MADE BY RALPH DAVID ABERNATHY, PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

According to the Chicago Tribune August 30, 1968, Abernathy addressed 3,000 peace demonstrators in Grant Park, Chicago, Illinois, on August 29, 1968, during the time the Democratic Convention was being held in Chicago. He referred to police officers as "pigs" as black extremists regularly do and said that nothing was taking place on the Convention floor. He then added, "But the Lord knows iteis happening here, and more will take place because we are going to sock it to 'em, baby," referring to clashes which had already occurred between demonstrators and police.

In May, 1969, apparently angered at what he considered a poor reception received by his poor people's delegation from the Nixon Administration, Abernathy said time was running out on nonviolence as an approach to solving the Nation's problems. He said, "I do not knownhowmuchhlongers nonviolence can be effective in this country. If the Nation fails to display some consideration (for the people), then I tremble for my America." He added that if the Mixor Administration fails to hear nonviolent voices, then they will have to listen to violent voices.

In September, 1969, while speaking in Atlanta, Georgia, Abernathy said the country is "on the verge of political repression and possibly even bloody revolution." He warned that "there is a limit to people's endurance of injustice and America is rapidly approaching that limit."

On August 13, 1969, Abernathy emphatically embraced and endorsed a plan for counseling young men to refuse to be drafted into military service. The plan was presented to the Annual Convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Charleston, South Camplina.

Abernathy's inconsistency in his nonviolent posture is matched by the same attribute in the personal conduct of this preacher.

MILITANT STATEMENTS MADE BY RALPH DAVID ABERNATHY, PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

On the night of August 29, 1958, Abernathy dashed from his church office in Montgomery, Alabama, pursued by an irate husband wielding a hatchet who accused Abernathy of having a relationship with his wife. The wife of the assailant told a Montgomery Circuit Court jury in November, 1958, that she had submitted to unnatural sex acts with Abernathy before her marriage, beginning at the age of 15, and that "He never stopped chasing me" even after her marriage. She had been a member of Abernathy's church. The jury reportedly deliberated only ten minutes before acquitting the husband of charges in connection with his attack on Abernathy.

During the Poor People's Campaign in Washington, D. C., Abernathy was headquartered at the Pitts Motor Hotel in Washington, D. C., while his followers were mired in the mud in Resurrection City, a shantytown near the Lincoln Memorial. This became a point of contention among his followers and on one occasion Abernathy slept at Resurrection City. However, he returned to the Pitts Motor Hotel during the night after suffering 'stomach pains."

Abernathy has supported the violence-prone Black Panther Party. In the latter part of 1969 he made several public statements favorable to the Black Panthers. On April 20, 1970, Abernathy urged liberal and progressive forces to join a rally on behalf of the Black Panthers at New Haven, Connecticut, on May 1, 1970.

David Hilliard, BPP Chief of Staff, left Los Angeles on 4/5/70 for New Haven. Turner told the woman to listen for news from New Haven in the next few weeks because it would be interesting.

The source added that a "big thing" is planned for 5/1/70, a "giant May Day celebration," details not yet decided. Jon Turner is a San Francisco subject and is considered a bombing suspect because his clothes contained information on explosives when he took them to be cleaned.

The New Haven police and Secret Service in New Haven have been advised concerning Turner and the possible violence. To obtain authority to send attached airtel continental offices alerting them to Black Panther Party (BPP) mobilization efforts at New Haven, Connecticut, in connection with trial proceedings of Panthers charged with murder and to instruct the field to remain alert for criminal violation's and an opportunity to send informants to New Haven.

The BPP national headquarters has promised the New Haven Chapter all the support it needs in preparation for upcoming murder trials involving BPP National Chairman Bobby Seale and other Panthers. Reportedly, all chapters throughout the United States have received instructions to send members to the area with an emphasis being placed on those having training in the use of explosives. Numerous Panthers, including Elbert Howard, the Deputy Minister of Information, have already arrived and Howard has stated that "The people are ready, just waiting for the word." A massive rally has been planned for May 1, 1970, and thousands of individuals, induding BPP members, the New Left, students and various coalition groups are expected to participate. The BPP states that "big things" are planned/ during this rally.

Large purchases of guns, ammunition and explosives have been made for transportation to New Haven and a New York BPP member has been placed in charge of a team of specialists in demolition and firearms. A bombing suspect of the Berkeley, California, Police Department is in New Haven and is assisting in this regard.

Current emphasis by the BPP is being placed on shutting down Yale University and Howard has been in contact with a New Left writer and editor to lead a three-day strike at Yale to demand $500,000 for the Seale Defense Fund. // 5 - /4.5%

DLACK PANTHER PARTY RACIAL MATTERS

The Dlack Panther Farty (DPF) is currently mobilizing its forces focusing on New Force, Connecticut, in connection with trial proceedings of Bro Mational Chairman Bobby Scale and other Panthers charged in the May , 1969, murder of BPP Finalor Alex Rackley. The DPP National Readquarters have premined the New Maven chapter all the support it needs and all chapters throughout the United States have reportedly received instructions to send at last two nembers to New Haven with an emphasis being placed on Fanthers who have training in the use of emplosives.

Elbert Moward, the DPP Deputy Minister of Information, has stated that "The people are ready, just waiting for the word." A massive rally has been planned for May 1, 1970, dering which "big things" are planned by the Fanthers. Thousands of individuals are expected to participate in this activity which will include BPP members, persons affiliated with the New Left, students and various coalition groups. REC 8/05-1657/10

Informant information indicates that large purchases of guns, ammunition and explosives have been made for transportation to Now Haven and reportedly New York BPP member Releast Weigh has been placed in charge of a team of specialists to devolition and firearms. John Turner, a beabing suspect of the Derkeley Police Department, is already in New Haven and is working with the Panthers in this regard

Current emphasis is being placed on shutting down Yale University and Howard has been in contact with Robert Scheer, New Left writer and editor, to lead a three-day strike at Yale to demand $500,000 for the Scale defense fund. BPP representatives are taking part in meetings at Yale and have garnered a great deal of student support.

The current situation at New Haven is extremely volatile and appears to be building to an all-out confrontation between black and white extremists and sympathizers with established authority. Assistance in the form of funds, arms and personnel may be requested from throughout the United States; therefore, all offices will immediately alert appropriate racial and security informants and other appropriate sources in an effort to obtain persinent information concerning the New Haven situation. All offices should remain alert for substantive violations such as Bombing Matters and Antiriot Laws violations and handle in accordance with existing Euroau instructions. Pertinent data should be immediately furnished to the Bureau and New Haven.

This matter should be afforded preferred investigative attention. Eureau authority should be promptly obtained concerning any racial or security informants or sources who are approached to travel to New Haven to insure that the Bureau's interests are secured.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

Focus on New Haven

I' ny signs now indicate that the possibility for racial vio ince, acts of destruction, and even assassination in New Hav n, Connecticut, will increase sharply in the coming wee s and months. The basis for this dire prediction is the all out effort being made by the violence-prone. black extremist, and pro-Harxist Black Panther Party (BPP) to make New Haven a center of operations for the BPP and a rallying point for black extremists and white radicals in order to whip up support for BPP National Chairman Bobby Seale. Preliminary hearings have been held in New Haven this month for the forthcoming trial in which Seale and other Panthers are charged with the murder of Alex Rackley, a BPP member from New York City whose mutilated and tortured body was found in a swamp near Middlefield, Connecticut, last May after the BPF judged him to be a police informant; (NH airtel 4/14/70 re Possible Racial Violence) "New Haven Will Burn"

In early March, 1970, information was received that new operational instructions were to be forwarded-clandestinely to BPP chapters. Among other things, each chapter was to furnish a list of sympathizers who have had military experience for the purpose of establishing a school in the United States for training in guerrilla warfare. The chapters were also to try to place sympathizers in positions in law enforcement and commit burglaries to obtain firearms and funds to further BPP programs. About the same time, Douglas Miranda, BPP Area Captain in New Haven, stated that each BPP chapter would be requested to send two representatives, preferably those having a knowledge of explosives, to New Haven while Seale is there for the trial. Miranda said that every effort would be made to prevent Seale's conviction, but if these efforts were not successful "New Haven will burn." (SOG LHM 3/10/70 re BPP)

Blackout and Race War

On March 18, 1970, BPP Chief of Staff David Hilliard & spoke to an audience in excess of 2,000 at the University of Connecticut. During his remarks, Hilliard threatened that if

SEE NOTE PAGE FOUR

NW 55180 DocId:32989649 anything happens to Seale "there will not be any lights for days in this country...not only will we burn buildings, we will take lives, we will blow up buildings, we will kill judges..." He stressed what was expected of young white revolutionists in these words: "If they feel that they want to do what t'ey've already been doing in terms of explosives, then they slould do that. If they want to assassinate judges then they slould do that. If you don't want black people to just go out in the street and indiscriminately murder white people or ice versa, then I think it is necessary for us to come toget er around the issue of trying to free Bobby." Hilliard a led, "we're going to unleash a race war on the pigs of America and it's up to you, as white revolutionists, to support the struggle of black people." (NH airtel 4/15/70 re BPP)

Counterattack and Annihilate

Similar inflammatory themes have been featured in recent issues of "The Black Panther," weekly BPP newspaper. For example, BPP Minister of Information Eldridge Cleaver, who is a fugitive from justice and self-exiled in Algeria, wrote in the March 7 issue: "We, Black people, if we are forced to go it alone, must be prepared to unleash the ultimate political consequence upon this racist nation. The ultimate political consequence which Black people have in their power to unleash is RACE WAR.... This is the political consequence which America faces because of this unspeakable evil attempt to murder Chairman Bobby Seale in the Electric Chair." April 18 issue contains instructions for cleaning shoulder weapons, for firearms training, and for making Molotov cocktails and hand grenades. This issue also carries a comment by Randy Williams on the jailing of David Hilliard and BPP Minister of Culture Emory Douglas in New Haven for contempt Williams, who is in custody of the Oakland. California, Police Department for "unprovoked ambush and wounding of" four Oakland police officers on April 17, 1970, wrote: "Counterattack by any means necessary. America will soon dread the birthday and curse the name of the fascist pig judge in Connecticut ... CRDERS: Destroy the spirit of the fascist forces; seek out and annihilate them wherever they are found."

Shoot to Kill

The New Haven BPP chapter's "People's News Service" picked up the theme of race war in its April 5 issue when it stated: "...But when niggers take to the streets it's shoot

100-422089 When pigs go after Panthers it's destroy all. to kill. kill all. The only solution to our problem is dead pigs from the three levels of oppression, the demagogic politicians, avaricious businessmen, and the racist plg cops." In this connection, a rumor was spread through the ghetto area of New Haven that Arnold Markle, State's Attorney who is prosecuting the BPP case, will be murdered if Seale is convicted. Another rumor calls for the kidnaping of someone in the office of the Attorney General of the United States who would be held for the release of Seale if Seale is convicted.(NH tt 3/26/70 re BPP: SF tt 4/6/70 re BPP)

"Glant May Day Celebration"

There are other ominous signs. Jon Turner, BPP activist from the West Coast is in New Haven. Turner, who is viewed as a possible bombing suspect by the Berkeley, California, Police Department, has told West Coast associates that his education and skills would be useful in New Haven and that a "big thing," a "giant May Day celebration" is planned for May I in New Haven. Turner added that in New Haven things are "uptight," the community is mobilized, and it's going to get hot. Elbert "Big Man" Howard, BPP Deputy Minister of Information, has also mentioned a rally in New Haven on May 1, and has said that even school children in New Haven are determined to keep Bobby Seale from the electric chair. At a rally held at Yale University on April 14, Howard stated that the black community "must meet kidnaping with kidnaping; killing with killing." If the Panthers are convicted, Howard predicted, "You will have a flood of crazy niggers in your streets." (NH tts 4/14, 16, 20/70 re BPP)

Trouble at Yale

As for Yale University, the campus is tense as the Panthers go all out to get student support. Earlier this month, Elbert Howard wanted Robert Scheer, former editor of the rabidly anti-United States magazine, "Ramparts," to come to New Haven to lead a three-day strike at Yale University and to demand of Yale $500,000 for the "Bobby Seale Defense Fund." Panthers in New Haven are distributing pamphlets, brochures, and "The Black Panther" widely on the Yale campus to rally support. On April 20, David Dellinger of the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam and Reverend Ralph Abernathy

SECRET

of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference held a press conference concerning the mass rally scheduled to be held in New Haven on May 1, 1970, and said they expected support from Yale students. An unidentified Negro told a group of Yale students on April 17, "If you don't close Yale down in two weeks, we have the means to do it ourselves." On the night of Apr 1 21, the Yale Student Senate agreed to "a vote for a volum ary strike to express concern for justice and the rights" of the Panthers charged with the murder of Alex Rackley. On April 22, about 80 per cent of Yale's students we seen strike. (NH tts 4/16, 17, 20/70 re BPP)

Weapons and Ammunition Stockpiles

The volatile statements and threats of the Panthers cannot be dismissed as mere rhetoric or propaganda. It has been reported, for example, that Robert Webb, New York City Panther, has been placed in charge of a team of specialists in demolition and firearms. A Meriden, Connecticut, police officer apprehended six young Negroes on April 8 after a gun shop had been burglarized. On the previous night, 19 weapons were stolen from the same snop. There is ample reason to believe that these stolen weapons were to be delivered to the BPP in New Haven. Furthermore, Boston Panthers have been purchasing arms and large quantities of ammunition for delivery to New Haven. The purchases, the bulk of which were made on April 17, included five rifles, one shotgun, one carbine, and nearly 30,000 rounds of ammunition, including 23,000 rounds for high-powered rifles. (NH tt 4/9/70

TELETYPE TO NEW HAVEN
RALLY IN DEFENSE OF BLACK PANTHER PARTY DEFENDANTS NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT, MAY ONE, TWO, THREE, NEXT

NOTE:

By teletype 4/24/70 New Haven advised that a former employee of the United Nuclear Corporation, New Haven, had reported to a company official that on 4/22/70 while in a barroom he had overheard six Negroes discussing a Black Panther Party demonstration in New Haven on 5/1/70 and overheard them say that "United Illuminating, Olin Mathieson and United Nuclear would be bombed out." Company officials stated they notified officials of companies involved, local police and Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C. New Haven being instructed to submit daily teletype summary in view of increasing tension in New Haven due to BPP threats of violence in connection with murder trial of BPP members.

New Haven law enforcement agencies are preparing for BPP violence. In view of the many threats of violence made by BPP leaders in the event Bobby Seale is convicted of murder, law enforcement agencies in New Haven are making special preparations to handle any violence that may occur. The chief cause of concern at the present time is the massive rally which the BPP and its sympathizers are planning for 5/1/70, which activity may continue for several days. The chief of the New Haven Police Department advised today that current plans call for utilization of 200 police officers on duty on a continuous basis from 5/1 through 5/3/70. Three hundred Connecticut State Police officers and 700 National Guardsmen will assist. In addition, there will be 1700 National Guardsmen on call who can be mobilized within a 2-hour period.

Reports of stockpiling of weapons by BPP members continue to be received. These reports have been to effect that members of BPP are prepared to buy large amounts of weapons and ammunition for use by New Haven Panther Defense Committee in the upcoming "revolution." Police in Boston report that BPP members or sympathizers there have made purchases of rifles, shotguns, handguns and large quantities of ammunition for use in New Haven. Weapons in possession of the Panthers reportedly include automatic weapons.

On 4/23/70 an official of the United Nuclear Corporation in New Haven reported that a former employee informed him that he had overheard on 4/22/70 a conversation among six Negroes at a bar room who were discussing the 5/1 demonstration and specifically heard them say that

RE: THREAT OF RACIAL VIOLENCE

"United Illuminating, Olin Mathiesen, and United Nuclear would be bombed out." He stated he had alerted officials of these companies as well as the Atomic Energy Commission and local authorities.

Information was received in February that dynamite was located at BPP headquarters in New Haven. Recently a source advised that at least two members of each BPP chapter in the country (BPP organizations are located in about 40 cities) should proceed to New Haven and that preference should be given to members having explosives and demolition experience.

Violent statements by BPP leaders have already caused minor disturbances in New Haven. Following the jailing of two BPP officials on contempt of court charges during preliminary proceedings in the BPP trial on 4/14/70, a group of blacks booke windows and created disturbances in downtown New Haven. Several days later, a group of about 300 high school students, most of them Negroes, who had been demonstrating in front of the courthouse ran through the downtown area shoving and pushing shoppers and damaging property. On 4/22/70, a local BPP leader created a disturbance at a high school forcing the temporary closing of the school when fires were started and windows broken by rampaging students.

Reports indicate BPP gaining support of Yale University student groups. Leaders of the BPP have been active on the Yale campus where many of their threats of violence have been voiced. They have indicated they expect strong support from Yale students in the 5/1 rally and have threatened to close Yale down if a demand of $500,000 from the University to be used in defense of Connecticut Panthers is not met. A threat was made to take over the rare book library at Yale.

On 4/22/70, ten of twelve undergraduate colleges at Yale voted to strike in support of the Panthers. Yesterday approximately 500 striking students staged a march to the residence of the University president and then held a brief peaceful rally. A peaceful "civil disobedience" demonstration called for by Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin, Jr., during which Coffin and otherswould subject themselves to arrest scheduled to be held on 4/24/70 has been postponed to be held, according to Coffin, in abeyance for possible future use.

Other outside sympathizers plan to participate in 5/1 demonstration. A New York source advised that the National Lawyers Guild, cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and the Women's Liberation Movement, a militant women's rights group, will participate in the BPP activities in New Haven and at Yale beginning on 5/1/70. The source also reported that the December 4th Movement, a radical student group of 25 to 50 members at Columbia University, New York City, will also take part and will urge others to join them.

This is to furnish a summary of developments at New Haven, Conn., where violence is threatened by the extremist Black Panther Party (BPP) and a massive demonstration is scheduled to be held beginning 5/1/70 in support of Bobby Seale, Chairman, and other members of the BPP who are facing trial on a murder charge.

BPP Prepares for Violence. A source advised on 4/26/70 that Douglas Miranda, BPP Area Captain, had instructed another member to obtain 100 sandbags for use at the BPP headquarters in New Haven. Another source reported that on Friday, an individual not known to him had informed the national headquarters of the BPP in Berkeley, Calif., that 50,000 persons would take part in the demonstration in New Haven on 5/1/70and that demonstrators would engage in guerilla warfare-in the streets.

Large Number of Weapons Reported Stolen in New Haven Area A report was received by the Connecticut State Police yesterday that approximately 360 shoulder weapons were stolen from a freight station in North Branford, Conn., this past weekend. North Branford is near New Haven. A theft of 44 rifles was also reported by a company in Newington, Conn., over the weekend. No suspects in these thefts have been developed.

Three Suspicious Persons Arrested by New Haven Police Found in Possession of BPP Literature and a Marked Map. New Haven police reported that early Sunday morning, an automobile occupied by two women and a man was observed driving past the New Haven Police Department Divisional Headquarters several times and then stopping at the rear entrance of the building. One of the individuals was arrested for failure to have a drivers permit and the other two for trespass. Two of the individuals were from Boston, Mass. The police found various pieces of literature pertaining to the BPP rally in the automobile of the arrested persons. They also found a map of the City of New Haven on which several locations, including National Guard Armories, a shopping mall, the Yale University Bowl, and an office building housing the FBI office, had been marked. Also found in the vehicle were numerous electrical and plumbing-type tools and general instruction manuals pertaining to water and electrical systems.

BPP Continues to Receive Outside Support. A source advised on 4/26/70 that an individual unknown to him who identified himself as a member of the Weatherman, the violence-prone faction of anarchistic Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), had contacted the leader of the New Haven Panther Defense Committee and informed him that he was "looking for some action." He was told that the best bet for some "action" was "chief pig Ahern" (Chief of Police in New Haven).

Another source reported on 4/25/70 that two members of the BPP had visited State University of New York (SUNY), Stony Brook, New York, that date to confer with Ira Wechsler, a reported member of the Progressive Labor Party, a pro-Chinese Marxist organization; Arthur Mitchell, a black activist at SUNY; and Mitchell Cohen, a former student and SDS member. The purpose of the meeting was to plan a campaign to begin today to raise money for Bobby Seale and to rent buses to transport individuals to New Haven to attend the trial of the BPP members. A source also reported that one Cathy Schindler of the Union Theological Seminary in New York City has indicated that she will contact divinity colleges in that area to gain support for the BPP defendants.

On Saturday, a peaceful rally in support of the BPP was staged by about 200 white college-age persons near the Superior Court Building in New Haven.

Members of the Venceremos Brigade Reported to be Proceeding to New Haven for 5/1/70 Rally. The Venceremos Brigade is a group supported by a wide spectrum of individuals associated with the New Left who have traveled to Cuba for the ostensible purpose of assisting in the 1970 sugar cane harvest. A source reported that about 500 members of the Brigade who are scheduled to arrive in St. Johns, New Brunswick, Canada, from Cuba today will proceed to New Haven for the rally.

is scheduled to be held beginning 5/1/70 in support of Bobby Seale, Chairman, and other members of the BPP who are facing trial on a murder charge.

Schedule of Activities at New Haven, Connecticut, 5/1-3/70. A source advised that speakers during the 5/1-3/70 demonstrations include Abbott Hoffman, David Dellinger, Tom Hayden, Rennie Davis,

Lee Weiner, Jerry Rubin, John Froines, who were the "Chicago Seven" conspiracy antiriot defendants; William Kunstler, Attorney for the "Chicago Seven" defendants; Ralph Abernathy, President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference; Stewart Meacham of the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, and top BPP leaders. Various workshops and music festivals are also CONN. planned.

CONINI Acts of violence reportedly planned after speech by William Kunstler. Robert Goldstein, a professed conscientious objector sympathic to the movement" but a firm believer in nonviolence, advised that on 4/24/70 he attended a party in Greenwich Village, New York. 'At the party he overheard the conversation of two individuals, one of them stating, "after Kunstler gives his speech the plan was to burn New Haven down." This individual indicated he was obtaining liquid nitroglycerin and would furnish it to anyone who needed it. Special emphasis was put on the fact that no fires were to be started in the ghetto areas of New Haven and that after the fires were underway, the next phase was to be sniper fire upon the fire department and not the police. of the individuals also stated there were plans to blow up the

New Haven railroad bridge which runs through the center of New Haven.

Yale University law library damaged by fire. Yale University has been the scene of much of the activity by BPP leaders in the New Haven situation. In connection with the recent demand for $500,000 from the University, threats were made to close Yale down and to take over the rare book library. Yesterday, a fire of suspicious origin caused considerable damage to the basement of the Yale law school.library. damage was confined mostly to books and heavy smoke damage to the upper portion of the building.

Facilities allegedly to be provided by Yale University during the demonstrations. It has been reported that Yale University is providing medical aid through medical stations located on the campus. Most of the colleges at Yale are arranging for housing in rooms and temporary shelters for the use of the demonstrators. Food will also be provided by the University at a price of 20 cents per meal.

Representative Adam Clayton Powell (Democrat - New York City) indicates support for the BPP. An article appearing in the Hartford Courant, a Hartford, Connecticut, newspaper stated that Powell previously held a press conference at the Bradley International Airport in Hartford, stating that the "New Haven Panther trial is high on my list of issues to discuss. Black Panther Party are good friends of mine, all of them." He also stated, "I'm proud of them and I'm proud of the fact that we have an armed band of blacks. FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover is the architect of the genocide of the Black Panther Party."

Dear Mr. Nassikas:

I thought you might be interested in the following information concerning the increasing activity of the extremist and violence-prone Black Panther Party in the New England area which poses a potential threat to electrical power installations throughout the country.

The Black Panther Party is currently engaged in a massive campaign in New Haven, Connecticut, in support of its Chairman Bobby Seale and other Black Panther Party members who face trial there for the killing of a fellow Panther in May, 1969. The main propaganda phase of this campaign is that Seale is a political prisoner who is being railroaded to the electric chair. The Black Panther Party claims that he will never be electrocuted because it will turn off all the electricity and let the flame of liberation light the sky. This theme of shutting off the electricity is continually preached by the Black Panther Party in speeches by its members and in the articles and Although this threat against electrical power systems appears to be pure propaganda at present, it is quite possible that individual members of this extremist organization could be incited to committing a destructive act against a power installation. You will, of course, be advised of any specific threat developed in this regard.

For your additional information, there is enclosed herewith a Current Intelligence Analysis dated April 24, 1970, which contains details of the Black Panther Party campaign currently underway in New Haven, Connecticut.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

Focus on New Haven

Many signs now indicate that the possibility for racial violence, acts of destruction, and even assassination in New Haven, Connecticut, will increase sharply in the coming weeks and months. The basis for this dire prediction is the all-out effort being made by the violence-prone, black extremist, and pro-Marxist Black Panther Party (BPP) to make New Haven a center of operations for the BPP and a rallying point for black extremists and white radicals in order to whip up support for EPP National Chairman Bobby Seale. Preliminary hearings have been held in New Haven this month for the forthcoming trial in which Seale and other Panthers are charged with the murder of Alex Rackley, a BPP member from New York City whose mutilated and tortured body was found in a swamp near Middlefield, Connecticut, last May after the BFP julged him to be a police informant, (NH airtel 4/14/70 re Possible Racial Violence) "New Haven Will Burn"

In early March, 1970, information was received that new operational instructions were to be forwarded-claudestinely to BPP chapters. Among other things, each chapter was to furnish a list of sympathizers who have had military experience for the purpose of establishing a school in the United States for training in guerrilla warfare. The chapters were also to try to place sympathizers in positions in law enforcement and commit burglaries to obtain firearms and funds to further BPP programs. About the same time, Douglas Miranda, BPP Area Captain in New Haven, stated that each BPP chapter would be requested to send two representatives, preferably those having a knowledge of explosives, to New Haven while Seale is there for the trial. Miranda said that every effort would be made to prevent Seale's conviction, but if these efforts were not successful "New Haven will burn." (SOG LHM 3/10/70 re BPP) anything happens to Seale "there will not be any lights for days in this country...not only will we burn buildings, we will take lives, we will blow up buildings, we will kill judges..." He stressed what was expected of young white revolutionists in these words: "If they feel that they want to do what they've already been doing in terms of explosives, then they should do that. If they want to assassinate judges then they should do that. If you don't want black people to just go out in the street and indiscriminately murder white people or vice versa, then I think it is necessary for us to come together around the issue of trying to free Bobby."

Hilliard added, "we're going to unleash a race war on the pigs of America and it's up to you, as white revolutionists, to support the struggle of black people." (NH airtel 4/15/70 re BPF

Counterattack and Annihilate

Similar inflammatory themes have been featured in recent issues of "The Black Panther," weekly BPP newspaper. For example, BPP Minister of Information Eldridge Cleaver, who is a fugitive from justice and self-exiled in Algeria, wrote in the March 7 issue: "We, Black people, if we are forced to go it alone, must be prepared to unleash the ultimate political consequence upon this racist nation. The ultimate political consequence which Black people have in their power to unleash is NACE WAR.... This is the political consequence which America faces because of this unspeakable evil attempt to murder Chairman Bobby Seale in the Electric Chair." The April 18 issue contains instructions for cleaning shoulder weapons, for firearms training, and for making Molotov cocktails and hand grenades. This issue also carries a comment by Randy Williams on the jailing of David Hilliard and BPP Minister of Culture Emory Douglas in New Haven for contempt of court. Williams, who is in custody of the Oakland. California, Police Department for "unprovoked ambush and wounding of" four Oakland police officers on April 17, 1970, wrote: "Counterattack by any means necessary. America will soon dread the birthday and curse the name of the fascist pig judge in Connecticut ... ORDERS: Destroy the spirit of the fascist forces; seek out and annihilate them wherever they are found."

Shoot to Kill

The New Haven BPP chapter's "People's News Service" picked up the theme of race war in its April 5 issue when it stated: "...But when niggers take to the streets it's shoot who would be held for the release of Seale if Seale is convicted. (NH tt 3/26/70 re BPP; SF tt 4/6/70 re BPP) to kill. When pigs go after Panthers it's destroy all, kill all. The only solution to our problem is dead pigs from the three levels of oppression, the demagogic politicians, avaricious businessmen, and the racist pig cops." In this connection, a rumor was spread through the ghetto area of New Haven that Arnold Markle, State's Attorney who is prosecuting the BPP case, will be murdered if Seale is convicted. Another rumor calls for the kidnaping of someone in the office of the Attorney General of the United States

"Giant May Day Celebration"

CINAL

There are other ominous signs. Jon Turner, BPP activist from the West Coast is in New Haven. Turner, who is viewed as a possible bombing suspect by the Berkeley, California, Police Department, has told West Coast associates that his education and skills would be useful in New Haven and that a "big thing," a "giant May Day celebration" is planned for May 1 in New Haven. Turner added that in New Haven things are "uptight," the community is mobilized. and it's going to get hot. Elbert "Big Man" Howard, BPP Deputy Minister of Information, has also mentioned a rally in New Haven on May 1, and has said that even school children in New Haven are determined to keep Bobby Seale from the electric chair. At a rally held at Yale University on April 14, Howard stated that the black community "must meet kidnaping with kidnaping; killing with killing." If the Panthers are convicted, Howard predicted, "You will have a flood of crazy niggers in your streets." (NH tts 4/14, 16, 20/70 re BPP) Trouble at Yale

As for Yale University, the campus is tense as the Panthers go all out to get student support. Earlier this month, Elbert Howard wanted Robert Scheer, former editor of the rabidly anti-United States magazine, "Ramparts," to come to New Haven to lead a three-day strike at Yale University and to demand of Yale $500,000 for the "Bobby Seale Defense Fund." Panthers in New Haven are distributing pamphlets, brochures, and "The Black Panther" widely on the Yale campus to rally support. On April 20, David Dellinger of the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam and Reverend Ralph Abernathy

of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference held a press conference concerning the mass rally scheduled to be held in New Haven on May 1, 1970, and said they expected support from Yale students. An unidentified Negro told a group of Yale students on April 17, "If you don't close Yale down in two weeks, we have the means to do it ourselves." On the night of April 21, the Yale Student Senate agreed to "a vote for a voluntary strike to express concern for justice and the rights" of the Panthers charged with the murder of Alex Rackley. On April 22, about 80 per cent of Yale's students were on strike. (NH tts 4/16, 17, 20/70 re BPP)

Weapons and Ammunition Stockpiles

The volatile statements and threats of the Panthers cannot be dismissed as mere rhetoric or propaganda. It has been reported, for example, that Robert Webb, New York City Panther, has been placed in charge of a team of specialists in demolition and firearms. A Meriden, Connecticut, police officer apprehended six young Negroes on April 8 after a gun shop had been burglarized. On the previous night, 19 weapons were stolen from the same shop. There is ample reason to believe that these stolen weapons were to be delivered to the BPP in New Haven. Furthermore, Boston Panthers have been purchasing arms and large quantities of ammunition for delivery to New Haven. The purchases, the bulk of which were made on April 17, included five rifles, one shotgun, one carbine, and nearly 30,000 rounds of ammunition, including 23,000 rounds for high-powered rifles. (NH tt 4/9/70 re BPP; Boston tt 4/20/70 re BPP)

Mayor of New Haven, the Commanding Officer of the National Guard, and other state officials to discuss the potential of the overall situation and the capability of the state guard and police to deal with it.

Mr. Kleindienst also indicated he was meeting this afternoon with appropriate Pentagon officials to discuss the availability of Federal troops if needed.

In addition, the Deputy Attorney General taking note of the intelligence which has been developed with respect to the New Haven situation instructed that another meeting of the Evaluation Committee take place tomorrow morning (4/30/70) at 9 o'clock in order that a more up-to-date assessment of the situation could be obtained.

The committee unanimously approved the conclusions which point up that the potential for violence is extremely high not only with respect to the possibility of riots but also takes into account assassinations, bombings, arson, and sabotage. Other conclusions call for the instant deployment of the Departmental Civil Disorder Task Force, close liaison between local and Federal agencies, and a decision with respect to alerting Federal troops, such decision to be taken into consideration by the Deputy Attorney General in connection with his meeting this afternoon with military agencies.

ACTION:

If you approve, the attached report will be furnished to the Deputy Attorney General by attached letter and to each representative who attended this meeting. Section Chief George C. POTENTIAL FOR VIOLENCE DURING DEMONSTRATIONS IN SUPPORT OF BLACK PANTHER PARTY DEFENDANTS NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

A. General Situation

Many signs indicate that the possibility for racial violence, acts of destruction, and even assassination in New Haven, Connecticut, is increasing sharply. The basis for this is the all-out effort being made by the extremist Black Panther Party (BPP) to make New Haven a center of operations for the BPP and a rallying point for black extremists and white radicals in order to whip up support for BPP National Chairman Bobby Seale and other BPP members who are facing trial on a murder charge. Many outside groups, including a large portion of the Yale University student body, are lending support to the BPP, and reports disclose that these groups will undoubtedly participate in massive demonstrations which are scheduled to take place in New Haven for several days beginning on May 1, 1970. A source advised on April 26, 1970, that an individual not known to him had informed the national headquarters of the BPP that 50,000 persons would take part in the demonstrations in New Haven next weekend.

B. Threats of Violence

On March 18, 1970, BPP Chief of Staff David Hilliard. in an address before 2.000 persons at the University of Connecticut, threatened that if anything happens to Seale, "There will not be any lights for days in this country...Not only will we burn buildings, we will take lives, we will blow up buildings, we will kill judges ... " He stressed what was expected of young white revolutionists in these words, "If they feel that they want to do what they have already been doing in terms of explosives, then they should do that. they want to assassinate judges, they should do that. you don't want black people to just go out in the street and indiscriminately murder white people or vice versa, then I think it's necessary for us to come together around the issue of trying to free Bobby." Hilliard said "We're going to unleash a race war on the pigs of America and it's up to you as white revolutionists to support the struggle of black people."

Similar inflammatory themes have been featured in recent issues of "The Black Panther," weekly BPP newspaper, and in Ministry of Information Bulletins prepared by the Connecticut State BPP. Examples of this are included in the attached copy of Ministry of Information Bulletin, Number 15, which, among other things, contains a photograph of the Chief of Police at New Haven with the caption "Wanted Dead." Reportedly, 10,000 to 12,000 copies of these Bulletins are distributed throughout the State of Connecticut, as well as in New York City and Boston, Massachusetts, weekly. The April 18 issue of "The Black Panther" carries an article by Randy Williams who wrote, "Counterattack by any means necessary. Fascist America will soon dread the birthday and curse the name of the fascist pig judge in Connecticut...ORDERS: Destroy the spirit of the fascist force; seek out and annihilate them wherever they are found."

C: Stockpiling of Arms and Ammunition

On April 21, 1970, a source advised that he had been contacted numerous times by John LaPort, a member of the New Haven Panther Defense Committee, requesting that he be prepared to buy large amounts of weapons and ammunition for use by the New Haven Panther Defense Committee in the upcoming "revolution." He indicated he had $3,000 with which to purchase weapons.

According to reports from sources, BPP members in Boston, Massachusetts, have been buying guns and large quantities of ammunition in recent weeks for use in New Haven. John Pinderhughes, a Boston Panther, has been one of the largest purchasers of ammunition in the Boston area.

The weapons reported purchased have included five rifles, one shotgun, and one carbine. The ammunition purchased has included 4,400 rounds of .30 caliber, 1,700 rounds of 8mm, 880 rounds of .44 caliber, and 150 rounds of .00 buckshot. A source reported that the ammunition purchased by Pinderhughes was delivered to BPP headquarters in New Haven on April 20, 1970, by James Wilson, a white male who has been involved in BPP activity.

A source advised on April 22, 1970, John Wayne Thomas, a Boston Panther, had made it known that he is trying to obtain magazines for automatic weapons and said he has 75 9mm automatic weapons.

A report was received by the Connecticut State Police on April 27, 1970, that 280 shotguns and 80 rifles were stolen from a trucking company in North Branford, Connecticut, this past weekend. North Branford is near New Haven. The company truck in which these weapons were carried away was found abandoned and empty near Throggs Neck, New York, on April 27, 1970. A theft of 44 rifles was also reported by a company in Newington, Connecticut, over the weekend. No suspects in these thefts have been developed.

On April 26, 1970, a source advised that Douglas Miranda, a New Haven BPP leader, has instructed a member to obtain 100 sand bags for use at the New Haven BPP headquarters. A source has also reported that Miranda was attempting to obtain 1,000 "bags" as quickly as possible as "a matter of life and death," stating "they" had to get "the stuff prepared by Friday." The source was unable to learn the specific nature or purpose of the "bags."

D. Use of Explosives

The use of dynamite and other explosives by BPP members and their sympathizers in the New Haven situation is a strong possibility. Information was received in February that dynamite was located at BPP headquarters in New Haven. A source advised on April 16, 1970, that Robert Webb, a New York Panther, has been placed in charge of a team of specialists in demolition and firearms. Another source reported that the BPP recently issued instructions for at least two members of each BPP chapter in the country (BPP organizations are located in about 40 cities) to proceed to New Haven in connection with the Panther murder trial, and that preference should be given to members having explosives and demolition experience. Turner, a black extremist from Berkeley, California, who is a bombing suspect of the Berkeley Police Department, was recently in New Haven, reportedly to aid in the activity there by utilizing his skills as an explosives expert. Indications are that he will return to New Haven.

A source reported on April 19, 1970, that he had been informed that two members of the Weatherman faction of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) will be furnishing dynamite to the BPP and their cause. On April 27, 1970,

JFK Act 6 (4) a professed conscientious objector sympathetic to "the movement," but a believer in nonviolence, advised that at a party attended by people in "the movement" in New York City on April 24, 1970, an individual named Lee Doyle, who is employed at a chemical warehouse in New Haven, has stated he plans to use his residence in New Haven as a gathering place where individuals coming into that city will be able to store explosives and weapons to be used in the demonstrations beginning May 1, 1970. Doyle reportedly stated that he was obtaining liquid nitroglycerin and will be able to furnish it to anyone who needed it.

On April 23, 1970, an Office of the United Nuclear Corporation in New Haven reported that a former employee informed him that he had overheard on April 22, 1970, a conversation among six Negroes at a barroom in New Haven who were discussing the May demonstrations and, specifically, heard them say that 'United Illuminating, Olin Mathiesen, and United Nuclear would be bombed out.'

On April 28, 1970, police searching a New Haven residence known as Radcliff Hall, a Yale University building, seized chemical components capable of destroying a large-size building when properly combined. Also seized were numerous homemade smoke bombs. An 18-year-old former Yale student, James K. Hernes, who had been expelled for radical activity, was arrested. Gregory Wells, aged 22, was also arrested. Both were charged with possession of explosives with intent to destroy property and persons.

Demonstrations Scheduled for May 1, 2, and 3, 1970

A chief cause of concern in the New Haven situation at the present time is the massive rally which the BPP and its sympathizers are planning for May 1, 2, and 3, 1970. Reports indicate that 30,000 to 50,000 persons are expected to participate in a wide variety of activity over the threeday period. Such activity over this extended period could well result in confrontations between the demonstrators and law enforcement agencies and could tax the strength of the police agencies.

Schedule of Activities

An informant advised that at a meeting of the Committee to Defend the Panther 21 in New York City on April 26, 1970, it was indicated that the following would be the schedule of activities in the New Haven demonstrations:

May 1, 1970

10:30 a.m. — Press conference on courthouse steps featuring Elbert "Big Man" Howard, BPP Deputy Minister of Information; Ralph Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; leaders of the New Haven Panther Defense Committee; and the "Chicago 7," the defendants in the conspiracy-antiriot law trial held in Chicago, Illinois.

The Venceremos Brigade is a group supported by a wide spectrum of individuals associated with the New Left who have traveled to Cuba for the express purpose of assisting in the 1970 sugar cane harvest.

8 p.m. -- Rock Testival.

May 3, 1970

3 p.m. to 8 p.m. - Black music festival.

A city permit has been granted for demonstrations and rallies to take place on the New Haven Green, a three-by-three square block area, for the three-day period May 1 through 3, 1970.

2. Make-up of Demonstration Participants

The radical groups planning to join the large number of Black Panthers in the three-day affair at New Haven leave no doubt that the situation is fraught with danger. Groups which have indicated that they will participate include SDS and its violence-prone Weatherman faction. On April 26, 1970, an individual who identified himself as a member of the Weatherman faction contacted the leader of the New Haven Panther Defense Committee and informed him that he was "looking for some action." He was told that the best bet: for some "action" was "Chief Pig Ahern" (Chief of Police in New Haven).

On the basis of information received from sources, the following is the number of Black Panthers and members of radical groups who are presently in the New Haven area or who are expected by May 1, 1970:

Black Panther Party

Connecticut membership -- 55 Out-of-state members presently in New Haven -- 60 Total out-of-state members expected -- 200

SDS and New Left Groups

Connecticut membership -- 65
Out-of-state members presently in New Haven -- 80
Out-of-state representatives expected -- 70
Local SDS sympathizers -- 500

Other groups which have indicated they will participate include the National Lawyers Guild, cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and the Women's Liberation Movement, a militant women's rights group. A source also reported that the December 4 Movement, a radical student group of 35 to 50 members at Columbia University in New York City, will also take part and will urge others to join it.

On April 25, 1970, two members of the BPP visited State University of New York (SUNY), Stony Brook, New York, to confer with Ira Wechsler, a reported member of the Progressive Labor Party, a pro-Chinese Marxist organization;

Arthur Mitchell, a black activist at SUNY; and Mitchell Cohen, a former student and SDS member. The purpose of the meeting was to plan a campaign to raise money for Bobby Seale and to rent busses to transport individuals to New Haven.

A source advised that approximately 200 members of the Venceremos Brigade who returned from Cuba this week have indicated they will travel to New Haven to participate in the May demonstrations. These Brigade members will travel to New Haven independently and not be transported there by the Venceremos Brigade.

3. Yale University Involvement

Leaders of the BPP have been active on the Yale University campus for several weeks where many of the threats of violence have been voiced. They have indicated they expect strong support from Yale students in the May demonstrations and have threatened to close Yale down if the demand of $500,000 from the University to be used in defense of the Connecticut Panthers is not met. A threat was made to take over the rare book library at Yale.

On April 22, 1970, ten of twelve undergraduate colleges at Yale voted to strike in support of the Panthers. The strike has gone into effect and has halted most academic functions at the University. On April 23, 1970, 500 striking students staged a rally on the Yale campus and a peaceful "civil disobedience" demonstration was called for by Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin, Jr., on April 24, 1970, during which Coffin and others would subject themselves to arrest. This demonstration was subsequently postponed to be held in abeyance for possible future use.

With respect to Yale student participation in the May demonstration activity, it has been reported that approximately *50 per cent of the student body of 9,385 members is leaving the campus for the weekend. A student strike in support of the BPP defendants has reportedly been 80 per cent effective.

It has been reported that Yale University will provide medical aid through medical stations located on the campus during the May demonstrations. Most of the colleges at Yale are making arrangements to house visiting demonstrators in rooms and temporary shelters. Food will be provided to the demonstrators by the University at a price of 20 cents per meal.

4. Reports of Planned Violence During the Demonstrations

A source reported that on April 24, 1970, an individual not known to him had informed the national headquarters of the BPP in Berkeley, California, that 50,000 persons would take part in the New Haven demonstrations and that demonstrators would engage in guerrilla warfare in the streets. On April 22, 1970, a source advised that a BPP member in Boston had stated that the Panthers had received orders to move on Bobby Seale's trial in Connecticut and On April 27, 1970, a representative of the break it up. Associated Press in New Haven advised he had received an unsigned message from the Associated Press in Boston which stated that during the confusion which will take place in New Havenon May 1, 1970, a guerrilla force will attempt to free Bobby Seale from the State Prison at Montville. Connecticut. This report has not been verified.

On April 16, 1970, a source advised that Elbert Howard had stated he feels the temper of the black community in New Haven is "very good" and that "the people are ready, just waiting for the word." He claimed that people in New Haven are holding clandestine meetings within their homes and that even the chool children are supporting Bobby Seale.

movement" party which he attended in New York City on April 24, 1970, that he overheard a discussion between two members of "the movement" during which one of them said, "After Kunstler gives his speech, the plan was to burn New Haven down." Special emphasis was put on the fact that no fires were to be started in the ghetto areas of New Haven and that after the fires were underway, the next phase is to be sniper fire upon firemen and not the police. This individual, Lee Doyle, also reportedly stated that there were plans to blow up the bridge of the New Haven railroad which runs through the center of New Haven.

On April 17, 1970, William Kunstler, in a speech before a biracial audience of 450 persons at the University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky, urged everyone to support the plight of Bobby Seale and to participate in "the siege of New Haven" on May 1, 1970.

F. Security Measures Being Taken by Local Law Enforcement Agencies

Elaw enforcement agencies in the New Haven area are making special preparations to control the demonstrations during the three-day period from May 1 through 3, 1970. The Chief of the New Haven Police Department has advised that current plans call for the full utilization of his 425-man police force. Sixteen-hour shifts will be worked during the period with two thirds of the force on duty at all times. Three hundred Connecticut State Police officers and 700 National Guardsmen will assist local authorities. In addition, there will be 1,700 National Guardsmen on call who can be mobilized within a two-hour period.

In view of the possible attempts to free the BPP members awaiting trial in New Haven, extra security guards will be on duty at the State Prison in Montville, Connecticut, and Women's Prison at Niantic, Connecticut, where the BPP members are confined. Both of these cities are approximately 50 miles east of New Haven.

The police department has established an Intelligence Center where 17 telephones on direct lines will be manned at all times. About 40 undercover police officers with walkie-talkies operating from strategic concealed places will act as _spotters. during the period of the three-day activity.

As a special security measure against the use of explosives, all manhole covers in New Haven have been welded down. Special police personnel will be assigned to guard strategically located business establishments as well as the police department, courthouse, and the Civic Center. Large chemical plants in the area will also be afforded special guards and police officials have notified most other private business establishments, such as lumberyards, to afford themselves extra security protection.

Special attention will be paid to the three public high schools in New Haven which have about a 50 per cent Negro student body in view of the strong possibility of students becoming involved. No information has been received as to whether the schools will romain open on May 1, 1970.

G. Reaction of Local Citizens to the Demonstration Activity

The population of greater New Haven is approximately 350,000 people. The population of New Haven itself is approximately 150,000.people, 40 per cent Negro. Indications are that the local responsible citizenry, black and white, is extremely concerned about the situation and that it; will remain clear of the demonstration area, where possible.

H. Disorders Which Have Already Occurred

Minor violence has already occurred in New Haven as a result of activities of BPP members. On April 14, 1970, following the jailing of two BPP officials on contempt of court charges during preliminary proceedings at the BPP trial, a group of Negroes broke windows and created disorders in downtown New Haven. Several days later, a group of about 300 high school students, most of them Negroes who had been demonstrating in front of the courthouse, ran through the downtown area shoving and pushing shoppers and damaging property. On April 22, 1970, a local BPP leader created a disturbance at a high school, forcing the temporary closing of the school when fires were started and windows broken by rampaging students. On April 27, 1970, a fire of suspicious origin caused considerable damage to the basement of the Yale Law School Library. The damage was confined mostly to books and to the upper portion of the building caused by heavy smoke.

On April 26, 1970, police observed an automobile occupied by two women and a man driving by police headquarters several times and then stopping at the rear entrance of the building. One of the individuals was arrested for a traffic violation and the other two for trespass. A search of the car by police revealed literature concerning the BPP rally and also a map of the City of New Haven on which several locations, including National Guard armories, a shopping mall, the office building housing the FBI office, and the Yale University bowl had been marked. Also found in the vehicle were numerous electrical and plumbing-type tools and general instruction manuals pertaining to water and electrical systems.

I. Conclusions

- 1. Based upon the current intelligence reflected in this paper, the potential for violence is extremely high. The assessment in this regard pertains not only to the possibility of police confrontations and rioting, but also takes into account assassinations, bombings, arson and sabotage against key facilities.
- 2. The Departmental Civil Disorder Task Force should proceed to New Haven on instructions of the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General for instant deployment.
- 3. Taking into account the high potential for violence of all kinds, the decision with respect to alerting Federal troops will be taken into consideration by the Deputy Attorney General in connection with his meeting with appropriate military authorities.
- 4. Responsible agencies, both local and Federal, should maintain close and continuous liaison throughout this crucial three-day period with particular attention being given to the protection of vital facilities and installations, including Government buildings which may become targets for extremist elements.

To recommend that the attached teletype be sent to all offices, except Anchorage, Honolulu, and San Juan, alerting them to the high potential for violence at New Haven and to instruct that immediate contacts be made with informants and sources to insure that appropriate coverage is afforded this matter.

A continuous flow of information regarding the grave and increasingly high propensity for violence at New Haven, Connecticut, is being received. The steady influx of militant extremists, both black and white, into the area to take part in demonstrations and related activity to commence 5/1/70 to show | support for Black Panther Party (BPP) members charged with murder has continued. This, accompanied by intelligence information indicating that many of these extremists are intent upon committing acts of violence, appears to underscore the necessity to send reliable informants to the area. Also, it would appear that sympathy demonstrations which could result in acts of violence may occur on campuses or in cities in other parts R.D. C. Januard of the United States.

If you approve, the attached teletype to all offices except Anchorage, Honolulu, and San Juan will be sent in accordance with the above.

This is to furnish a summary of developments at New Haven, Connecticut, where violence is threatened by the extremist Black Panther Party (BPP) and massive demonstrations are scheduled to be held on May 1, 2, and 3, 1970, in support of the BPP members facing trial on a murder charge.

Fire discovered at electrical plant, Devon, Connecticut). The plant superintendent of the Devon electrical generating station, Connecticut Light and Power Company, Devon, Connecticut, advised 4-26-70 that a burning material believed to be a newspaper soaked in gasoline was discovered at this plant on a coal belt. He stated that if this material had reached the coal, a large fire would have resulted and it was his opinion that electricity in most of Connecticut would have been knocked out.

"Chicago 7" defendants speak at several universities urging support for BPP. Jerry Rubin, one of the "Chicago 7" conspiracy-antiriot defendants, spoke at the Arizona State University on 4-26-70. He stated in part "on May 1, everyone is going to New Haven and if Bobby Seale is convicted, every high school, college, and city will fall."

In connection with the boycott of classes at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, a rally is scheduled for tonight and speakers will be members of the BPP as well as some of the "Chicago 7." The leader of the boycott is Stephan Talbott who is the son of Lyl Talbott, noted film actor.

At the request of BPP headquarters, New Havon, arrangements have been made for Jerry Rubin to speak at Central Connecticut State College, New Britain, Connecticut, on 5-1-70. State Senator

Memorandum R. D. Cotter to W. C. Sullivan RE: THREAT OF RACIAL VIOLENCE,
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT,

Edward L. Marcus, who is also a candidate for the Democratic U.S. Sendtorial nomination, state of Connecticut, has asked for "equal time" and is scheduled to precede Rubin as a speaker.

On 4-28-70 Abbott Hoffman, a "Chicago 7" defendant, spoke at the State University of New York Agricultural and Technical College, Alfred, New York, after which he delivered an address at Genesee, New York, where he spoke before 500 students. During both appearances, he was critical of the judicial system and urged the students to be present at New Haven on 5-1-70 in support of the BPP whom he claimed are being tried for political reasons.

Threatened action by radical group. A source advised that he had heard that some members of the Weatherman faction of the anarchistic Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), New York City, who were involved in the New York bombings, are definitely going to New Haven for the 5-1-70 rally to take action against "bank and commercial buildings only."

A source advised that the Yale faction of the SDS was thinking of taking over a building on the Yale campus tonight. SDS members mentioned they would have a "thrashing" at a nearby shopping center which was "ritzy" and contained two banks. They stated they would do nothing to damage the Panthers and would "save the rocks for cops."

Communist Party (CP) shows support for BPP. A source advised that on 4-27-70 Charlene Mitchell, Field Secretary of the Black Liberation Committee of CP-USA, New York City, stated that the continuation Committee of Emergency Conference, which conference was held in Chicago on 3/6-8/70, had endorsed the mayday activity in New Maven and called on all organizations who sponsored the conference to actend the rally. Harlem, New York, BPP leaders informed the committee they had reserved 45 buses which are leaving the Harlem area for New Haven on 5/1-3/70.

Task force units of National Guard to be available in Connecticut. The Connecticut National Guard will have task force units comprised of 3,255 men, available for this weekend. These units will have seven armored personnel carriers and two helicopters. An explosives ordinance disposal team will also be on standby.

Large number of students leaving Yale campus this weekend.

A secretary of Yale University advised that about half of the student body are leaving Yale for the weekend.

Yesterday more than 3,000 Yale students signed a petition supporting Yale President Kingman Brewster's statement wherein he stated he did not think black revolutionaries could receive a fair trial in the United States.

Canadian police source reports plot to attempt blackout of New Haven at time of Panther trial. Yesterday the Toronto Police Department advised that a source it considers reliable had advised that there is a plot afoot to attempt the blackout of New Haver but he was unable to elaborate on the information. Canadian authorities also advised on 4-29-70 they had been informed by a source considered reliable that a New Left member had been told that the Minutemen, a paramilitary right wing group, in New Haven are armed with machine guns and grenades. The source furnished no additional information.

Bombing suspect en route to New Haven arrested on narcotics charge by California authorities. Jon Turner, a black extremist from Berkeley, California, who is a bombing suspect of the Berkeley Police Department, was recently in New Haven, reportedly to aid in the activity there by utilizing his skills as an explosives expert. Yesterday Turner, accompanied by two companions, while proceeding to the airport for return to New Haven, was arrested by Berkeley police and charged with possession of marijuana. He was held in lieu of $6,000 bond.

This memorandum reports additional developments at New Haven, Connecticut, where violence is threatened by Black Panther Party (BPP) and massive demonstrations are scheduled to begin today and last throughout the weekend in support of BPP members facing trial on murder charges

SDS Involvement. On 4/30/70 source advised that previous evening meeting was held in Boston, Massachusetts, of Regional Interim Committee of & Students for a Democratic Society-Worker Student Aliance(SDS-WSA). Forty persons attended and it was decided that group would have three targets in New Haven area: (1) ROTC building at Yale, (2) Yale President Kingman
Brewster's home, and (3) New Haven City Hall. It was agreed that ROTC building would be first target, and it was indicated efforts would be made to burn one or all three of these buildings. No time was set for the action.
It was also agreed that rocks should be thrown at police officers rather than wasted on windows. Nine busses have been chartered to transport SDS-WSA delegates to New Haven, leaving this morning from Cambridge, Massachusetts New Haven area: (1) ROTC building at Yale, (2) Yale President Kingman

Mark Rudd reportedly will be in New Haven. According to source on 4/30/70 a graduate student at Columbia University claims that Mark Rudd and dher members of 'Weatherman' faction of SDS would be in New Haven this weekend. According to this student, demonstrations in New Haven will include use of bomb devices and massive violent confrontation with police.

Columbia University student participation. At meeting of "Committee to Defend the Panther 21" held at Columbia University 4/28/70, a member of the Yale Strike Committee, Dan Smith, was main speaker and declared that students did not want violence but "if they are attacked they must defend themselves." Smith reportedly claimed that the Weathermen were expected to be present "and the bomb factories." Reportedly, a number of students from Columbia plan to go to New Haven on 5/1/70.

Memorandum for Mr. Sullivan
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

Boston University Participation. A group of students at Boston University known as "The Happy Birthdays" consisting of some 300 members are planning to arrive in New Haven on 5/1/70. A source has advised this group is bent on destruction and some members have been holding secret meetings at which bombing attacks were planned. One of the leaders of the group, Robert Butterfield, reportedly stated that the group was not going to touch Yale but "just the center of New Haven" and further that they would use fire bombs rather than explosives. This group is said to consist of both white and black students.

SDS Chapter at Brown University plans to take part. The SDS chapter at Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island, has chartered a bus for New Haven on 5/1/70 to take 44 SDS members there.

SCLC leaders plan to take part in New Haven demonstrations.

Reportedly, RalphAbernathy and Andy Young of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) plan to take part in the demonstrations at New Haven.

Supposedly, they have received assurances from the BPP that there will be absolutely no violence. Abernathy told a source that he would leave New Haven immediately on the first sign of violence.

Black Panther headquarters barricaded. During evening of 4/30/70, BPP headquarters, 35 Sylvan Avenue, New Haven, was barricaded with some 2000 sandbags.

Yale students preparing for violence. Sources have advised that approximately half of Yale students have left New Haven and their rooms are being occupied by out-of-towners including members of Venceremos Brigade. Many students remaining as well as visitors have obtained motorcycle helmets and gas masks for protection in case of riot.

Stockpiling of guns and ammunition. Reportedly, gun shops in New Haven and surrounding areas are selling firearms and ammunition at a rate 75 per cent above normal. On 4/30/70 several white girls of college age purchased 500 rounds of M-1 carbine ammunition and some shotgun ammunition. Reportedly, two Negro males waited outside while purchase was being made.

This information is being furnished to the White House, the Vice President, Attorney General, Secret Service, Central Intelligence Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, and military intelligence agencies by teletype.

Following are the up-to-date developments as of early this afternoon in New Haven, Connecticut, where the three-day demonstration activity by the extremist Black Panther Party (BPP), various radical groups, and other sympathizers in support of the BPP began today. The Director may wish to use this information in connection with the briefing requested by the Vice President.

Background:

The basis for the activity in New Haven is the all out \mathbb{Q}^{3} effort being made by the BPP to make New Haven a rallying point for black extremists and white radicals in order to whip up support for BPP National Chairman Bobby Seale and the other BPP members who are facing trial on a murder charge. Previous information disclosed that many outside radical groups and other sympathizers, including a large portion of the Yale University student body, will take part in the demonstrations during the three-day period of May 1, 2, and 3, 1970. Early information indicated that the number of people expected to participate in the demonstrations ranged from 20,000 to 50,000.

Activity leading up to the May demonstrations has been accompanied by many threats of violence, including assassinations, burnings, bombings, and other forms of destruction made by BPP Reports have been received of the stockpiling of arms, ammunition, and explosives by the BPP and some radical groups such as the Weatherman faction of the Students for a Democratic Society.

Memorandum R. D. Couter to W. C. Sullivan RE: DIMONSTRATION ACTIVITY IN SUPPORT OF BLACK PANTHER PARTY MEMBERS FACING TRIAL, NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

Current Developments:

The demonstration activity in New Haven started today 1 shortly after noon with a press conference on the New Haven Green during which David Hilliard, BPP Chief of Staff, and Elbert Howard, BPP Deputy Minister of Information, and several members of the "Chicago 7," including Abbey Hoffman and David Dellinger, spoke. An estimated crowd of 1,000 persons were present. Hoffman made the statement "If they do anything to Panther headquarters, we will bring it out into the streets." Dellinger, on the other hand, stated "We" should not have violence because the Government is promoting violence and wants to cover up the true purpose of the demonstrations by creating violence. The press conference lasted about 1 hour and 15 minutes and no violence was reported. About 30 members of the violent Weatherman faction of SDS were reported earlier to be on the Yale campus with Abbey Hoffman, who was "preaching fire." Connecticut Hall on the Yale campus is being used by the Boston, Massachusetts, SDS contingent.

As of 1:30 p.m. the estimated number of individuals who had arrived in New Haven to participate in the demonstrations was 4,000. The demonstrators are continuing to arrive from New York, New Jersey, and other points. One group from Washington, D.C., is reportedly on its way to New Haven carrying 50,000 "Free Bobby Seale" leaflets prepared by a Washington radical newspaper. The New York Committee to Defend the Panther 21 in New York City paid $7,000 for the chartering of 32 buses yesterday which were being used to transport persons to New Haven.

A source reported that 75 members of a Hartford, Connecticut, black Panther group and the Blackstone Rangers, a Hartford youth gang, are attempting to secure trucks and buses to come to New Haven and these individuals are reported to be armed.

Memorandum R. D. Cotter to W. C. Sullivan RE: DEMONSTRATION ACTIVITY IN SUPPORT OF BLACK PANTHER PARTY MEMBERS FACING TRIAL, NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

Groups of Negroes wearing red armbands have been formed as neighborhood security patrols whose purpose it will be to keep demonstrators out of the black community. The black community is concerned as to what may happen after the demonstrators leave the downtown area.

Two thirds of the New Haven Police Department is presently on duty and the 700-man National Guard contingent is scheduled to be placed on active duty on the New Haven Green at 4 p.m.

This information is being furnished to the White House, Vice President, Attorney General, Secret Service, Central Intelligence Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, and military intelligence agencies by teletype.

ACTION:

For information.

ADDENDUM:

At 2:25 p.m. the New Haven Office received an unverified report that the BPP leadership is very upset with Yale President Kingman Brewster because they feel he has backed down on his statement supporting the BPP. They are interested in getting Brewster back on their side and, according to the source, are considering kidnaping Brewster's daughter. This information is being checked out and the police have been advised.

To recommend that the attached letters be furnished to the Honorable John D. Ehrlichman at the White House and to the Attorney General.

A source of the Seattle Office recently returned from a trip to New Haven, Connecticut, during which he was permitted access to BPP headquarters. He observed large caches of explosive material, weapons, ammunition and "Right Guard" deodorant spray cans rigged with explosive devices. He conversed with BPP members Robert Webb and Jon Turner who were described as demolition experts. In his presence these individuals conducted classes in the use and the handling of dynamite during which numerous charts, diagrams, dynamite, blasting caps and fuses were used for demonstration purposes. He was told that Webb and Turner will also instruct at a training school regarding guerrilla tactics which the BPP plans to set up.

Source was told that BPP leadership was going to go underground to take the "heat off" and that it has perfected methods to move people in and out of the country with Eldridge Cleaver being cited as an example of their success in this regard.

Data concerning a car theft ring in Detroit, Michigan, which donates 50 percent of its profits to the BPP, was obtained. Source was approached concerning BPP plans to kill an individual believed to be identical with George Sams, a Panther who has pled guilty concerning the murder of Alex Rackley and who will probably be called to testify against other Panthers. Police are aware.

Source's information concerning Webb and Turner being sent to New Haven as explosives experts corroborates similiar information previously received from informants MAY 27 1970

Laformation for the black Panther Party was cited as an enumple of their success in this regard. It was also learned that the Panthers are receiving money from an individual who is reportedly operating a car theft ring in Detroit, Michigan. The source's marksmeaship qualifications were solicited by Turner and Webb who said there are plans to kill an individual who is believed to be identical with George Sams. Sams is currently in local custody having pleaded guilty to the murder of fellow Panther member Alex Rackley who was killed in Lay, 1960. Fourteen Black Panther Party members have been changed in this murder and eight, including National Chairman Hebby Seale, are currently awaiting trial.

BS 1117-R reported on "Revolutionary Action on Campus and In Community" workshop held BSRC 5/18/70. BPP speakers urged students to withdraw bank savings and invest in arms and material for revolution. Speakers urged that underground should be formed by students from all states. Intelligence files should be kept on all black policemen for later trial and judgment by people, if necessary. Maps pinpointing emergency shelters, hospitals, fire stations, reservoirs, railroad terminals, airports, telephone installations, and utilities should be made. Guerrilla units should be organized to move against radio and television stations, means of transportation, and utilities. Such units should consist of explosives experts, snipers, and cameramen who are ready to die. Welfare mothers should stockpile food and defense groups should seek weapons and bombs for a people's arsenal. An underground strike center should be set up. List of all public officials should be recorded so they can be "moved on" if necessary

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past attended a "Revolutionary Action on Campus and In Community" workshop at the Black Student Revolutionary Conference (BSRC) which was held at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, May 16 - 19, 1970. This conference was held under the direction of the Black Panther Party (BPP). At the May 18, 1970, session of that workshop, at least 100 persons were present and the group appeared to be made up of four factions. Two of the factions were white and one of those consisted of the extremist Students for a Democratic Society Weathermen. The other two groups were representatives of the black extremist BPP and the Black Student Union (BSU).

BPP leader Douglas Miranda and two BPP representatives from California spoke at that workshop.

Speakers encouraged students at the workshop to withdraw their savings from banking institutions and invest those funds in the necessary arms and material for revolution. It was stated that an underground should be formed by students from all states. It was said that intelligence files should be kept on all black policemen and daily reports kept on their activities so that they may be judged by the people and tried at a later date:

It was pointed out that maps should be made pinpointing all emergency shelters, hospitals, fire stations, reservoirs, railroad terminals, airports, telephone installations, and utilities. It was noted that guerrilla units should be organized and developed to operate against transportation facilities, radio and television stations, and public utilities. Those units should consist of people who are ready to die and are explosives experts, snipers, and cameramen.

It was suggested that welfare mothers stockpile canned goods and that defense groups seek weapons and bombs for a people's arsenal. Mention was made of an underground strike center which should be set up with security clearance necessary for all who enter or leave. Such a center would be used by only the most trusted personnel of the people's army. It was proposed that names and addresses of all public officials, city and state, be recorded and classified so that they can be readily "moved on" if necessary.

A second source who has also furnished reliable information in the past advised that as individuals arrived in New Haven on May 16, 1970, for the BSRC, they went to the BPP Defense Office where they registered and were assigned rooms.

As part of the activities of the BSRC, the second source advised that at about 8:30 PM on May 18, 1970, there was a series of speeches by students who spoke of the problems on their campuses. One unidentified student from Staten Island, New York, Community College, mentioned that gun clubs were being organized on his campus as well as other campuses and he urged that blacks be influenced to join them. He pointed out that college libraries have a wealth of information on guns which is available to all.

According to the second source, another series of speeches was given at the BSRC on May 19, 1970. One of the speakers at that time was BPP member Richard Moore who stated that when the BPP sends out a call to go to Washington, D. C., he wants everyone there to help "repaint the White House."

One of our Black Panther Party sources, who was in New Haven, Connecticut, on May 1, 1970, during the massive Black Panther Party demonstrations at Yale University, has been debriefed and has furnished the following pertinent information.

It was the source's observation that the Black Panther Party in New Haven had considerable community support evidenced by the fact its leader, Douglas Miranda, appeared to be well-known and well-received by Negroes in the community as he rode through the streets. (It appears very possible that the recent remarks made about the Black Panthers by Kingman Brewster, President of Yale University, expressing his opinion as to the inability of black revolutionaries to achieve a fair trial anywhere in the United States may have contributed much to deepen and widen the community support being given the violent Black Panther Party.)

Source advised he observed the Black Panther Party office in New Haven, located at 35 Sylvan Avenue, was protected on the first floor by sandbags from floor to ceiling. The only openings were gunports at the windows. The windows and doors were protected by metal shields and bars. The second floor was also protected by sandbags and appeared to be the operational area as it contained office equipment and some sleeping quarters. The third floor had sleeping quarters and had food and clothing stored there. The source was warned that the yard surrounding the house was mined.

The source stated he saw in the Black Panther Party office a Negro making silencers for guns. This individual was regarded with awe by other Panthers who said he was making silencers for various types of firearms. The source also stated the Black Panther Party had quantities of what appeared to be dummy or practice-type hand grenades which had "Korea" stamped on them. The Black Panther Party hopes to be able to use these as bombs or grenades.

According to the source, during the weekend of May 1 to May 3, 1970, the Black Panther Party in New Haven stressed that there was to be no violence at this time as the "pigs" were ready and outmanned and outgunned the Black Panther Party.

The source indicated that the Black Panther Party members in New Haven have noticed the large number of one-man police patrol cars which they say appear very vulnerable and opens possibilities for ambush. The source was also told that a New Haven Police Department plain-clothes man, who is called "Buffalve," is hated by the Black Panther Party and that they will "get him."

The source said the philosophy of the Black Panther Party during the weekend of May 1 through May 3, 1970, was that there is a time and place for everything but this was not the time for violence in New Haven, Connecticut.

The source also stated the Black Panther Party had quantities of what appeared to be dummy or practice-type hand grenades which had "Korea" stamped on them. The Black Panther Party hopes to be able to use these as bombs or grenades.

According to the source, during the weekend of May 1 to May 3, 1970, the Black Panther Party in New Haven stressed that there was to be no violence at this time as the "pigs" were ready and outmanned and outgunned the Black Panther Party.

The source indicated that the Black Panther Party members in New Haven have noticed the large number of one-man police patrol cars which they say appear very vulnerable and opens possibilities for ambush. The source was also told that a New Haven Police Department plain-clothes man, who is called "Buffalve," is hated by the Black Panther Party and that they will "get him."

The source said the philosophy of the Black Panther Party during the weekend of May 1 through May 3, 1970, was that there is a time and place for everything but this was not the time for violence in New Haven. Connecticut.

One of our Black Panther Party sources, who was in New Haven, Connecticut, on May 1, 1970, during the massive Llack Fanther Party demonstrations at Yale University, has been debriefed and has furnished the following pertinent information.

It was the source's observation that the Black Fanther Party in New Haven had considerable community support evidences by the fact its leader, Douglas Miranda, appeared to be well-known and well-received by Negroes in the community as he rode through the streets (It appears very possible that the recent remarks made about the Black Panthers by Kingman Crowster, President of Yale University, expressing his opinion as to the inability of black revolutionaries to achieve a fair trial anywhere in the United States may have contributed much to deepen and widen the community support being given the violent Black Panther Party.)

Source advised he observed the Black Panther Party office in New Haven, located at 35 Sylvan Avenue, was protected on the first floor by sandbags from floor to ceiling. The only openings were gunports at the windows. The windows and doors were protected by metal shields and bars. The second floor was also protected by sandbags and appeared to be the operational area as it contained office equipment and some sleeping quartors. The third floor had sleeping quarters and had food and chothing stored there. The source was warned that the yard correculing the house was mined.

On May 20, 1970, BS T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on May 16, 1970 he was present at the Black Panther MARSS Party (EPP) office on Chapel Street, New Haven, Connecticut and contacted John Cheatham. Source stated he traveled around with Cheatham who, while they were at the Panther location on Newhall Street, in New Haven, showed source three brand new .306 pump shotguns. He told source that the Panthers were watching the operations at the Colt, Winchester and Olin gun manufacturing plants. They are seriously thinking of a raid on Olin and they have some sympathetic people in there who may be able to assist them in setting it up. Cheatham bragged that he is responsible for the New Haven Panthers and showed source a sheet of yellow lined paper with names of New Haven Panthers on it. Source did not get the opportunity to examine it but roughly estimated it held about sixty names. Cheatham replaced the paper in his outside jacket pocket where he seemed to keep it.

Cheatham also mentioned that the Mafia in the Greater Boston area have a man, who keeps a supply of guns. When the Mafia is going to make a hit he issues guns and they are returned to him. The BPP knows who he is and where the arsenal is and are speculating about the possibility of hitting it. He also claimed a black soldier attached to the Military Police or Security Department at a New Jersey Army Installation had contacted the Panthers about selling them some M16 rifles for $500. The plan is to have this soldier drive a truck onto the base on Memorial Day when the base is busy and load the guns and drive off the base. The BPP does not trust this soldier and feel he will abscond with the $500 which he wants in advance. They feel if he could get the guns he would be able to sell them for $150 to $200 each.

while at the Chapel Street office of the BPP source observed Douglas Miranda talking with three young white men. There were three wooden boxes of dynamite on the floor one of which was open and contained long red sticks of dynamite. They were being cut in smaller pieces. The young men when speaking to one another spoke in a language which source believed to be French. Miranda had not paid for it and was asking how he could reach them. He wrote down one or two phone numbers and an address. Miranda mentioned he had to go down south to appear at some demonstration for black students. He did not mention where or when. Source felt in observing Miranda that he seemed to be worried and jumpy and not his usual self.

Source stated that while in New Haven at the conference he saw Robert Heard, Orlando Waughn and Winfield Chambers from the Boston Panthers.

The Panthers said the next big rally would be in Washington, D. C. on Emancipation Day and they would be there.

On the wall of the room which one enters on coming into the Chapel Street office are three or four telegrams posted up from people who have made large donations to the Panthers. One from Alabama was for $3000.00.

Source noted that the Panthers occupy this whole building. He was told that the Panther gun expert, the one who was designing silencers for Panther guns, is in charge of security for the building and has placed steel plates on the doors leading into the building and over the inside of the upstairs windows.

When source registered he was assigned a room in a Yale dormitory, Calhoun. He found conditions crowded.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY RACIAL MATTERS

On May 17, 1970, he attended the showing of a film, "Battle of Algiers" which consisted of various aspects of guerilla fighting and showed house to house combat and roof top fighting.

On May 18, 1970, he attended a workshop "Revolutionary Action on Campus and in Community." There were at least 100 persons present and the group seemed to be made up of four factions, two were white and one of these consisted of Students for a Democratic Society Weathermen and the other called themselves some "Brigade" the exact name of which source was unable to learn. The other two groups were black and were the Black Panther Party and Black Student Union.

Douglas Miranda and two Panthers from California spoke. Mrs. Artie Seale spoke briefly. The workshop was told that students should draw their savings out of the bank and invest them in the necessary arms and material for revolution. An underground should be formed by students from all states and weapons, food supplies, medical supplies and information stockpiled.

The community should be organized and one suggestion was that Welfare mothers stockpile can foods distributed by the Welfare. Defense groups should be seeking weapons and bombs for the people's arsenal.

Intelligence files should be kept on all black police and daily reports kept on their activities so that at a later date they can be judged by the people and tried.

Maps should be made pinpointing all emergency shelters, hospitals, fire stations, reservoirs, telephone installations and utilities, railroad terminals and airports.

The names and addresses of all public officials, city and state, should be recorded and classified so they can be readily moved on if necessary.

BL^IACK PANTHER PARTY RACIAL MATTERS

Guerilla units should be organized and developed to operate against transportation, utilities, radio stations, TV stations and these groups should consist of people ready to die. They should consist of explosive experts, snipers and cameramen.

An underground strike center should be set up with security clearance necessary for all who enter or leave. These should be used by only the most trusted personnel of the people's army.

Masai Hewitt was seen in the area but he did not speak at this workshop.

Source was unable to attend the workshop on May 19, 1970.

BLACK PARTHER PARTY, aka Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, The Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense of Seale, BPP is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further described itself as the "Black Community News Service," stated that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of Scotember 7, 1969, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere keeping is a revolutionary culture. Kill the pigs everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere.

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1989, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of the "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

BLACK PARTHER PARTY - BOSTON

A source advised on September 16, 1968, that the Black Parther Party - Boston (EPP-B) was started in July or August, 1968, by four Negroes who came to Boston, Massachusetts, from BPP National Headquarters in California.

The original headquarters for the BPP-B were maintained in a store front location at 375 Blue Hill Avenue in the Rombury section of Boston, Massachusetta. On December 15, 1969, a second source advised that the BPP-B had negotiated to purchase a three-story vertical duplex house at 21-23 Winthrop Street, Rombury, Massachusetts. Source subsequently advised that title to this property was transferred on January 30, 1970.

On February 19, 1970, a third source made available a copy of a BPP publication entitled, "Peoples News Service" which contained an announcement of the opening of the Malcolm X Black Community Information Center at 23 Winthrop Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts, on Saturday, February 21, 1970. The announcement further stated that "The Black Panther Party is moving its facilities from 375 Blue Hill Avenue to the Malcolm X Black Community Information Center, 23 Winthrop Street. The Community Information Center is provided for the people of our community in order to better serve the growing needs of our people. The Community Information Center will house various programs' implemented by the Black Panther Party, a meeting place, and relevant information for the people of our community."

EXTREMIST MATTERS

1 - Mr. G. T. Tunstall

A recent survey has been conducted to evaluate captioned Album. The field's response, while not unanimous, heavily favored the continuance of the EPA. The feeling was expressed that the Album, although being used less frequently now than in the past, still warrants continuance.

Hamial of Instructions, Section 122a, page 4, sets out the purpose of the A/A as an "aid in identifying individuals in extremist field who travel or are likely to travel extensively." Accordingly, the Album should be limited to those who have a proclivity to travel as well as evailable funds to make such travel possible. All offices should review all subjects that each is responsible for including in the A/A to insure valid reasons continue to exist for such inclusion. At the same time, also insure current photographs and descriptive data are included.

Notify the dureau of subjects warranting deletion from the ErA and submit FO-A32s after dureau approval of each deletion.

This is to advise of results of field-wide survey regarding captioned Album and to receive approval for submission of attached letter to all offices and three Legal Attaches (Legats). Attached letter instructs that captioned Album is being continued but that all offices should carefully review all subjects included in the EPA to insure that each qualifies for inclusion thereon.

EPA was implemented in 1971 to aid field offices and Legats in identifying Indian, black and white-hate extremists and extremist informants who travel on behalf of their organizations. APA has been utilized successfully in the past in identifying and apprehending Sureau fugitives and has assisted in the expeditious handling of leads where photographs and background data were immediately necessary.

Each office has recently been asked to evaluate current utilization of the SPA and to furnish results of its evaluation along with recommendations for continuance of the EPA. The field's response, while not unanimous, heavily favored continuance and indicates that the Album, although being used less frequently now than in the past, still warrants utilization. Several offices indicated that individuals included on EPA should be limited to those who have a proclivity to travel as well as available funds to make such travel possible. While this was originally a requirement for inclusion on EPA, the status of many individuals

Currently, other than field offices, only three Legats, AGA and AFPA currently possess the EPA. It has been used in conjunction with several other programs, such as the Key Extremist Program, Extremist Bureau Fugitive List and Computerized Telephone Number File. These Programs were discontinued after all field offices were surveyed and evaluations made that further continuance was not warranted. The EPA is kept pending and accurate by a yearly review of the subjects maintained in it, while additions, deletions or changes are transmitted regularly by FD-432. RACIAL MATTERS

TO

To recommend the approval of the attached SAC Letter consolidating existing instructions to the field concerning the Black Nationalist Photograph Album (BNPA) and to add this data to the Manual of Instructions.

The BNPA was approved and established in March, 1968, and consists of a photograph and biographical data of individuals in the racial field who travel or are likely to travel extensively. It has repeatedly proven to be an extremely valuable aid to any office in which a black extremist from another area travels. Experience indicates that these extremists travel extensively and with the BNPA an office covering the travel has a photograph and background of the individual immediately available.

Included in the album are militant black nationalists, leaders of black extremist organizations, black extremists who are Bureau fugitives, and our racial informants who travel on behalf of their respective extremist organization. A separate form is prepared on such individuals by each office and furnished to the Bureau and all offices, where a complete album is maintained. To cover foreign travel, the album is also furnished to the Legal Attaches, Ottawa and Mexico City, and to the A FOREIGN POLICE AGENCY and A THIRE

Various requirements regarding the BNPA have been approved and sent out on several separate occasions and it is believed all requirements should now be consolidated in a single communication which is done in the attached SAC Letter. Also attached are inserts for inclusion of BNPA information in the Manual of Instructions.

Bureau letter 3-11-68 instructed that a Black Nationalist Photograph Album be maintained in each Bureau office. Although the original instructions were to include the photographs of subjects known to travel, it now appears logical to include the photographs of the principal leaders of any black extremist organization, as experience has shown that they can be expected to travel also.

The inclusion of photographs of racial informants, particularly those in the Black Panther Party, should be considered as the availability of such photographs could simplify investigations when the informants travel outside their own divisions. Those informants who have traveled for their respective black extremist organizations, or who are likely to do so, should be included. These photographs and their descriptions should be handled just as those of any other subject and they should not be distinguished in any way

The availability of these photographs has proved to be an excellent investigative aid and greatly simplifies the handling of leads by auxiliary offices. Each office should review the matter at this time to determine if other subjects or informants should be included.

For your information, a set of the photographs in the Album has been furnished to the A FOREIGN POLICE AGENCY (APPA) and to the I to the A THIRD AGENCY The (AFPA) has Legal Attaches at Ottawa and Mexico City. begun furnishing photographs of its racial matters subjects for inclusion in the Album.

Instructions to set up the Album were made on the recommendations of. Agents handling racial matters in the field.

The existence of this Album has proved to be extremely helpful. For example, photographs of Leroy Eldridge Cleaver, Bureau fugitive and Black Panther Party official, were already in the possession of every field office when efforts were first made to locate him. Reference is made to your memoranda dated May 16, 1974, and July 11, 1974, which requested continued investigation of the Nation of Islam (NOI) on the basis that its reported activities appear to come within the criteria of Executive Order 10450; may involve potential violations of Title 18. United States Code, Sections 2101 and 2102 (Riots); and represent a potential threat to the public safety due to the violence proclivity of certain NOI members.

In line with the above basis for investigation, this Bureau has carefully evaluated its investigative criteria for conducting any active investigation on individual NOI In this regard, an analysis of our investigative experience with the NOI reveals the significant leaders in mthis organization consist of the male national leaders pperating primarily out of NOI headquarters at Chicago, Illinois, and the Minister, Secretary, and Captain of the militant, all-male Fruit of Islam (FOI) segment of each NOI mosque throughout the United States. An analysis of 37 acts of violence over the past two years, in which 59 individuals with some present or recent NOI affiliation or association have been identified as suspects cubjects or participants, reveals all were males, and almost 95 percent were ages 18 to 36. These violent incidents consisted of , il Dep. Considering the above, as well as related criminal and violent aspects of NOI membership, this Bureau has established the following individual investigative criteria regarding NOI members:

- (1) Full investigation is conducted on all male national officers; and the Minister,

 Secretary, and Captain of the FOI, in each NOI mosque. (These investigations are closed if subject of same ceases extremist activity and/or is determined not to possess a propensity for violence and is not involved in violation of any Federal law within FBI jurisdiction.)
 - (2) Limited preliminary inquiries, for the primary purpose of determining propensity for violence, are conducted on all current male members, ages 18 to 36.

limited preliminary inquiries consist only of ascertaining the member's true name, identifying data, residence, employment and propensity for violence. This information is to be obtained through established sources.

If a limited preliminary inquiry reveals a member has a propensity for violence, full investigation is subsequently conducted.

We will continue to advise you if investigation of the NOI reveals a reassessment is necessary as to the basis for same, or if any substantial policy change is instituted by this Bureau as pertains to investigating individual NOI members. Assistant Attorney General Criminal Division

NOTE:

J. G. Deegan to W. R. Wannall memorandum 10/29/74, captioned as above, obtained approval for new investigative policy for NOI members. The field was advised of this policy by airtel to all offices 11/8/74, appended as an enclosure to 10/29/74 memorandum. Prior to approval of new policy in above-mentioned memorandum of 10/29/74, preliminary inquiries were conducted on all male members. SUBJECT: Nat on of Islam
Ext emist Matter

A AMA

Reference is made to my memorandum of May 16, 1974 providing you with our opinion that investigation by the FBI of the Nation of Islam (NOI) should continue. In the interim we have had an opportunity to further consider whether the NOI's activities appear to violate certain statutes such as Title 18, United States Code, Sections 231, 233 (Civil Disorder:); 241, 245 (Conspiracy to Deprive and Deprivation of Civil Rights); and 2101 and 2102 (Riots).

In my May 16 memorandum, I informed you that I considered it inadvisable to base continued investigation of the NOI on Executive Order 10450 until the question of the continuation of the Attorney General's list was resolved. On June 4, 1974 the President signed Executive Order 11785, which abolished the list and prohibited its use by any agency of the Govern However, Section 8(a)(5) of Executive Order 10450, as revised by Executive Order 11785, requires that investigation's conducted pursuant to Executive Order 10450 shall relate to, inter alia, knowing membership in any organization which unlawfully advocates or practices the commission of acts of force or violence to prevent others from exercising their rights under the Constitution or laws of the United States Therefore, despite the abolition of the list phecause FBI reports indicate that NOI may have engaged in activities which deprive citizens of constitutional rights, it would still come within the criteria of Executive Order, 10450

The Civil Rights Division has advised that it has received no information on which to conclude that the NOI (1/6 km s has violated any of the statutes within its jurisdiction (18 U.S.C. §§ 241 and 245), and is unable to express any view as to whether the continued investigation of the NOI is appropriate. However, the General Crimes Section of this Division has recommended continued investigation for the reasons set forth in my May 16 memorandum and on the basis of potential violations of 8 U.S.C. §§ 2101 and 2102 (Riots).

Accordingly, continued investigation of this group is warranted be ause its reported activities appear to come within the criteria of Executive Order 10450, may involve potential violations of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2101 and 2102 (Riots) and, finally, represent a potential threat to the public safety as described in my May 16, 1974 memorandum.

As I have previously indicated, you should consult further with the Department to reassess the basis for continuing the investigation if information is developed that the NOI has changed its tactics and objectives and has assumed in attitude of non-violence.

Intelligence Division

INFORMATIVE NOTE

5/20/74

By memorandum 7/28/66, the Internal Secu ity Division of the Department requested investigation of Nation of Islam, a black separatist group, continue and the Department be furnished investigative results for examination regarding possible violation of Federal statutes and/or designation under provisions of Executive Order 10450. By letter 6/8/73, to the Criminal Division of the Department, we requested FBI be informed if Department desired continued investigation along lines of Department's prior letter.

Attached reveals Criminal Division reply indicating investigation of NOI should continue, for purpose of collecting intelligence information the Executive Branch needs to properly and adequately protect the nation's security and to enforce numerous statutes pertaining thereto. Continued investigation, however, should not be based on Executive Order 10450 since Department is currently reviewing the Attorney General's list to determine if continued existence is warranted.

SUBJECT: NOI Extremist Matter

Reference is made to your letters of June 8, 1973, August 6, 1973, and October 4, 1973, to me in which you requested an opinion as to whether activities of the Nation of Islam (NOI) come under the criteria of Executive Order 10450, whether any federal statutes had been violated and whether the investigation of the NOI should be continued along current lines. A review has been made of pertinent FBI reports of the activities of the organization, its members and activities, and consultations have been held with members of your staff. As a result, it is our opinion that, for the time being, investigation of the NOI should continue.

With respect to your specific questions, although our review of FBI reports indicates that NOI may have engaged in activities which deprive citizens of constitutional rights, and, therefore, it would come within the criteria of Executive Order 10450, the Department is currently reviewing the Attorney General's list for the purpose of determining whether its continued existence is warranted. Therefore, I do not think it advisable to base continued investigation of the NOI on Executive Order 10450, until this question is resolved.

Insofar as any statutory violations may be concerned, we are seeking the views of the Civil Rights Division and we are considering further the applicability of statutes administered by this Division as to whether NOI's activities should be investigated in light of statutes over which they, and we, have jurisdiction.

A basis for continued investigation was described by Deputy Assistant Attorney General Kevin T. Maroney when he testified before the Committee on Internal Security of the House of Representatives on February 20, 1974. He pointed out, inter alia, that without a broad range of intelligence information, the President and the departments and agencies of the Executive Branch could not properly and adequately protect our nation's security and enforce the numerous statutes pertaining thereto. There is, in our view, sufficient evidence to indicate that certain NOI members have been involved in disturbances and attacks on police throughout the country as noted in reports disseminated to the Department of Justice, other executive agencies and to the Secret Service in connection with its responsibility for Under these sircumstances, the protection of the President. I feel the Department, and in particular the Attorney General, must continue to be informed of those organizations that engage in violence which represent a potential threat to the public safety. Therefore, continued investigation of this group is warranted.

If, during the course of your investigation, information is developed that the NOI has changed its tactics and objectives, and has assumed an attitude of non-violence, you should again consult with the Department to reassess the basis for continuing the investigation. In the interim, I will apprise you of our decision as to whether NOI's activities appear to violate certain statutes, e.g., Title 18, United States Code, Sections 231, 233 (Civil Disorders), 241, 245 (Conspiring to Deprive and Deprivation of Civil Rights), and 2101 and 2102 (Riots).

PURPOSE:

Attached for your approval is a memorandum to the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, requesting an opinion be furnished at this time as to whether the activities of the Nation of Islam (NOI) come within the criteria of Executive Order 10450, or its activities are in violation of any other Federal statute. The Department is also being requested to advise whether the investigation of the NOI should be continued.

BACKGROUND:

The NOI, founded in Detroit, Michigan, in 1930, is an independent, semi-religious black organization with over 7000 members in 120 units, or Mosques, throughout the United States. Foreign units exist in Bermuda, Jamaica and British Honduras. Elijah Muhammad, 75-year-old Supreme Ruler of the NOI, operates from NOI national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. This group seeks to establish a separate black nation, disavows any allegiance to the United States Government, preaches a distorted version of the Islamic religion, and teaches all whites are "devils" who will be destroyed by the forces of nature. NOI beliefs are propagated weekly via distribution of over 500,000 copies of the NOI newspaper "Muhammad Speaks" and by transmission of NOI teachings over the radio in over 100 United States cities at least once a week.

Since mid-1971, NOI internal dissension and difficulties with rival Muslim sects, and other adversaries, are believed to have been factors in at least 20 murders, three bombings, two abductions and numerous shootings, beatings and assaults. In the past 18 months, the NOI has sought and received assistance from North African and Middle East countries. Libya has granted the NOI a $3 million noninterest loan and promised an additional $6 million of assistance. Qatar and Abu Dahbi have donated $100,000 and $125,000, respectively, and Kuwait has indicated it is considering a $2 million gift.

We have conducted a continuous security-type investigation of the NOI since 1953. Periodically, and most recently on July 12, 1966, we have requested the Department's opinion concerning possible prosecution of the NOI under appropriate statutes or its designation under Executive Order 10450. The Department has repeatedly declined to take action against the NOI citing lack of adequate evidence of specific acts by its leaders resulting in force being utilized or violence occurring, as well as referring to the quasi-religious nature of the NOI as a further deterrent to successful prosecution. In view of the character and activities of the NOI, the Department requested by memorandum July 28, 1966, that the NOI continue to be the subject of active investigation and that the Department be furnished the results for examination for possible violation of Federal statutes and for possible designation under the provisions of Executive Order 10450.

During the period April 2, 1973 - May 25, 1973, five one week in-service sessions of specialized training in black extremist matters were conducted at the FBI Academy for selected representatives from each FBI field office except Anchorage and Honolulu. It was the consensus of those attending these sessions that the NOI certainly warrants our continued investigative attention in view of its substantially increased potential for violence in the past two years.

As a considerable period of time has transpired since the Department's last request for investigation regarding the NOI, and in view of the increased propensity for violence of this group, it appears in the Bureau's best interests to seek a decision from the Department as to whether a prosecutable violation exists concerning the NOI and as to the desirability of continuing this investigation.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Nation of Islam is an all-Negro semireligious organization which advocates a doctrine of violent hatred of the United States Government and the white race. organization is headed by Elijah Muhammad with headquarters in Chicago, Illinois. We have conducted a continuous security-type investigation of this organization since 1953. The Department has repeatedly declined to take action against the Nation of Islam, citing lack of specific acts of force or violence by its leaders or members. Department makes repeated reference to the quasi-religious nature of the Nation of Islam as a further deterrent to successful prosecution. Recognizing the threat to the internal security of the Nation posed by the Nation of Islam, the Department has requested our investigation be continued and the names of appropriate Nation of Islam officials be included in our Security Index and that they be considered for apprehension during a period of national emergency.

The Department apparently has no intention of authorizing prosecution of the Nation of Islam, in absence of the Nation of Islam causing large-scale riots, or virtual insurrection. This will refer to your memorandum of January 31, 1964 wherein you request an opinion whether in the light of the additional information furnished by the Bureau since May 16, 1963 with reference to the above-entitled organization, the activities with reference to the above-entitled organization. o? the NOI come within the criteria of Executive Order No. 10450, or whether its activities are in violation of any Federal statute within the jurisdiction of this Division.

There is insufficient evidence to warrant proceedings for violation of any Federal statute within the jurisdiction of the Internal Security Division's responsibility.

Section 8(a) (5) of Executive Order No. 10450 provides for the designation of "any foreign or domestic organization, association, movement, group, or combination of persons which is totalitarian, Fascist, Communist, or subversive, or which has adopted, or shows, a policy of advocating or approving the commission of acts of force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the Constitution of the U.S., or which seeks to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means".

The NOI cannot be designated as subversive under Executive Order No. 10450 unless the evidence available proves its activities to be in the category of "subversive, or which has adopted or shows, a policy of advocating or approving the commission of acts of force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the Constitution of the U.S.,. training in judo and karate, and in some instances with guns. At every meeting the white man is characterized as a devil, a snake who has tortured the Negro and always will; that this white devil must be exterminated along with his black sympathizers; that the white man was alloted by Allah, their Supreme power, a certain period on this earth and this period is now up; that all NOI members must await the signal from Elijah Muhammad to indicate the beginning of the extermination of the white devils to make room for a Negro takeover of the country; that such a signal would be forthcoming momentarily. Moreover, the NOI leaders, Elijah Muhammad and Malcolm X and others, preach that they must have a part of the territory of the United States as their own exclusive territory together with sufficient financial means to set them up economically independent. At their meetings, the NOI members denigrate the American flag and advocate disobedience of any law contrary to the beliefs of the Muslims.

This reported information, however, is insufficient to prove a policy of advocacy or approval of the commission of acts of force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the Constitution of the United States.

The activities reported must be shown to be more than mere prophecies or utterances made with the hope of ultimate attainment of their desired aims. For example, while teaching that the white man must be exterminated they do not say by whom There should be available evidence to show that the advocacy or approval of the commission of acts of violence to deny others their Constitutional rights is calculated to incite the members to action now or in the foreseeable future. Evidence is needed to show the specific acts taken by particular individual leaders in advocating or approving acts of force and violence; not that "heads will roll in the streets", which could be merely a prediction, but rather what specific plan of action, direction or urging has been made to bring about such event; not the abstract teaching that Allah will cause the desired event, but the concrete steps taken by specific individual leaders to effectuate their It is fully realized that such evidence is not easily obtained even if it exists; and finally there seems to be some indication that the leaders are becoming more cautious in their utterances.

For the past several years, we have been periodically requesting an opinion from the Department relative to possible prosecutive action against the Nation of Islam (NOI). Our latest request was dated 2/5/63. In response, the Department has requested it be supplied with a prosecutive summary report setting forth evidence the NOI within the past three years has advocated or approved commission of acts of force and violence to deny individuals their constitutional rights or in seeking to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means.

In previous opinions, the Department advised a review of the activities of the NOI did not constitute violations of any Federal statutes. In fact, the Department in the past has contended the language used by NOI officials does not advocate overthrow of the Government by unconstitutional means but seeks to arouse hatred against the white race as a whole. The Department requested we continue to furnish data concerning NOI for future study. We have done this on a continuing basis. Also, a review of material we have furnished the Department does not indicate any change in the teachings of the NOI toward the overthrow of our Government.

OBSERVATIONS:

SUBJECT:

Inasmuch as the Department is in possession of all pertinent information regarding the NOI and its teachings, it appears the Department is trying to get the Bureau to do the Department's work. Furthermore, the Department has not advised or given any indication it is contemplating prosecutive action against the NOI. Therefore, the preparation of a prosecutive summary report does not appear to be warranted in this instance.

This is in response to your memorandum of January 10, 1962, inquiring about the possibility of designation of the captioned organization pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order No. 10450, and asking whether its activities are in violation of any federal statute.

An examination of the reports and memoranda pertaining to the subject organization fails to disclose sufficient evidence to warrant prosecutive action against the leaders under the Smith Act and other related statutes, or to justify the institution of designation proceedings. The reasons set forth in our memorandum of September 21, 1960, are relevant to the present situation.

Because of the radical, semi-secret, and violent nature of this organization, and the continuing tendency on the part of some of its leaders to use language of implied threats against the Government, we are asking the Bureau to continue its investigation of the organization and its leaders.

This is in reply to your memorandum to the Attorney General dated September 9, 1960, inquiring about the possibility of prosecutive action against the leaders or designation of the captioned organization under provisions of Executive Order No. 10450.

The available evidence concerning the activities of the leaders and members of this organization falls far short of the evidentiary requirements sufficient to meet the standards set forth in the Yates decision. While the leaders of the NOI at times resort to the use of virulent and vicious language which would incite the members to individual acts of violence against the white race, it is more calculated and designed to arouse hatred and antipathy against the white race as a race, rather than against the Government. There is evidence of language which speaks of the destruction of America, but is couched more in terms of prophecy and prediction, often referring to the 'War of Armageddon," than in terms of incitement to action. Moreover, the First Amendment would require something more than language of prophecy and prediction and implied threats against the Government to establish the existence of a clear and present danger to the nation and its citizens.

Regarding designation of the NOI pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 10450, it is our opinion that hate-language employed by the organization's leaders is not probative of the criteria of "subversive" nor is it sufficient to establish the NOI to be an organization ". . . seeking to alter the form of government by unconstitutional means. " . Although there is substantial evidence of NOI's advocacy of future violent reprisals for alleged wrongs committed against one or more of its members, the evidence is insufficient at this time to meet the criterion that it has adopted a policy of advocating or approving the commission of such acts of violence to deny others their constitutional rights. 58.007. 926110 Pen 1259 IX 100 BECEIVER

During the past years there has been an exchange of correspondence between this Bureau and the Department concerning what legal action, if any, can be taken against this organization and/or its members. The Department by various memoranda has advised that a review of this matter has disclosed there is insufficient evidence to establish a violation of the Smith Act of 1940 or any other statute of which this Bureau has investigative jurisdiction; has disclosed the organization appears to have no program of action which reasonably would be calculated to bring about or attempt to bring about the violent overthrow of the United States Government; and has disclosed there is insufficient basis upon which to proceed against this organization pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 10450. The Department from time to time has advised that it desires that security-type investigations be conducted concerning the leaders of the organization and/or its active participating members for consideration for apprehension during the period of a national emergency and for inclusion in the Security Index.

In view of the extreme radical and violent nature of this organization and its leaders I thought this matter should be called to your attention in order that you may consider whether there is any legal action that can be taken or whether the organization can be designated pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 10450.

Since May 17, 1960, we have sent the Department additional reports on the NOI. These reports disclose that the NOI is continuing to enlarge its activities by a concentrated membership drive and appeals for money to carry out its programs aimed at the eventual emancipation of Negroes in America from their white "oppressors". This is with further reference to your memorandum dated June 19, 1959, wherein you request to be advised whether any action against the Nation of Islam (NOI) is contemplated under provisions of Executive Order No. 10450.

As you know, it has been the Department's policy not to designate religious or quasi-religious organizations. On the other hand, the NOI's basic tenets make this a potentially dangerous organization in any emergency For this reason, extensive study and consideration was given the Bureau reports with a view of determining whether the NOI falls within the purview of Executive Order No. 10450.

As you have been previously advised, the designation of NOI poses a number of legal problems. For example, the inclusion of NOI under the category that it is an organization" seeking to alter the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means", has been determined to be inapplicable inasmuch as the language used by Elijah Muhammed and his ministers seeks to arouse hatred and antipathy against the white race as a whole, rather than seeking to alter the form of government, and any language concerning the destruction of the government usually has been couched in terms of prophecy or prediction rather than in terms of incitement to action in the foreseeable future.

It has also been determined that there is insufficient basis upon which to proceed against the NOI under any othercriterion of the Order.

This is in reply to your memorandum to me dated June 19, 1959, wherein you request to be advised whether any legal action against the Nation of Islam is presently contemplated.

Theregard to any possible prosecution under the Smith Act; a continuing review and evaluation of reports and memoranda concerning the leaders and members of this organization has failed to disclose the type of evidence required under the decision in Yates v. United States, 354 U.S. 298. It is noted that while the organization, as such, ostensibly eschews any acts of violence, some of the individual leaders and members use language which could incite to acts of violence. To date, however, this language has been more calculated to arouse hatred and antipathy against the white race as a whole rather than against the Government, qua government. Any language concerning the destruction of the Government usually has been couched in terms of prophecy or prediction rather than in terms of incitement to action. However, we have noted an increasing tendency on the part of some of the leaders of this organization to use language pregnant with overtones . of implied threats against the Government, and we will Amendment insofar as freedom of speech is concerned. Any prosecution involving members of this organization will undoubtedly be reviewed by the courts not only from this aspect, but also from the "freedom of religion" clause of the First Amendment. It can; therefore, be anticipated that the courts will require that the proof against any member of this organization be strong and unequivocal, mainly because of the claimed religious nature of the organization.

With regard to possible prosecutions under sections 1001 and 1621 of Title 18, United States Code, we have reviewed all individual cases coming within the purview of these statutes and, to date, have been unable to recommend prosecution in any of them for the various reasons of which you have been apprised in our previous correspondence in this matter.

Because of the repeated acts of disrespect toward our flag shown by leaders of this organization, we are considering the desirability of proposed legislation, similar to Title 4, Section 3 of the United States Code, which is applicable only to the District of Columbia, to make criminal acts of desecration or other disrespectful acts directed toward our country's flag.

With regard to possible designation proceedings, certain legal problems created by an action under the applicable criteria are under consideration and an analysis is being made of the more recent reports submitted by the Bureau. NATION OF ISLAM INTERNAL SECURITY - NOI

Reference is made to previous correspondence between the Department and the Bureau relative to possible action against captioned organization under existing statutes.

On February 7, 1956, the Department stated that available proof did not warrant either designation of the Nation of Islam (NOI) under Executive Order 10450 or the institution of proceedings pursuant to the provisions of the Smith Act of 1940. The Department has been furnished with reports and various memoranda concerning this organization on a continuing basis setting forth the activities of this group. It is requested that the Department advise whether any type of legal action against the NOI is feasible in the light of this additional information.

Memorandum Donahoe to Belmont, 6/17/59 captioned "Currenting Intelligence Analysis" (attached) observed an article on the Nation of Islam (NOI) which appeared in "Significant Intelligence Briefs" prepared by the Air Force indicated strongly that our Current Intelligence Analysis relative to the NOI which appeared on 5/27/59 had alerted the Air Force to the problems concerning this radical organization. The Director noted: "Is there no action Dept can take against the NOI?"

The NOI is an all-Negro violently antiwhite organization which teaches that the so-called Negro in the United States will some day own and occupy a separate black nation in North America. NOI members are preparing for a "war" against the white race and in the past have inflicted physical violence against law enforcement officers. The Bureau has been investigating the NOI for the past several years, and the matter has been referred to the Department, in order to determine whether its activities come within the purview of Executive Order 10450 (E.O. 10450).

The Department by memorandum from Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins dated 2/7/56 (3ufile 100-356062-1627) advised that the NOI constituted an organization which should be considered a potentially dangerous instrumentality in the event of a national emergency; however, upon review of available evidence for use in administrative and judicial proceedings, it appears that the proof does not warrant either designation of the organization under E.O. 10450 or institution of proceedings pursuant to the provisions of the Smith Act of 1940. It was the Department's decision that designations pursuant to E.O. 10450, particularly in the case of religious or quasi-religious organizations, should not be made except upon the basis of evidence which can be disclosed publicly in proceedings whenever the organization demands a hearing under the existing rules promulgated by the Attorney General. The Department requested that the Bureau continue to conduct security type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the organization pursuant to the Security Index Program as well as investigation of the organization itself. We have continued to investigate the organization and its members and have furnished the Department Enclosure seet 6-19-59 25-330971 JOC:fkit on a continuing basis with copies of reports concerning all investigations.

As of 6/15/59 there were 400 NOI members on the Security Index. The Department has recognized that this organization has dangerous potentiality as it accepts the fact that members of NOI should be on Security Index. In an emergency through the Emergency Detention Program the effectiveness and operations of this organization would be destroyed through the apprehension of its key members. On 1/11/56 we presented the facts of this case to the Department to see if legal action could be taken, including placing the NOI on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations (pursuant to E.O.10450). The Department replied by memorandum 2/7/56 that the organization does not warrant designation under E.O. 10450 or consideration under the Smith Act It is noted that we could expect considerable difficulty in producing witnesses to clearly depict the violent nature of this organization at any administrative hearing because we have gained most of our information from live Negro informants who would be extremely loathe to testify publicly because of the inherent physical danger from other members of the organization and ostricism by other members of their race.

ACTION:

Despite the above, there is attached for your approval a letter which raises again with the Department the question of possible legal action against the NOI.

Reference is also made to your memorandum dated April 12, 1957.

Your attention is directed to material previously furnished to the Department in connection with the investigation of this organization. As set forth in my referenced memorandum and the report of Special Agent Dow, investigation in this matter reflected that the name Muslim Cult of Islam had fallen into disuse, and that the name by which the organization is most commonly known today is the Nation of Islam.

As indicated in previous organizational reports in this matter this organization has never adopted a formal name by which it has been known nationally. Neither the Nation of Islam nor the Muslim Cult of Islam is the official name of this organization, and as indicated in the report of Special Agent Dow, the change in title in this case was merely an administrative change for the purpose of identifying the organization by a name by which it was more commonly designated by its members. There has been no change in the organization itself.

With regard to the current use of the name Nation of Islam as the title of this organization, Elijah Muhammad, in January, 1957, referred to his organization as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam" and approved the afore-mentioned names as being descriptive of his organization on a national basis. Since the Nation of Islam and the Muslim Cult of Islam are one and the same organization, in all instances where informants have in the past furnished information relative to the Muslim Cult of Islam and membership therein, such information in the future will be attributed to the Nation of Islam and membership therein. Likewise, the Fruit of Islam and membership therein have the same relationship to the Nation of Islam as they had to the Muslim Cult of Islam.

Memorandum for Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins

In connection with a recent review of the files of the Philadelphia haval Shippard relating to Andrew Johnson, the following was noted:

Prior to Johnson's resignation consideration was given by the employing agency to affording Johnson a hearing on the basis of his membership in the Muslim Cult of Islam. In this connection, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy in charge of personnel by letter advised the Personnel Relations Office at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard that membership in the Muslim Cult of Islam alone was not basis enough to hold a security hearing as it was the opinion of the Legal Department of the Secretary of the Navy that the Muslim Cult of Islam was a religious organization, was founded as a religious organization, and not an organization to overthrow the Government. It was also stated that the organization had not been included on the Attorney General's list and there was no indication that it was connected with the Communist Party. For these reasons the Personnel Section at the Navy Yard was ordered by the Secretary of the Navy to discontinue the investigation of Johnson.

With further reference to the Muslim Cult of Islam it is noted in your memorandum to this Bureau dated February 7, 1956, entitled "Program for Apprehension and Detention of Persons Considered Potentially Dangerous to the National Defense and Public Safety of the United States," you advised that it appeared that the teachings of the Cult would constitute that organization a potentially dangerous instrumentality in the event of a national emergency. It was pointed out that from a review of available evidence for use in administrative or judicial proceedings, however, it appeared that the proof did not warrant either designation of the organization under Executive Order 10450 or the institution of proceedings under the provisions of the Smith Act. It was requested that this Bureau continue to conduct security-type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the Muslim Cult of Islam as well-as investigations of the Gult itself.

The above is for your information and consideration and this Bureau will, unless advised to the contrary by the Department, continue to initiate full field investigations under Executive Order 10450 on applicants and employees of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government in instances where available information indicates membership in or close association with the Muslim Gult of Islam by such individuals.

any member who kills four white men will be assured of salvation. According to Elijah Mohammed, the national leader of the Cult, Allah, taught that all dark people are Asiatics and belong to the Nation of Islam and that the "wicked" (white devils) were to be destroyed by fire and that the dark people would then have peace when this source of their trouble was eliminated.

A fundamental tenet of the organization is hatred of the white man. Faithful members are promised that under the leadership of Allah they will be delivered from the domination of the white man in the War of Armageddon. This war is to result in the destruction of the white man and the overthrow of his Government.

The organization teaches that its members owe allegiance only to Allah and Islam and that any civil law which conflicts with Muslim law should be disobeyed by the members. It teaches that dark-skinned people cannot be considered citizens of the United States since they are in slavery in this country. These are among the reasons given by the leaders why Cult members should not register for Selective Service or serve in the armed forces.

Each Temple of the organization has a branch known as the Fruit of Islam, composed of the able-bodied male members. The members of these groups are instructed in close order drill, self-defense, eating habits, wearing apparel and the study of regulations and doctrines of the Cult. In some of the Temples, additional courses of instruction in Mathematics, English and Arabic are also given.

The report cites four specific acts of violence in which Cult members have been involved. These acts may be summarized as follows:

Silver Spring, Maryland, Incident. A group of approximately 30 Cult members was traveling in a day coach en route from Jersay City, to Chicago. Shortly before arrival in Washington, D. C., some members of the party became involved in a dispute with a railroad porter over the issuance of a soiled pillow to one of the group. Several members of the group assaulted the porter, who then broke contact with the group and reported the incident to the Station Master at Washington. The train had departed Washington before any action could be taken, but police in Silver Spring, Maryland, were requested to investigate the incident. Upon boarding the train in Silver Spring, four police officers were assaulted by Cult members and the guns and blackjacks. of two were taken by Cult members. After police reinforcements arrived, nine Cult members were arrested and charged with assault and battery, inciting a riot, and interfering with an officer in the performance of his duties. Six defendants were tried, convicted, and sentenced to terms ranging from six months to twenty-one months.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Incident. After engaging in a street fight, nine persons were arrested. Seven identified themselves as Cult members and the other two claimed that they were former members, but were still firm believers. Two were charged with assault with intent to kill, by one of the victims, and with assault and battery, by a policeman who had been struck during the fight.

Detroit, Michigan, Incident. Two police officers who attempted to have a double-parked auto moved from in front of the Detroit Temple had their nightsticks taken from them, and were severely beaten. The officers shot and wounded two of their attackers, who were identified as Cult members. Three MCI members were tried and convicted of attempting to incite a riot.

San Diego, California Incident. A dinner was held at Fort Rosecrans for the 1402d Combat Engineers Battalion, a Negro National Guard organization which had been called into Federal Service. A civilian who attended the dinner, identified as Harrison Cole, a Cult member, engaged several of the recruits in conversation. When it was determined that he was making seditious statements to the recruits, he was removed from the Fost by armed escort.

The report also contains numerous statements by Elijah Mohammed and the various ministers of the organization. These statements appear to advocate the violent overthrow of the Government and the slaughter of the White race. The dominant theme of the utterances is that all persons who are not members of the Cult will be destroyed in the War of Armageddon, at which time the Government will be overthrown and the Muslims will come to power. There are also statements which approve the acts of violence committed by the Mau-Mau in Africa and the Fuerto Rican Nationalists, and which exhort Cult members to kill the white devils in order to bring about the day of their deliverance. It should also be noted that the report contains other statements by leaders of the organization to the effect that the deliverance of the Muslims is to be brought about through a divine act of Allah, who will destroy the "wicked" and overthrow their government without any assistance from Cult members. According to this teaching, the role of the membership of the Cult in the War of Armageddon will be entirely a passive one.

Although the report is replete with violent statements by the leadership of the organization and there have been acts of violence by the individual members, it is believed that the evidence is insufficient to constitute a violation of the Smith Act. This opinion is based on the absence of evidence of any plan or program of the organization which could reasonably be calculated to attempt the violent overthrow of the Government. The statements of the leaders of the organization, while they do express the desirability of overthrowin; the Government, are more in the realm of prophecy than of an actual plan for a violent revolution. By the same token, the acts of violence in which Cult members have engaged, fail to evidence any plan of the organization or its leadership. All these acts are of the spontaneous type, and except for the fact that the persons involved are members of the organization, have no connection at all. It is also believed that the activities of the organization fail to constitute the "clear and present canger" which the Supreme Court has held is required to make application of the Smith Act constitutional.

The report also cited the attempt of District 1 of the Communist Party to infiltrate the Boston Temple of the Cult. Although the report contained no further information on this subject, it is noted that the file contains your memorandum dated November 8, 1955, to the effect that the infiltration efforts had been discontinued due to the extreme anti-White attitude of the Cult.

The files of the leaders of the organization are being referred to the Criminal Division for a determination as to possible violation of 50 U.S.C. App. 462, i.e., knowingly counseling persons to refuse or evade registration or service under the Universal Military Training and Service Act.

Subsequent to the review of this report there was received in this Division your memorandum dated January 23, relating to information furnished by Richard Huff concerning possession of weapons and hand grenades by the Cult in Georgia. According to the memorandum, the reliability of the informant has not been established. If it subsequently is determined that the informant is reliable, the file will be reviewed to determine the advisability of instituting a prosecution under 18 U.S.C. 2384, the Seditious Conspiracy Statute.

Reference is made to your memorandum dated February 7, 1956.

In the discussion had with you by Mr. Belmont on September 8, 1955, when he delivered my memorandum of September 7, 1955, it was agreed that there was a need for a careful review by the Department of the file on the Muslim Cult of Islam to determir; whether this organization constitutes a dangerous instrumentality in the event of a national emergency. In the meantime, while the Department was conducting this review, there would not be furnished to the Department a list of Cult members included on the Security Index. You were also advised that, if the Department concluded from its review that the Muslim Cult of Islam did not constitute a potential threat to the internal security of this country, we would take steps to remove from the Security Index the names of those individual members presently included therein.

Your memorandum of February 7, 1956, states it appears that the antiwhite and anti-U. S. Government teachings of the Cult constitute that organization a potentially dangerous instrumentality in the event of a national emergency. Consequently, we are not removing the names of Cult members from the Security 'Index at this time. Should your opinion be changed by further review of the summary report sent to the. INTERNAL SECURITY - "MCI.

BUFILE 25-330971 The Chicago Office has submitted a comprehensive summary report of 326 pages concerning the activities of the Muslim Cult of Islam (MCI). The MCI was reportedly organized in 1930 in Detroit, The national leader since 1933 is Elijah Mohammed who claims to have been sent by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the Negroes out of slavery in the United States.

Members of the Cult fanatically follow the alleged teachings of Allah as interpreted by Elijah Mohammed and disavow allegiance to the United States. Members pledge allegiance only to Allah and Islam and believe that any civil law which conflicts with Muslim law should be disobeyed. The Cult teaches that members of the colored race cannot be considered citizens of the United States since they are in slavery in this country and must free themselves by destroying non-Muslims and Christianity in the coming xi War of Armageddon." purpose the Cult has a military branch called the Hruit of Islam" composed of all able-bodied members who participate in military drill and judo training.

The Department has advised the Bureau by letters dated 2/9/53 and 1/26/55 that evidence presently available in this case is insufficient to establish a violation of the Smith Act, a conspiracy to violate the Smith Act or Title 18, U.S. Code 238+ (Seditious Conspiracy).

In view of the fanatical beliefs of the MCI and the tense racial situation that exists today, it is believed we should send the Department this summary report and the exhibits thereto with the request that this material be reviewed to determine if the activities of the MCI are in violation of any Federal statutes within the Bureau's jurisdiction.

The original of the attached memorandum dated September 7, 1955, to Assistant Attorney General Tompkins, was delivered personally by me on September 8 to Mr. Tompkins. I advised him that in our correspondence with the Department on the Muslim Cult of Islam, we had the distinct impression that the Department has not thoroughly reviewed the file and all investigative reports on this organization. I pointed out that there are approximately 150 persons on the Security Index who are connected with this Cult and that the question involved is whether the Department has sufficiently reviewed the file to arrive at a conclusion as to whether membership in a leadership capacity, or active capacity in the "Fruit of Islam" (the military section of the Cult), should be considered dangerous in the event of an emergency. I told Mr. Tompkins that if the Department comes to the conclusion such persons will not be dangerous in an emergency, this Bureau would immediately review the cases of the Security Index subjects for appropriate action and that in the meantime the individual $ilde{m{I}}$ ist of Security Index subjects is not being referred to the Department for review.

I advised Mr. Tompkins that the memorandum of September 7 sets forth several incidents, together with the background of this organization, which reflect the need for a careful review by the Department. Mr. Tompkins agreed and stated that a thorough review would be made and that he would thereafter communicate with us.

This morning (September 9), I received the attached memorandum from Mr. Tompkins, which states that a thorough review will be undertaken and he will thereafter communicate with use 190-3516062 on several occasions, the primitive hatred, with which members are so imbued, exploded into open violence. In June 1950 the Detroit Police, in attempting to solve a traffic problem, were assaulted by a number of Negroes in front of the Temple of Islam. The officers had their night sticks taken away, were forced to use firearms, and were given a severe beating by the assembled Negroes. These Negroes were identified as members of the Muslim Gult of Islam.

Another incident occurred in September 1950, in San Diego, involving two officers of the San Diego Police Department who were attempting to serve a treffic warrant. Upon arriving at the address, two individuals accosted the officers and advised them the subject of the warrant was not at home. Then the officers exhibited the warrant and expressed their intention of searching the house, they were ruthlessly This perpetrated a near riot and necessitated attacked. the calling out of additional cars and approximately twenty officers. Before the subject was taken into custody and order was restored, an unknown individual fired three shots into a police car. It was later determined that the subject and the two individuals who intercepted the officers were all members of the Son Diego Temple of the Muslim Cult of Islam.

In February 1951, another incident occurred which involved a disturbance between members of the Cult who were en route to the yearly convention in Chicago. Members of the Kontgomery County Police in Silver Spring, Maryland, were alerted. Four policemen who met the train and entered the car were assaulted and had their guns and blackjacks taken away from them by numbers of the Gult. This necessitated a call for police reinforcements, and nine numbers of the Gult were removed to the station and charged with assault.

Opposition to Federal Authority

Such open defiance is not relegated merely to local authority. In view of the stand this organization has taken in connection with service in the armed forces, members have consistently, since the passage of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, adhered to the teachings of their leaders in refusing to register, because they claim to be registered in the book of Allah in the Holy City of Necce and cannot serve two masters. In 1942 three leaders of the Cult, including Elijah Mohammed, and seventy members of the Chicago Temple were arrested by Agents of this Bureou. The charges leveled against the leaders included failure to register for selective service, sedition and counseling their followers "that members of the Temple of Islam should not go into the Army and should ignore any cards or letters from the local draft board." The indiciments returned for redition and conspiracy to commit sedition were dismissed in May 1943; however, the three leaders served prison terms for selective service violations. Of the seventy members arrested, approximately forty served prison terms for violation of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940.

and the war in Korea, such incidents were repeated throughout the country, and a number of convictions were secured for violations of the beleative Service acts; and now with the threat of hostilities in the Far East, the Cult has again taken an open stand against service in the armed forces of the United States. They continue to include in their teachings such information as:
"The hlack people have always been helping the devil by fighting in his wars, but the Muslims do not go to war but rather to fail. Those who register will be kicked out of the nation of Islam and will die with the white devils."

Manorandum for Assistant Attorney General William P. Tompkins

Disloyalty and Disrespect for the United States Government

Intertwined with defience of the provisions of the Selective Service acts is a vivid disloyalty to the Selective Service acts is a vivid disloyalty to the Government and a continual disrespect for its laws. In a publication obtained from the headquarters of the Muslim Cult of Islam in Chicago, entitled "The Final Call to Islam," the following appeared:

"Of all the governments of the world there never existed one so wicked as america, which has misled the Holy People of Allah, and deceived them into worshiping a God that they cannot see, nor hear, that is a God which does not exist. For this cause Allah, has stretched forth his hand against the wicked America to bring her down, even to dust and askes, a country whose land is full of churches and in them wickedness is practiced beyond words to desoribe."

In 1942, Elijah Mohammed colorfully described the American flag as follows: "The flag you see here is the flag of the white devil. The white that you see, and notice that you don't see any black any where on it, represents the write race; the red represents the blood that they lose keeping it for the white devil alone, the blue background, the white stars represent justice to the whites, not the red men or the black men but only for the white devils."

He told his people not to display the flag of the white devil, because the flag meant nothing to them but a banner with stars and stripes and a piece of blue cloth, but the flag of Islam meant their very calvation.

Then the United States was at war with Japan, the Cult considered the Japanese their "little brown brothers" and gleefully predicted the victory of the Land of the Lising oun. In 1942, Elijah Mohammed reportedly made the following statement at a temple meeting: "The Japanese flag is similar to our flag of Islam and the likeness is because the Japanese are our brothers and they are the only ones who will give us justice, freedom and equality."

Memorandum for Assistant Attorney General .Eillion F. Tompkins

At the outbreak of war in Korea, the Cult immediately allied its sympathies with the cause of North Korea and spoke in glowing terms of the strength and power of their Korean brothers.

They have consistently referred to their Asiatic brothers in Russia, and, while there is no evidence to prove affiliation with the Communist Party, many of the leaders have lost no occasion to rise, verbally, to the defense of the Soviet Union in any matter involving difficulties between the United States and Russia.

The above examples are not intended to be all-inclusive and numerous reports concerning this organization have been made available to the Department under the caption "Elijah Mohammed, with aliases; Muslim Cult of Islam - Selective Service Act, 1948; Sedition; Conspiracy" and "Muslim Cult of Islam, Internal Security - MCI."

We have conducted and are presently conducting investigations of individual members of the Cult who are reported to be (1) functionaries or leaders of the Cult; (29 members of the military section of the Cult known as the Fruit of Islam or (3) active participants in carrying out disloyal aims and purposes of the Cult. The names of individual members have been added to the Security Index after a careful evaluation of their activities in furthering the fanatical and anarchist aims and purposes of the Cult because it was felt that they presented a potential threat against the internal security of the country in the event of an emergency. Based on information set out above it appears that such a potential threat could materialize by acts of violence as has been done by members of the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico or by seizing upon the opportunity presented by a national emergency to commit acts of violence based upon their hatred and disloyalty to the Government of the United States.

Remorandum for Assistant Attorney General William F. Tompkins

In view of the above and in the light of additional data concerning the Cult which has been made available to the Department in the form of reports under the captions previously mentioned, you may desire to further consider whether this organization would constitute a dangerous instrumentality in the event of a national energency. If it is your decision that this organization does not constitute a potential threat to the internal security of this country we will take steps to remove from the Security Index the names of those individual members presently included therein.

Muslim Cult of Islam (MCI) teaches its members (all Negroes) civil disobedience of any law conflicting with Muslim law and that non-Muslims and Christianity will be destroyed in the "War of Armageddon." Has military branch called "Fruit of Islam" (FOI). Members sympathetic to Asiatic nations in any conflict with western nations. Members have rebelled against police authority on occasion, expressed opposition to Federal authority by refusal to serve in military, teach disrespect for U.S. Government and appear to be potential threat to internal security of U.S. investigate (1) functionaries, (2) members of the FOI, and (3) active participants in the Cult. We have 151 included in the Security Index because of such activities.

Department considers available information insufficient to classify MCI as dangerous organization, states Security Index status should be determined by substantiated evidence of each respective individual's anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs as members of MCI and requests we furnish list of members included in Security Index. We feel that analysis of potential dangerousness of this organization and its members has not been subject of thorough study by Department. We propose to cite specific instances of violence against police authority, opposition to Federal authority, disloyalty and disrespect for U.S. Government and request Department to further consider whether this organization should be considered as dangerous to internal security of U.S.

As result of action taken by the Department to remove three members of the Muslim Cult of Islam (MCI), all Government employees, from the Security Index, we directed a letter to the Department August 8, 1955, requesting advice as to (1) whether we should continue to conduct security-type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the MCI and particularly the members of the Fruit of Islam (FOI), the military arm of the Cult, to determine whether the names of such individuals should be added to the Security Index and (2) whether the names of all members of the MCI currently on the Security Index should be removed from the Security Index.

With respect to the questions posed to the Department, the Department advised (1) that the Bureau should continue to conduct security-type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the MCI and (2) that an individual review and evaluation of derogatory information reported on each of the leaders and active participating members of the Cult must be conducted to ascertain whether as individuals, they should be removed from the Security Index or should continue to be included, based on substantiated evidence of each respective individual's anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs, as members of the Cult. The Department further noted that on the basis of available information the anarchist and revolutionary statements reportedly made by a single minister of the Cult are not of such scope as to indicate an aim or purpose of the Cult as enunciated by the prophet and leader, Elijah Mohammed, for uniform compliance by all MCI temple ministers.

The Department concludes that statements and activities on the part of individual members of the Cult indicating anarchist and revolutionary beliefs, will be determining factors in determining whether or not such individual members come within the revised Security Index criteria. The Department requests that a complete list of the names and FBI file numbers of the members of the MCI currently included in the Security Index be made available and that the Internal Security Division be kept informed of the individual members' activities on a continuing basis in order that their cases may be reviewed or re-reviewed in light of any new evidence or information developed.

Thumbnail Sketch of the MCI:

Reliable informants report that this Cult is an organization composed entirely of Negroes which was reportedly organized around 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. The national leader and founder is Elijah Mohammed who claims to have been sent by Allah to lead the Negroes out of slavery in the United States. Members fanatically follow the alleged teachings of Allah as interpreted by Mohammed and disavow allegiance to the United States. Members pledged allegiance only to Allah and Islam and believe any civil law which conflicts with Muslim law should be disobeyed. The Cult teaches that members of the dark skinned race cannot be considered citizens of the United States since they are in slavery in this country and, therefore, must free themselves by destroying non-Muslims and Christianity in the "War of Armageddon." this purpose the Cult has a military branch called the Fruit of Islam composed of all male able-bodied members who participate in military drill and judo training. Members of the Cult also believe that they are directly related to all Asiatic nations and any conflict involving any Asiatic nation and the Western nations is considered a part of the War of Armageddon in which the Asiatic nation will be victorious.

Instances of Violence Against Police Authority:

On several occasions the primitive hatred with which members are so imbued, exploded into open violence. In June 1950 the Detroit Police, in attempting to solve a traffic problem, were assaulted by a number of Negroes in front of the Temple of Islam. The officers had their night sticks taken away, were forced to use firearms, and were given a severe beating by the assembled Negroes. Four policemen who met the train and entered the car were assaulted and had their guns and blackjacks taken away from them by members of the Cult. This necessiated a call for police reinforcements, and nine members of the Cult were removed to the station and charged with assault.

Opposition to Federal Authority:

Such open defiance is not relegated merely to local authority. In view of the stand this organization has taken in connection with service in the armed forces, members have consistently, since the passage of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, adhered to the steachings of their leaders in refusing to register, because they claim to be registered in the book of Allah in the Holy City of Mecca and cannot serve two masters. The indictments returned for sedition and conspiracy to commit sedition were dismissed in May, 1943; however, the three leaders served prison terms for selective service violations. Of the seventy members arrested, approximately forty served prison terms for violation of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940.

During the course of the Second World War and the war in Korea, such incidents were repeated throughout the country, and a number of convictions were secured for violations of the Selective Service acts; and now with the threat of hostilities in the Far East, the Cult has again taken an open stand against service in the armed forces of the United States. They continue to include in their teachings such information as:

The black people have always been helping the devil by fighting in his wars, but the Muslims do not go to war but rather to jail.

Those who register will be kicked out of the nation of Islam and will die with the white devils.

Disloyalty and Disrespect for the United States Government:

Intertwined with defiance of the provisions of the Selective Service acts is the vivid disloyalty to the Government and the continual disrespect for its laws. Such comments as "no good Muslim registers for the draft, vote or do anything else in the Devil's government," are repeatedly made throughout the various temples. In 1942, Elijah Mohammed, the leader of this Cult, described the American flag as follows: "The flag you see, here is the flag of the white devil. The white that you see, and notice that you don't see any black any where on it, represents the white race; the red represents the blood that they lose keeping it for the white devil alone, the blue background, the white stars represent justice to the whites, not the red men or the black men but only for the white devils."

when the United States was at war with Japan, the Cult considered the Japanese their "little brown brothers" and gleefully predicted the victory of the Land of the Rising Sun. At the outbreak of the war in Korea, the Cult immediately allied its sympathies and spoke in glowing terms of the strength of their Korean brothers. They have consistently referred to their Asiatic brothers in Russia, and, while there is no evidence to prove affiliation with the Communist Party, many of the leaders have lost no occasion to rise, to the defense of the Soviet Union in any matter involving difficulties between the United States and Russia.

Observations:

Based upon an analysis of the rabid teachings of this group, it is definitely considered that these people present a threat to the internal security of the United States, and would, with the right number of followers and the opportunity, be more than willing to perform any acts which would subvert American principles and endanger the existence of the American nation as such. Such a potential threat could materialize by actual violence against civil authorities prior to a national emergency as has been done by the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico or by seizing upon the opportunity presented by a national emergency to commit acts of violence based upon their hatred and disloyalty to the Government of the United States. Our instructions to the field are that security—type investigations are to be conducted on individual members of the Cult who are reported to be (1) functionaries or leaders of the Cult; (2) members of the military section of the Cult known as the "Fruit of Islam" or (3) active participants in carrying out fanatical and disloyal aims and purposes of the Cult. Individuals affiliated with the Cult have been retained in the Security Index after careful evaluation of their activities in furthering the violence and anarchist aims and purposes of the Cult under that portion of the revised Security Index criteria which reads "investigation has developed information that the individual though not a member or a participant in the activities of a subversive organization has anarchist or revolutionary beliefs and is likely to seize upon the opportunity presented by a national emergency to endanger the public safety as shown by overt acts or statements within the last three years established through reliable sources, informants or individuals." As of the current date, we have 151 such individuals included in the Security Index. Extensive investigation has been conducted of the activities of the organization since 1942 and the numerous reports in the matter have been forwarded to the Department. It appears from the comments contained in the Department memorandum of August 23, 1955, that an analysis of the potential dangerousness of this organization and its members has not been the subject of a thorough study by the Department. The Domestic Intelligence Division feels that we should cite the information set out previously herein and specifically draw the attention of the Department to the organizational reports submitted concerning the Muslim Cult of Islam, and request the Department to reconsider its stand in this matter. If the Department has a : technical legal reason for not desiring the names of these individuals included in the Security Index, it is felt that we should be so informed.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) If you approve, there is attached a proposed letter to the Department along the lines mentioned above.

- (2) It is recommended that we not furnish the Department a list of the 151 individuals, MCI members, included in the Security Index pending reconsideration by the Department.
- (3) The Department's correspondence indicates it has not thoroughly reviewed the entire file on the Muslim Cult but it is basing its opinion on the statement of one minister. If you agree, Belmont wilk delived the attached letter to Tompkins or Yeagley and point out the necessity of for the Department to thoroughly review the file on this organization prior to any decision as to the individual members.

SUBJECT:

Program for Apprehension and Detention of Persons Considered Potentially Dangerous to the National Defense and Public Safety of the United States (OETCOM) - Gent.

Reference is made to your memorandum dated August 8, 1955, in which you wished to be advised whether the Bureau should continue to conduct Security-type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the Muslim Cult of Islam and its military adjunct, "Fruit of Islam", to determine whether the names of such individuals should be added to the Security Index because of their anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs, and further whether the names of all individuals who are currently included in the Socurity Index on a basis of the individual's anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs as members of the Muslim Cult of Islam. should be removed.

For your information, the Security Index status of the three United States Government Employees, HERBERT CAESAR, JERMIAH PUGH and JAMES GRICE-BEY, referred to in your momorandum, was considered under all four provisions of the revised Criteria, and particularly under Criteria 1(c) which reads: "Investigation has developed information that an individual though not a member or a participant in the activities of a subversive organization has anarchist or revolutionary beliefs and is likely to seize upon the opportunity presented by a national emergency to endanger the public safety as shown by overt acts or statements within the last three years established through reliable sources, informants or individuals." It was determined, in the instance of the three United States Government Employees, that there was insufficient substantiated evidence adduced with respect to the anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs on the part of these individual subjects, to carrent the retention of their names in the Security Indux.

It now appears apparent that due to the unique status of the Muslim Cult of Islam, as an organization, an individual review and evaluation of the derogatory information reported on each of the leaders and active participating members of the Cult must be conducted to ascertain whether as individuals, they should be removed from the Security Index or should continue to be included, based on substantiated evidence of each respective individual's anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs, as members of the Culto-It is to be assumed that in the cases of a number of the Cult members, particularly among the leaders, ample evidence will be adduced to warrant the retention of their names in the Security Index under the revised Criteria. 1.50-35616561 SECRET CONTROL OFFICE .

SECURITY DIVISION Doc1a: 32989640 /Edge 209

Your attention is directed to our memorandum to the Bureau dated August 10, 1954, captioned "Elijah Mohammod, et al, Muslim Cult Islam, Internal Security-MCI", in which it was stated at that time that the fanaticism of Muslim Cult of Islam members appears to be of such an extreme degree as to render possible an outbreak of violence by Cult members which might be similar in nature to the recontly attempted assessination of the members of the House of Espresentatives by Puerto Rican Nationalists. It has been ascertained that the basis for this conclusion were the alleged revolutionary statements by ASBURY WILLIAMS, minister, Temple #5, MCI, Cincinnati, Ohio, as reported in Bureau Report of Special Agent Richard F. Lally, dated May 18, 1954, at Cincinnati, Ohio, and credited to Confidential Informants T-4 and T-5 of known reliability.

On this point, it is to be noted that in reply to our memorandum of August 10, 1954, in which we requested a re-evaluation of certain informants, including Confidential Informants T-4 and T-5 of the referenced SA Lally report, the Bureau advised on September 21, 1954 that Confidential Informant T-4 is available to testify but is known to have furnished false information on one occasion, and advised further that Confidential Informant T-5 is not available to testify. In addition, the Bureau advised on March 3, 1955, that Confidential Informant T-4 was being changed from "of known reliability" to "of unknown reliability".

In this connection, a Bureau report on ASBURY WILLIAMS dated September 14, 1954, reflected the records of the Federal Correctional Institute at Milan, Michigan, as follows:

"The subject was described in 1943 as exhibiting no evidence of major psychological or neuropsychiatric disorders. A diagnosis of the subject at that time indicated that he exhibited a constitutional psychopathic inferiority with psychosis. His mental deficiency is noted as 'familial, border line typo'. He was described as a 'constitutional psychopathic state - paramoid personality'."

The Bureau report further described WILLIAMS as being of inferior intelligence with a mental age of between ten and eleven years of age with an I.Q. of seventy to seventy-mine.

In light of this later acquired information, the conclusions of our August 10, 1954 memorandum necessarily required re-evaluation. On the basis of available information, the anarchist and revolutionary statements reportedly made by ASBURY WILLIAMS and referenced in our August 10th memorandum, appear to be restricted to WILLIAMS, as a single minister of the Cult, and a minister who appears to be extremely radical, and such revolutionary statements are not of a substantial scope to indicate an aim or purpose of the Cult as enunciated by the prophet and leader, ELLIAH MOHAMMED, for uniform compliance by all MCI temple ministers.

You have advised that as of July 15, 1955, the date of the last statistical review of the Security Index, the names of 112 Cult mambers were included in the Security Index. It is requested that this Division be furnished with a complete list of the names and FBI File numbers of the members of the Muslim Cult of Islam currently included in the Index.

Considering that statements and activities on the part of individual members of the Cult, indicating anarchist and revolutionary beliefs, will be desermining factors in concluding whether or not such individual members come within the revised Security Index Criteria, it is deemed vital that this Division be kept informed of the individual members activities on a continuing basis, in order that their cases may be reviewed or re-reviewed in light of any new evidence or information. Therefore, it is requested that you continue to conduct security-type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the Muslim Cult of Islam.

PROGRAM FOR APPREHENSION AND DETENTION OF PERSONS CONSIDERED POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS TO THE NATIONAL DEFENCE AND PUBLIC SAFETY OF THE UNITED STATES FBI File 100-356062

Reference is made to your memoranda dated July 29, 1955, captioned as above, referring to the Security Index status of Herbert Caesar, Jeremiah Pugh and James Grice-Bey, all employees of the United States Government. Your communication in each instance advised that the name of the Federal employee should be removed from the Security Index. This has been done, Investigations reflect each of the individuals as a member of and an active participant in the affairs of the Muslim Cult of Islam, an organization composed of fanatical individuals who encourage racial prejudice and disavow allegiance to the United States. Each of the individuals is reported to be a member of the Fruit of Islam, the military arm of the Cult that frequently engages in close-order-drills according to informants.

In the memoranda to the Bureau dated July: 29, 2 1955, regarding the individuals mentioned above, you stated that on the basis of the information furnished to the Department on the Muslim Cult of Islam it has been decided that insufficient evidence has been adduced to include the group as a basic revolutionary group under the terms of the Security Index criteria. You also stated that until further evidence has been developed to substantiate a determination that the Cult adheres to the concepts and principal tenets of the Communist Party and advocates the use of force and violence, it had been decided that individual members of the Gult do not come within the faguirements for the retention of the names in the Security Index. 100-356062

Letter to Assistant Attorney General Villiam F. Tompkins

In a memorandum from Assistant Attorney General Warren Olney III dated February 9, 1953, captioned "Elijah Mohanmed, with aliases, The Muslim Cult of Islam, Selective Service Act of 1948, Conspiracy, Internal security - Co" and "Program for Apprehension and Detention of Persons Considered Patentially Dangerous to the National Defense and Public Safety of the United States," he advised that the Muslim Cult of Islam, under certain circumstances, presents a serious threat to the internal security because of the fanatical beliefs of the Gult waich encourage racial prejudice and disloyalty to the United States. He stated with reference to the Bureau's question as to whether a security-type investigation should be conducted regarding the leaders and/or members of the Cult for the purpose of considering them for inclusion in the Security Index, that investigative reports regarding the leaders and all presently active participating members should be furnished to the Department. Investigations of leaders and active participating members of the Cult have been and are being conducted. In addition, investigative reports regarding the Cult have been submitted to the Department on a continuing basis.

When facts developed through investigation warrant such action, names of Cult members have been added to the Security Index. As of July 15, 1955, the date of the last statistical review of the Security Index, the names of 142 Cult members were included in the Security Index. The figure includes the three individuals mentioned above.

Individuals affiliated with the Cult have not been included in the Security Index on the premise that the Cult adheres to the concepts and principal tenets of the Communist Farty. The names of individuals have been retained in the Security Index after careful evaluation of their activities in furthering the fanatical and anarchist aims and purposes of the Cult under that portion of the revised Security Index criteria which reads as follows: "Investigation has developed information that an individual though not a member or a participant in the activities of a subversive organization has anarchist or revolutionary beliefs and is likely to seize upon the opportunity presented by a national emergency to endanger the public safety as shown by overt acts or statements within the last three years established through reliable sources, informants or individuals."

In connection with the Cult's advocacy of the use of force and violence, your attention is directed to your memorandum to the Bureau dated August 10, 1954, captioned "Elijah Mohammed, et al, Muslim Cult of Islam, Internal Security - MCI." in which you state in part that this Cult continues to foster a program of vicious racial hatred, fanied continuously by the fanatical preachings of Mohammed and his ministers, bitterly denouncing the United States Government, its flag and leaders, and proclaiming the eventual destruction of the country and the white people thereof. You further stated that the fanaticism of Muslim Cult of Islam members appears to be of such an extreme degree as to render possible an outbreck of violence by Cult members which might be similar in nature to the recently attempted assassination of the nambers of the House of Representatives by Puerto Rican Nationalists.

In that connection, Asbury Milliams, leader of Temple Number 5 of the Cult at Cincinnati, is reported to have stated that the Muslims and not the Puerto Micans should be the persons to kill the President and the rest of the leading officials in the United States. The information is set out in detail in the report of Special Agent Richard F. Lally dated May 18, 1954, at Cincinnati, Ohio, captioned "Liljah Mohammed, et al, Muslim Cult of Islam, Internal Security - MCI."

As you pointed out in your memorandum dated August 10, 1954, the members of the Muslim Gult of Islam present a potential for violence similar to the members of the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico. This is based on the extreme fanatical and anarchist teachings and beliefs of the members. Such a potential threat could materialize by acts of violence against civil authority prior to a nurional emergency as has been done by members of the Nationalist Party of Fuerto files or by seizing upon the opportunity presented by a national emergency to commit acts of violence based upon their hatred and disloyalty to the Government of the United States.

You are requested to advise whether this Bureau should continue to conduct security-type investigations of the leaders and active participating members of the Muslim Cult of Islam and particularly the members of the Fruit of Islan, the military arm of the Cult, to determine whether the names of such individuals should be added to the Security Index because of their anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs. In view of your decision to remove the names of the three Federal employees mentioned above from the Security Index you are requested to advise whether the names of all other individuals should be removed from the Security Index which were included therein based on the individuals' anarchist and revolutionary activities and beliefs as members of the Muslim Cult of Islam, Assistant Attorney General Tompkins memoranda stated there was insufficient evidence to consider MCI a basic revolutionary group under revised Security Index criteria. He stated there was no evidence that the Cult adheres to the concepts and principal tenets of the Communist Party (CP) and advocates the use of force and violence.

As of July 15, 1955, there were 142 Cult members on the Security Index including the three persons mentioned above. Memorandum from Assistant Attorney General Tompkins dated August 10, 1954, captioned "Elijah Mohammed, et al, Muslim Cult of Islam, Internal Security - MCI," stated in part that the MCI continues to foster a program of vicious racial hatred, fanned continually by the fanatical preaching of Mohammed and his ministers, bitterly denouncing the United States Government, its flag and leaders, and proclaiming the eventual destruction of the country and the white people thereof. He further stated that the fanaticism of the MCI members appears to be of such an extreme degree as to render possible an outbreak of violence by Cult members which might be similar in nature to the attempted assassination of the members of the House of Representatives by the Puerto Rican Nationalists.

OBSERVATIONS:

The conclusion reached by Mr. Tompkins in regard to the three Federal Government employees in regard to the dangerousness of the individuals or the anarchist and violent aims and purposes of the MCI appears contrary to the observations in his memorandum of August 10, 1954.

Individuals deemed dangerous because of anarchist or revolutionary acts or statements have been placed in the Security Index both under the old Security Index criteria and the revised criteria, even though there is no affiliation with the CP or other Marxist revolutionary groups. The criteria clearly spelled out this situation.

The radical group of Negroes who are members of the MCI are lead by Elijah Mohammed. They believe he is the "True Prophet of Allah" and believe that any civil law which conflicts with Muslim Law should be disobeyed. The members disavow allegiance to the United States and pledge allegiance only to Islam. They do not consider it their duty to register for Selective Service. The members consider themselves merely slaves of this country who will continue to be slaves until they free themselves. This Cult presents a threat to the internal security similar to that presented by the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico. Their training, teachings and statements clearly depict them as potential security threats. Only the leaders, members of the Fruit of Islam and very active participating members have been included in the Security Index. The three Federal employees fall within these categories.

ACTION:

If you approve, there is attached a memorandum to Assistant Attorney General Tompkins requesting (1) advice as to whether the investigations of individual members of the Cult should be continued and (2) whether the names of the other Security Index subjects who have been placed in the Security Index because of their anarchist and revolutionary beliefs in affiliation with the MCI should be continued in the Security Index.

subject: ELIJAH OHATMED, et al. LUSLIM CULT OF ISLAM INTERNAL SECURITY - MCI

CONFIDENTIAL

Mr. Holloman Miss Gandy 1.

Reference is made to your memoranda of March 31 and May 20, 1954, in which you advised this Division that informants, who furnished information concerning (1) the possession of rifles and knives by the Luslim Cult of Islam in Chicago and (2) the use of rifles in military drills at the Cincinnati temple, respectively, were not available to testify in any criminal proceeding at that time.

Under the direction of its "Prophet," Elijah Mohammed, the Muslim Cult of Islam has established temples in approximately sixteen, leading cities in the United States with national headquarters in Chicago. This Cult continues to foster a program of vicious racial hatred, fanned continuously by the fanatical preachings of Moharmed and his ministers, bitterly denouncing the United States Government, its flag and leaders, and proclaiming the eventual destruction of this country and the white people thereof. Apparently, the Muslim Cult of Islam also continues to counsel young Cult members to evade registration under the Selective Service Act or service in the United Stat Armed Forces as required under the Act.

The fanaticism of MCI members appears to be of such an extreme degree as to render possible an outbreak of violence by Cult members, which might be similar in nature to the recently attempted assassination of members of the House of Representatives by Puerto Rican Nationalists.

Inasmuch as this matter is again being reviewed by this Division, it is requested that you re-evaluate the informants who have been heretofore designated as unavailable to determine whether or not they can be made available at this time for the purpose of testifying in connection with any contemplated prosecution directed against the Cult or its members. It is requested that you advise this Division of the results of your re-evaluation.

In addition, it is also requested that you advise only yision as to whether the following witnesses and confidential informants are available to testify before a Federal Grand Jury and at a possible subsequent trial:

Mr. H. H.

Miss Ganty

This refers to my memorandum of September 8, 1953 wherein you were advised that pursuant to your request a review of the material submitted on the above subject would be made for the purpose of determining whether prosecution will be authorized and whether further investigation is desired with regard to the Selective Service conspiracy phase of this case.

The investigative reports reflect that the Moslem Cult of Islam is described by informants as a vicious and fanatical organization composed of Negroes whose members disavow allegiance to the United States and declare allegiance only to Islam and Allah's Prophet, Elijah Mohammed. The organization's rules imply civil disobedience to the laws of the United States while awaiting the annihilation of the White Race in the Biblical reference to the "War of Armageddon."

In connection with its policy of civil disobedience to the laws of the United States, several instances have been reported where leaders of this Cult have, during the course of meetings, made statements to the effect that its members should not comply with the Selective Service Laws and to disregard orders received from their respective local boards.

This attitude is apparently in line with its general policy of opposition to civil authority and there is no specific information developed which would establish that a conspiracy was formed for the purpose of evading or counseling evasion of service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

OPIES DESTROYED

While there have been instances where individuals have 23 1962 while there have been limited that they were counseled such evasion, it could not be established that they were 85. NOV acting as part of a conspiracy and, consequently, prosecution based on this phase of the case is not warranted. In the circumstances, therefore, no specific investigation as to this possible violation on the part of the organization is desired at this time. However, it is requested that individual instances of counseling evasion or refusal to comply with Selective Service laws be reported to the Criminal Division.

Reference is made to your memorandum of December 30, 1952, wherein you requested to be advised if the activities of the captioned organization and its leaders constitute a violation of the Smith Act of 1940. Your memorandum also requests advice as to whether security-type investigations should be conducted regarding the leaders and/or members of the Cult for consideration in connection with the Security Index.

The file in this case has been reviewed and it is my opinion that the evidence presently available is insufficient to establish a violation of the Smith Act or a conspiracy to violate said Act. This conclusion has been reached in spite of the fact that the leaders of the Cult, in some measure at least, advocate the desirability of the violent overthrow of the existing Government. However, such advocacy is expressed more in the nature of a prophecy that such overthrow will inevitably come about under the leadership of "Allah" in the "War of Armageddon. The organization appears to have no program of action which reasonably would be calculated to bring about or attempt to bring about the violent overthrow of the Government. In addition, it is pointed out that the conclusion hereinabove expressed is to a large extent influenced by my opinion that the evidence available at this time is insufficient to establish such a "clear and present danger" as is required to make application of the Smith Act consti-Dennis v. United States, 341 U.S. 494.

I am, of course, keenly aware that an organization which subscribes to and breeds on the fanatical beliefs of the Muslim Cult, and which encourages bitter race prejudice and disloyalty to the United States would, under certain circumstances, represent a serious threat to our internal security.

Sedition, Conspiracy.

This is in response to your memorandum of December 28, 1951, with its attachment, in which you requested my views as to whether the facts developed in the above matter warrant prosecution and also to be informed specifically of the extent of any further investigation that is desirable.

The facts developed in the investigation to date are insufficient at this time to prove that men within the draft age have been actually counseled, aided and abetted by members of the organization to evade registration and/or service in the Armed Forces. However, since the investigative report of November 28, 1951, reveals that men within the critical age group may have been told by members of the organization not to comply with the provisions of the Selective Service Act and to disregard orders received from their respective local draft boards, I believe that the investigation should be continued. In connection therewith I suggest, upon investigation of subsequent Selective Service violations by members of this cult, that the delinquent be interviewed, as in the past, with a view to ascertaining whether his delinquency was the result of being counseled by a member or members of the organization. If this fact is established, it is requested that you endeavor to secure the names of those present at that time, the date of the conversation and its substance in detail.

The information available does not reflect a violation of the Sedition Statute, 18 U.S.C. 2387, since it does not appear that the subject group or the members thereof have advised, counseled, urged, or in any manner caused or attempted to cause insubordination, disloyalty, mutiny or refusal of duty by any member of the military or naval forces of the United States.

KEY BLACK EXTREMIST PROGRAM RACIAL MATTERS

During your investigations of black extremist organizations and individuals, you have furnished information indicating that certain individuals are extremely active and most vocal in their anti-Government statements and their calls for terrorism and violence. Although the violence potential in all black extremists necessitates continued priority attention by all offices, there are certain individual leaders and activists who can be considered as Key Black Extremists (KBE). =

At this time, the Bureau is designating those on the attached list as KBEs. The term KBE does not require that an Andividual actually hold an official position in an organization But is to include others of equal importance because of their Sinfluence as black extremists.

An intensified investigation of each person on the attached list must be immediately instituted with the objective of developing complete and detailed information on their dayto-day activities and future plans. Each office must continually remain alert for additions to the KBE list. Submit all recommendations to make specific subjects KBEs to the Bureau for approval These cases must be given intensive investigative attention and close supervision by all offices. informant coverage on the subjects. All avenues of investigative attention must be explored and necessary recommendations to the Bureau must be made promptly.

The desirable coverage must include, but not be limited to, the following investigation. These investigations must be conducted with initiative and imagination in order that the desired results are achieved. Each of these cases will receive close scrutiny at the Bureau.

- (1) All KBEs must be included in Priority I of the Security Index. If not already so included, promptly submit FD-122.
- (2) All KBEs must be included in the Black Nationalist Photograph Album (BNPA). Promptly submit photograph and required background on each KBE not presently in the BNPA and when a subject is designated a KBE.
- (3) All aspects of the finances of a KBE must be determined. Bank accounts must be monitored. Safe deposit boxes, investments, and hidden assets must be located and available information regarding them must be reported.
- (4) Continued consideration must be given by each office to develop means to neutralize the effectiveness of each KBE. Any counterintelligence proposal must be approved by the Bureau prior to implementation.
- (5) Obtain suitable handwriting specimens of each KBE to be placed in the National Security File in the Laboratory. When possible, obtain specimens from public records, law enforcement agencies, and similar sources. Send specimens to the Bureau under separate cover letter by registered mail for the attention of the FBI Laboratory. When they are of value as evidence, so state in the transmittal letter and request their return after copies have been made. Specimens should be sufficient to permit future comparisons by the Laboratory.

Airtel to SAC, Albany KEY BLACK EXTREMIST PROGRAM

- (6) Particular efforts should be made to obtain records of and/or reliable witnesses to, inflammatory statements made which may subsequently become subject to criminal proceedings. Promptly record all such information in interview report form.
- (7) Where there appears to be a possible violation of a statute within the investigative jurisdiction of the Bureau, the substantive violation character should be included in subsequent communications and the possible violation vigorously investigated in accordance with existing instructions.
- (8) Particular attention must be paid to travel by a KBE and every effort made to determine financial arrangements for such travel. If a credit card is used, determine its validity and the amount being charged to that card on a continuing basis. Travel information must be submitted to the Bureau and interested offices by appropriate communication to permit coverage of the KBE. It will be the responsibility of the office of origin to insure that the activities of the KBE are covered by auxiliary offices.
- (9) The Federal income tax returns of all KBEs must be checked annually in accordance with existing instructions.

If no investigative summary report has been submitted in each case, such a report must be submitted to the Bureau by 2/15/71. Thereafter, an investigative report should be submitted at least every 90 days. Furthermore, appropriate communications suitable for dissemination should be promptly submitted in the interim to keep the Bureau fully advised of the activities of each KBE. The words (Key Black Extremist) should be included in the character of each communication submitted except those communications (including reports) which are prepared for dissemination.

Because of the violence potential of all black extremists, we have required that the field give priority attention to the investigations of all black extremists. The information submitted by the field indicates that there is a need for intensified coverage on a group of black extremists who are either key leaders or activists and are particularly extreme, agitative, anti-Government, and vocal in their calls for terrorism and violence. Leaders of the violence-prone Black Panther Party have indicated that the "revolution" is entering the beginning phases of actual armed struggle and our investigations indicate there are certain extremists more likely to resort to or to order terrorism as a tactic and therefore require particular attention. Purpose of this memorandum is to justify revision of the Key Black Extremist (KBE) program to include nonblack extremist subjects and redesignate it as the Key Extremist (KE) program.

The KBE program was initiated 12/23/70 to intensify investigative coverage of selected black extremists throughout the United States who were extremely active and posed the greatest potential for revolutionary activity. The program's objective was to develop complete and detailed information on their day-to-day activities and future plans.

It is recommended this KBE concept be revised into a KE program, which would encompass the activities of all extremist matters subjects, black, white-hate Klan-type, and American Indian. The program will focus on individuals whose activities warrant intensive investigative attention.

Individuals designated KEs will be considered for the ADEX; a biographical sketch with photograph will be included in the Extremist Photograph Album; all aspects of their finances will be determined; handwriting specimens will be placed in the National Security File in the Laboratory Division; fingerprints will be included in the Identification Division's Single Fingerprint File; possible criminal violations will be vigorously pursued; emphasis will be placed on obtaining records of inflammatory statements; Federal income tax returns will be reviewed where warranted; particular attention will be paid to their travel; and high-level informant coverage will be required on each individual.

9. Has a full and thorough background investigation been completed on the subject?

If the answers to questions number 5 through 9 above are in the negative, outline in another paragraph immediately under the answer the specific steps underway or being instituted by your office to fulfill this investigative requirement.

Some confusion regarding Key Extremists has arisen over the new ADEX criteria outlined in Memorandum to All SACs 21-72 dated 9/12/72. This revised criteria make it possible to have an extremist who warrants designation as a Key Extremist and yet does not meet the new criteria for inclusion on the ADEX. Such individuals may continue to be designated as Key Extremists.

Additional confusion has also arisen over reporting requirements which were relaxed by above-mentioned Memorandum to All SACs. Hereafter, individuals designated as Key Extremists are to be considered as exceptions to the above memorandum under Item 4d, Page 8, and reports on Key Extremists are to be regularly submitted every 90 days. If no report has been submitted on a Key Extremist within the past 90 days, promptly prepare and submit an up-to-date report and submit follow-up reports thereafter on a 90-day basis.

Section 122 of the Manual of Instructions is being revised to outline more clearly the criteria for designating black, white-hate Klan-type, and American Indian extremists as Key Extremists as well as the ADEX status of and reporting procedures for Key Extremists.

All offices insure in the future that new cases on individual extremists are carefully scrutinized to see if they warrant designation as a Key Extremist, and that an appropriate recommendation is promptly submitted to the Bureau.

This is to recommend that the attached airtel to all offices be sent to remind the field of the requirements of the Key Extremist Program (KEP), to request data to aid in analysis and reevaluation of KEP, and to assist offices in analyzing the effectiveness of their own program.

A preliminary analysis of KEP by IS - 1 Section, including discussions with field supervisory and investigative personnel attending a series of Extremist Matters In-Service classes, has determined that continuing investigative attention is not always being afforded individual extremists who have been designated as Key Extremists.

KEP was instituted in 1970 as the Key Black Extremist Program to provide guidelines for intensive investigation of certain black extremist leaders and activists whose endorsement and/or involvement in revolutionary and terrorist activities warrant priority attention. In January, 1973, the program was redesignated KEP and revised to include key white-hate/Klan-type extremists and Extremists under investigation, the identity of Key Extremists who no longer warrant designation as such, the identity of individual extremists who should be designated Key Extremists, and to determine if required investigative steps are being followed with respect to those individuals designated as Key Extremists.

Originally, all Key Extremists were to be included in the ADEX. Recent changes in ADEX criteria require an individual included therein to be dangerous now to national security and some confusion has resulted in the field over whether or not Key Extremists must be removed as Key Extremists if they do not qualify for ADEX. The field is being instructed that this is not necessary and an individual can be a Key Extremist and still not qualify for ADEX. Confusion also exists as to when reports are to be submitted on Key Extremists due to recent relaxation of reporting rules. Original instructions required reports on Key Extremists every 90 days and this is being reiterated.

We currently have throughout the United States a total of 90 individual extremists designated as Key Extremists in 27 separate field offices. The New York Office has 19 and the San Francisco Office has 16. The number of Key Extremists in the remaining 25 offices range from one to eight. The results of analysis by each field office will be thoroughly analyzed and evaluated by the IS - 1 Section with additional instructions issued, if warranted.

BLACK EXTREMIST ACTIVITIES - Genil urpose of this man Purpose of this memorandum is to justify continuation of the Key Extremist Program.

This program was initiated 12/23/70 to intensify investigative coverage of selective black extremists throughout the United States who were extremely active and posed the greatest potential for revolutionary activities. objective was to develop complete and detailed information on their day-to-day activities and future plans. On 1/4/73, this program was expanded to include non-black extremist subjects.

Individuals designated Key Extremists (KE) are considered for the ADEX; a biographical sketch with photo is included in the Extremist Photo Album; all aspects of finances are determined; handwriting specimens are placed in the National Security File in the Laboratory Division: fingerprints are included in the Identification Division's Single Fingerprint File; all possible criminal violations are vigorously pursued; emphasis is placed on obtaining records of revolutionary statements. In addition, particular attention is paid to their travel and high level informant coverage is required on each individual. TEC- 106

Ninety individuals were initially designated under this program but with additions and deletions, and as a result of an annual review, this number is now 68.

API : . Inasmuch as KE individuals are of the type who would be subject to maximum investigative attention and close: supervision, the administration and supervision of this program entails only a minimum amount of time above that which would be normally expended on these cases.

The KEP was initiated in December, 1970, to intensify investigative coverage of selected black extremists and expanded in January, 1973, to include nonblack extremists.

As a result of streamlining our investigative procedures, this Program is being discontinued. Extremist character is to be dropped from all future communications. This in no way means a deemphasis of our investigation of individuals who were formerly carried as Key Extremists. Investigations of subjects are to be handled under the normal investigative procedures for ADEX subjects, which requires a communication to be submitted to FBTHQ on a subject's activities at least every 90 days.

In view of increasing problems with which we are faced in the overall racial field, particularly in the development of racial intelligence concerning militant black nationalist elements, we have carefully analyzed our informant program to place proper emphasis where needed. Although we are making progress in developing racial sources in the ghettos, we feel we can do much more and must do so rapidly in the coming six months to be prepared for another potential summer of violence. Proposed SAC letter attached.

To accomplish our objective of thorough penetration of the ghettos with a network of quality sources under a crash program, the following procedures will be instituted to carry out this program. The individuals we will be contacting under this crash informant program will be living in the ghettos; therefore, in the absence of any derogatory information developed, background investigation should consist of a check of field office indices, Bureau indices, FBI Identification Division records, and local credit and arrest records. Of course, prior to instituting any background investigation to qualify a ghetto informant, he must be in a position to furnish racial information and must be willing to cooperate with the Bureau. This individual will be carried as a probationary racial informant and the Agent contacting him will be constantly alert for any indications of character traits or activities which might cause embarrassment to the Bureau. In addition, the information furnished by such an informant will not be taken on face value but will be verified through other sources and investigation where possible.

In addition, we are specifically instructing that security informants active in the racial field be designated as racial informants and that their activities be supervised by the Racial Informant Desk. We are also reiterating our instructions that it is imperative and essential that the Bureau learn of any advance planning or organized conspiracy on the part of individuals or organizations in connection with riots and racial disturbances. We are also reiterating the instructions that informants should be alerted and directed to obtain information concerning individuals who may be stockpiling firebombs, Molotov cocktails, and weapons, and to identify any groups of terrorists who may be planning on carrying on a type of guerrilla warfare during riotous situations.

In connection with our intensive investigation of black militant groups, we are requiring all offices engaged in the Black Nationalist Groups TOPLEV Informant Program (There are 35 field offices involved in this Program.) to assign a minimum of one Agent to work exclusively on informant matters. The results of this endeavor will be reviewed after a three-month pilot period and additional recommendations will be made accordingly. The field will be followed closely to insure that the number and quality of racial informants are developed at a regular rate.

(G) RACIAL INFORMANTS - RACIAL MATTERS -- In view of the increasing problems with which we are faced in the racial field, particularly in the development of racial intelligence concerning militant black nationalist elements, a careful analysis of this matter has been made in order to insure that proper emphasis is placed where needed. Also, in order to afford better coordination over all interrelated racial security matters (individuals and organizations) including the development of racial informants, supervision is now being handled by the Racial Intelligence Section of the Domestic Intelligence Division. For your information, the Subversive Control Section is no longer in existence. The investigation of the Communist Party and related matters other than those with a racial aspect are being handled by the Internal Security Section.

Our analysis of the racial informant program has shown there is a definite need to develop additional penetrative coverage of the militant black nationalist groups and the ghetto areas immediately to be in a position to have maximum intelligence in anticipation of another outburst of racial violence next summer.

In line with our objective, particular emphasis is being placed on the development of ghetto-type racial informants. Individuals to qualify as this type of informant must live or work in an area described as a ghetto and, therefore, have access to pertinent racial information. The steps necessary to qualify such an individual are as follows:

- (1) The individual must have access to racial intelligence information and must be willing to cooperate with the Bureau in furnishing such information.
- (2) In the absence of any derogatory information developed, it will be necessary for you to check the following: field office indices, FBI Identification Division records, and local credit and arrest records. Of course, you must develop sufficient background data concerning each prospective informant to allow an intelligent check of the foregoing records to be made. As to the method of recommending to the Bureau that an individual be approved as a racial informant (ghetto-type), be guided by the instructions set out in Section 130, Volume IV, Manual of Instructions, concerning probationary racial informants.

NOT RECORDED 176 OCT 22/1967

550CT 311967

All individuals recommended and approved as ghetto-type racial informants will be considered probationary racial informants with the word "ghetto" after the informant's name or symbol. An example of this is "John Jones, Probationary Racial Informant (Ghetto)" or "NY 1234-R (PROB - Ghetto)."

Agents handling these ghetto-type probationary racial informants must be constantly alert for any indications of character traits or activities of these informants which might cause embarrassment to the Bureau. In addition, the information furnished by these informants should not be taken at face value. A diligent attempt must be made to verify all information furnished by these informants through other sources and/or investigation.

In addition, immediately review all security informant files for the purpose of determining which security informants are solely or predominantly active in the racial field. Examples would be individuals furnishing information concerning the Minutemen, as well as the Nation of Islam, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, Congress of Racial Equality, and other militant black nationalist-type groups. security designation of these informants should be changed to the appropriate racial informant designation. For example, a potential security informant should be made a probationary racial informant and a security informant should be designated as a racial informant. after, they should be operated principally in the racial field and supervised by the Racial Informant Desk. When an informant is changed from a security informant to a racial informant, the field classification number should be changed to a 170 classification. Advise the Bureau promptly as to which security informants are being converted to racial informants.

In addition, each office having a Black Nationalist Groups TOPLEV Informant Program is to immediately assign at least one Agent to work exclusively on developing informants under this Program. Each office participating in this Program will submit at the end of a three-month period appropriate observations as to the success of the Program and recommendations as to its continuance.

As I have advised in the past, it is imperative and essential that the Bureau learn of any indications of advance planning or organized 10/17/67 SAC LETTER 67-62 conspiracy on the part of individuals or organizations in connection with riots and racial disturbances. You are again reminded that informants should be alerted and directed to obtain information concerning individuals who may be stockpiling firebombs, Molotov cocktails, weapons, and to identify any groups of terrorists who may be planning on carrying out a type of guerrilla warfare during riotous situations.

I expect each office to give this most important matter priority attention in order to achieve our goal during the next six months. Your efforts and results will be followed closely at the Bureau and during field Inspections. Appropriate Manual changes will be forthcoming.

Very truly yours,

On May 16, 1968, the Executive Conference, consisting of Messrs, DeLoach, Mohr, Sullivan, Tavel, Casper, Callahan, Trotter, Conrad, Gale, Bishop, Scatterday for Rosen, Walters for Felt, and Beaver, considered a recommendation by Assistant Director Sullivan that a survey be made of the Negro ghetto areas where violence has occurred or where there is a concentration of militant, violence-prone, black power elements in order to determine the racial informant coverage in those areas. Complete details are set out in attached memorandum and proposed letter to all continental offices dealing with this matter. Basically, the purpose of this survey is to enable both the field and the Bureau to evaluate the adequacy of informant coverage in these areas and to pinpoint areas in which added coverage is needed.

This assignment could be completed in each office by one Agent in less than one day, from information already available in each field division, it being noted that on every inspection the inspector requires the field to identify its ghetto areas

Following consideration, the Executive Conference unanimously recommended that this survey be conducted.

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend approval for the attached letter to all continental field divisions which contains instructions to furnish to the Bureau information concerning ghetto-type informant coverage in Negro ghetto areas where there has been violence or where today there is a concentration of militant violence prone black power elements and the adequacy of such coverage.

By SAC Letter 67-62 (G) dated 10/17/67 captioned "Racial Informants, Racial Matters," all offices were given instructions and guidelines for the development of ghetto-type racial informants in areas where potential racial violence exists. We have aggressively followed this matter with the field since that time but because of the widely divergent nature of cities across the Nation where possible racial problems exist, we have been unable to precisely evaluate the extent of the need of ghetto-type informants in each division. Attached letter to all continental offices requires the submission by each office of factual information concerning the numbers of all Negro ghetto areas where there has been violence or where today there is a concentration of militant violence prone black power elements, an estimate of the population of each such area, and statistics concerning the numbers of ghetto-type racial informants developed to cover such areas. requires that each field division advise how many ghetto informants it believes it should have in each of the above type ghetto areas in order to provide the coverage required by the Bureau. 66.25

Attached letter will serve two purposes. Each office will have to make a factual survey of pertinent aspects of the racial problem in all urban areas covered by it. This survey will serve to drive home to each office the size of the potential problem in each division and will force each office to formulate concrete plans for developing adequate informant coverage where such has not already been done. Secondly, the information submitted by each office will give the Bureau a comprehensive picture of the potential problem in each division which will enable the Bureau to more effectively evaluate the adequacy of the ghetto-type racial informant program in each office. Supervisory personnel will be able to more easily detect shortcomings and weaknesses in any given division with this information at hand.

To obtain the information requested by this letter should not be a burden on the field in that it should only take the time of one Agent for less than one day to compile the information concerning the ghetto areas from the information already available in the field divisions. It is to be noted that on every inspection the inspector requires the field to identify its ghetto areas and those areas having a potential for violence.

That the attached proposed letter to all continental field offices in accordance with the above, be approved.

Letter to Albany, et al RE: RACIAL INFORMANTS

For your guidance, the goal you should be setting as to how many ghetto informants are needed in a particular area is that your coverage should be such that you are completely knowledgeable concerning all pertinent racial activities in a particular area. The type of information you should be receiving from your ghetto informants is advance information as to whether anyone is planning to cause a racial disturbance, stockpiling weapons for use during a racial disturbance, full details concerning the activities of militant black nationalists and white extremists in ghetto areas, as well as any other activities which may bring about a racial disturbance.

I expect that immediate attention will be given this matter and I also expect that the Bureau will be kept advised of progress being made in this field. Progress will be followed closely and the desired results are expected to be produced.

PURPOSE:

To obtain authority to send the attached letter to all Special Agents in Charge changing the maximum permissible period between contacts with ghetto-type racial informants from two weeks, as presently required by the Manual of Instructions, to one month.

BACKGROUND:

The ghetto-type racial informant program was established in October, 1967, to develop sources living or working in ghetto areas who are in a position to keep the Bureau advised of situations of potential violence. type racial informants are distinguished from regular racial informants in that they are not associated with or reporting regularly on black extremists. Their primary purpose is to detect and report on all violence-prone elements, activities, and situations in ghetto areas which could spark riots or assist black extremists in any way.

REGULAR RACIAL INFORMANTS STILL CONTACTED AT LEAST EVERY TWO WEEKS:

No change in present Manual of Instructions requirements that regular racial informants be contacted at least once every two weeks is contemplated. Because of the rapport established with ghetto-type racial informants, the field is often able to direct such informants into membership in or association with black extremist groups. case, these individuals are converted from ghetto-type racial informants to regular racial informants. If approval is given to extend the maximum period between contacts with established ghetto-type racial informants to one month, any such informant who is converted to a regular racial informant will again be subject to the requirement that he be contacted at least once every two weeks.

OBSERVATIONS:

Laborers, clerks, housewives, businessmen, and numerous other types of individuals are developed as ghettotype racial informants. Frequent initial contacts with each such individual are necessary (1) to establish adequate rapport, (2) to insure that each such individual is fully aware of the nature of and the seriousness of his assignments, and (3) to establish adequate channels of communications suitable for use at any time. Once these goals are achieved, the informant can be considered established and contacts every two weeks are no longer necessary since the primary purpose of each such informant is to remain alert to information of value and promptly relay same. Once a ghetto-type racial informant is established, contacts once each month will be adequate. To definitely fix the time at which a ghetto-type racial informant is considered established, the Special Agent handling this informant will be required to place a memorandum in informant's file stating that requirements (1), (2), and (3), mentioned above, have been met and that informant is considered established.

SAVINGS FROM LENGTHENING PERIOD BETWEEN CONTACTS:

As of August 1, 1968, there were 3,248 ghettotype racial informants developed by the field. New informants of this type are developed daily. Since Special Agents handling this type informant are presently required to contact each such individual at least once every two weeks, there are a minimum of 6,496 contacts being made each month. Even if a contact lasts but a few minutes, the manpower expenditure is considerable. If the maximum permissible period between contacts is extended to one month, manpower expenditures will be cut in half.

ACTION:

If approved, attached letter to all Special Agents in Charge will be sent in accordance with the above and appropriate Manual changes will be prepared.

Purpose of this memorandum is to obtain approval for attached letter to all continental field offices instructing that the Ghetto Racial Informant Program in each office be analyzed in detail to insure that each field office is obtaining the full potential from its network of ghetto informants.

We are presently operating 4,469 ghetto informants throughout the United States. These informants are producing valuable racial information on a regular basis. For example, during the past year ghetto informants were able to furnish information which was given to the local police and was helpful in containing racial disturbances. In addition, since April, 1969, our informants have been responsible for bringing about the arrest of 283 individuals (195 local and 88 Federal arrests) and have been responsible for solving 63 other cases and recoveries valued at $82,038.40.

Although the ghetto informant program is productive, a review has clearly shown that certain field offices are getting far more results from their ghetto informants than others. In view of this it is believed every field office should analyze their program.

The attached letter to all continental field offices instructs each field office to analyze their ghetto informant program and we are furnishing several guidelines for their assistance in this reevaluation. The purpose of this reevaluation is to insure that their ghetto informants are producing information on a regular basis.

The Ghetto Racial Informant Program was instituted on 10/11/67 for the purpose of obtaining information concerning situations in the ghettos which might erupt into racial violence as well as for the purpose of obtaining information concerning extremist activity in the ghetto areas. This program has been productive to date; however, a review of the program in the various field divisions has shown that certain field divisions are getting more results from their ghetto informants than In view of this, each field division should analyze its - particular ghetto racial informant program to insure that its informants are producing information on a regular basis. In the event an informant is not producing information on a regular basis the case should be closed and a new more productive \ informant should be developed.

The attendees at the recent Specialized Training of Bureau Personnel conferences concerning informant matters recommended that instructions be furnished to the field to the effect that in addition to having ghetto informants as listening posts, a larger percentage of these informants be given direction so that they will be actively seeking racial information on a regular basis.

The Ghetto Informant Program was instituted in July, 1967, in order that the Bureau would have access to pertinent racial information in the ghetto areas in anticipation of outbursts of racial violence. This program has proven to be very successful; however, it was noted that some field divisions were operating their ghetto informants as listening posts and other divisions were actively operating the ghetto informants by giving them positive assignments.

It is noted we are presently operating 4,520 ghetto informants and it is essential that we have some operated as listening posts but we would also achieve greater efficiency if the greater number of these informants were given positive assignments in the racial field. These assignments would include attendance at public meetings held by extremists, surveys of extremist bookstores, verification of residence and employment of Agitator and Security Index subjects who may live or work in ghetto areas, identification of extremists who may be agitating in a local area, as well as furnishing information concerning the activities of youth gangs operating in the area when these activities may tend to increase racial tensions. In addition, ghetto informants because of their access to criminal information, could furnish information concerning both Federal and local crimes.

SAC, Albany

As a result of the recent conferences concerning racial informants held at the Seat of Government, it has been recommended and approved that there be greater utilization of our ghetto racial informants.

The Ghetto Racial Informant Program was instituted in July, 1967, and at that time there was a need for developing a network of listening posts in order that the Bureau would have available maximum intelligence in the event of racial outbursts. In line with the original purpose, this program has proven very successful.

The attendees at the recent conferences noted that some field divisions were operating their ghetto informants listening posts whereas other field divisions were giving many of their ghetto informants positive assignments. In order to achieve greater efficiency in our informant operations, consideration must be given to giving many of our ghetto informants positive assignments. These assignments should include but not necessarily be limited to attendance at public meetings held by extremists, surveys of extremist bookstores, verification of residence and employment of Agitator and Security

It is recognized that certain individuals presently being operated as ghetto informants would be more useful in their role as listening posts; therefore, they should be continued as such.

In line with the above, each ghetto racial informant file should be reviewed in connection with the regular review of ghetto informant files in order to determine whether the informan should be operated as a listening post or whether he should be given positive assignments as set out above.

In the future development of ghetto racial informants you should strive to obtain quality ghetto informants, particularly the type which can be operated so they will be actively seeking racial information in their ghetto areas. It is to be noted that when ghetto informants are furnishing information on a regular basis concerning extremist activity they should be designated as probationary racial informants and the ghetto designation deleted. An aggressive and imaginative approach to the Ghetto Informant Program will enhance the overall Racial Informant Program in every field division by producing on a regular basis, individuals who can be directed to positions where they will have access to pertinent racial information on a regular basis.

To obtain authority to revise current policy with regard to the administrative handling of the Ghetto Informant Program.

The Ghetto Informant Program instituted in July, 1967, for the purpose of providing the Bureau with in-depth racial coverage in ghetto areas. We currently operate 4520 ghetto informants throughout the Nation. This informant program is productive with its value having been clearly established. We have been exploring methods to administratively streamline this program to reduce paperwork and correspondence; in this regard it was suggested during a recent Specialized Training of Bureau Personnel conference concerning informant matters that we discontinue the classification of probationary ghetto informants and permit Special Agents in Charge to authorize and supervise all ghetto informants within their respective territories requiring that only a number count be included in the monthly racial informant progress letter.

Current policy requires that removal of the probationary status on ghetto informants be on Bureau authority after notification that specific requirements have been met. Proposed plan eliminates necessity for the probationary status and will place all ghetto informants in one classification upon completion of necessary requirements on SAC approval. The recommended procedure will materially reduce correspondence between the field and the Bureau. Additionally above recommendation eliminates the necessity for the currently required two-week contact with probationary ghetto informants which was necessary at the beginning of the program and will place all ghetto informants under a thirty-day contact rule which we feel is more realistic at this time.

Recommended changes will in no way affect current Bureau instructions concerning informants operating inpoperation nection with educational institutions.

Ridgeway #7082-110 To obtain authority to revise current policy with regard to maintenance of subfiles concerning ghetto informants. As a result of recent specialized training of Bureau personnel conferences concerning racial matters, it was recommended that the maintenance of field office subfiles concerning ghetto informants be left to the option of the Special Agent in Charge (SAC). Current policy requires that reports written or oral (reduced to writing) from racial informants including ghetto informants be filed in a field office subfile. Many ghetto informants serve only as "listening posts" and often furnish only information to the effect all is quiet. This type of information is considered positive information and according to current requirements a copy of the report should be placed in the informant subfile along with a copy in the racial situation control file. In view of the nature of "listening post" type information it is believed sufficient to place a copy of the report in the racial situation control file, thereby eliminating the necessity for its inclusion in a subfile. The above policy change is considered a streamlining device materially reducing paper work currently involved in the maintenance of the ghetto files and will increase the efficiency of our operation. (D) GHETTO INFORMANTS - RACIAL MATTERS -- As a result of recent conferences concerning racial informants held at the Seat of Government, it has been recommended and approved that ghetto informants be approved on the authority of the Special Agent in Charge and that the probationary status of these informants will no longer be necessary. Current policy requires that before a ghetto informant can be removed from a probationary status the Bureau must be advised that certain specific requirements have been satisfied; thereafter, Bureau authorization is given to remove the probationary status of the informant. You will no longer be required to advise the Bureau of the identity of the ghetto informants and your only requirement will be to give the number of ghetto informants currently being operated by your office at the time you submit your monthly racial informant status report.

Current investigation required concerning development of ghetto informants will remain in effect and it will be the responsibility of each SAC to assure the necessary requirements are fulfilled before approving these informants.

In addition to the above change it will no longer be necessary to contact any ghetto informants on a two-week basis as was required in the handling of probationary ghetto informants. You are now required to contact ghetto informants on a 30-day basis.

The above changes do not affect your requirements to obtain Bureau authority concerning ghetto informants who will be utilized in connection with educational institutions.

The above changes should materially ease the administrative handling of your Ghetto Informant Program and provide you with more time to develop additional productive ghetto informants throughout your territory.

Appropriate Manual changes are forthcoming.

(E) RACIAL INFORMANTS - GHETTO INFORMANTS -- As a result of recent racial informant conferences held at the Seat of Government, a recommendation was made and approved giving the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) the option of maintaining subfiles concerning ghetto informants.

As you are aware, current policy concerning subfiles relating to ghetto informants requires that a subfile be maintained on all ghetto informants regardless of whether or not they are furnishing only "listening post" type information. Effective immediately, the maintenance of a subfile for your ghetto informants is being left to the option of the SAC. There is little reason to maintain a subfile on those ghetto informants who are used primarily as "listening posts" and furnish information concerning attitudes and tensions within a ghetto area. It will suffice to place a copy of the report (FD-209) in the racial situation control file, thereby eliminating its inclusion in a subfile.

Subfiles may be necessary in those instances when ghetto informants are reporting valuable substantive information.

Appropriate Manual change forthcoming.

This is to justify the continuance of captioned program in view of the fact that this program is producing substantial accomplishments in the racial field on a regular basis,

The Ghetto Informant Program was instituted by memorandum G. C. Moore to Mr. W. C. Sullivan, dated 10-11-67, captioned "Racial Informants, Racial Matters." A ghetto informant is an individual who resides or works in an area described as a ghetto and can furnish pertinent general racial information. present time we are operating 5,178 ghetto informants and as of 6-1-69 we were operating 4,067 ghetto informants. This is an increase of 1,111 ghetto informants in the past year.

During the past year ghetto informants have been responsible not only for obtaining valuable racial intelligence in the ghetto areas but also for bringing about the arrest of 76 individuals, 43 on Federal charges and 33 on local charges. In addition, these informants were responsible for solving 88 other cases, nine of which were Federal and 79 local as well as bringing about recoveries valued in excess of $67,660. The types of cases involved in this were bank robberies, mail robberies, stolen automobiles, deserters, narcotics, assaults and general fugitive matters.

As to the racial intelligence furnished by ghetto informants during the past year it has been responsible for not only preventing racial violence in certain areas but also for identifying those individuals who have perpetrated violent acts in connection with racial disturbances. These informants have also furnished information concerning acquisitions of firearms by racial extremists as well as information concerning individuals who were attempting to form Black Panther groups in certain areas. > In accordance with the Director's request the following is set forth to show the difference between a racial informant and a ghetto informant.

A racial informant is an individual who is furnishing information on a confidential basis concerning extremist groups (black or white) as well as information concerning individuals who are members of these groups.

A ghetto informant is an individual who lives or works in a ghetto area and has access to information regarding the racial situation and racial activities in his area which he furnishes to the Bureau on a confidential basis.

The difference between the above types of informants is that the racial informant is targeted towards extremist organizations and their members whereas the ghetto informant furnishes general racial information and is not a member of an extremist group.

66-2542-10-219X At the present time we are operating 953 racial informants and 6,024 ghetto informants. The combination of these two types of sources gives us a combined total of 6,977 individuals who are furnishing racial information to the Bureau. EX-106

To obtain approval for attached airtel to all field offices concerning the advising of the Bureau of symbol numbers assigned to ghetto racial informants.

SAC Letter 71-19 (C) dated 5-4-71 set out that a symbol number designation should be afforded to all individuals from the time any steps are taken to develop them as any type of Bureau source. This letter instructed that the Bureau should be advised concerning the symbol number assigned by secure teletype.

Ghetto informants are approved by the authority of the Special Agent in Charge and the identity of the ghetto informant is not normally furnished to the Bureau. In such cases as it is necessary for the Bureau to obtain the identity of a particular ghetto informant, this is done by individual communication.

Accordingly, it is not believed necessary for the field to advise the Bureau of the symbol numbers assigned to individual ghetto informants.

Purpose of this memorandum is to advise concerning the racial Ghetto Informant Program in respect to the article which appeared in Sunday's 7/4/71 edition of "The Washington Post" highlighting this Program.

"The Washington Post" article captioned "Analysis of Stolen FBI Documents Provides Glimpse of Bureau at Work," (copy of which is attached), sets out the Bureau instituted a new program "ghetto informants" to cover the ghettos of America. The analysis in the article is based on the stolen documents from the Media, Pennsylvania, Resident Agency.

The article sets forth that some of the specific assignments were to attend and report on open meetings of known or suspected black extremists, visit black Afro-type bookstores to determine if extremist literature is available and report on changes of the attitudes of the Negro community toward the white community which may lead to racial violence.

The Ghetto Informant Program was instituted in October, 1967, by memorandum dated 10/11/67 from G. C. Moore to Mr. W. C. Sullivan captioned "Racial Informant, Racial Matters." It was recommended and approved that the Bureau develop sources living or working in ghetto areas who are in a position to keep the Bureau advised of situations of potential violence. This was necessary because of our responsibility of developing racial intelligence concerning black extremists who could forment: racial violence in the ghetto areas.

Memorandum to Mr. C. D. Brennan Re: Ghetto Informant Program

This Program has been productive in furnishing racial intelligence information which has been responsible for not only preventing racial violence but also identifying individuals who have perpetrated act of violence during racial disturbances, identifying individuals attempting to sell explosives, individuals who participated in firebombings as well as reporting on the activities while racial disturbances were occurring.

In addition, these ghetto informants along with all our racial informants from January to May 31, 1971, were responsible for bringing about the arrest of 237 individuals, on both local and Federal charges, 64 of which were FBI fugitives, as well as being responsible for the recovery of $63,865 in stolen merchandise.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Ghetto Informant Program is a sound program even if the liberal press such as "The Washington Post" using stolen documents attempts to imply that the Bureau through this Program is checking on every black living in a ghetto area. Such a task would be impossible. At the present time we have 6,301 ghetto informants throughout the U.S. These are mostly Negro individuals who are cooperating with the Bureau in order to help fight the extremist and criminal elements in their neighborhoods which jeopardize and disrupt the law abiding Negro citizen.

This Program is analyzed on a regular basis through field inspections, inspection of the Seat of Government and through supervision by the Domestic Intelligence Division. In view of the need for racial intelligence that is provided by the Program and its productivity, we will continue to operate it in accordance with Bureau standards.

ACTION: For information.

Analysis of Stolen FBI Documents Provides Glimpse of Bureau at Work

By William Greider Washington Post Staff Writer

What the United States government knows about Russell and his friends would fill a book and, somewhere deep in the files, it probably does.

One wintry day last February, for instance, the government learned that Sandra called Russell Russell told, her that there was no heav in their Philadelphia office and that they had no money.

Delores called, too, and stated that her baby was due in four months.

Russell left a message with Eileen to tell Smitty to tell Montae to be at a staff meeting.

Dan called Doc to ask about a truck and Doc called Dante about it. Geraldine called William. Lorraine, called Russell. Herman called an unknown female. Simba called the office.

And Russell called a female identified as Mom, station-to-station collect, in Illinois.

He asked her to send him $17 so he could come home to visit. She said she would. His mother tried to persuade Russell to get out of the Black Panther Party. She was unsuccessful.

These details from the private lives of Russe I and his associates at the Black Panther headquarters in Philadelphia were secured, without their knowledge, by a confidential informant—coded PH 1209-R* by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The asterisk indicates electronic surveillance, a tap on the telephone.

Presumably, the government gathered this intelligence in the interest of national security, to defend itself against the revolutionary violence that Black Panthers prophesy so casually. Ninteen copies of the four-page, single-spaced memorandum were distributed to different dossiers on individuals and organizations. But this date is not labeled as a security matter. In the shorthand designation of the bureau, Russell and the other Black Panthers are classified as "1/7" cases. Their activities constitute an "RM"—for Racial Matter."

ENCLOSURE

Analysis of Stolen Records Gives Glimpse of FBI at Work

Associated Press
The Media, Pa., FBI office, where records were stolen.

BUREAU, From

They are watched by the Philadelphia field office's by the Philadelphia field office's "Racial Squad."

"Any dissemination of this information outside the Bureau must be adequately paraphrased," the meorandum warned, "in order to protect this highly sensitive source."

Unfortunately for the bureau, the memo was disseminated in the most unorthodox way—with its raw tone of tedious snooping unparaphrased—by burglars who broke into an FBI office at Media, Pa., March 8. They stole 800 to 1,000 documents that night; approximately 10 per cent of them have since been made public, copied and sent to various newspapers which have described them in a series of articles.

Considered as a whole, those Media documents offer the public and Congress an unprecedented glimpse of how the U.S. government watches its citizens—particularly black citizens.

For, while many may consider it natural enough for the FBI to keel an eye on the Panthers, the Media documents establish clearly that the racial surveillance is a general activity, blanketing black neighborhoods and organizations, assigning file members and intelligence folders to thousands of people and places—from the Liberation School to Wimpy's Cafe in North Piladelphia to the Church of the Advocate on 18th Street.

The Media papers also provide original insights into the bureaucracy of citizen surveillance—the mountain of paperwork, the meticulous cataloguing of personal and political minutiae, the international incentives to broaden and deepen the spying rather than curtail it. All are described in the peculiar snub-nosed prose of FBI men, blunt and neutral in time, unanalytical, the way Mgt. Friday on "Draynet" used to say: "Just the facts, ma'm."

Attempting to draw generalizations from the stolen parers is a perilous exercise, because the press and public have been shown only a fraction of what was burglarized. The clandestine group that calls itself the "Citizens Commission to Investigate the FBI" clearly has been selective in its distribution—in some cases, revealing only parts of documents.

An FBI memo, which at first reading seems to reveal investigative harassment or unjustified invasion of privacy, could well be—if other accompanying documents were available—part of legitimate surveillance in pursuit of crime and criminals.

In that sense; the Media revelations are inherently unfair to the Bureau. There is no way for the agency to refute many of the implications without opening its confidential files to public inspection.

In addition, because the papers are confidential, the overall impression is inevitably one of subterfuge—the feeling that the FBI has been caught doing something it isn't supposed to be doing. Actually, the documents do not speak to that question. The FBI contends always that its investigative activities, past and present, are in accordance with instructions from the Justice Department and the Attorney General. Nothing in the Media file refutes that claim.

But, while the Media burglars have been selective in what they showed the public, so have the federal officials. Both the FBI and the . Justice Department, have so far refused to make public, even to congressional inquiries, any of the official criteria, guidelines and directives which they contend govern the methods and scope of FBI surveillance. At one point during a Senate hearing, a Justice official deviced that such guidelines exist, then moments later described them as extensive.

To explain surveillance in black neighborhoods, and to justify it, the assistant attorney general for internal security, Robert Mardian, has revealed two paragraphs from a 1967 memorandum by then Attorney General Ramsey Clark, a Democrat who more recently has been a critic of government intrusions on civil liberties. The excerpt, by itself, sounds like a sweeping directive to spy on American Negroes:

"It is imperative that the department seék to obtain the most comprehensive intelligence possible regarding organized or other pur-poseful stimulation of domestic dissention, civil dis-orders and riots. To carry out these responsibilities, we must make full use of and constantly endeavor to increase and refine the intelligence available to us, both from internal and external sources, concerning organizations and individuals throughout the country. who may play a role in cither instigating or spreading disorders or in preventing or checking them."

But the Justice Department has declined to release the entire text of Clark's memorandum or the other accompanying directives as well as any of the guidelines which the incumbent Attorney General has issued on the subject.

Clark acknowledges that he gave such an order, but his memory is vague about what restrictions, if any, were placed on the scope of the surveillance. The purpose, he said, was to develop more reliable intelligence about urban riot situations so that the federal government could make a measured response—a move which was also recommended by the liberal-ap-Kerner plauded report. Clark also wanted to settle the politically volatile question of whether a national conspiracy lay behind the urban disorders. "Of course, we never found one," he said.

"We felt first, a high obligation to be on top of that situation," Clark recalled, "and, second, that the bureau was not doing an adequate job. On methods, we may have been a little loose.

I just don't know."

Clark feels that if all of the memoranda were available they would show that he did not issue an open-ended order without limitations. In the absence of those official guidelines, however, the Media documents, despite their gaps, are still the most complete statement on what the FBI is doing. Tested against the experiences of former FBI agents from other field offices, some generalizations are possible.

Bookstores, churches, saloons, storefront community organizations, campuses and student organizations—all apparently are fair game if they bear the prefix "Afro" or if they become classified through some unrevealed process as "black militant" or "militant extremist." It is almost as it the government decided to "ipy on all lawyers who engage in politics because, as queryone knows, some lawyers in politics turn out to be crooks.

The memoranda prescribing the racial surveillance sound like instructions for agents being sent to a foreign country and, indeed, only a handful of the FBI's agents were black when the escalation in surveillance occurred in 1968 (fewer than 2 per cent of the more than 8,000 agents are black today).

One directive from Philadelphia's—special agent in charge (the SAC in bureau parlance) even told the 180 agents where to go in search of "obtaining maximum productivity from the ghetto informants developed by each individual office."

The SAC gave the addresses of 10 bars and cafes, three bookstores, a church and the headquarters of five community organizations. Among nine specific assignments for informants were these:

 "Attend and report on open meetings of known or suspected black extremist organizations . .

"Visit Afro-American type bookstores for the purpose of determining if militant extremist literature is available therein and, if so, to identify the owners, operators and clientele of such stores....

• "Identify black extremist militants who attempt to influence the Negro community and report on the effect of such efforts...

 "Report on changes in the attitude of the Negro community toward the white community which may lead to racial violence.

· "Report on all indications of efforts by foreign powers to take over the Negro militant movement. In those cases where you have an exceptionally intelligent and knowledgeable informant, such an informant may be given the assignment of reporting on the general mood of the Negro community concerning susceptibility to foreign influence whether this be from African nations in the form of Pan-Africanisms from the Soviet or Sinnese communist bloc nations, or from other nations."

The directive closed with a reminder to plan ahead:

"The Bureau has also instructed that we immediately ascertain among all Negro informants, including ghetto informants, which informants are planning to enter college this fall and would be in a position to infiltrate black power groups on campuses. Bureau desires that we furnish them with the identities of these informants and the colleges they plan to attend."

What the FBI wanted to find out—and presumably still seeks—was not so much the solution to a crime or the identity of criminals, but the answer to a highly complicated social-political question that has baffled the most sophisticated urban investigators: when and where would the next riot occul??

An earlier memo, dated in late February, 1968, outlined the problem for Philadelphia agents:

"It is a major part of our responsibility to learn in a vance, if that is human, possible, if a riot is planned or is expected to occur. In this way, it may be possible to actually forestall a riot or at least to be better prepared if it does happen."

This new responsibility meant, in effect, reporting on every demonstration planned, regardless of whether it produced disorder or a violation of any federal laws. The SAC warned, a bit grimly, it seems:

"Whether or not a riot does accur, the Bureau holds us responsible to keep the Bureau, the Departmnet, and the White House advised in advance of each demonstration. The Bureau expects this coverage to come through informant sources primarily. In addition, we must advise the Bureau at least every two weeks of existing tensious and conditions which may trigger a riot."

To accomplish that, a new category of informant was creared, employing the newly fashionable shorthand for any black neighborhood: "Racial Informant-Ghetto." They would be anyone, white or black, who happened to have contact in the "ghetto," from taxi drivers and liquor store clerks to janitors and bill collectors. These "Ghetto Informants" would be distinct from the FBI's regular "Racial Informants" who were infiltrating "black nationalist and black revolutionary groups." Each agent . was directed to bring back-at least one "ghetto informant".

The Bureau suggested that some established criminal and internal-security informants could be converted to the new assignment. Philadeiphia was subdivided by streets and areas to insure complete coverage.

If one assumes that this same command went out to all field agents, that means that the FBI was cataloguing for starters something like 8,000 informants, just to cover the "ghettoes" of America. But these numbers cannot be trusted; the total might have involved many more racial informants or it just may have been an exercise in expanded paperwork.

Interviews with tormer agents who served in Washington, Detroit, New York, Miami and Kansas City confirm that similar directives were received in other major cities, but the numbers and impact varied considerably.

One veteran of the Washington, D.C., field office (not to be confused with the bureau's headquarters here, commonly referred to as SOG for Seat of Government) recalled that they were given a much more ambitious goal for the Capital's black majority. They were first told to recruit at least six "ghetto informants" apiece. That was later modified to three each, then one each, he said.

"In fact," he related, "only guys on the Racial Squad did anything about it."

Another ex-agent in a different field office remembered an order to gather three or four "ghetto" contacts for pre-riot surveillance but, again, he did not think", that goal was ever genuinely fulfilled. "It just made for a tremendous amount of paperwork," he said. "Ninety per cent of the informants were worthless."

By the accounts of former, agents, many "informants" were little more than names and addresses in the files. They had been submitted after routine investigations and only limited contacts. Months later, the agent might submit a follow-up memorandum, withdrawing the "potential racial informant" as unreliable or no longer available, then submit new names. That, the exagents said, produced a statistical picture of heavy activity in developing new informants, but not much genuine intelligence.

The irony, according to the viewpoint of several exagents, is that the Media documents may portray the FBI surveillance "as much more penetrating than it really is.

Nevertheless, as Media documents testify, the. FBI has succeeded in infiltrating some bläck organizations (though the papers do not reveal whether the "ghetto" recruiting goal was ever met). A collection of the memorand spanning the recent years mentions 14 coded racial informants in the Philadelphia area and indicates that they are established sources who have passed the test of reliability and who presumably are paid for their information, either on a regular retailer or Item-by-item.

One informant — sill classified as "potential" — is a former civil rights leader who was among the 14 men who were listed in the 1968 memorandum as "active in the Negro militant movement" and, thus, worthy of surveillance.

Besides the Black Panthers, the documents reveal, for example, a thorough penetration of the Black Economic Development Conference, whose Philadelphia leader, Muhammad yatta, has specialized very public confrontations over such issues as church "reparations" to black people. Kenyatta's activities have been well covered by the local press and the Philadelphia police.

At least two racial informants — PH897-R and PH 307-R — were providing the FBI with reports on the private coming-and-going of Kenyatta as recently as February. None of the information contained in the reports distributed by the Media burglars suggests that Kenyatta is moving away from public confrontations into clandestine subversion or sabotage. On the contrary, one informant describes Kenyatta's plans for "a new stronger organization which will bring in other black groups in the city of Philadelphia." The FBI learned, among other things, the names of the prospective chairmen for 10 subcommittees, ranging from Church Relationships to Ways and Means. The planning makes Kenyatta sound more like a PTA chairman than a revolutionary, except for two of his subcommittees — Tactical, described by the informant as reparations and confrontation, and Defense, described as self-defense or legal defense.

To learn more about this man and his organization, the FBI turned to his bank and the telephone company, both of which were cooperative. The Southeast National Bank provided copies of cancelled checks and monthly statements that showed balances in 1970 fluctuating from a high of $1,948 to a low of $38.

The Bell 'telephone Co. of Pennsylvania supplied the investigator with the Kenyattas' unlisted phone number (but cautioned that this should not be made public without first going through the motions of issuing a subpoena for it).

The Media papers, fragmentary as they are, do not really establish how widespread that sort of surveillance is. Again, the exagents with experience in other cities suggest that is was the common practice, not the exception.

Two former agents who served—together on the Washington field office's Racial Squad agreed that surveillance of black groups was conducted broadly, though they came away from their bureau jobs with vastly different attitudes about it. One of them was so disgusted that it led to his resignation. The other found the work fascinating and educational.

"It was very racist," said one of them. "The bureau was interested in anything or anyone that said black. If I were to start an organization called 'Friends of Blacks,' chances are I would be in vestigate all over them that they had no right to investigate all over the lot willynilly."

The second agent, his former colleague, did not argue with this description of the scope, but insisted that the cillance was not "racist" other squads were at work covering white groups with equal vigor, particularly New Left dissidents.

"It was something new and interesting to me," he recalled. "I saw things differently, things I'd never seen before about the colored. I used to enjoy going around with Stokely Carmichael. He was a damn good speaker. If he could find his cause, he could be a great leader."

Several former added another distinction. Prior to the urban riots, bureau agents followed various civil rights groups, always on the pretext of potential foreign attachments. Officially, they were investigating to see if the civil rights movement was being infil-trated by Communists under foreign domination. After 1967, the expagents said, that distinction was dropped and any group which might be characterized as "black militant" or "extremist" became a subject of concern in its own right.

None of this probably would shock many of the "black militant" citizens who are being watched. For years, various civil rights leaders have complained about the FBI, even before the increased surveillance stimulated by the riots.

Some of them insisted that the real purpose was to destroy their organizations by stimulating paranoia—fear of infiltration which makes fellow members suspicious of one another, splinters a group into factions and inhibits the recruiting of new members. That was a factor, certainly, in the FBI's successful penetration of the Communist Party and the Ku Klux Klan –although few people objected when the tactic was used against those organizations.

Curiously, or Media document mentions "paranoia" as government weapon against its citizens. A Philadelphia agent, reporting on an SOG conference on the New Left held last September, notes:

"There was a p. etty general consensus that more interviews with these subjects and hangers on are in order for plenty of reasons, chief of which are it will enhance the paranoia endemic in these circles and will further serve to get the point across there is an FBI agent behind every mailbox."

On the record, the present administration has said that its racial intelligence-gathering related to civil disturbances is a continuition, with a few refinement, of what was started under Ramsey Clark and the Democrats. Privately, Justice Department officials have hinted on several occasions that Attorney General John N. Mitchell has actually been more restrictive, though they have offered no evidence of that.

-The fragmentary disclosures from the Media files suggests the contrary. Stirred by the canipus disorders of 1969-70 into asking Congress for 1,400 additional agents to cover college bombings and burnings, the bureau ordered all of its 59 field offices to investigate and, if possible, to infiltrate every black student organization in the country, not just at the campuses where disorders had occurred, but at every four-year college and junior college.

The memorandum is dated Nov. 4, 1970, a period when campuses were quiet, but the tone is urgent. It linked campus trouble involving black students with "influence and control by violence-prone Black Panther Party and other extremists." The order indicated that the bureau was increasing and re-emphasizing an area of surveillance which already had been opened.

"We must target informants and sources to develop information regarding these groups on a continuing basis to fulfill our responsibilities and to develop such coverage where none exists," the director said.

immediately, "Effective all BSU's and similar organizations organized to project the demands of black students which are not presently under investigation, are to be subjects of discreet, preliminary inquiries established to limited sources and carefully conducted to avoid criticism, to determine the size, aims, purposes, activities, leadership, key activists, extremist interest or influence in these groups. Open individual cases on officers and key activists in each group to determine background and if their activities warrant active investigation."

In the Philadelphia area, that meant black-student organizations on 13 campuses, each case "opened and assigned" under the heading of "Racial Matter," with additional individual files on the officers and "key activists." Across the nation, there are now about 500,000 black collegians and probably a couple of thousand campus groups called Black Student Union or Afro-American Society. Most of them, of course, were "organized to project the demands of black students," as the FBI put it, but only a small minority have been associated with violent disorders.

In addition to the camby-by-campus investigation, FBI aimed its resources at the National Association of Black Students, a fledgling Washington-based group that is trying to form a loose national affiliation of black college groups.

Last summer, all agents were alerted to have "logical informants" attend the first NABS convention in Detroit NABS is an "RM" too. The directive suggests that the FBI was already successful in infiltrating at least some Black Student Unions.

One of the most troubling items on racial surveillance is the last one, a memorandum from late February of this year describing what the FBI found out from informant sources three about the Black Student Union at Pennsylvania Military College, a qliet campus in Chester. What they found was a "basicall" dormant" organization, yett instead of closing the file and forgetting the matter, the agency decided to open new files on two leaders of the organization-just in case.

"These sources," the memorandum reported, "described the BSU as a somewhat disorganized group of students, possibly having a membership and/or following of no more than 30 students and posibly as few as a half dozen, who have not displayed radical or militant ideas, and do not appear to be aligned with any radical or black militant groups."

That sounds like a clean bill, even under the broad standards which the FBI applies in deciding who should be watched. The memorandum even described "Black Festival Week," held on the campus last October, as a flop. Nevertheless, according to the document, the FBI is still watching the leaders of this organization. The memo acknowledged the lack of damaging information, then directed:

"Philadelphia will, however, open cases on the individual leaders listed as the leaders of the BSU and informants will be developed on these individuals so that this office is aware of their identity and background."

The incident frames a crucial question about the FBI surveillance, not just of black spying but of political black organizations, but of political dissidents generally: when does the spying stop?

If one accepted the idea that the FBI has a right at least to look into any and all organizations which had probable cause" to be what it regards as potentially subversive or the source of crime or disorder, then presumably the agency would follow some procedure for taking a "first look" to test its suspicions.

If the "probable cause" proved to be unfounded, then the case would be closed, the surveillance stopped, ideally, the dossier destroyed. The case of Pennsylvania Military College suggests that, on the contrary, the igents keep the files active, even when they know the subject is harmless.

The Media documents provide no conclusive answer to this question, but they do contain a series of similar examples of the FBI men passing the threshhold of an initial investigation without accepting the negative results as grounds for closing the file.

In one bizarre case, the Philadelphia agents spent some energy tracking down Norman John Shore after an Army intelligence unit in Europe intercepted seven letters between Shore and pecple in East Germany. They dealt with Shore's visit to a "Free German Youth" camp. When the agents learned that the subject was only 14 years old, they decided to close the case—but switched their investigation to his father.

In another document, a confidential informant, PH 948-S. recounted his evening aw the "Bernheim Commune," chatting with several men about New Left politics while a Women's Liberation meeting was under way in an adjoining room. The men and some of the women were already the subjects of individual surveillance files as "internal security" 'cases; so was Women's Liberation.

The informant concluded: "It would appear that they consider themselves intellectual revolutionaries." but are not organizational types and not personally activists." Despite that assessment, the agent's memorandum closes with instructions to open and assign a new security case on the Bernheim Commune.

In a similar vein, a 1969 memo indicates that the government is interested in infiltrating a meeting of the War Resisters International at Haverford College for political propaganda purposes in connection with the Paris Peace talks, not to detect potential crime.

The organization is a radical pacifist league which has been producing antiwar propaganda for several generations. Its meeting at Haverford was open to press and public, but the FBI memo alerted 22 "security informants."

"Determine its scope and whether or not there are any indications it will generate any anti-U.S. propaganda," the orders said. "Be most discreet in handling this matter."

Former FBI agents, asked about their own experiences, express conflicting views on this question. Several think the FBI is reasonably careful about checking out a "security" or "racial" subject, then dropping the case if it proves unproductive. "A lot are eliminated by the first look," said one exagent. "I think they're doing a pretty good job."

But others disagree rather strongly. The system which they describe never forgets a name. Once someone comes under surveillance, they contend, it is hard to drop him. One agent described an example:

"In practice, Joe Doaks gives a speech. He says it's about time for a revolution in this country. So we take a look at him and determine that hes' a straight guy, just got carried away, no bomb thrower.

"But then you can't close the investigation, because you've got to get background, to make sure he's okay. Meanwhile, maybe he makes another speech somewhere and the bureau or another field office asks, "Who is this guy?" Once a guy makes a public name for himself, it's almost impossible to close it."

Some of the bureaucratic pressure that the ex-agents cite is evident in the Media papers. One memorandum mentions the "credit" system under which individual agents and field offices score points with their superiors when a case is solved or stolen property recovered.

Agents were urged to use racial informants for solving crimes, but promised that an agent would be given bull credit" for his piece of the action, even if another squad made the final "wust. In addition, when the were ordered to obline at least one "ghetto informant" apiece, the field office acknowledged that this might be impossible for some, but they should protect themselves against possible criticism:

"If an individual RA (resident agent) covers only a county which does not encompass any municipality containing a ghetto, so specify by memorandum form 170-6 with a copy for the RA's error folder, so that he will not be charged with failure to perform."

With that sort of encouragement, it would seem natural for a special agent to spread the fruits of his investigating as broadly as possible. Indeed, again and again, the Media memos demonstrate the great proliferation of paper recording and disseminating even insignificant discoveries.

The Philadelphia "Security" investigation of Jacqueline Reuss, daughter of the Wisconsin congressmen, though it discovered nothing derogatory about her, was forwarded for files in Washington, Milwaukee and Alexandria, Va.

Seven copies of a report on a University of California student were distributed to files across the country repeating the allegation that she is "an inveterate Marxist revolutionist," although the field investigation failed to substantiate that.

A student at the University of Maryland's Eastern Shore campus was investigated as a "black nationalist" and described as a "constant source of agitation" on the campus in recent years. Thirteen copies of the report went to dossiers on him in six cities.

The FBI files do have a long memory. That is also demonstrated clearly by the Media documents on old left cases which show the agency keeping an eye on people and organizations literally for decades on the presumption that they are potentially dangerous.

There is no "first look" test applied apparently, once a person or group falls into this category, even if over a number of years no chidence develops to suggest they are about to commit a crime.

One memorandum, instance, notes that the FBI maintains and interest in watching such long-estab-. lished and public antiwar groups as the Women's Infor ternational League Peace and Freedom, SANE and the American Friends Service Committee-but agents were instructed not to mix them with New Left groups who were more dangerous -the "violent and terroristic-minded young anarchists."

In one instance, the FBI reached back in its collecmemory 30 years. Agents in Washington were trying to establish a Latin American employee at an in--organization ternational here as a double agent to spy on Cuba. In their search of his background, they discovered that his brother was a Communist candidate for a minor post in a Maritime Union election, held on the docks of New Orleans in 1940.

In still another example from the Media papers, the Philadelphia agents were scanning the background of a Quaker pacifist, a radio engineer, who had invited a Czech folklore scholar to visit and lecture in the United States in 1966. In the files, they found a variety of items: §

• A 1961 report that the Quaker and his wife were on the haddressograph plates of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in New York.

• A 1957 report that that the subject and his wife, as "staunch members" of the Religious Society of Friends, are opposed to war, that neighbork regard them as loyal Americans.

That the engineer has indicated to his employer that he is not a member of any subversive organizations but "during the Spanish Civil War (1936), he attended many public meetings which he believed were sponsored by groups which are cited and consequently his name has apparently been listed on the mailing lists of several of these organizations."

• A 1956 report, which apparently inspired the 1957 investigation, that the man's wife had corresponded with the Yugoslav State Tourist Office in New York—Whose director according to another confidential Source, was actually an intelligence agent.

Maybe the thousands of names and organizations which the FBI is now catalogijing-antiwar, black militarit, New Left radical-will be handled differently, but the Media documents suggest strongly that the dossiers will follow these people for many years, regardless of their political activi-ties or the "national security" problems of the future "The bureau," one former agent remarked, "has tendecny never to purge it files."

In order to increase the productivity of the Ghetto Informant Program, there is attached for approval an airtel to all continental field offices instructing that each Special Agent in Charge (SAC) thoroughly evaluate the Ghetto Informant Program in his respective division and submit recommendations for improving the program in line with the guidelines set forth by the Bureau.

EAST MIST IN DIMANTS

The Ghetto Informant Program was instituted 10-11-67. A ghetto informant is an individual who resides or works in an area described as a ghetto and can furnish general information concerning extremist activity. When originally instituted, the ghetto informant was mainly a listening post; however, with the change in extremist activities, a good number of these informants were given positive assignments, which assignments definitely increased the productivity in certain field divisions.

At the present time we are operating 6,541 ghetto informants. This is a valuable reservoir of individuals who should be elevated into positions in extremist organizations. In addition, by increasing the productivity of the ghetto informants, the Bureau will be in a position of obtaining additional criminal statistics.

It is to be noted that in addition to obtaining information concerning extremist activities, the ghetto informants along with other extremist informants since January 1, 1971, have been responsible for bringing about the arrest of 445 individuals on both local and Federal charges, 127 of which were FBI fugitives, as well as being responsible for the recovery of $193,181.28 in stolen merchandise. With the increase in extremist activity as seen by the disturbances in penal institutions, the unprovoked attacks against police and the definite trend concerning guerrilla warfare throughout the U.S., we must accelerate our penetration of extremist groups.

Accordingly, in order to fully utilize our vast reservoir of ghetto informants, it is believed each SAC should be instructed to evaluate the Ghetto Informant Program in his division along the following lines.

1. Ascertain the number of ghetto informants that have been elevated into extremist organizations. 2. Determine what percentage of the ghetto informants are given positive assignments on a regular basis. 3. Evaluate the extremist intelligence accomplishments of the ghetto informants in the particular field division. 4. Evaluate the criminal statistical accomplishments. 5. Set forth specific steps being taken to not only increase the productivity of the Ghetto Informant Program but also the steps being taken to elevate the ghetto informants into extremist organizations.

Upon receipt of the above from each continental field office, analysis will be made and appropriate instructions will be furnished all field divisions concerning the future handling of ghetto informants.

ACTION:

That attached airtel to all continental field offices be approved furnishing instructions concerning the ghetto informants as set out above.

S. dictates that we fully use the vast reservoir of individuals now being operated as ghetto informants; therefore, each SAC must fully evaluate his ghetto informant program so that the Bureau may evaluate this program as a whole.

The evaluation should include but not necessarily be limited to: 1. Number of ghetto informants elevated into extremist organizations. 2. Determination of percentage of ghetto informants regularly given positive assignments. Evaluation of extremist intelligence accomplishments of these informants. Evaluation of their criminal statistical 4. accomplishments. 5. Specific steps taken to not only increase the productivity of the ghetto informant program but also the steps being taken to elevate the ghetto informants into extremist organizations.

In order to fulfill our responsibilities in this field, each field division must promptly improve both the number and quality of ghetto informants in accordance with the guidelines set forth below: (1) New ghetto informants developed must be the type who can obtain information concerning black extremists who are operating in the ghetto areas and planning or perpetrating guerrilla-type activities such as robberies, attacks on police, and other violent activities; (2) The recent survey of ghetto informants showed that the productivity of the program in each field office was in direct relation to the percentage of ghetto informants being given positive assignments. Those field divisions achieving greater productivity are the ones who had a greater percentage of their ghetto informants being given positive assignments. Accordingly, on your FD-405b setting forth your extremist informant accomplishments you must set forth the percentage of your ghetto informants being given positive assignments.

Each ghetto informant must be evaluated on a yearly basis; and if it is determined that the informant has not produced positive extremist intelligence-type information, which information would include criminal-type information, the informant must be closed and a new ghetto informant developed.

Purpose of this memorandum is to obtain approval for attached airtel to all continental field offices instructing that the extremist ghetto informant program be upgraded in accordance with the guidelines set out in order to increase the productivity of this program and to obtain information concerning the present phase of extremist activity, namely, the guerrilla warfare phase.

By airtel dated 9/22/71 all continental field offices were instructed to evaluate the ghetto informant program. These evaluations have been received and reviewed. The review clearly shows that those field offices giving the majority of their ghetto informants positive assignments are achieving not only positive intelligence information but also valuable criminal statistical accomplishments. These informants, since 2/1/71, have been responsible for bringing about the arrest of 111 individuals, 51 of which were Bureau fugitives, and the recovery of $49,999 in stolen merchandise, weapons, and cars.

In addition, we are now seeing another phase of extremist activity, that is the guerrilla warfare phase, as opposed to the mass demonstrations which occurred in the past. Extremists are involved in expropriations (robberies), killing of police, and other terroristic activities. The extremists involved in guerrilla warfare have very limited or no contact with the aboveground extremist organizations; therefore, our coverage has been limited in this respect. The guerrilla operates within the community (the ghetto area), and this is the area where we also operate our ghetto informants; therefore, our ghetto informants should be targeted toward developing information concerning acts of guerrilla warfare.

This is to justify continuance of captioned program in view of the fact that this program is producing substantial accomplishments in the extremist field on a regular basis.

During the past year these informants have furnished intelligence information concerning extremist activities which has brought about the arrest of Black Panther Party (BPP) members on armed robbery charges, identified individuals responsible for a fire bombing of a food store, identified individuals who have been involved in murder cases, as well as information which brought about the recovery of weapons and ammunition, and information which has been of assistance to local police in handling civil disturbances.

While the primary objective of the ghetto informant program is to obtain information concerning extremist activities, it also provides substantial accomplishments in the criminal field in that these informants either live or work in ghetto areas which are usually high crime areas. During the period 7/1/71 to 4/30/72 ghetto informants were responsible for bringing about the arrest of 305 individuals (174 local and state, 131 Federal), of whom 85 were FBI fugitives. In addition, these informants were responsible for the recovery of $174,994 which included 37 stolen automobiles, weapons, ammunition, narcotics, and other contraband.

It is to be noted that when the ghetto informant program was first instituted in 1967 the purpose of the program was to establish listening posts in areas where violence could occur in the form of disturbances and riots. As the program progressed it was noted that these informants could be operated in such a manner to increase their value by giving them positive assignments to develop information concerning black extremists who are operating in ghetto areas and planning or perpetrating guerrilla-type activities such as robberies, attacks on police, and other violent activities. In addition, the field has constantly been reminded of the potential of ghetto informants to obtain criminal information in addition to the extremist intelligence, and this has paid off as indicated above.

Information has recently been developed indicating black extremists are obtaining funds by robbing narcotics dealers. Accordingly, the field has been instructed to target ghetto informants specifically toward ascertaining the identities of narcotics dealers in their particular areas as well as obtaining information concerning plans of black extremists to rob these individuals.

The ghetto informant program is a sound program and is analyzed on a regular basis through field inspections, inspections at FBI Headquarters, and through supervision by the Domestic Intelligence Division. In view of the need for extremist intelligence information provided by this program and its productivity, it is believed this program should be continued, and it will be reevaluated in July, 1973.

If approved, this program will be continued and rejustified in July, 1973.

This is to obtain authority to implement a modified ghetto informant program which will reduce the number of ghetto informants by fifty per cent without impairing the efficiency of the operation.

After careful analysis of the ghetto informant program during the recent inspection of the Domestic Intelligence Division, it was concluded that a modified ghetto informant program would streamline and improve efficiency of the existing program. This will be achieved by having only Special Agents assigned to extremist matters handling ghetto informants. Experience has shown that Special Agents experienced in extremist matters are in a better position to achieve maximum use of ghetto informants.

Growing civil unrest in the mid-1960s created an urgent need for a comprehensive network of "listening post" type sources within ghetto areas to provide advance intelligence information relating to civil unrest. To fill this need the ghetto informant program was initiated on October 11, 1967. The ghetto informant program proved highly successful and subsequently these informants were directed to areas of greater responsibility in addition to their "listening post" function. A notable by product of these informants has been their ability to furnish highly significant criminal information. REC 43 / 70 - 3 - 20 NOV 1 1972

There is still a vital need for the "listening post" informant concept. Even though the emotional, spontaneous-type civil unrest of the past has subsided, there remains a potentially explosive element smowldering within the ghetto areas throughout the Nation. This volatile force, more sophisticated than in the past, frequently surfaces in the form of urban guerrilla terroristtype activities often by unaffiliated extremists, resulting in the sniping and killing of police, firebombings, and other violent criminal activities. The current threat of civil unrest in the ghetto is perhaps an even greater menace to our society than the unrest we have witnessed in the past. To cope with this continuing undercurrent, a more selective ghetto informant program is necessary.

The primary purpose of our modified ghetto informant program is to provide a highly selective corps of "listening post" informants versed in the type of information desired by the Bureau which will assure we are abreast of growing civil unrest and developing extremist activities. This can best be accomplished by having ghetto informants exclusively handled by those Special Agents assigned to extremist matters. Inasmuch as ghetto informants generally work or reside in high crime areas and frequently associated with the criminal element, we will continue to encourage the acceptance of criminal information coming to the attention of these informants.

While we expect a fifty percent decrease in the 7,514 ghetto informants currently being operated, the modified ghetto informant program in no way diminishes the responsibility of the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) to have "listening post" type sources in those ghetto areas where there is a potential for civil unrest or extremist activity. In addition, the SAC will be instructed to carefully analyze each current ghetto informant and those with the best potential to be retained as ghetto informants or elevated to probationary extremist informant and others, if appropriate, redesignated as criminal informants or discontinued.

Some SACs have levied an arbitrary rule requiring Special Agents, regardless of assignment, to develop ghetto informants. will give instructions to insure this practice is discontinued.

A request to reduce the number of ghetto informants by fifty percent, which gives the appearance of being an arbitrary figure, immediately suggests the need to explore thoroughly the merits of the ghetto informant program and to consider what, if any, more practical alternatives might exist.

An informant who is classified as a ghetto informant, as distinguished from a criminal, security, potential security or extremist informant, appears to be one who is expected to provide advance intelligence information relating to civil unrest. In evaluating the program, it is therefore important to know of each instance since the program was begun on Ocother 11, 1967, in which intelligence information prior to an urban riot or upheaval was obtained from a ghetto informant.

I am not referring to criminal and security information. the information from a ghetto informant fits within one of these two categories, it would seem more plausible for the informant to be carried as a criminal, a security, a potential security or an extremist informant. Only if he has furnished intelligence information concerning an urban riot or upheaval should an informant be designated as a STETTA . REC 43 - 170 - 00 ghetto informant. 20 NOV 1-1972

Classifying the informant as a ghetto informant when any information obtained from him falls only within the criminal or security field is not a mere matter of semantics. It seems apparent from the Agents Handbook, Part I, pp. 20a and 20b, that carrying a person as a ghetto informant involves a vast expenditure of Agent and clerical time. There has to be a background investigation, at least one contact a month and, in some instances, progress letters to the Bureau every six months.

Memorandum for Mr. Gray Re: Ghetto Informant Program Extremist Matters

Although I have not seen the answers to the question referred to above as to the instances in which ghetto informants have furnished the type information which was expected of them when the program was established, my initial opinion is that the ghetto informant program has not produced any information which could not be obtained by (1) regular debriefing of criminal, security, potential security, and extremist informants; (2) liaison with local police departments who, as a part of the increasing emphasis upon better police-community relations, are much closer to the pulse of the local ghetto community than may have been the case heretofore, and who have probably always been closer to the ghetto than the FBI could ever hope to be; and (3) volunteered information from interested citizens.

The last paragraph of the Moore to Miller memorandum of 9/8/72 impliedly suggests what I believe to be the major justification for continuing a separate program under the heading of ghetto informants. SACs do not levy an arbitrary rule requiring SA's to develop ghetto informants unless the SACs, rightly or wrongly, believe the Headquarters expects a certain caseload of ghetto informants from their respective offices.

The suspicion that it is the caseload concept which underlies much of the current discussion about the ghetto informant program in the aftermath of the recent inspection of DID is increased by the proposed cutback of fifty percent, which, as previously indicated, appears to be a somewhat arbitrary figure.

You should know in advance what the consequences would be as far as the budget is concerned if the ghetto informant program, which has undoubtedly accounted for a significant number of cases, were discontinued. If those consequences include a drastic cut in funds, you of course can not be oblivious to them, but, at the risk of sounding naive, I would hope that the future of this program can be decided solely on the basis of the program's merit or lack thereof without regard to the caseload factor.

During the morning session of the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) conference held at FBI Headquarters on 9/26/72, the ghetto informant program became the topic of a lively discussion with various opinions expressed concerning the most efficient utilization of this program. It was agreed that further study of the ghetto informant program is necessary. Accordingly, attached for approval is an airtel to all offices instructing each SAC to submit their recommendations concerning the ghetto informant program.

REC-46 / 1/2-The ghetto informant program was instituted on 10/11/67, to fulfill an urgent need to develop a network of "listening posts" in the ghetto areas of our cities. Ghetto informants are those persons living or working in ghetto areas who could furnish information concerning the potential for riots and violent civil As the field gained experience in the handling of these informants, their value steadily increased. The "listening post" concept was expanded and ghetto informants are now utilized to attend public meetings held by extremists, to identify extremists passing through or bcating in the ghetto area, to identify purveyors of extremist literature as well as given specific assignments where appropriate. A valuable by-product of the ghetto. informant program has been their ability to furnish highly significant criminal information. In addition, our ghetto informant program has been a proven reservoir of productive extremist informants who have been elevated from the ghetto informant ranks.

We currently operate 7,482 ghetto informants. These informants are developed and handled by field agents regardless of their assignment, whether it be criminal, extremist, or

During the recent inspection of the Domestic Intelligence Division, it was concluded that a modified ghetto informant program would streamline and improve the efficiency of the existing program. As a result of the number of views expressed during the SAC conference on 9/26/72, concerning the appropriate utilization of ghetto informants, there is a need to obtain the opinion of all SACs before considering modifying the existing program. GHETTO INFORMANT PROGRAM EXTREMIST MATTERS

BUDED 10/9/72

The Bureau is currently considering modifying the ghetto informant program for the purpose of achieving greater efficiency and maximum utilization of these informants while carefully preserving the "listening post" concept of the program.

One proposed change to the ghetto informant program recommends a reduction in the number of these informants by fifty percent and the handling of these informants exclusively by Special Agents assigned to extremist matters. This proposal emphasizes quality and the closing, where appropriate, or redesignation of those informants best suited as extremist, criminal or security informants.

The proposed modification of the ghetto informant program was discussed during the 9/26/72 session of the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) conference held at FBI Headquarters. A number of opinions were expressed as to the value of ghetto informants in enabling each office to fill its responsibility in the extremist field. It was agreed that further study of the program is necessary before initiating any modification of the program.

For your ready reference, our ghetto informant program follows guidelines set out in Bureau airtel to Albany dated 11/24/71,

This airtel requires that ghetto informants be the type of individuals who can obtain information concerning black extremists who are operating in the ghetto areas and planning or perpetrating guerrilla-type activities such as robberies, attacks on police, and other violent activities. Our current ghetto informant program requires that these informants be given positive assignments and that they be evaluated on a yearly basis in order to close the unproductive informant.

To assist the Bureau in determining what changes, if any, should be made to the existing ghetto informant program, you are instructed to carefully analyze your ghetto informant program in line with the following points and submit your recommendations to reach the Bureau by 10/9/72. Bear in mind our purpose is to have a uniform program to best do the job intended:

- 1) Retain current program without modification.
- 2) Adopt the proposed change set out above calling for a fifty percent reduction in the number of ghetto informants. Should you disagree with the fifty percent reduction, submit your recommendation concerning the percent of reduction you consider appropriate with an explanation as to how you arrived at your conclusion. Bear in mind that quality is difficult without quantitative measurement.

GHETTO EXTREMIST INFORMANT PROGRAM

EXTREMIST MATTERS

This is to advise that instructions issued by Mr. Gray on the memorandum from Mr. Daniel M. Armstrong III to Mr. Gray dated September 18, 1972, concerning captioned program are being complied with.

Mr. Armstrong's memorandum set out observations concerning the ghetto informant program based on the recommendation set forth in memorandum dated September 8, 1972, from G. C. Moore to Mr. E. S. Miller that the ghetto informant program be modified. This modification included reducing the number of ghetto informants by 50 percent and instructing each Special Agent in Charge to carefully analyze the current ghetto informants and to retain those informants with the best potential and to either elevate other informants to probationary extremist informants or, if appropriate, redesignate as criminal informants or discontinue.

Mr. Gray stated, "I will not buy a meat-axe reduction. Let's go into this thoroughly. Submit recommendations." 170-70

The ghetto informant program was the topic of a lively discussion at the September 26, 1972 Special Agents in Charge conference held at FBI Headquarters. Various opinions were expressed concerning the most efficient utilization of this program and it was agreed that further study of the program 1972 was necessary. Accordingly, by memorandum dated September 27, 1972, from G. C. Moore to Mr. E. S. Miller, it was recommended that a further study of the ghetto informant program was necessary and accordingly there was attached for approval an airtel to all

The purpose of the memorandum is to secure approval of a letter to all offices modifying instructions concerning the ghetto informant program.

A survey of all field offices relative to the ghetto informant program has been completed.

The field overwhelmingly expressed a desire to continue the program; however, a number of suggestions were offered to modify certain aspects of it.

Based upon a review of the results of this survey the following recommendations are made:

1) The number of informants operated under this program should definitely be governed by the needs of a specific office as determined by the Special Agent in Charge (SAC). Attached letter will instruct each office to conduct an analysis to determine its needs and only those informants absolutely necessary to fulfill the needs of the office are to be operated. The letter will also instruct that this program is not to be utilized as a device to increase the office case load.

REC-28

2) We will continue to utilize these informants in a "listening post" capacity, that is, to keep us abreast of potential civil unrest and possible extremist activities. We will, however, continue to encourage that positive assignments be given these informants where appropriate and in view of our past experience showing that these informants have furnished extensive criminal information we will continue to accept this valuable side benefit and will record the office statistical accomplishments as we have done in the past.

- 3) The offices responding in the survey were about equally divided as to whether these informants should be handled exclusively by Agents assigned to extremist and security matters or by all Agents in the office. Attached letter will instruct that this should be left to the discretion of each SAC. In this connection it will also be emphasized that the SAC is not to levy an arbitrary requirement that each Agent must have a certain number of these informants.
- 4) We recommend that the name of this program be changed from "ghetto informant" to "urban informant" as more properly descriptive. It has been mentioned that some offices actually do not have "ghetto" areas but do have certain geographical locations of potential civil unrest and extremist activity.

As of September 1, 1972, we were operating 7,482 ghetto informants. It is not possible to determine at this time the number of these informants that we will end up with based on the instructions set forth in attached letter. However, we anticipate a decrease from the existing level.

OBSERVATION: There have been a variety of opinions expressed in the past on the value of the ghetto informant program and, in fact, we have utilized a discussion of this program to "warm up" Agent conferences and in-service classes because of the lively discussion it generates. The recently completed survey, however, shows that only four offices were in favor of doing away with the existing ghetto informant program. It is obvious that this program is considered to be of continuing value to our field offices.

It has been said that there has not been a single instance where a ghetto informant has furnished significant information pertaining to civil unrest. This is a misconception because, in fact, since the inception of this program there have been numerous times that these informants have furnished significant information concerning civil unrest. Examples of a few of these are as follows:

A Memphis ghetto informant identified four Negro males who had assaulted and stabbed a high school teacher which lead to their arrest and resulted in the quieting of a potentially riotous situation. A Minneapolis ghetto informant identified participants involved in a disturbance at the University of Minnesota. A Jackson ghetto informant provided pertinent information concerning a disturbance at Jackson State College and identified four individuals setting fires on the campus. This informant also identified individuals leading a mob of 100 persons attacking the Reserve Officer Training Corps Building on that campus. Ghetto informants of the Knoxville Office furnished information on black extremists extorting money from white merchants with the threat of fire bombing their stores if they failed to cooperate. A Norfolk ghetto informant furnished information that a gathering of 200 young blacks had 40 fire bombs which they intended to use. Local authorities credited this information with avoiding a massive civil disturbance. Springfield ghetto informant identified an individual attempting to sell a large quantity of explosives for use in creating a civil disturbance. A Tampa ghetto informant identified five Negroes responsible for provoking trouble at a local school.

In addition, ghetto informants have furnished a large amount of valuable criminal information which is perhaps best highlighted by a recent case wherein a ghetto informant of the Oklahoma City Office furnished the information which lead to the identification and apprehension of four subjects in a terrorist-type slaying of a man, his wife, and a young son.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller Re: Ghetto Informant Program

Implementation of the recommendations set forth above should result in a strengthening of this program which plays an important part in our intelligence gathering responsibilities.

ACTION:

1) That the attached letter to all offices setting forth instructions in line with the above be approved.

2) If approved, necessary Manual changes will be prepared.

ADDENDUM OF THE INSPECTION DIVISION L.M. WALTERS:wmj 10/24

Ghetto Informant Program instituted 10/11/67 to fulfill a need then recognized to develop a comprehensive network of "listening posts" in the ghetto areas of urban centers throughout the country. Over the succeeding years number of such informants has gradually built to some 7500 existing today. Field inspections in past year have pointed to difficult of evaluating justification for such informants because, unlike the other informant programs (crimina 1, security, extremist, revolutionary activities, and top echelon) the justification for an individual informant cannot be supported by what he is producing. It is sufficient that ghetto informants are geographically well dispersed and promise cooperation. The practice of opening such cases varies widely and can be used by a field office to effect sharp changes in total case load upward or downward. The number of ghetto informant cases substantially affects manpower utilization in that each ghetto informant opened requires a background investigation and thereafter 30-day contacts.

Accordingly, during inspection (8/18 - 9/1/72) of Domestic Intelligence Division (DID) the merits of the overall program were thoroughly reviewed and discussed. As a result, DID proposed in inspection that hereafter assignment of such informants be limited to those Agents assigned to extremist squads or extremist work and that SACs be instructed to cease levying a requirement that all Agents, regardless of assignment, must develop and operate ghetto informants. DID estimated that such a change in the program would probably reduce the total number of such cases by 50%.

The proposed letter to the field accomplishes little meaningful change. It changes the name of the program; it provides latitude to SACs to determine extent of program within guideline that the number of informants operated must be deemed necessary to fulfill the needs of the office (this has always been so); it also provides lattude to SACs as to whether all Agents in the office participate or only those Agents assigned to extremist matters. Implementation of changes proposed herein would result in an extraordinary lack of uniformity throughout the field.

The point really called into question here is whether concrete steps should be taken to effect an overall case load reduction by sharply reducing marginally productive cases in order to divert Agent manpower to more productive uses in major program areas. The broader question is currently under consideration and the results of that consideration should more clearly dictate the proper approach to the Ghetto Informant Program. Accordingly, it is recommended that any change in this program be deferred until the overall question of case load vs. manpower utilization is resolved.

GHETTO INFORMANT PROGRAM

EXTREMIST MATTERS

The first paragraph of the Addendum of the Inspection Division sets forth some of the considerations which have caused my skepticism as to whether the benefits gained from this Program are sufficient to justify the costs in terms of resource utilization attendant to the Ghetto Informant Program.

With reference to the recommendation of the Inspection Division that no action be taken until the overall question of caseload versus manpower utilization is resolved, I am not certain as to the precise inquiry currently in progress which is being referred to by the Inspection Division. If there is such an inquiry with a view towards instructing the Domestic Intelligence Division not to let fears as to the consequences of a reduction in the quantity of its total caseload interfere with devoting concentrated attention towards the most important matters within its jurisdiction, I would be the first to applaud this inquiry.

In this regard, the problem I see with the proposed letter of the Domestic Intelligence Division is that by giving wide latitude to SACs to administer the Ghetto Informant Program within their respective offices, the memorandum is not likely to accomplish meaningful change as long as so much turns within the Bureau on the total caseload of an office. Even though an SAC in Field Division X believes that he could terminate his Ghetto Informant Program altogether and, by doing so, increase the effective utilization of his personnel, he will hesitate to make such a decision because he knows it could well result in a substantial reduction in his total caseload, which in turn would mean that his office would lose Agents and/or supervisors or would not be able to obtain additional Agents and/or supervisors.

Memorandum to Mr. Gray Re: Ghetto Informant Program Extremist Matters

This is why it seems so vitally important to achieve the by no means easy goal of finding some way to measure the needs of an office without resort to dependence upon the total caseload of the office because the present reliance upon caseload figure restricts the SACs ability to make decisions, otherwise called for, which would reduce his total caseload.

The Domestic Intelligence Division furnished to me copies of the responses received from the Field Divisions in connection with the Field survey concerning the Ghetto Informant Program. The information submitted by the Newark Division so closely approximates my opinion concerning the Ghetto Informant Program that I am attaching a copy of the Newark airtel to this memorandum.

The Newark Office is in complete agreement that modification of the ghetto informant program is necessary in order to insure greater efficiency and maximum utilization of these informants. A review of ghetto informant files in the Newark Division following the guidelines set out in Bureau airtel PROGRAM" has revealed the following:

dated 11/24/71 captioned "UPGRADING EXTREMIST GHETTO INFORMANT

Ghetto informants are divided into two general groups.

The first group are those serving as "listening These informants are generally individuals who own or are employed in such businesses as gas stations, candy stores, barber shops, etc. and are usually in no way directly connected with extremist or criminal matters. These individuals are contacted on a regular basis and routinely report that "all is quiet in the neighborhood". The value of such informants is highly questionable.

Civil disturbances are either planned or spontaneous. In the first case, such planning is done by various militant groups. It is the responsibility of all field offices to have developed informants of such character in these groups that they are in a position to furnish advance information about such plans. "Listening post" informants are not in a position to furnish information about preplanned disturbances and they certainly cannot furnish prior information relative to a spontaneous disturbance. Once a disturbance or riot has started, it is virtually impossible to contact these individuals inasmuch as most commercial enterprises are closed down and entry into these areas is not feasible and the ability of these informants to report by telephone is very doubtful.

Targeting of such informants towards obtaining information concerning black extremists, robberies, attacks on police and other violent activities, as well as recent targeting towards obtaining narcotics information has been extremely limited in its value. In view of this, it is felt that the value of the "listening post" is limited and they should be eliminated. The manner in which this action should be taken is set out later in this communication.

The second group consists of those individuals opened as ghetto informants who are considered to have definite value in the extremist field and who are targeted to furnish specific information relative to extremist organizations and individuals. These informants are actually under development towards becoming extremist informants. They are generally individuals who are presently members of extremist organizations or are in some way affiliated with these organizations through contact with members. These ghetto informants are of great value for the continued development of new informants in the extremist field. In the Newark Division it is this group of ghetto informants who have furnished positive information relative to extremist activities, as well as contributing information relative to fugitives, bank robberies and local criminal matters. They are all targeted towards furnishing information relative to narcotics activity and it is anticipated that they will be of great value in this field. These ghetto informants are of definite value and in the Newark Division are all assigned to Agents conducting extremist investigations.

The Newark Division disagrees with arbitrarily closing fifty percent of all ghetto informants. The following is Newark's recommendation as to how each ghetto informant should be evaluated:

The Extremist Informant Coordinator or Supervisor, as the case applies, routinely reviews all files under the tickler system. As a file comes up on tickler for review, it should be evaluated. If it appears to be a "listening post" with no value as a future extremist informant, this should be brought to the attention of the case Agent. This Agent should then within one month make a recommendation to either close this informant or convert him to a criminal or security informant for development in a specific area. All ghetto informants considered to be of no other value than as "listening posts" should be closed.

In the Newark Office ghetto informants are assigned to the extremist squad or security squads, the applicant and accounting squads. Those assigned to other than the extremist squad are generally "listening posts" in character. Upon review, as set forth above, if it is determined the informant is of value in the extremist field he should be reassigned to an Agent working extremist matters. If of value in another field of investigation, he should be appropriately reassigned.

It is felt that if the above is adopted, a great deal of Agent time and clerical time would be saved and could be diverted to more productive and efficient usage, particularly by the Agents conducting investigations in the extremist, security and criminal fields. Further, concentration on the remainder of the informants would logically result in their becoming more productive and efficient.

In connection with various memoranda concerning captioned matter, Mr. Gray inquired "Why not handle this program in same manner as our other programs involving informants? G III 11/9 2:34 P"

The question asked is similar to the questions raised at the time the captioned program was inaugurated in October, 1967. Faced with the need for a rapid development of a particular type of informant, the decision was made to implement a program with a minimum amount of Headquarters' supervision. Accordingly, authority was granted for the Special Agents in Charge (SAC) to approve the operation of an individual as a ghetto informant.

There is set forth data showing that the Ghetto Informant Program is in line with other Bureau informant programs in that there are specific guidelines for the operation of the informants, as well as requirements for the justification of the informants and requirements for contacts with these informants along with the regulations concerning payments to informants.

There are also set forth observations concerning the comments made by Mr. Armstrong in his memorandum of November 2, 1972, and the comments made by the Inspection Division in its addendum of 10/24/72.

Need for the Ghetto Informant Program

In 1967 the United States experienced violent racial disturbances in many cities and it was indicated that there was a need for cooperative individuals (sources) in those areas experiencing the above disturbances. Such questions as "Are these disturbances spontaneous or are they planned?" "Are these disturbances caused by organizations or individuals? If so, identify them" were being asked not only by FBI Headquarters officials, but also by high-ranking Government officials including the White House

Analysis of the then existing Security, Criminal and Extremist Informant Programs determined that none of these existing programs could supply the answers to the questions being asked.

The above analysis further showed that due to the orientation of the various informant programs mentioned above, that is, criminal informants to obtain criminal information, security informants for security information, and extremist informants for specific information concerning extremist organizations and known extremist individuals, there was still a vast area where racial unrest was rampant, namely, the ghetto areas where there was a need for a "listening post" type informant. Accordingly, the Chetto Informant Program was instituted.

Comparison of Ghetto Informant Operations With Other Bureau Informant Operations

The Security Informant Program as well as the Extremist Informant Program require tight supervision at both Headquarters and field level because of the extreme sensitivity of these operations. As previously stated, there was a need for development and rapid operation of sources in the ghetto areas which were to be utilized as "listening posts." In view of the nature of this operation, it was decided that the tight supervision required by the other informant programs was not necessary, however, it was also recognized that for any program to be fruitful and administratively sound, there must be guidelines set out.

The guidelines formulated were based on our experiences with the Security and Extremist Informant Programs and required that some background checks be conducted prior to the approval of an individual as an informant; a contact be made with the individual designated as an informant at least once every 30 days; that any payments made to a ghetto informant must be in accordance with Bureau policy which is also the requirement for other informant programs.

In synopsis, it can be said that the Ghetto Informant Program is similar to other informant programs (security and extremist) in that there are definite guidelines set for the designation and operation of an individual as a ghetto informant, as well as the fact payment to these informants must conform to Bureau regulations. In short, the Ghetto Informant Program, although operated basically as other informant programs, does serve a separate and distinct need which our experience has shown the other Bureau informant programs did not and could not fill.

Comparison of the Justification of Ghetto Informants With Justification of Other Existing Informant Programs

In the Inspection Division's addendum dated 10/24/72 to the memorandum from G. C. Moore to E. S. Miller dated 10/18/72 concerning captioned matter, it was set out "Field inspections in past year have pointed to difficulty of evaluating justification for such informants (this refers to ghetto informants) because, unlike the other informant programs (criminal, security, extremist, revolutionary activities, and top echelon) the justification for an individual informant cannot be supported by what he is producing."

The Inspection Division's difficulties have not previously been brought to the attention of the Domestic Intelligence Division (DID), however, this Division does not agree with the above set out difficulty.

The statistical accomplishments of the ghetto informants have been set out numerous times, therefore, this in itself would assist in making a justification for ghetto informants; but, it is more important that the ghetto informants be justified by obtaining information concerning potential civil unrest. This must be considered in light of present circumstances. While we are not experiencing the burning of the cities that we did in the late 1960s, we are still living in a state of emotional fears concerning the polarization of the races.

Cyree of high

Therefore, based on our experiences, we recognized that in reporting on the pulse of a particular area in regard to the potential for civil unrest it is very important to know that there is no indication of civil unrest in a particular area at a particular time, as well as knowing that there are indications of civil unrest. Accordingly, the report that there is no indication of civil unrest in a particular area is considered positive information and should be counted as such. In accordance with these guidelines, there does not appear to be any difficulty in justifying the continuance of a ghetto informant if he is being contacted in accordance with instructions and reporting concerning the tempo of feelings in his particular area.

In addition to the above, there will be set forth observations concerning the comments made in the memorandum of Mr. Armstrong dated November 2, 1972, as well as the addendum of the Inspection Division dated 10/24/72.

Addendum of Inspection Division dated 10/24/72

Paragraph one of the above addendum in addition to the comment concerning the difficulty of evaluating justification for the Ghetto Informant Program which was answered above makes reference to the practice of opening ghetto cases and states these cases can be used by a field office to effect sharp changes in total case load upward or downward. This is merely an administrative matter and should not be considered in connection with the concept of whether or not there should be a Ghetto Informant Program. The value of this program has been previously set forth in connection with the obtaining of intelligence information and will be repeated further in this memorandum.

741.5 AS WHAT I WANT TO KNOW ... THE VALUE OF THE PROGRAM!

Concerning the comment that the number of ghetto informant cases substantially affects manpower utilization in that each ghetto informant opened requires a background investigation and thereafter 30-day contacts, this is to state that the background investigation is minimal and the 30-day contact is the basic minimal requirement that could be made if an informant is to be of any use at all.

The above-mentioned addendum sets out that DID's proposed letter to the field dated 10/20/72 accomplishes little meaningful change in the Ghetto Informant Program. This is exactly what the DID intended. DID's letter to the field was based on the observations of the SACs and was a consensus of their studied critique of the program and their respective recommendations. As a result of discussion with SACs and

Mr. Gray concerning the Ghetto Informant Program on 9/26/72, all SACs were instructed to submit their comments and recommendations concerning this program. If we are not going to take the recommendations of the SACs, who are our leaders in the field, then why did we bother to request their opinions? Likewise, they certainly are entitled to know the results of the survey and this is what we are attempting to do.

In connection with the recommendation made that any change in this program be deferred until the overall question of case load versus manpower utilization is resolved, there apparently is no indication as to when this will be resolved and further, this question should not be the deciding factor as to whether or not there should be a Ghetto Informant Program.

Memorandum of Mr. Daniel M. Armstrong, III dated November 2, 1972

Mr. Armstrong stated that in connection with the inquiry concerning the overall question of case load versus manpower that if there is such an inquiry with a view toward instructing DID not to let fears as to the consequences of a reduction in the quantity of its total case load interfere with devoting concentrated attention towards the most important matters within its jurisdiction, he would be the first to applaud this inquiry.

In respect to this, DID is not aware of any fears in connection with the above case load work load inquiry and, further, we will always go full steam ahead to obtain the maximum quality intelligence data needed to fulfill our responsibilities to the United States Government, regardless of any alleged "fears."

Mr. Armstrong stated that the problem he sees with DID's proposed letter of 10/20/72 is that "by giving wide latitude to SACs to administer the Ghetto Informant Program within their respective offices, the memorandum is not likely to accomplish meaningful change as long as so much turns within the Bureau on the total caseload of an office."

SAC Newark probably hasa try black 70 in his HQ city than any other SAC hence he should have firm experience Ik an urban ara. G.

Again it is pointed out that the DID memorandum was intended to give latitude to the SACs in the operation of the Ghetto Informant Program because this basically is the recommendation of the greater majority of SACs.

Mr. Armstrong cited the opinion submitted by the Newark Division because it so closely approximated his own opinion. It is to be noted that the SAC Newark was one of four SACs who recommended against maintaining the program in its same form, whereas 53 SACs recommended modifications in accordance with those set out in DID letter 10/20/72.

It is respectfully submitted that the recommendations of 53 SACs carry more weight than one SAC and that these 53 SACs recommended that the Program be continued. The greater majority of these individuals recommended that the Program be continued along with the modifications set out in DID letter dated 10/20/72.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Ghetto Informant Program since 1967, when it was instituted, has been analysed and critiqued not only by FBI Headquarters personnel, SACs, but also by Field Supervisors and Field Informant Coordinators through a series of correspondence, as well as specialized conferences. The overriding opinion of the majority of individuals involved in the above has been that this program has in the past and still is an effective productive program. The program serves a vital need, that is, the need to know the potential for acts of civil disturbances that could not only disrupt the operations in local communities, but could also cause disruption on a nationwide basis.

As previously stated, the country is not experiencing the burning of the cities and the major riots as we had in the late 1960s, however, there are movements in this country that are more dangerous than the riots of the late 1960s. We are familiar with the rhetoric of known extremists such as Stokely Carmichael, Eldridge Cleaver, LeRoi Jones, and unfortunately this rhetoric is the fact of life in our country today. These extremists preached the theory of "kill the pig," and we are seeing today not only known extremists actively waging guerrilla warfare against the establishment (the pigs) but we are also seeing individuals not affiliated with extremist organizations taking this same action.

Messrs. Carl T. Rowan and David M. Mazie in an article in the November, 1972, "Reader's Digest" captioned "The Growth of Black Separatism--A National Tragedy" very accurately portrayed the problem facing FBI intelligence gathering capabilities. The above article sets out the hostility of racial factions in the military which has caused military leaders to declare it a threat to our national security. It further points out the tensions and violence that exist in our high schools and states that traditional white racism has collided with a virulent new black nationalism to drive the races as far apart as they have been in half a century, with an increasingly destructive impact on the stability of our society.

As can be seen from the above, there is still a need to measure the potential for violence in our urban areas, as well as the need to identify any individuals in these areas who may be fomenting violence because of racial hatred.

The Ghetto Informant Program has proven in the past to be the only vehicle where the above type information can be obtained on a regular basis. Accordingly, it is believed that the attached letter to all field offices setting forth the instructions regarding the handling of ghetto informants which was previously submitted by DID should be approved. This letter is based on the recommendations of the majority of all SACs. In addition, Mr. Gray previously agreed by memorandum dated 10/18/72 to the proposal that the name of the Ghetto Informant Program be changed to Urban Informant Program.

If approved, necessary Manual changes will be prepared.

ADDENDUM OF THE INSPECTION DIVISION J.H. TRIMBACH:wmj 11/24/72

The attached series of documents arose from DID inspection review of Ghetto Informant Program, 8/18 - 9/1/72. Inspection Division adheres to its position expressed in addendum to 10/18/72 memorandum attached and still feels that the proposed letter to the field contains no meaningful change in the operation of the Ghetto Informant Program.

Under the heading, 'Need for the Ghetto Informant Program," in foregoing memorandum (page 1, last paragraph), DID mentions questions such as "Are these (racial) disturbances spontaneous or are they planned?", and "Are these disturbances caused by organizations or individuals?", as questions asked by high Government officials after the racial disturbances of 1967. Inspection Division feels that advance information responsive to such intelligence needs must be obtained from productive, well-placed Security, Revolutionary Activities, and Extremist Informants, or as by-product information from Criminal Informants and other sources from whom we have reasonable expectation of positive information reporting based on past experience. Our current concept of a Ghetto Informant includes the proprietor of a candy store or barber shop in a ghetto (under new proposal in an urban area) who may or may not have such information. One such proprietor could have significant information about an impending racial disturbance and another may not. Can we assume that our Ghetto Informant is the local proprietor with the answer because we have selected him in the neighborhood as a listed Ghetto Informant?

Inspection Division feels that the Ghetto Informant Program as viewed by the DID is different from all other informant programs in at least one highly important respect. On page 3 of the memorandum, it is stated that the report (from a Ghetto Informant) that there is no indication of civil unrest in a particular area is considered "positive" information and should be counted as such. Negative information is not counted as positive information in any other informant program and in other programs we obtain some history of the furnishing of productive information before forming a conclusion that the individual is worthy of continued contact or further development. If we accept the views of the DID, then every Ghetto Informant opened by an office and established for monthly contact is capable of furnishing "positive" information because everyone is capable of saying they do not have information indicating civil unrest.

Some Ghetto Informants have in the past furnished information in extremist or criminal matters. This has been recognized as a by-product of the Ghetto Informant Program. A more meaningful approach to this whole problem might be to concentrate more heavily in ghetto areas to develop proven Security, Extremist, Revolutionary Activities, and Criminal Informants upon whom we can then rely to keep us advised of civil disturbance plans as a steady by-product to the information they are regularly furnishing on domestic intelligence or criminal matters. Existing Ghetto Informants who have shown productivity in any area of FBI jurisdiction should be converted to the appropriate substantive informant program to which their services relate. Further, all informants designated in the other informant programs who are strategically located in areas of potential civil unrest, should be briefed on supplying information that may come to their attention relating to developing tensions and civil unrest. Such approach would, in our view, represent a better ordering of priorities and not have the "cart before the horse." Moreover, we have some concern of justifiable apprehension that might be expressed by the Congress or the public if this program were to be described in terms out of context with our real intentions. We could fully defend informants providing us regularly with information directly related to our jurisdictional responsibilities and using them for "by-product" information on civil unrest. It would be much more difficult to defend establishment of ghetto or urban listening posts all over the country with a possible by-product of information directly within our jurisdiction.

In our view, the Ghetto Informant Program is not a proven program and in view of the manpower expended on it, the decision as to whether we should keep it, modify it, or abolish it should be made after a decision is reached concerning the overall question of case load vs. manpower utilization now pending in connection with a separate management study.

This survey indicated the field was overwhelmingly in favor of maintaining a ghetto informant-type progrem and a number of suggestions were offered which have been incorporated into the modifications as set forth below:

- The term "ghetto informant" will be changed to "urban informant" to more properly describe these sources.
- The number of informants operated by a division under this program should be governed by the needs of the specific office as determined by the Special Gent in Charge. In this connection you should analyze the situation in your office to determine your particular needs end only those urban informants absolutely necessary to fulfill the needs of your office are to be operated. In view of the extensive criminal information furnished by these informants in the past continue to accept information of this nature they may obtain and record and report statistical accomplishments as in the past.

This is being left to your discretion; however, you should not levy a requirement that each Special Agent must have a certain number of these informants.

As noted in the addendum of the Inspection Division, the Urban Informant Program formerly known as the Ghetto Informant Program differs from all other informant programs in that negative information is, under this program, counted as positive information.

It would appear from Section 130 (H) (2) (b) (4) of the Manual of Instructions that an urban informant who does nothing more than advise our inquiring Agents that there is no indication of civil unrest in his particular area could qualify for payments on a regular basis under Bureau authority.

In this regard, I believe it would be useful to know (1) how many of the Bureau's present urban informants are being paid on a regular basis, (2) of that number, how many have furnished only information to the effect that there is no indication of civil unrest in their areas and (3) of those urban informants not paid on a regular basis, are there documented cases in which those informants have been paid for saying that there is no indication of civil unrest in their areas?

The answer to Question (1) would appear to be readily available. The answers to the other questions, especially Question (2), might be difficult to obtain.

If you deem it appropriate, I would be pleased to have you obtain the answers to one or more of the above questions, or I would make the effort myself. I would understand completely if you conclude that the request for this information should come only from Mr. Gray. 1 JAN 10 117

> One of the memoranda on this subject which was included in the package which Mr. Deegan sent me at your request was a memorandum of 12/5/72 from me to Mr. Kinley upon which Mr. Gray had written - "Prepare a memo for my signature requesting the info. In view of the fact that you are already in possession of the memorandum containing the three questions and Mr. Gray's instructions with reference thereto, I have suggested to Mr. Kinley that the preparation of a memorandum for Mr. Gray's signature would now be, under the circumstances of this case, unnecessary. Mr. Kinley suggested that the answers to those three questions could be compiled and made available to Mr. Gray in conjunction with the overall project of developing an Urban Informant Program which he also requested in his notation of 12-11-72 at 9:11 AM.

Therefore, I will not prepare a memorandum formally requesting the answers to the three questions, and will assume that the information will be furnished in connection with the project we are now working on. Please advise if this suggested approach presents any problems.

PURPOSE:

To obtain approval to send a letter to all continental offices concerning the need for additional ghetto informant coverage.

BACKGROUND:

Following the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr., Bureau Agents conducted numerous interviews in ghetto areas of U. S. cities as a result of racial disorders. Productive contacts made with individuals during these interviews are avaluable source of untapped informant potential. By following up these interviews by recontacting cooperative residents of the ghetto areas, the Bureau can obtain a higher quality and larger number of ghetto informants. Receiving offices are instructed to exploit this situation by developing, through contacts made during riots, additional probationary racial informants (ghetto).

OBSERVATIONS:

It is imperative that the Bureau utilize every available investigative technique to obtain advance

In the wake of the racial upheavals following the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr., numerous U. S. cities experienced racial violence in various degrees.

In keeping the Bureau and interested agencies fully advised of the rapidly developing events in these cities, Bureau Agents interviewed a great number of individuals who were in positions to report on the undercurrents prevalent in the ghetto areas of these cities.

Undoubtedly these interviews opened up a whole new avenue of informant development, on a block-to-block basis, in the crucial areas of the ghettos of American cities.

Those offices covering cities which recently experienced racial strife are expected to take immediate steps to exploit this situation and increase the quality and quantity of ghetto informant coverage.

Those individuals in the ghetto areas who furnished valuable information to the Bureau in these crises should be reinterviewed and consideration given to developing them as probationary racial informants (ghetto).

In accordance with Mr. Gray's instructions, Messrs Armstrong, Walters and Miller met on 2/20/73 at which time they formulated a revised Extremist Informant Program designed to be beneficial to the Bureau's operation both in the field and at FBIHQ.

The new revised Extremist Informant Program eliminates urban (ghetto) informants and is limited to potential extremist informants (PEI), extremist informants (EI), and confidential sources-extremist (CS-E).

Definitions and qualifications for these new informant categories are as follows:

Potential Extremist Informant:

A PEI is an individual who is in a position to furnish information concerning extremist activities of individuals and organizations as well as information of an extremist nature in those geographical areas where there is a potential for violence.

The personal authority of the SAC is necessary to designate and operate an individual as a PEI with exceptions as noted below. These informants are to be operated for a period of not more than one year and not less than six months providing their potential is such that it appears he will qualify for elevation to EI. The PEI must be discontinued immediately following a determination that he has no future potential as an EI and those PEIs not elevated at the end of one year must be discontinued.

Memorandum to Mr. W. M. Felt Re: Extremist Informant Program

The following are exceptions to the SAC's authority for granting the approval of the operation of a PEI. If any of the following conditions exist, the SAC must submit his recommendation to FBIHQ on a UACB basis:

- 1. Any individual in a sensitive position (i.e. news media, educational field or any other field where disclosure as an informant would cause concern to the Bureau).
- 2. Any individual being placed in an extremist organization or any individual presently in an extremist organization.
- 3. Any individual who has been charged with a felony violation in the past five years.
- 4. Any individual who is presently under indictment or is on probation or parole, Federal or local.
- 5. Any individual with an unsavory background yet who, is in a position to furnish uniquely valuable information not available from other sources.

The Special Agent in Charge has authority to authorize payments to PEIs in the amount of up to $400. Additional payment authority must be obtained from FBIHQ.

Bureau authority is necessary to elevate a PEI to an EI. Field recommendation must contain full justification. If PEI does not qualify for EI within one year, he must be discontinued.

Extremist Informant:

An EI is an individual who has been operated as a PEI for at least six months (in order that his reliability can be properly evaluated) and is furnishing extremist information on a regular basis whether it be concerning an extremist organization or an unaffiliated extremist. In order to elevate a PEI to an EI, he must have produced authentic data on extremist activities and be in a position to continue furnishing extremist intelligence information.

Confidential Sources-Extremist:

A CS-E is an individual who is willing to cooperate with the Bureau by furnishing extremist information brought to his attention by virtue of his position in the community, by his employment, or in view of his background in extremist activities. This individual, whose identity must be protected, will not be actively seeking information on behalf of the Bureau.

OBSERVATIONS:

We contemplate no changes in the existing extremist requirements as they pertain to background investigation, payments, or other administrative policy.

Our present urban informants will be evaluated to determine if they should be considered in the future as EIs, PEIs, CS-E, directed to the Security or Criminal Informant Programs, or discontinued altogether.

No individual will be operated as an EI or PEI solely because he is in a "listening post" position. To insure we have informant coverage in those areas where there is a potential for violence, instructions will be issued to each SAC to insure all Special Agent personnel are aware of the need for developing information where there is a potential for violence and that those Special Agents not directly involved with extremist matters refer those individuals who may possess information of potential violence to the Extremist Supervisor in order that their informant potential may be assessed.

Memorandum to Mr. W. M. Felt Re: Extremist Informant Program

The field will be instructed that CS-Es are not to be kept in a pending status unless these sources are furnishing information on a regular basis. Sources reporting infrequently may be operated from a pending file with a provision for closing after a fixed period of inactivity, out of a dead file or out of a control file. Each SAC should determine which method of operation is best suited for his individual needs. SACs may desire to establish an informant map which will clearly depict coverage in any geographical area within their division.

Those informants currently carried as probationary extremist informants should either be designated as PEIs or elevated to EIs.

If the above revisions to the Extremist Informant Program are approved, appropriate Manual changes will be made.

RECOMMENDATION:

Mr. Gray in his instructions of 12/11/72, which led to the aforementioned meeting of 2/20/73, said he was not persuaded that the "listening post" concept continued to have merit. "It is," he said, "a luxury that we cannot afford at the present." In view of the fact that the "listening post" concept has up to now been a central feature of the Urban (Ghetto) Informant Program, Mr. Gray's comments clearly contemplate a major change in this program.

In order to insure effective implementation of the new policy, it is therefore important that SAC's clearly understand that a major change is intended. Unless the new policy is spelled out in unmistakably clear terms, SAC's may understandably interpret the new policy as not representing a major change from the past. The motivation for this kind of interpretation is great because such an interpretation would be most consistent with the maintenance of a high case load of urban (ghetto) informants, and SAC's continue, I fear, to operate on the assumption (erroneous I hope) that any significant decrease in their case loads, regardless of the circumstances leading to the decrease, will automatically mean a reduction in the number of Agents assigned to their Divisions, etc.

It is with the above in mind that I venture the following comments on the proposed description of the revised Extremist Informant Program.

- 1. The revised policy statement should include language that the revised Extremist Informant Program is designed to reduce substantially the number of non-productive informants in the Urban (Ghetto) Informant Program who have not provided positive specific intelligence concerning extremist, security or criminal activities. The SAC's should be told that careful and close attention must be given to insure that each informant operating in the revised Extremist Informant Program is both in a position to furnish and willing to furnish information of positive value to the Bureau in the extremist area.
- 2. I would define a PEI simply as an individual who is in a position to furnish information concerning extremist activities of individuals and/or organizations. If we are covering both known individuals and organizations with a potential for violence, "geographical areas where there is a potential for violence" should automatically be covered. An additional reference to "geographical areas...." is therefore unnecessary and could be confusing to SAC's since they are told elsewhere that mere "listening posts" are no longer to be operated.

- 3. If a PEI is defined as suggested in #2, it is not clear who else would be left in the great majority of situations for an SAC to approve as a PEI except an individual who is being placed in an extremist organization or an individual who is presently in an extremist organization. Therefore, requiring an SAC to submit a recommendation to FBI HQ before an individual is approved as a PEI when the individual in question is being placed in an extremist organization or is presently in an extremist organization, which submission is required by condition #2 on page 2 of this memorandum, could be tantamount to requiring notification to Headquarters in practically every case. This should not be necessary because the SAC seems to be in the best position in the great majority of cases to make a final decision as to whether a person should be operated as a PEI.
- 4. With further reference to those situations on page 2 of this memorandum describing when the SAC must submit his recommendation of a PEI to FBI HQ, there would appear to be very few candidates for a PEI who have not been at least charged with felony violations. Therefore, the fact that an individual has been charged with a felony violation in the past five years seems of no great significance to the question whether that person should be operated as a PEI, and the SAC should not be required to notify FBI HQ when this situation arises. Thus, I would delete condition #3. With specific reference to condition #5, as presently worded, this condition seems too broad and/or ambiguous. Practically speaking, couldn't anyone likely to qualify as a PEI quite conceivably be described as a person with "an unsavory background?" If so, this condition could have the effect of requiring advance notification to FBI HQ in practically every situation, a result which, as indicated above, I do not favor. Finally, if FBI HQ is to be notified, as is proposed by condition #1, when the individual is in a sensitive position, I think the SAC should be given more specific guidance as to what is considered to be a sensitive position. The phrase "any other field where disclosure as an informant would cause concern to the Bureau" is too vague.

Purpose is to respond to addendum of Mr. D. M. Mr. Mintz Armstrong III dated April 6, 1973, attached to Mr. G. C. Moore to Mr. E. S. Miller memorandum dated March 6, 1973, captioned "Extremist Informant Program."

Set forth below are comments concerning Mr. Armstrong's observations:

1. Mr. Armstrong suggests the revised policy should include language that the revised Extremist Informant Program is devised to reduce substantially the number of nonproductive informants in the Urban (Ghetto) Informant Program. We believe this is clearly stated in our memorandum to all SACs on page four, paragraph one "Under the revised program no individual is to be operated as an EI or PEI solely because he is in a 'listening post' position."

2. Mr. Armstrong proposed that he would define a potential extremist informant (PEI) simply as an individual who is in a position to furnish information concerning extremist activities of individuals and/or organizations. Therefore, since we are covering both known individuals and organizations with a potential for violence, there is no need for a reference to "geographical areas where there is a potential for violence." The key to the weakness in Mr. Armstrong's definition is the statement "covering both known individuals and organizations with a potential for violence." There are many areas in the United States where known organizations and known extremists do not operate. Nevertheless, there is a potential for violence in these areas because of socio-economic conditions that breed frustrations thereby making the individuals imvolved in these areas potential sparkplugs for extremist agitators. Consequently, our definition of a PEI must be broad digugh to enable informants to actively seek out this type of information.

GCM/RFO:klk/SAUG 141973

- The observation that SACs have a better insight in the great majority of cases to make a final decision as to whether a person should be operated as a PEI in connection with the placing of an individual in an extremist organization is not accurate in each and every case. It is pointed out that extremist activity is nationwide and individual FBI field office files do not necessarily contain full information and background concerning these organizations and the individuals involved in these activities. Experience has shown that Headquarters, after considering the SAC's recommendation, is in a better position to determine an individual's suitability for operation as a PEI. One of our greatest continuing concerns is penetration of our informant ranks by extremist "plants" as well as Agent provocateurs. Headquarters' review of individual cases, although not necessarily one hundred percent fullproof, is an additional necessary check. in no way mitigatés the SAC's responsibility as his approval and recommendation is necessary in the first instance.
- 4. With regard to the comment there would appear to be very few candidates for PEI who have not been at least charged with felony violations, it is stated that although a great number of our informants have been charged with violations, a felony charge in itself is not as frequent as Mr. Armstrong believes. A sampling of forty recently approved PEIs shows that only seven of this forty had been charged with a felony.
- 5. As to the observation concerning informants having an unsavory background, it is noted our present regulations as set out in Section 130, Volume IV, Manual of Instructions require that individuals with unsavory backgrounds who would not ordinarily be considered as PEIs because of the possibility they would not make suitable witnesses because of unfavorable characteristics such as extensive arrest records, excessive indebtedness, emotional quirks, abnormal sexual practices, poor employment records, illiteracy, and personal physical defects receive Headquarters approval. Our operation of informants has a twofold purpose (1) to obtain intelligence and (2) evidence necessary for successful prosecution of violations of local and Federal statutes. We strongly believe we must continue this requirement to insure our objectives are attained in all cases.

As to specific guidelines furnished to SACs with respect to individuals in sensitive positions, SACs through past experience, are knowledgeable of the many possible situations where operation of an informant and subsequent disclosure could cause concern to the FBI. These areas include the news media, entertainment field, academicians, religious leaders, civil rights activists, politicians, and many others. It takes common sense on the part of the SAC to decide the areas in his particular division which could fit in the above categories. The samples cited in the SAC memorandum are to serve as a flag to the SAC to remind him of this pitfall.

OBSERVATIONS:

What we have here in the form of a memorandum to all SACs is a completely revised Extremist Informant Program, formulated through a long series of discussions both written and oral, which began during the August, 1972, inspection of the Intelligence Division. This matter has not only been discussed thoroughly within the Section and Division but it also has been discussed and analyzed by all SACs as well as their supervisors.

As a result of proposals previously submitted, Mr. Gray issued instructions that Messrs. Armstrong, Walters, and Miller get together and come up with an Extremist Informant Program which would serve the best interest of the FBI. Based on these instructions from Mr. Gray, a completely revised Extremist Informant Program, as set forth in the proposed memorandum to all SACs, was furnished Messrs. Armstrong and Walters for review prior to a meeting which took place on 2/20/73. This meeting was attended by Messrs. Armstrong, Walters, and Miller as well as Mr. J. G. Deegan and Mr. G. C. Moore of the IS-1 Section.

At the 2/20/73 meeting a thorough word-by-word and line-by-line analysis was made of the proposed Extremist Informant Program. Revisions were made concerning the proposals and there was a free exchange of ideas in this regard. The proposed SAC memorandum, which has been submitted for Mr. Gray's approval, was agreed to by everyone present, including Mr. Armstrong who now raises several points in which he differs with the proposed instructions to the field. It seems that the time has come that we get on with the job of getting needed instructions to the field and that the dialogue come to an end. If Mr. Armstrong had objections, he should have raised them when we had the meeting which was for that purpose.

We feel that we have a viable, workable program which accomplishes the purposes which Mr. Gray had in mind. It will close out any "listening post" concept and enable the field to concentrate on areas where the need is greatest. Furthermore, this proposed program has been discussed in detail at last weeks session of the Black Extremist, Urban Guerrilla Warfare and Informant Matters School and those in attendance who are field supervisors and key investigative personnel were all in agreement that the proposed Extremist Informant Program is a sound one.

Sources reporting infrequently may be operated from a pending file with a provision for closing after a fixed period of inactivity, out of a dead file or out of a control file. Each SAC should determine which method of operation is best suited for his individual needs. You may also desire to establish an informant map which will clearly depict coverage in any geographical area within your division.

You are instructed to carefully evaluate each of your urban (ghetto) informants to determine if they should be considered for redesignation as EIs, PEIs, CS-Es, directed to the Security or Criminal Informant Programs, or discontinued altogether.

Memorandum to All Special Agents in Charge Re: Extremist Informant Program

Under the revised program no individual is to be operated as an EI or a PEI solely because he is in a "listening post" position. It is your responsibility to insure that there is informant coverage in those geographical areas where there is a potential for violence. Alert all Special Agent personnel to the need for developing information where there is a potential for violence. Instruct those Special Agents not directly involved with extremist matters to refer those individuals who may possess information of potential violence to the Extremist Supervisor in order that the informant potential of these individuals may be assessed.

Those informants currently carried as probationary extremist informants should either be designated as PEIs or elevated to EIs.

There are no contemplated changes in the existing extremist informant requirements as they pertain to background investigation, payments or other administrative policy.

Appropriate Manual changes follow.

Memorandum to All Special Agents in Charge:

RE: EXTREMIST INFORMANT PROGRAM

Effective immediately changes in the Extremist Informant Program as set out below are to be implemented.

The revised Extremist Informant Program eliminates the urban (ghetto) informant category and will now be limited to the following three categories: /

- (a) potential extremist informant (PEI)
- (b) extremist informant (EI)
- (c) confidential sources extremist (CS-E)

Potential Extremist Informant:

A PEI is an individual who is in a position to furnish information concerning extremist activities of individuals and organizations as well as information of an extremist nature in those geographical areas where there is a potential for violence.

The personal authority of the SAC is necessary to designate and operate an individual as a PEI with exceptions as noted below. These informants are to be operated for a period of not more than one year and not less than six months providing the informant's potential is such that it appears he will qualify for elevation to EI. The PEI must be discontinued immediately following a determination that he has no future potential as an EI.

This was revolved and memo This was revolved on SAC Memo 31-73 (A) RFO Memorandum to All Special Agents in Charge Re: Extremist Informant Program

The following are exceptions to the SAC's authority for granting the approval of the operation of a PEI. If any of the following conditions exist, the SAC must submit his recommendation to FBI Headquarters on a UACB básis:

- 1. Any individual in a sensitive position (i.e. news media, educational field or any other field where disclosure as an informant would cause concern to the Bureau).
- 2. Any individual being placed in an extremist organization or any individual presently in an extremist organization.
- 3. Any individual who has been charged with a felony violation in the past five years.
- 4. Any individual who is presently under indictment or is on probation or parole, Federal or local.
- 5. Any individual with an unsavory background yet who is in a position to furnish uniquely valuable information not available from other sources.

The SAC has authority to authorize payments to PEIs in the amount of up to $400. Additional payment authority must be obtained from FBI Headquarters.

Bureau authority is necessary to elevate a PEI to an EI. The field recommendation must contain full justification. If PEI does not qualify as an EI within one year, he is to be discontinued.

Memorandum to All Special Agents in Charge Re: Extremist Informant Program

Extremist Informant:

An EI is an individual who has been operated as a PEI for at least six months (in order that his reliability can be properly evaluated) and is furnishing extremist information on a regular basis whether it be concerning an extremist organization or an unaffiliated extremist. In order to elevate a PEI to an EI, he must have produced authentic data on extremist activities and be in a position to continue furnishing extremist intelligence information.

Confidential Sources-Extremist:

A CS-E is an individual who is willing to cooperate with the Bureau by furnishing extremist information coming to his attention by virtue of his position in the community, by his employment, or in view of his background. This individual, whose identity must be protected, will not be actively seeking information on behalf of the Bureau.

CS-Es are not to be kept in a pending status unless they are furnishing information on a regular basis. Sources reporting infrequently may be operated from a pending file with a provision for closing after a fixed period of inactivity, out of a dead file or out of a control file. Each SAC should determine which method of operation is best suited for his individual needs. Set forth below is a revised Extremist Informant Program designed to be beneficial to the Bureau's operation both in the field and at FBIHQ. This program was formulated at a conference attended by Messrs. Walters, Miller, and a representative of Acting Director Gray's Office.

The new revised Extremist Informant Program eliminates urban (ghetto) informants and is limited to potential extremist informants (PEI) extremist informants (EI), and confidential sources-extremist (CS-E).

Definitions and qualifications for these new informant categories are as follows:

ST-102

Potential Extremist Informant:

REC 68 /

A PEI is an individual who is in a position to furnish information concerning extremist activities of individuals and organizations. A PEI should also be utilized to furnish information of an extremist nature in those geographical areas where there is a potential for violence.

The personal authority of the SAC is necessary to designate and operate an individual as a PEI with exceptions as noted below. These informants are to be operated for a period of not more than one year and not less than six months providing their potential is such that it appears they will qualify for elevation to EI. The following are exceptions to the SAC's authority for granting the approval of the operation of a PEI. If any of the following conditions exist, the SAC must obtain authority from FBIHQ prior to operating any individual as a PEI:

- l. Any individual in a sensitive position (i.e. news media, educational field or any other field where disclosure as an informant could cause concern to the Bureau).
- 2. Any individual contemplating membership in, being considered for membership in, or presently in an extremist organization.

- 4. Any individual who is presently under indictment or is on probation or parole, Federal or local.
- 5. Any individual with an unsavory background yet who is in a position to furnish uniquely valuable information not available from other sources.

The Special Agent in Charge has authority to authorize payments to PEIs in the amount of up to $400. Additional payment authority must be obtained from FBIHQ.

Bureau authority is necessary to elevate a PEI to an EI. The field recommendation must contain full justification. If a PEI does not qualify for EI within one year, he must be discontinued.

An EI is an individual who has been operated as a PEI for at least six months (in order that his reliability can be properly evaluated) and is furnishing extremist information on a regular basis whether it be concerning an extremist organization or an unaffiliated extremist. In order to elevate a PEI to an EI, he must have produced authentic data on extremist activities and be in a position to continue furnishing extremist intelligence information.

Confidential Source-Extremist:

A CS-E is an individual who is willing to cooperate with the Bureau by furnishing extremist information brought to his attention by virtue of his position in the community, by his employment, or in view of his background in extremist activities. This individual, whose identity must be protected, will not be actively seeking information on behalf of the Bureau. Prior to operating anyone as a CS-E, advise FBIHQ of the individual's identity and the type of information he is to furnish on a UACB basis.

OBSERVATIONS:

Our present urban informants will be evaluated to determine if they should be considered in the future as EIs, PEIs, CS-Es, directed to the Security or Criminal Informant Programs, or discontinued altogether.

No individual will be operated as an EI or PEI solely because he is in a "listening post" position. To assure we have informant coverage in those areas where there is a potential for violence, instructions have been issued to each SAC to insure all Special Agent personnel are aware of the need for developing information where there is a potential for violence. SACs will be instructed that those Special Agents not directly involved with extremist matters, refer those individuals who may possess information of potential violence to the Extremist Supervisor in order that their informant potential may be assessed.

The field will be instructed that CS-Es are not to be kept in a pending status unless these sources are furnishing information on a regular basis. Sources reporting infrequently may be operated from a pending file with a provision for closing after a fixed period of inactivity, out of a dead file or out of a control file. Each SAC should determine which method of operation is best suited for his individual needs. SACs may desire to establish an informant map which will clearly depict coverage in any geographical area within their division.

Evaluation of our present urban informants is to be handled promptly and completed within sixty days.

Those informants currently carried as probationary extremist informants should either be designated as PEIs or elevated to EIs.

If the above revisions to the Extremist Informant Program are approved, appropriate Manual changes will be made.

RECOMMENDATION:

That attached memorandum to all SACs be approved in accordance with above.

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon the following information which reflects the full support of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) to the August 28, 1963 March on Washington:

Source furnished a letter dated June 11, 1963, on the letter lead of the CPUSA, 23 West 26th Street, New York 10, New York, addressed "To All Districts" from the "Organization Commission." This letter reflects the following:

"Dear Comrades:

"The march on Washington, August 28th, called by the major organizations conducting the fight for civil rights, is an event of the greatest historic importance. It deserves the support of everyone who recognizes that this struggle is essential to guaranteeing constitutional rights for all and for the further democratic advance of our country.

"For this reason, we, as all other labor and progressive groups, will lend our full support to this event.

"We urge you follow closely these developments and that you follow the Worker and Midweek Worker on the progress of the campaign, as well as suggestions for its further development."

I: INTEREST OF CPUSA IN MARCH ON WASHINGTON

A. National Leadership, CPUSA

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held June 19, 1963, in New York, JAMES E. JACKSON reported on the importance of the Negro liberation movement and the importance of getting legislation abolishing segregation in all public places. He called for a Federal policy of non-discrimination, and the inclusion of on-the-job training for Negroes in all areas of the United States.

JACKSON stated 100,000 to 200,000 white people should join with the Negro people in a massive demonstration in Washington, D.C., in the event of a filibuster to prevent the passage of civil rights laws. He added a cooperative relationship must be established among the Negro organizations.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked everyone is calling the Negro movement a revolution. He said it is a transition of the Negro in this country from second class to first class citizenship within the framework of our present social system. He continued, "We are witnessing a revolutionary movement in our country, but we are just not in it..."

DAVIS said the biggest single question is not the disagreement and disunity among Negro leaders, which is serious enough, but it is the fact that the white allies of the Negro people are not coming into the struggle enough. He said he would like to see a plan of action develop and would like "to see the Party get on all fours in respect to the struggle."

IRVING POTASH commented the differences which exist among the Negro organizations should not be permitted to develop into bitterness that plays into "the hands of the enemy." He said "our Party" can play a "special role, a public role" and can exert a wholesome influence in this area.

POTASH said the criticism against the Party is valid, and it is correct to say "we" are not coming forward, not writing and not giving leadership. The leadership of the Party should explore all ways and means for all of "us" to play a bigger role in this struggle "which we have not done yet."

POTASH felt the trade union movement was not making a real struggle because of their own discrimination, and the comrades must find ways to "build a fire" under the leadership of the trade union movement.

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN stated no matter how much "we" do, it is not enough, but, on the other hand, "we" should not underestimate the work the Party does.

JAMES E. JACKSON stated "The Worker" must be utilized along with Party facilities to interest the trade union movement in the Negro struggle, and "the Party must register its presence on the street,"

NY T-2 June 19,1963

At a meeting of the Organization Bureau, CPUSA, held July 11, 1963, at CP Headquarters, New York City, JACK STACHEL stated the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the August 28th march on Washington, D.C., which he said had two objectives:

- 1. To arouse the conscience of America to the economic plight of the Negro in the United States.
- 2. To demand that an effective and meaningful civil rights bill be passed by Congress, to protest against filibuster and demand majority rule in the United States Senate.

STACHEL described plans being made by organizations preparing this demonstration and then asked rhetorically, "How can we explain to anybody in the future that ? 100,000 people went to Washington and we were not among them?"

STACHEL proposed that, if need be, the Party finance people to go to this demonstration. He suggested that contact be made with Jewish clubs and national groups such as the Hungarians, Russians, Ukranians and Armenians in order to get people for the demonstration. He commented "We must convey this approach to the other Districts. There are tremendous possibilities here for contacts with the Negroes, in the Jewish field, the youth. It can open up a new life for us."

IRVING POTASH proposed that Comrades go to community organizations and set up groups in shops to collect money. He said the Party must concentrate on the unemployment issue in Harlem, Newark and other areas "where there are congregations of Negro population."

STACHEL proposed further meetings on this matter to perfect plans, stating that he thinks it possible "for our Left forces alone, if they work properly, to organize more than five thousand people to be there in Washington."

During a meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, and invited guests, held July 31, 1963, in New York, JAMES E. JACKSON, commenting on the Negro struggle for integration, said "we" have to spell out the task for our rank and file membership on how to most effectively utilize the struggles to make our contribution. In addition to being a part of the movement, "we have to see in this the opportunity to build up friends with the objective of bringing them into the Party.

JACKSON-said "we" have to discuss how the Party can do more, because one of the aspects of this struggle is that it is an ideological struggle for the minds of the many people who come to join "us" in the fight. "We" have a role not only as "activists," but also a role to play in the "ideological ferment" that is being born. It is a new chance to put "our Party" back in contact with the people responsible for organizational questions.

March Land

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 1, 1963, at the CPUSA national office in New York.

JACK STACHEL opened the discussion and said there would be only one point on the agenda, 'August 28th and civil rights in general." He said two questions have been raised: "our" responsibility for bringing the maximum number of "our people" into the movement, and in some places "we" are effective...but much more needs to be done. He said the question always to be decided upon is on what do you base yourself and the answer is to defend Negro rights.

STACHEL stated that Negroes make up a large majority of the working class and "we" have to represent them. The second question is in regard to the labor movement in relation to Negroes and whites and "we" have to become the vanguard in this. Continuing, STACHEL said the main thing "we" decided is that on August 28th, "we" will participate and organize a minimum of 100 people plus "our" literature and "The Worker." He said that WILLIAM WEINSTONE and LOUIS WEINSTOCK will help plan this and make sure "we" have Comrades. The general idea is that Comrades will sell papers and there are available pamphlets on the Negro question. The idea is to organize pressure groups....which will come from New Jersey, Philadelphia and Baltimore.... The estimate is that it will require a minimum of 100 people.

WILLIAM ALBERTSON said it must be realized that before this "civil rights revolution" got underway, the Party was isolated from the movement of the Negro people. He stated that to build the Party, it must be shown "that you are the best picketers, the best cadre fighting, the best of everything, otherwise you are just a propaganda organization and you are not participating in the struggle."

ALBERTSON proposed the opening of a special headquarters in Washington, D.C. He stated "the people that we organize can go there as part of a whole group, and then they separate themselves there." He suggested that recruits for the demonstration be sought among people" who do not have mass responsibilities" noting "we have a whole group of needle trades Comrades who are retired."

WILLIAM WEINSTONE proposed that a quantity of literature be carefully selected to get into the hands of the people and "thereby help to deepen the struggle."

ARNOLD JOHNSON said there should be a meeting between the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the church groups and the various other agencies that are participating so that some kind of order can bemaintained. He said that there should be a full-fledged discussion on this and proposed that the NAACP be contacted in order to arrange a meeting. He continued, "secondly, I would like to say this August 28th is not the climax to this fight. It is not the end to everything. We should not go into this thing with everything we've got only to find that we have nothing left to go with after the 28th."

JOHNSON urged that the Party try to become associated "with these different groups that are participating," noting that in this way "we may receive a share of the TV, radio and press coverage that will go with this event." He said that besides contacting all these other agencies, it is very important to contact the unions, both as to their participation in the march and also as to their hiring policies. With respect to literature, JOHNSON suggested the publication of a supplement on the international question, "which we can direct/the Negroes." He commented, "I think we can sell this for a nickel."

WILLIAM ALBERTSON expressed pleasure with the activity going on in New York, and commented "we have in this march a relationship between Negro and white that we have never had before in history."

ALBERTSON aid "we" have two objectives:

- 1. Participation by the total membership.
- 2. "We! take responsibility for initiating organization on the "grass roots level" in connection with the march....

He said there is one problem, the Puerto Ricans are going down and are setting up their own political action group and there is nothing "we" can do about it.

IRVING POTASH commented that "our Comrades" in industry have been instructed to make the maximum contacts possible in whatever factory they are in and "our people" should follow up these contacts "after August 28th."

WILLIAM AIBERTSON, concluding the discussion, said that there is to be from 50 to 75 assembly points in Washington. Each State will have an assembly point. The smaller States will be merged. ALBERTSON then proposed that they set up a committee of three to planthe Washington operation. He proposed GEORGE MEYERS from Baltimore, JOE BRANDT and LOUIS WEINSTOCK.

NY T-2 August 1, 1963

Source reported that on August 2, 1963, GUS HALLinquired what "The Worker" was going to do with regard to the March on Washington.

According to the source, HALL was advised "The Worker" was planning a special edition "dedicated completely to the March" and intended to distribute a minimum of 10,000 copies in Washington, D.C.

Further, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN would prepare an article, GEORGE MORRIS would write an article on the Negro labor movement and JOE NORTH and CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT have been asked to prepare articles for the special edition.

HALL commented that after thinking it over. he did think everyone should participate in the March on Washington. He said the Party should avoid giving the appearance it is taking over the March. HALL stated that, on the other hand, the Party does want to take anything away from the March so they must be discreet on how they handle it. HALL related he told CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT in Chicago that he (LIGHTFOOT) does not have to actively participate, however, he believes GEORGE MEYERS from Baltimore and THOMAS NABRIED should attend.

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held August 7, 1963, in New York, JACK STACHEL proposed copies of "The Worker" and other literature be distributed to delegations to the March on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1963, prior to their departure. He suggested that the distribution be made at departure points in various areas. With respect to the number of copies of "The Worker" to be distributed, STACHEL proposed the following quotas:

New York - 5,000 New Jersey - 500 Philadelphia - 1,000 Maryland - 500 Michigan - 500 Illinois - 500

It was agreed that distribution is to be made before or after the March on Washington and not during the time it is in progress.

WILLIAM ALBERTSON said that 50 or 75 "New York Comrades" should be mobilized on the date of departure of delegates to the March on Washington and given 100 to 150 pieces of literature apiece to distribute at Pennsylvania Station, and the bus terminal. He said the rirst train leaves at 5:20 a.m. and the comrades should, therefore, be instructed to report at CP Headquarters at 4:00 a.m.

NY T-2 August 7, 1963

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 14, 1963, at the CPUSA national office in New York.

ROBERT THOMPSON, in discussing the August 28, 1963 March on Washington, said the problem "we" have is the relationship between Negroes and Puerto Ricans, which can be harmful. According to THOMPSON, the Puerto Ricans have not been successful, because they have not gone through what the Negro has over the years. Coupled with this, is also the fact that the Puerto Ricans do not desire to be linked with the Negro population, and as a result elements of racism are showing.

Continuing, THOMPSON remarked that the Puerto Rican movement may develop under its own leadership, and "our job" should be to attempt to get a development under cooperative lines....

THOMAS NABRIED stated that in Philadelphia "we" have gone into certain areas with loudspeakers to inform the people as to what is going on. "We" expect that about half of these people in these areas will participate in the March on Washington, and "we" are interested in setting up a meeting upon their return from Washington. He said they would like to establish a base for the continuation of their ideas in order to correlate what has happened.

NABRIED said that there is the usual amount of jealousy among the various organizations working on the March, but he believes they will be set aside "for this historic event."

JAMES LUSTIG commented on the situation in New Jersey, which he said was getting better.

LUSTIG, in commenting on the March, said that the number represented will depend upon the amount of transportation available. He said the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) has sponsored a train from Newark to Washington, D.C., and that buses will be sponsored by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and will leave for Washington from Lincoln Park in Newark, New Jersey. LUSTIG, in concluding his comments, stated that the most important thing is that following the March, the participating organizations will hold a conference and what will be decided there will be as important as the March itself.

MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN said that the general picture he has regarding the March is that there will be a large number of young people attending. He said that a young person from Pittsburgh had written to him saying that between two and three thousand people are expected to go to Washington, D.C. by train and bus. RUBIN said the one big problem that has arisen is "What is our special role in all of this? We have people with a lot of enthusiasm working with people unrelated with us."

LOUIS WEINSTOCK said the Party has to extend the distribution and sale of literature nationally, as well as to widen participation and to work harder. He said "we are loaded with literature but are unable to get one or two people to go out." He said that unfortunately this situation applies not only to New York but to all sections of the country. WEINSTOCK recommended that ten thousand copies of "The Worker" be distributed in various parts of the country, since there is to be no distribution in Washington, D.C. He also recommended that ten thousand pamphlets be sold at concentration points on the morning of August 28, 1963; the remainder to be sold after the demonstration.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS agreed that ten thousad copies of "The Worker" should be distributed as a Party enterprise. He said that as a result there could be a substantial increase in the paper's circulation, as well as a build-up for the Party.

DAVIS commented that GEORGE MEANEY's statement regarding the Negro Movement indicates a white chauvinist and a white supremacy attitude. DAVIS felt that MEANEY, because of his attitude, is turning the Negro Movement over to the muslims and other extremists. He recommended that the Party call upon workers and labor leaders to repudiate MEANEY's statement. At the same time "we" should defend A. PHILIP RANDOLPH and WALTER REUTHER's attitude. DAVIS was of the opinion that RANDOLPH would welcome a sharp criticism of GEORGE MEANEY.

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON commented that MEANEY's action will have an effect not only in relation to the March but also to its aftermath. He said it must be shown that MEANEY's attitude does not reflect the attitude of the Trade Union Movement as a whole.

PHIL BART stated that there has not been a comparable period in the past wherein hundreds of Communists will actually be together with tens of thousands of others in the March. He said efforts should be made to work with the idea of establishing connections with new forces.

JOSEPH BRANDT felt that as a result of this mobilization there will be a change in "our rank and file..." He said "our Party" has blended themselves in this Movement, and it is necessary to devote ourselves now to a more advanced role for "our forces." He said that the people going to the March are listening "to our people" so that the question is what can be done with these people after the March.

BRANDT also stated that an effort should be made to get twenty-five local unions to send telegrams condemning GEORGE MEANEY but congratulating A. PHILIP RANDOLPH and WALTER REUTHER. ROBERT THOMPSON stated that any statement to be issued should not only be a condemnation of MEANEY, but that it must have a much breader concept.

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 21, 1963, in New York, pertaining to the forthcoming March on Washington.

The first item of discussion was the distribution of "The Worker" on August 28, 1963, at public transportation depots prior to the March on Washington. LOUIS WEINSTOCK, in speaking for "The Worker" refused to allow distribution of CP literature unless it is to be paid for, either by recipients or the CP itself. Others present felt that free distribution was more appropriate.

JOE BRANDT then introduced the thought that every CP leader and all CP Headquarters functionaries should be in Washington on August 28, 1963. He added the CP should issue a statement to effect GUS HALL and others will be participating in Washington on August 28, 1963, not because it is giving the March on Washington leadership, but because the March on Washington and/or the Negro Movement is an integral part of the CP's life. The statement should urge all Communists and friends of the CP to participate in the March on Washington.

"ROBERT THOMPSON said the CP must in every way guard against provocation in connection with any CP participation in the March, but felt it was correct to emphasize the historic role of the CP in relation to the Negro movement.

BEN DAVIS stated he feels GUS HALL should be in Washington in order to register the fact that the CP is participating.

NY T-2 August 21, 1963

B. New York District Leadership, CPUSA

At a meeting of the New York District CP Committee, held July 13, 1963, in New York, ROBERT HOMPSON presented a report on the civil rights issue.

THOMPSON stated the events in Birmingham, Alabama, have developed a change throughout the nation concerning the civil rights of the Negro people in regard to jobs, living conditions and education. Birmingham represents a victory for the Negro people and a demoralization for the South.

THOMPSON made mention of the March on Washington scheduled for August 28th and stated CP people should participate in this March to help the Negro people achieve their civil rights.

NY T-4 July 17, 1963

At a meeting of members of the New York District CP staff held August 8, 1963, in New York, JAMES TORMEY stated he felt the staff should go over changes in the civil rights situation and some questions which arise. One of the questions enumerated by TORMEY was whether or not they should try to be more active in mobilization between then and August 28th, the scheduled date for the March on Washington.

During the ensuing discussion, BILL ALBERTSON said that he thinks they have to call attention to the impact which the March itself has now had on the country. ALBERTSON also said that they have to point out that the problem of Negro unemployed is not only a Harlem problem, it is also a problem on the Lower East Side, in Bedord Stuyvesant, and Coney Island.

ALBERTSON stated that he thinks that as long as picket lines are up, they should continue to support them. He thinks their position should be one of trying to get agreement among the Negro leaders.

As to the distribution of "The Worker" there will be 10,000 copies of the weekend edition of "The Worker" prior to the March. There will also be 6,000 pamphlets. "We" decided not to do anything in Washington. The distribution is to take place, before the March starts, in New York. 50% of the total distribution will be in New York. Others will be air mailed to Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland. The other 50% will then be divided between the other districts from Chicago east to Washington.

Distribution will take place at the point of embarkation in New York City. The comrades who are going on the March, will have completed their job before they get on their own train or bus. They are going to mobilize 100 people on the basis of the people's pledge to the county organizers.

NY T-5 August 8, 1963

NY T-4 August 13, 1963

A meeting of the New York District CP staff was held August 26, 1963, at CP Hoadquarters, New York City.

ROBERT THOMPSON stated the main item to be discussed was the question of what follows the March on Washington.

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON stated he felt that on the matter of the follow-up to the March there were tremendous possibilities. He said he felt this would be the most important period in the whole development of the Negro struggle.

ROBERT THOMPSON stated he felt the Party could not expect any great initiative from the leaders of the March on Washington to form a more permanent committee after the March. The Party, therefore, has to try to exert as much influence as it can. He said the immediate task for the New York District would be to try to transfer the forces and the enthusiasm built up around the March into an involvement in the fight around the school crisis.

JAMES TORMEY related that one thing they want to try is to institute massive reporting back within the neighborhoods. He continued that to the extent the Party can generate these report back meetings to that extent they can create a condition where whatever has taken place will result in a greater struggle and greater participation. He said a continued struggle for job rights could be stressed and then, perhaps, the idea of having a central rally, such as at Madison Square Garden.

2. West Side CP Section

At a meeting of Club #1, West Side CP Section, held July 10, 1963 in New York, the prime topic of discussion was the Negro people's movement. It was stated

It was claimed that the CP has, is, and will continue to play a big role in the struggle for the liberation of the Negro people.

During the discussion, one of the individuals present stated that "as Communists, we should participate in every stage of the struggle of the Negro people. It is our duty to be on picket lines, demonstrations and sit-ins. We are the ones to show the white and the Negro people that we are determined to fight for civil rights until these rights will be won."

Those present were further reminded of the March on Washington and it was proposed every member of the club should join the March and should also try to influence their families, friends and co-workers to participate in the March. It is imperative that others are urged to participate, friends, neighbors, mass organizations, church groups, etc., to make the March go down in history as a memorable day in the struggle for the freedom of the Negro people.

In conclusion, BORDOFSKY urged everyone to visit the Negro organizations for leaflets, information and any other data needed to make the March on Washington a success and to contact any and all organizations to enlist their support for the March.

CP Club. STANLEY requested members of the 11th A.D. Club to attend the March and to go as part of the Uptown Tenants Council.

In response to a question as to whether or not the CP would be definitely identified with the March, STANLEY stated it was not advisable for the CP, USA to be directly identified with this "struggle," but it must participate in other groups.

5. Negro American Labor Council CP Caucus

At a CP caucus meeting relative to Negro American Labor Council (NALC) work, held July 20, 1963, in New York, JAMES TORMEY stated the main purpose of the meeting was to organize those individuals present into a group for work in the NALC. He said the immediate task of this group was the NALC meeting scheduled for July 24, 1963, and that the group should concentrate on NALC work concerning the March on Washington.

JAMES TORMEY on July 23, 1963, indicated he had prepared a number of suggestions he desired the CP caucus group to present to the July 24, 1963 meeting of the NALC. TORMEY enumerated these suggestions as follows:

- L. Propose NALC distribute 100,000 leaflets concerning the August 28, 1963 march in Washington, D.C. TORMEY said that if help is needed in the distribution, "we" can bring in "outside forces".
 - 2. Propose that an attachment be added to the leaflets already printed which would be a pledge to participate in the march or to pledge funds for expenses.
 - 3. Propose that a speakers committee be formed to provide speakers to address church groups, unions, etc. concerning the march. TORMEY said that if this proposal is adopted, someone from the caucus group should be on the committee, or better still, be the chairman of the committee.
 - 4. Propose that if the speakers committee is established, a list of the various unions in New York City be obtained along with a schedule of their meeting dates in order that NALC speakers could attend the various meetings to solicit support for the march. TORMEY said that this would serve to obtain union sanctions for the march or to get their representatives to take part in the march.
 - 5. Propose that NALC delegates be sent to the New York City Central Trades and Labor Council to enlist their support for the march. TORMEY felt that the construction trades would probably support the march or take part in it so as not to gain the label of segregationists.

At a CP caucus meeting relative to NALC work, held July 27, 1963, in New York, JAMES TORMEY stated the NALC represents Negro workers and the CP places major importance on the NALC. In the past, the CP has been lax in Negro work and will now correct that situation. His main job in the Party is now Negro and NALC work.

The CP has to explain why large numbers of white people should participate in the March on Washington and all Party people must participate.

The New York State District CP has suggested that among the items which should be brought up by the CP caucus group at NALC meetings are:

- l. The NALC should get out membership applications for local chapters which can be used for recruiting NALC members when talking to people about the August 28 march.
- 2. There should be leaflets in the form of a pledge for participation in the March.
- 3. There should be a speakers committee and an attempt should be made to get a member of the CP caucus group as Chairman of this committee.

NY T-12 July 29, 1963

At a meeting of the NALC CP caucus group held August 10, 1963, in New York, JAMES TORMEY spoke relative to the March on Washington. HALL elaborated on the various aspects of the Negro people's freedom march and urged that everyone support this broad movement.

HALL continued the role of the Communist Party has been an excellent role. It has guarded against pitfalls, has shown militancy and good leadership, and all mass actions in the past have had CP leadership to shape their form with a program of unity.

Following HALL's speech, BILL ALBERTSON reiterated the importance of the Negro people's movement. He stated that every person who could walk or crawl should participate in the August 28th March on Washington. He urged everyone FLYNN devoted the remainder of her remarks to the Negro question in general.

NY T-15 August 20, 1963

Sources substantiated the above information, however, they added that LOUIS WEINSTOCK additionally stated "The Worker" and other literature would be distributed at bus and train terminals in New York to those people going to Washington, D.C., on August 28th, and that 10,000 extra copies of the paper would be printed for distribution. He stated he anticiaated he would be able to get around in the crowds because of a "pass" he had in his possession. Source thought this may have been a press pass but was uncertain.

2. Chicago, LLLInois

HALL stated the CP's outlook is that there is a crystallization of a people's democratic alliance taking place in this country. He stated the economic questions that come to the fore will project this alliance into an anti-monopoly alliance. The "left" and the CP must help to guide and give direction to this alliance. He said that when the Party speaks of unity of the left, it speaks of unity for the purpose of participating and helping to mold this developing alliance.

NY T-22 August 26, 1963

4. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

On July 22, 1963, a meeting of the West Philadelphia Branch, Independent Citizens Committee (ICC), was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The meeting had a one point agenda, namely, the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. Those present agreed that since the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the CORE would contact churches, fraternal organizations, etc., that the ICC's role would be to contact people who are not members of groups which would be contacted by NAACP and CORE. This will be done by door-to-door canvassing to recruit persons to participate in the March, also to collect donations to defray travel expenses of unemployed persons who wish to take part.

Following further discussion, the West Philadelphia Branch, ICC, decided that the following proposals, among others, be submitted to the Executive Board, ICC:

- 1. That an emergency meeting of ICC be called for August 3, 1963, to "get things moving."
- 2. That the "concentration areas" be West Philadelphia and North Philadelphia.
- 3. That a sound truck be utilized during canvassing.
- 4. That leaflets be prepared for distribution explaining the importance of the March in the event such leaflets are not available from NAACP, CORE, or other participating groups.

THOMAS NABRIED, on July 23, 1963, spoke before a press meeting of the Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

In speaking of the March on Washington, NABRIED said CP concentration should be on two things; first, organizing CP people to go; secondly, placing emphasis on getting white people to participate. He said that if only a sprinkling of white people attend, it will be a catastrophe. NABRIED stressed that since Party people are in touch with a large number of white progressives, contacts must be made with these people and the importance of their participation emphasized.

The Socialist Youth Union held a meeting on July 26, 1963, in Philadelphis, Pennsylvania.

The chairman of the meeting outlined the purpose of the August 28 demonstration in Washington, D. C. He said the demonstration was being staged to obtain more and better jobs for Negroes, to oppose the civil rights legislation filibuster and to fight "Jim Crow" and discrimination. A general floor discussion was held as to the course of action relative to SYU participation.

It was decided that the steering committee would meet every Tuesday and that the SYU would continue to meet every Friday evening at the SYU clubhouse, 1426 West Bristol Street, Philadelphia, without further notice until after the August 28 demonstration in Washington, D. C.

"Looking Toward Victory" on the evening of July 31, 1963, at the Pennsylvania Room of the Sheraton Motor Inn, 3900 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Attendance was by invitation only and a majority of the 65 to 70 persons present were known to the source to be Communist Party members.

HALL devoted approximately five minutes to a discussion of the August 28, 1963 March on Washington. He addressed his remarks particularly to white comrades, stating that it is imperative that as many white people as possible participate in the March. He said that many people will be watching to see if there is unity between whites and Negroes at the time the March is held. For this reason, it is essential that white comrades participate and that as many white non-comrades as possible be induced to take part.

HALL said that the August 28 March on Washington in itself is revolutionary in character; that if there is any peaceful march toward socialism, the August 28, 1963 affair is a good indication of this peaceful transition.

HALL said that Lenin teaches that in the struggle for socialism, "we" must first attempt to create democratic institutions. HALL said that the Negroes' fight toward creation of equal civil rights and democratic institutions can lead toward socialism.

Source stated that the August 28, 1963 March on Washington has been discussed from the district to the club level, CPEPD, and that CP leaders are emphasizing that as many CP members as possible participate in the March. Both THOMAS NABRIED, Chairman, and FRANCES GABOW, Organization Secretary, CPEPD, have stated that as many white people as possible should take part. The source added that the CP Youth Club, however, is the only club within the CPEPD which is taking an active role to date. The center of their activity is being carried on at the SYU clubhouse, 1426 West Bristol Street, Philadelphia.

Source advised that according to THOMAS NABRIED, the CPEPD is working with legitimate organizations, such as CORE, the NAACP and church organizations. The CP is working with these groups in an effort to make the March a success. According to NABRIED, this is typical throughout the country and follows CP policy. NABRIED added that the same technique is being used in New York City.

NABRIED also stated that the ICC has been very active in the Philadelphia area in support of the March on Washington. This group has worked particularly in West and North Philadelphia and has utilized a soundtruck and has also had a telephone brigade in an effort to obtain participants in the March on Washington and to obtain funds to pay for the transportation for those unable to do so.

E. Activity of "The Worker"

"The Worker," issue of July 2, 1963, on page 1, contained an article captioned, "Rights Leaders Map Unified Capital March."

This article reflects Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had reiterated his call "upon all people of good will from every section of the country and from every state "to join in "a non-violent, peaceful march on Washington."

The article quoted Dr. KING as calling for participation in the March by "the hundreds of thousands."

"The Worker", issue of July 7, 1963, contained, on page 1, an article by JAMES E. JACKSON, entitled, "A Fighting People Forging New Unity."

In this article, JACKSON reviews the massive upsurge of the Negro masses to secure their full rights as American citizens. He writes that the movements unity was dramatically affirmed when Negro leaders affirmed the determination to proceed with the August 28, 1963 March on Washington.

In conclusion, JACKSON writes, "Anti-communism can only foster divisionism in the ranks of the movement at a time when the paramount resolution of all conscious forces are striving to enhance its unity for victory in the sharp battles that still are to be fought in order to consolidate gains made and to secure full freedom.

"The Negro freedom movement stands on the threshold of a great victory. In the mighty revolutionary upsurge of the Negro masses against segregation and discrimination, social forces are being activized, fighting alliances of the common people are being forged such as will carry our nation forward to a genuine new birth of democracy, of peoples' wellbeing, social progress and peace."

"The Worker," issue of July 16, 1963, page 1, contained an editorial captioned, "Toward the Aug. 28 March on Washington For Jobs and Freedom."

This editorial cites the importance of the March to the Negro freedom movement and urges that every reader of the paper to do all in their power to make the Washington mobilization a huge success and a new landmark for social progress and Negro freedom in the history of the United States.

"The Worker," issue of July 21, 1963, page 3, contained an editorial entitled, "Jim Crow and Red Herring."

This editorial stresses that, "The selfless, and often pioneering, role of the Communists in the struggle for the freedom and equal rights of the Negro people is unmatched by the members of any other political party in American life. The Communists, Negro and white, set a standard of leadership and service in the fight for the just rights of the Negro people that is only now being matched by numerous other forces and organizations."

The editorial goes on to state, "Indeed, in the entire phase of the modern history of the Negro freedom struggle, the Communists have always played, and always will play, an honorable and dedicated role. The Communist Party of the U.S. wholeheartedly supports the just struggle of the Negro people for freedom and integration in the political, economic and social life of the nation."

"The Worker", issue of July 23, 1963, contained an editorial entitled, "Celler's Slow Down," which related to the attempt of Representative EMANUEL CELLER of New York to discourage participation in the August 28 March on Washington by representatives of the Negro people.

The editorial reflects the March on Washington and the preparations for that historic occasion will provide the best stimulus for affirmative action by Congress on civil rights.

"The Worker," issue of August 18, 1963, page 6, contained an article by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT entitled, "New Era Dawns for Negro People After Century of Struggle,"

In this article, LIGHTFOOT writes that the August 28 March on Washington and other demonstrative actions must have as a focal point preparations for the 1964 elections.

In citing various elements of a political action program for 1964, LIGHTFOOT states that among the issues the Negro freedom movement should concentrate on is the immediate, all out support of and participation in the March on Washington.

In conclusion, LICHTFOOT wrote that Communists will contribute everything they possibly can to forging unity in the struggle for these immediate goals of the Negro freedom movement.

"The Worker," issue of August 20, 1963, page 3, contained an article entitled, "Patterson Assails Racists' Attempt to Redbait March."

In this article, WILLIAM L. PATTERSON writes that Communists are unalterably opposed to racism in any manner. Concerning the March on Washington, PATTERSON states provocations will undoubtedly be made charging the infiltration and capture of the movement by Communists.

He writes, "No such provocation must move any person from the struggle to achieve the aims and purposes of this March and the campaigns of struggle which everywhere will be aided and inspired by it.

"For the unity of all forces seeking the destruction of racism and the political power of racists we must devote our greatest efforts."

"The Worker," issue of August 25, 1963, was devoted almost entirely to the March on Washington and the Negro people's freedom movement. It contains, among others, the following articles:

Article	Author
"Negro-White Marchers' Mandate to Congress: Freedom and Jobs Now!"	T. R. BASSETT
"Masses to Congress: On Rights and Jobs, 'Advise and Consent!"	Editorial
"In the Battle For Jobs and Negro Freedom"	GUS HALL
"Anti-Communism vs. Freedom's Cause"	BENJAMIN J. DAVIS
"The Basis for Inter- Class Unity In Negro Freedom Movement"	JAMES E. JACKSON

* In addition to the above, the following is noted:

CONNIE BART commented she had observed JACK STACHEL, MIKE and GAIL DAVIDOW in attendance at the March on Washington.

NY T-47 August 29, 1963

The records of the Northwest Airlines, Seattle, Washington, reflect that MILFORD SUTHERLAND left on Flight Number 80 at 12:20 a.m., August 28, 1963, for Washington, D.C., to arrive at Dulles Airport. He had reservations to leave Washington, D.C., on the same date.

LEONA TRANQUILLI, ORVILLE EDWARD LINTON and BERNICE LINTON attended the March on Washington. They did not represent any organization but part of their assignment was to sell Communist newspapers and literature at the bus sites and in Washington, D.C., in accordance with previous instructions received for the Greater New York Press Club.

They had with them 100 copies of "The Worker" and various CP pamphlets which they began to sell at about 3:00 p.m. when the March on Washington began to break up. They sold these items until about 5:30 p.m. and were completely sold out when they left. Proceeds from the sale in the amount of $25.00 were turned over to "The Worker".

NY T-17 September 19, 1963

On September 7, 1963, JAMES TORMEY stated he had driven to Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963, with his wife, BETTY GANNETT, and ROBERT THOMPSON, to attend the March on Washington. He said he met GUS HALL in Washington, D.C., and that most of the CP leadership was in attendance at the March.

TORMEY added that the reason he and most of the CP leadership went by car was so they would not attach any stigma to the March on Washington.

Deputy Chief HOWARD V. COVELL, Executive Officer, Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D.C., on September 18, 1963, made available to SA PAUL E. MORRISON, a card index which, he advised, contained the names and affiliations of individuals who had applied for and received press cards to attend the Civil Rights March on Washington. This was held at Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963.

Among these cards was one for PAUL NOVICK, the "Morning Freiheit", Press Card 1136.

No instructions or directives were issued by the officials of the CP of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) to any members of the CPEPD in regard to the March on Washington. It is believed that the CPEPD and the CPUSA did not have any significant part or influence in the August 28, 1963 demonstration, but seemed to be content to merely take part.

NY T-58 September 5, 1963

DOROTHY ZISSER stated on September 10, 1963, that she had attended the March on Washington.

NY T-105 September 11, 1963

On September 17, 1963, EMMA ELLSWORTH congratulated CLARA KRELL for having brought members of a tenants association to the March on Washington.

"Laisve", a semi-weekly Lithuanian language newspaper, published in New York, in its issue of August 30, 1963, page 1, column 5, contains an article which reflects that A. BIMBA attended the March on Washington as a representative of "Laisve".

IV. MANNER IN WHICH CP MEMBERS PARTICIPATED IN MARCH ON WASHINGTON

The following sources attended the March on Washington on August 28, 1963. These sources reported that the March was an entirely peaceful affair with no incidents occurring, and that they observed no attempt by the Communist Party or its members to influence the March or its participants.

These sources further advised that on the return trip to New York by various modes of transportation, the main theme of discussion among the returnees was the effectiveness of the March and the quality of the speeches made, particularly that of Reverence MARTIN LUTHER KING.

Sources related they did not participate in the March as CP members, but rather as passive participants.

"In addition, NY T-28 related that prior to leaving for Washington, D.C., bundles of "The Worker" were placed on the buses chartered by Advance, as well as copies of a statement by the PYOC on its "Right to Earn, Right to Learn" conference.

It was decided, in view of the position of the leaders of the March on Washington, to leave the bundles of "The Worker" unopened on the bus.

NY T-17 additionally reported that upon arrival in Washington, D.C., members of the informant's group were given pamphlets written by BEN DAVIS dealing with the Negro fight for civil rights.

Following the March, these individuals sold about 100 copies of "The Worker" and various CP pamphlets.

Source advised a large Detroit delegation convened on the mall by the Washington Monument. There was a short meeting of CP members from Detroit and it was brought out that "we" should reverse the march, that is, to persuade the people to march to Capitol Hill instead of the Lincoln Memorial. This idea was abandoned as not being feasible as there were too many marshals and Military Police deployed around Capitol Hill.

TOMMY DENNIS stated "we" should have brought a determined group of young people who could stampede the individuals attending the March into reverse, marching on Capitol Hill instead of the Lincoln Memorial. DENNIS stated this demonstration is only the beginning and "we" have won a point just by having such a demonstration. DENNIS said that the next time, possibly in two or three years, "we" will have another March, and this one will be a March on Congress.

V. VIEWS OF CPUSA ON RESULTS OF MARCH ON WASHINGTON AND SUBSEQUENT ACTIVITY

A. National Leadership, CPUSA

GUS HALL stated, with respect to the March on Washington, that in his opinion there were a quarter of a million people in the March. He stated that one quarter of the people in the March were white and that he and the Party could take credit for there having been so many white people in the March. HALL further stated the Party "had a great deal to do with this and that the Party played a major role in many of these white people going to Washington."

NY T-45 August 28, 1963

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held August 30, 1963, at CP Headquarters, New York City.

The discussion concerned itself with the civil rights legislation pending in Congress and what could be done to get the Congress to react favorably towards this legislation now that the March on Washington was a success.

JACK STACHEL urged that efforts should be made to get the labor unions involved in this fight. WILLIAM L. PATTERSON commented that demonstrations should be held in front of press offices demanding editorials on the need to do away with the filibusters in Congress.

ARNOLD JOHNSON called for work stoppages as well as demonstrations in Washington, D.C., as an anti-filibuster step. He said the work stoppages could be for a few minutes each day, to be increased daily as long as the filibusters continue.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr., stated that the CP should think more along the lines of a mass movement of a non-partisan nature, saying the struggle is for all Americans and that it has placed the American system on trial. He noted that the Muslims, as a result of the March on Washington, were "buried". DAVIS said that he would propose that the CP have people demonstrate in Washington, D.C., every day of the filibuster. He also felt that it was possible to have ten million Negroes shut down everything in this country as an anti-filibuster move. He felt that the work stoppages could be for fifteen minutes a day on the first day and the next day increase the work stoppage to a period of two hours. He felt that it was a legitimate demand to mobilize the American people in order to break any filibuster.

DAVIS averred to the recent article by DAVID LAWRENCE in the "New York Herald Tribune." He described LAURENCE's column as the worst one in the entire country. DAVIS stated that in his opinion, he did not believe that it would be out of line to set up a picket line around the "New York Herald Tribune." He said the picket line would be along the lines that DAVID LAWRENCE must go or there must be a public apology by that paper. DAVIS also felt that some effort should be made to force Governor NELSON ROCKEFELLER of New York to take an active part in breaking any filibuster.

A meeting of the National Board, CPUSA, and invited guests was held September 4, 1963, in New York.

At this meeting, the main point on the agenda was the March on Washington.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS discussed the March. He characterized it as "the greatest demonstration for freedom in the history of the country" and said there is a feeling in many quarters that official estimates of the March were lower on attendance figures than the number who actually participated. He stated that although the newspapers said there were approximately 200,000, it appeared more likely that there were close to 300,000 or 400,000.

DAVIS called for the establishment of a policy committee by the CPUSA for the purpose of bringing the meaning of the March to the people and to act on local problems. He commented, "More and more it is going to be necessary to work on our contribution within the framework of the March...to fight for the role of the working man... more and more it becomes necessary to work for the idealogy of this particular movement and the working class..."

According to DAVIS, the breaking of a filibuater "is the main next job" and pressure must be put on the President of the United States to break the resistance.

JAMES JACKSON commended DAVIS on his report. He stated that ROY WILKINS, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored reopie (NARCE) had paid tribute to Dr. DU BOIS and it was his opinion that "there seemed to be kind of a second thought that the Negro movement at this stage in its organizational security can ill afford its divorcement of the experience and the substantial contribution of Negro Marxists." JACKSON noted that every newspaper in every country in the world has identified DU BOIS, not only as a leading literary figure, but also as a Communist.

In describing the role of the CPUSA, JACKSON said that, "although equipped with proper foresignt and projections, it could not be said that the practical, organizational functions of responsibility fitted the projections made." He said "We were one of many stimulating elements...but in this we played a rather anonymous role and we functioned more or less as individuals. Our mission was that of undistinguishable parts of the whole. In many areas our people were responsible for getting fine turnouts...the stimulating role our people played in certain areas needed additional emphasis...as to just what should be our particular role...it is a sad fact that in the huge mass role we performed anonymously."

JACKSON then asked rhetorically "Was there no special role for the Party?" and continued that "it points out a serious aspect of the Party - a kind of critical aspect of organizational laxity, a problem of definition of our identity."

JACKSON was critical of the fact that so few participated in the distribution of "The Worker" and other literature noting that "in spite of the fact that the literature was neatly packaged and all prepared, in spite of the fact there were decisions and commitments, 3 or 4 people participated in the distribution..." He said this was not just another mass meeting but was "a big chunk of the most advanced area of the American popular masses and working class." He noted that "this is an assembly that comes once in the lifetime of a party to assemble the militant, dedicated people who crossed half the country, gave up their jobs for a day or so, sacrificed to get into a social struggle. This was a natural pawn in which Communists should exist...to be with these people, eat with them, meet with them, develop address with which they could further communicate."

JACKSON recalled the fact that, with only one dissenting vote, it had been decided that there be a special edition of "The Worker" for the March and that "a hundred comrades should participate" in its distribution but, in spite of this, the one dissent was the prevailing reaction.

GUS HALL asked how many copies were sold and LOUIS WEINSTOCK stated that 1,400 copies of "The Worker" were sold "that day" and a total of about 1,000 pamphlets were also sold.

WEINSTOCK remarked that final arrangements were made three or four weeks before the affair and "there were nineteen people at the meeting where 100 were supposed to come, five of them non-Communists..."

JACKSON stressed the need for getting better organizational means to get people to work. He said that, while in Washington, he had gotten "maybe a half dozen invitations from trade unions" and that the trade unions put on a tremendous public relations job. He noted that there was a Sockalist Party conference for civil rights held on Thursday and Friday following the March attended by 100 people at the first session and about 300 people at the second session.

WILLIAM PATTERSON remarked "I think there is the opportunity for us to strengthen our participation in the follow-up (of the August 28th March) in the major districts and states that have not only struggled for public works programs but also other unemployment programs "

MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN stated he thought there was an improvement in youth work in terms of participation through mass organizations and there has been an improvement in terms of involvement of youth in civil rights demonstrations.

IRVING POTASH commented "the country will not be the same after this March. I think an examination will probably show that many of our comrades played a very important role in bringing about or helping to bring about the participation of quite a number of trade unionists and trade union officials in this."

POTASH stated the CPUSA must play a very important role in the civil rights struggle and "the youth movement in particular has a terrific role to play, and first of all to establish basic relations with the Negro youth."

POTASH continued, "It is not difficult to establish those unions where the Communists have a great deal of influence. Those were the unions which produced the greatest participation in this March. To some extent this is true of the UAW. Although that is not a red led union, it is true it has a great deal of left influence...you take District 65 (District 65 Retail Wholesale and Department Store Union, AFL-CIO) with a participation of four and one half thousand, certainly there is an example of left influence, Communist influence, where these unions have led the upsurge in the Negro struggle."

POTASH, with respect to the role of the CPUSA, stated he thought that up to now the Party has been too cautious and it should be put on the agenda to move into this area with a greater decisiveness.

NY T-2 September 4, 1963

At a meeting of leading CP functionaries held September 6, 1963, in New York, JAMES E. JACKSON reported on the August 28th, 1963 March on Washington, claiming that "not since the Civil War have so many official bodies of the working population of our country associated themselves actively under the banner of the struggle for the rights of the Negro people." He said that the speeches were notable by the absence of red baiting and there was a unity of purpose between the leadership and those who participated in the March.

JACKSON mentioned his attendance at a conference called by the Socialist Party and held in Washington, D.C., during the week of the March. He said the conference was very significant because it attracted to it as participants and speakers, many of the leading personalities and key administrators of the March. JACKSON commented, "One of the very interesting contributions at this conference was made by BAYARD RUSTIN who described himself as a fellow traveler of the Socialist Party."

JACKSON was critical of the role of "The Worker" in connection with the March, stating "our paper in comparison with any paper did not follow this event as it should have done. The truth is that very little happened to utilize 'The Worker' to establish our banner above the other banners in this movement."

JACKSON pointed out that, in spite of the decision to publish a very large number of extra copies of "The Worker" dedicated to the March, the paper was not utilized at the March. He described the failure of adequate distribution of "The Worker" as a serious weakness in organization and said "Our Party is the vehicle to socialism. The 200,000 people who took part in the March should be the 200,000 people who should be in our Party. So we had the additional duty in this March to win Party members."

GEORGE MORRIS said that the union representation at the August 28th March was brought there by unions that are partially or to some extent Socialist-Party influenced or have a Left background. He described this as a revitalization of the united front and stated "I think this is something for us to seriously think about because it again emphasizes that there is a base for progressive activity."

Source related PHIL BART had complained the CP had not contributed to the March on Washington because it had not contributed to the unity of the March. BART said this and many other things just cannot go on and that the membership is a reflection of the leadership. BART said the Party must go into the South and establish itself and not talk about it any longer.

BART further commented no one was at the March on Washington to sell "The Worker" although "we" were supposed to have a meeting of 100 people on the Monday before for that purpose. He said only 19 people showed up. BART stated there is a feeling in the Party that we cannot be a factor for things any longer.

A meeting of leading CP functionaries was held September 16, 1963, in New York.

JAMES JACKSON reviewed the racial situation in Birmingham, Alabama, and announced that "The Worker" would carry a lead editorial on the first page demanding that Governor WALLACE of Alabama be brought to justice; demanding that the President establish federal occupational authority throughout Alabama; demanding a roundup of the membership of the American Nationalist Party, the White Citizens Councils, and the Ku Klux Klan; and demanding the immediate discharge of J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and a complete reorganization of the FBI.

WILLIAM PATTERSON said that, immediately after hearing of the bombing in Birmingham, he reached a number of people in the Harlem area of New York City, and raised the question of sending telegrams and holding some kind of demonstration.

PATTERSON said that, while he thought JACKSON's statement concerning the FBI was correct, he would like to see a special article devoted to the FBI and "its complete failure over the years" in relation to racial matters in the United States.

ROBERT THOMPSON stated the CPUSA should try to bring about effective, immediate action by the New York City Committee on Racial Equality. He said there should be some kind of major action in New York City, either in the nature of a mass meeting or a march and the Party should undertake a campaign in New York and nationally to influence public opinion in this situation.

IRVING POTASH said it is not enough to throw responsibility on Governor WALLACE of Alabama, but it must be stated in clear terms that the federal government also has a certain responsibility for what is happening in Alabama.

POTASH noted that President KENNEDY is scheduled to appear before the United Nations (UN) and suggested it might be advisable to set up delegations to submit petitions and demands "even before he gets to the UN", thereby precipitating a possible demonstration at the UN.

POTASH also suggested the possibility of taking the proposed statement for "The Worker" and reading it publicly at some federal office, "possibly at Foley Square" in order "to dramatize our feelings in this matter."

BEN DAVIS commented, "I feel bitterly disappointed and bitterly dissatisfied with the response of our Party." He said the Negro movement has now reached the stage which requires a sharpening up of "our attack on the Kennedy administration." DAVIS urged greater activity on the part of the CPUSA stating, "I am of the opinion that unless our Party finds a way, symbolically or personally, or in some other way, to integrate itself an some public manner, if not in its own name, then through some organization in which the Party is known to have influence, we are just going to get a setback that will take us years and years to overcome."

NY T-46 September 16, 1963

Source advised that on September 16, 1963, a telegram to President JOHN F. KENNEDY, The White House, over the signature of GUS HALL, was dispatched by the CP, USA.

The text of this telegram is as follows:

"Brutal murder of 6 Negro children yesterday in Birmingham demands immediate action and Federal troops to protect lives of American citizens against lawless insurrection, terror, and calls for the arrest of Wallace and others responsible for murder and bombings. Federal authorities must take power of government away from such bloody hands. Failure to act vigorously in this crisis will not be tolerated by justice loving Americans. You can no longer . ignore the growing popular demands for arrest of Wallace and those who incite racist violence and defiance of United States Constitution. Action must be taken to dissolve the Ku Klux Klan, the White Citizens Councils, the American Nazi Party, the National States Rights Party, and all racist terrorists. We demand executive orders and a complete program of Federal action to smash the resistance of segregationists in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, and elsewhere in the south, for the full establishment of constitutional liberties immediately to all Negro Americans and the establishment of new genuinely democratic government in those states in accord with the United States Constitution. Nothing short of these minimum measures will constitute adequate response by you to the challenge of the Birmingham bombing outrages. You, President Kennedy, are held personally responsible for the lives and property of American citizens against racists terror under your authority under the constitution.

Gus Hall"

A meeting of the National Board, CPUSA and invited guests was held September 18, 1963, at CP Headquarters, New York City.

At this meeting it was stated the student council of Tuskegee Institute had issued an invitation to GUS HALL or some other representative of the CPUSA to participate in a series of platform speakers to develop "ideas and philosophy occupying various positions along the ideological spectrum." HALL was requested to explain the basic philosophy of the CPUSA, and discuss what he felt to be the main threat to the democratic idea.

BEN DAVIS spoke of the letter from Tuskegee Institute describing it as of greatest importance. He asserted that the Negroes are now willing, as are other forces, to know what the Communist Party has to say and to listen to Communists and welcome whatever support, guidance, leadership, and practical sacrifice the Communists can give "in this new stage, which is how to break the resistance of the Dixiecrats and how to stop the McCarran Act." DAVIS stated that the letter from Tuskegee indicates how the students are thinking and "These students want to know what the Communists have to say about a democratic perspective in America today." He described this as "a direct relationship to the role of Communist youth and to the setting up of a new organization."

A meeting of the National Board, CPUSA and invited guests was held September 25, 1963, in New York.

The meeting concerned itself primarily with a report being prepared by BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr. on the Negro struggle in the United States.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, Jr. discussed an outline form for the report he is preparing. He said that he did not intend that his report be considered an ideological report, noting there is "no Chinese wall" between questions of ideology and a political line. He said it is possible to divide the two. The point of the report is to concentrate on the next step in the Negro movement as a whole. DAVIS felt that the Party had defined the character of the Negro Revolution and "our position" is essentially that the Negro movement is national in form despite the fact that "we" had come up with the erroneous position of "self-determination."

DAVIS said that the Negro people have adopted a method of struggle, namely "peaceful, non-violent, direct mass action." He said this is now the chosen method of struggle by the Negro masses. He said the new question coming up, as a result of the bombings in Birmingham, is whether now is the time to abandon the whole question of non-violent action. He said it was his opinion that they should not abandon this theory because the purpose of the violence in Birmingham is to provoke the Negro and to date, the Negro has shown more self-restraint in the face of it.

Continuing, DAVIS said "we" must make it clear that "we are for these self-defense programs of the Negroes." He said the Negro should have the right to defend himself against brutal attacks by racists with whatever weapons they can. He said the Party should point out that the Federal Government should step in and protect the Negro so that this responsibility is not left on the Negro people. DAVIS said the Negro people are in favor of Federal action in Birmingham and want Federal troops to take over the state. He felt that an additional goal is to break the resistance of the Dixiecrats which means "illegalizing and outlawing" all fascist organizations operating in the South.

DAVIS commented that the two-man truce team sent by the KENNEDY Administration to Birmingham (KENNETH C. ROYALL and EARL C. BLAIK) was a pitiful step by the administration. He said that KING (MARTIN LUTHER KING, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) made a serious mistake when he agreed to accept these two people. DAVIS said that in criticizing this method "we" should put the blame on the KENNEDY Administration and not on KING.

Continuing, DAVIS stated that the great unity achieved as a result of the August 28, March on Washington can only be maintained by the development of further mass motions of this character, adding "you cannot have unity of the Negro people if they omit actions." He said the domestic leadership of the Negro movement, in one form or another, is tied in some way to the KENNEDY Administration. This is a situation that requires greater independence on the part of the Negro movement and its leaders. The key question is "how to get our line out and how to fight for it and how the party is going to exert some control and some influence."

DAVIS stated that the August 28, March on Washington was not only a historical and unprecedented demonstration of the unity of the Negro people as well as the white people, but that the March transferred the responsibility to the Federal Government and to the American citizen. He said the next step, following Birmingham and the bombings, has to be a step involving masses of people. Since everyone "at the demonstration" took a pledge to sit in, to stand in, to demonstrate, now is the time, in my opinion, for the leaders of the Negro movement to use this to advantage. DAVIS stated that the South in the next five years will be the additional force which can be brought into the progressive movement and will help change the whole relationship of forces. He said "somehow our party has to appear as the champion of the Negro people's movement and as the champion of the very low poverty levels of living of the white masses in the South."

He said this has to be done and it is not being done at the present time. There is no representative form of government in Alabama, Mississippi and other states. The focus of attention should be on what is the main source of resistance in the South today, the implementation of the rights of the Negro people. DAVIS felt that there was a need for some center from which a consistent policy and leadership could be given in order to reach wide sections of the Negro people.

He said it should be something broad, something militant, something which gives action from another center and which gives direct leadership in such a form that it can be an accepted part of the new revolution. He said it was time that "we went around and talked to some of the Negro leaders in order to see how this could be developed. He said "we have to have a form in which the consistent policy of the Party can be brought forward and can be approximated, if not fully, as closely as possible and that can reach great masses of the Negro people". DAVIS acknowledged that this "means money and it means a thorough discussion on our part."

DAVIS also remarked that Harlem is a problem that must be solved because other forces have taken over the Harlem community "and the Party is no where around." He said this is the number one Party problem to be solved. "We" have to keep in mind the image of "our Party" among the Negro people as well as the white workers and progressives throughout the country.

Following DAVIS! comments a discussion period followed. ROBERT THOMPSON said that the main object of the report is to develop the question "What is required now to successfully force federal intervention in Alabama?" He said that "we" have to defend KING's leadership in this movement...especially the leadership that KING represents. THOMPSON remarked that he did not agree that there was a need for a new center for the civil rights movement as suggested by DAVIS. He said it would not serve a useful purpose and such a center would be a focal point for the gathering of "every flighty element that is trying to horn in on the real movement."

THOMPSON said "we" have to think about the development of the strength and role of the Negro-American Labor Council (NALC). He said their activities can play a real part and can be expanded to shape the program of the civil rights movement.

GUS HALL expressed the opinion that there is a need now to discuss the question of a new party, a party of labor and Negro. There is a need to discuss a new alignment, not necessarily a new party but one which could emerge as a giant political action. He felt that there was also a need to project new ideas on the part of labor "in order to get out of their rut."

JAMES JACKSON said the report should give a rousing salute to the Negro in this year 1963. The main thing is the glorious rise of the Negro in America which has inspired the world. JACKSON, in commenting on the pending civil rights bill, felt that there should be a lobby down in Washington on this bill.

ARNOLD JOHNSON stated that labor will play an important role in the Negro movement and he was in favor of some sort of a Negro political action committee.

IRVING POTASH stated that there was a need for unity in the Negro movement. He said "our party" for years has projected this idea and the Party should signify the weakness of this unity. He said that the right of self-defense by the Negro is a most important question and "we" should take a forthright position on it. He said the Negro patrols in Birmingham have our support in view of the fact that the Federal authorities are not carrying out their responsibilities. He said that if the Federal authorities were carrying out their responsibilities, it would be a different situation.

GILBERT GREEN commented that what had been discussed can be the basis for a good report. He said there is a need to take the Negro freedom struggle off the streets and into the courts. "Our party" should be careful to maintain the unity of the Negro struggle. "We should not impose the party on this movement. We should do nothing which will either turn this movement into an anti-Communist movement or will divide the movement."

· GREEN said "our objective" must be to press the administration to break with the Dixiecrats and this will guarantee the renovation of the South.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, in concluding the discussion, said the Party must concentrate on influencing the leaders and the policies of the Negro liberation movement. He said "we" should suggest that there be in Washington in some public place like the Washington Monument or the Lincoln Memorial a round-the-clock massing of people with outstanding speakers from all over the country to continue until the filibuster is broken. He said "many people in the movement are officially considering this." DAVIS said "our access" to various forces and figures in this movement is not cut off. "I am not the only one who has this Gus (Hall) and Jim (Jackson) have it as well as others on various levels." DAVIS said the question is, are we satisfied with "the limited instrumentalities that we now have?" DAVIS further remarked "we must have elements of boldness and change our role from one that just defines policy and evaluation to one that helps shape policy." DAVIS said "This guy Rustin calls me constantly...openly."

DAVIS, in concluding his remarks, stated that the Party must demand (President) KENNEDY come out against the ultra right and take a sharp position against them. He said "we" must demand that a deadline be set for integration in the country.

B. NEW YORK DISTRICT LEADERSHIP, CPUSA

On September 17, 1963, a CPUSA New York District meeting was held at Hellanic Hall, 269 West 25th Street, New York City. WILLIAM L. PATTERSON acted as Chairman and the agenda included an evaluation of the March on Washington by ROBERT THOMPSON. In his report, THOMPSON made the following observations:

The March was orderly and calm, without any incidents which would have detracted from it. Negro and white unity has been raised to a new level by the March. The struggle for equality is a struggle for all Americans not for Negroes alone. The March was excellent but the murder of Negroes in Alabama and the fact that police brutality is still a major issue against Negroes should have been brought out more in the March.

The leaders of the March should concentrate on these proposals in regard to civil rights and a strong Fair Employment Practices Commission. They should see that the Negro is protected in his right to vote in the South and a fight made for full equality in the struggle for jobs. The Negro fight for jobs is a test for the labor movement and Negro and white allies. This fight should be concentrated industry by industry and understanding in trade unions raised to a new level.

Although the March was good, there was not enough organization in the grass root section of the movement, especially in the Puerto Rican community. Few Puerto Ricans took part because they were not organized and were not told what the March was all about. The Puerto Rican movement should be built up and this is one field the Party could move into and do a good job.

The Negro American Labor Council was not as successful as it should have been in the March. This organization has been going downhill since its last convention in its fight for Negro rights. However, individual leaders, especially A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, showed great strength and character.

The formation of the new Negro party is a danger to the Negro movement at the present time. It is a danger to the Negro movement because its name will split the movement itself.

In regard to the Party activity in the March, "The Worker" did not effectively reach the hands of those who attended this event. Very few volunteers showed up to distribute "The Worker" at the various points of embarkation from New York to Washington, D.C. Although the role of the Party was a correct estimate of the March and how it should be carried out, the main Party weakness was not getting the paper into circulation.

The report by THOMPSON was accepted unanimously.

NY T-4 September 17, 1963

C. LOCAL CP CLUBS, NEW YORK DISTRICT

JAMES TORMEY gave a report on the Negro Movement and the August 28, 1963 March on Washington, at a meeting of the CP caucus in the New York Chapter of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC).

TORMEY advised the following in his report:

The Negro Movement is a revolutionary movement aimed at the elimination of the residue of slavery and intimidation of the Negro people. Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING has said that the whole Movement is a basic attack against the power structure of the United States, and that this is most important because it is a Marxist approach to the problem coming from a Negro leader.

Concerning the August 28, 1963, March on Washington, the Negro leadership estimated 250,000 people participated with an estimate of approximately thirty per cent white people. This is very important to the overall success of the March.

The Muslim and Black Nationalist Movement suffered a serious setback because of the March on Washington, the way it was received and the way that it was carried out without any riots or fighting.

The efforts of the progressives to obtain the labor unions participation in the Civil Rights and Negro Movement is tantamount to saving labor unions. If the Labor Movement does not become involved in this struggle they could be seriously weakened. Labor seriously needs the alliance with the Negro Movement.

The contemplated March on City Hall in New York City scheduled for September 29, 1963, was called off. The reason given was that as originally planned it would have been mainly concerned with the building trades and would have been dangerous and may have destroyed labor's part in the March.

The March on City Hall should include other demands besides those against the building trades.

When the new date is announced for the March on City Hall, "we" will have an all out job. The bridge between labor and the Negro People's Movement is the Negro "Comrades."

WILLIAM L. PATTERSON advised at this same meeting that "we" played a fundamental role in the March on Washington all over the United States. He also said that "we" must fight vigorously to protect the unity of the Negro leaders.

D. OTHER CP DISTRICTS

l. Newark, New Jersey

\ At a CP meeting held September 4, 1963, in Newark, New Jersey, a discussion was held relative to the March on Washington.

It was stated by one of the members present that he felt the March would not accomplish any great change in Congress, and it would not bring civil rights closer, but it was a success in that the March was actually held. Further, that President KENNEDY, by being so nice, had robbed the March of its militancy. President KENNEDY, by endorsing the March, attracted many people to the March who otherwise would not have attended.

It was further felt that a bad part of the March was the failure of those participating not to realize that the United States must have socialism to bring about civil rights and end unemployment.

E. ACTIVITY OF "THE WORKER"

"The Worker" issue of September 1, 1963, page 1, contained an article by "The Worker Staff" entitled; "200,000 Demand Congress Act For Freedom," which article summarized the events of the March on Washington and contained brief excerpts from some of the speakers at the March.

"The Worker," issue of September 8, 1963, contained an editorial by JAMES E. JACKSON entitled, "The Mandate of Millions Is for Kennedy to Act Against the Racists." This editorial mentions various racial incidents and states the March on Washington presents President KENNEDY with a mandate to take prompt corrective action in the quest for civil rights.

This same issue contained on page 2, an article by MIKE DAVIDOW entitled, "N.Y. Ripe for Its Own Civil Rights March".

"The Worker" issue of September 10, 1963, page 3, contained an article entitled, "March to City Hall Sept. 29 To Protest Building Job Bias."

This article called attention to a proposed March on City Hall to press the struggle for building trades jobs for Negroes and Puerto Ricans being sponsored by the Joint Committee for Equal Opportunity as a follow-up to the March on Washington.

"The Worker" issue of September 17, 1963, page one, contained an editorial captioned, "Bring Wallace to Justice for Inciting to Murder" and an article by JAMES E. JACKSON under the same caption relating to the bombing in Birmingham, Alabama, which resulted in the death of six Negro children. These articles demanded President Kennedy issue an Executive Order declaring the State of Alabama to be in a state of insurrection against the constituted law of the land and in violation of the United, Nations Charter of Human Rights.

"The Worker" issue of September 22, 1963, contained several articles bearing such captions as, "Sunday Is Jet For Mourning Child Martyrs"; "Protests Mounting in Nation Over Birmingham Murders"; "A Time for Action"; "Who Threw the Bomb? 'We All Did It'" and "East Siders Urge U.S. Federalize Alabama."

These articles all relate to the bombings in Birmingham, Alabama, and point up the plight of the Negro people. They call for the arrest of Governor WALLACE of Alabama and for President KENNEDY to intervene in that State.

"The Worker" issue of September 24, 1963, contained an article entitled, "10,000 at Rally Demand JFK Send Troops."

This article reflected a crowd of 10,000 people gathered at New York's Foley Square on Sunday, September 22, 1963, to mourn the six Negro children killed in Birmingham, Alabama, and to demand federal action in behalf of the Negro people in the South.

LUSTIG announced at a press club meeting at Adelphi Hall, New York City, held on April 26, 1962, the formation of a new press club known as the "City Press Club Executive Board" (CPCEB). This source also advised that at a consolidation meeting at Savannah, Georgia, October 23, 1960, it was resolved and passed that in any future meetings of this group the name "Majority Citizens League" was to be used.

A second source advised that at a national klonklave meeting at Texarkana, Texas, on February 11-12, 1961, a motion was carried that there were to be at least six national meetings a year to be held any time from one week to twelve weeks after the last meeting. The time and meeting place were to be decided by the newly elected chairman. This second source also advised that at each meeting a new chairman and acting, secretary were to be elected to serve at the next meeting. A national secretary had not been appointed.

A third source advised that at a national meeting on November 11-12, 1961, United Klans of America, Inc. (UK) was invited to meet with NKKK and it was agreed they would meet together, but there was no talk of consolidation.

This third source further advised that as of the national meeting on May 5-6, 1962, no national fund, head-quarters or secretary had been established and no plans had apparently been made to do so. A temporary chairman and acting secretary were to be appointed for each meeting. The name "Majority Citizens League" was not being used in connection with meetings.

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 18, 1962, a second source advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held New York, New York, June 15 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years.

On May 7, 1963, a third source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

SOCIALIST YOUTH UNION OF PHILADELPHIA (SYU), aka, Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP), Sunday Study Group, Winter Discussion Series 1957-1958

TICHONUK, testified before the Subversive Activities Control Board on June 5, 1963, that he and his wife had been CP members for the past seven years during which time they furnished information to the FBI, advised the SYU was the Philadelphia affiliate of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee. Mrs. TICHONUK advised this group had been known during 1957 and 1958 first as the "Winter Discussion Series 1957 - 1958" and later as the "Sunday Study Group."

A source advised on March 19, 1958, the above group adopted the name Socialist Youth Union of Philadelphia (SYU) at a meeting held March 16, 1958.

On January 6, 1961, a third source advised the SYU had changed its name to Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP), then decided against this name and reverted to SYU.

UNITED INDEPENDENT-SOCIALIST COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As the Independent-Socialist Party

A confidential source advised in June, 1958, that the Independent-Socialist Party (I-SP) was organized at conferences held on June 13-15, 1958, in New York City.

Another confidential source advised in October, 1958, that the I-SP had as its ultimate aim the establishment of a national labor party.

An article in the February 2, 1959, issue of "The Militant" entitled "N.Y. Socialists Discuss Possibilities for 1960," related that the I-SP on January 24, 1959, had voted unanimously at a meeting to continue activities as the United Independent-Socialist Committee (UI-SC).

Early in February, 1959, the first confidential source mentioned that between January and the Fall of 1959, the UI-SC would engage in struggles of the "left" and would participate in the fight for "peace, coexistence, civil liberties and civil rights and support the struggles of colored peoples and the struggle for passports, etc."

Early in May, 1959, the first confidential source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was then the dominant group in the UI-SC and was in a position from which it could direct and control activities of the UI-SC.

An article, "UI-SC Disbands in N.Y.; Failed to Agree on '60," which appeared in the November 9, 1959, issue of the "National Guardian," related in part: "Because of disagreement over electoral policy for 1960, New York United Independent-Socialist Committee has voted to dissolve."

The headquarters of the UI-SC was located at 799 Broadway, New York City.

RALPH FERTIG INFORMATION CONCERNING

Julius W. Hobson, President, Washington Chapter, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Washington, D.C., advised on July 15, 1963, that during a meeting of CORE on July 10, 1963, Ralph/Fertig, a member of CORE, strongly opposed and objected to the regulations set out by the Metropolitan Police Department concerning the limitations of the demonstration scheduled for August 28, 1963, at Washington, D.C. Hopson described Fertig as a trouble maker and hard to handle and stated he was contacting James Farmer, President, National CORE, in New York and requesting Farmer to issue a letter expelling Fertig from CORE in Washington, D.C. Hobson said Fertig is Director of the South East Neighborhood House, Washington, D.C. Hobson stated Fertig was a relatively new member of CORE in Washington, D.C., and he believed Fertig was from Chicago, Illinois,

The above information was furnished to Captain Thomas Herlihy, Office of Special Investigations, Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D.C., on July 15, 1963, and Herlihy stated their files contained no information regarding Fertig.

The following information pertains to Ralph Fertig, although on the basis of the above information, it cannot be determined whether this information pertains to the Ralph Fertig who is presently the Director of the South East Neighborhood House and a member of CORE at Washington, D.C.

CG T-1 advised on April 24, 1950, that their records revealed that Ralph David Fertig, born on July 24, 1930, at Chicago, Illinois, resided at 8043 South Rhodes-Avenue, Chicago, and that Fertig was presently attending the University of Chicago and had attended this University since September, 1948.

CG T-1 advised on January 14, 1949, that a new organization named the "Committee on Civil Rights" had been formed at the University of Chicago. CG T-1 stated that this group was organized primarily to circulate petitions on the campus favoring and supporting the enactment of anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and fair employment practices, the abolishment of the Un-American Activities Committee, dismissal of the indictments against the communist leaders. and repeal of the Smith Act. CG T-i Turther stated that these petitions were to be presented in Washington, D. C., on January 17, 1949, and January 18, 1949, during the Presidential Inauguration as part of the program of the Civil Rights Congress Legislative Convention in Washington, D. C., on those dates. CG T-1 advised on January 17, 1949, that Ralph Fertig contributed $15.00 to a fund to be used to charter a bus to go to Washington, D. C. for the above convention.

The Civil Rights Congress has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

CG T-2 advised on September 15, 1952, that the January 21, 1949, issue of the "Chicago Maroon", University of Chicago student newspaper, revealed that Ralph Fertig, 8043 South Rhodes, Chicago, a student at the University of Chicago, participated in a two-day civil rights conference and lobby in Washington, D. C. on January 17 and 18, 1949. The delegates from the University of Chicago and 600 other delegates from twenty-four states demanded passage of civil rights leg slation and dismissal of the indictments against twelve cor nunist leaders. Verbal effort was made by the delegates and over 4,000 persons from nearby states to convince ongressmen that the Un-American Activities Committee should be abolished and that anti-poll tax, anti-lynching and federal Fair Employment Practices Committee laws should be passed and that the trial of the communists was the most dangerous threat to civil liberties in America today.

CG T-2 advised on July 27, 1949, that Ralph Fertig, a student at the University of Chicago, stated on July 26, 1949, that he was Program Director of the University of Chicago Chapter of the Young Progressives of America (YPA).

CG T-1 advised on April 24, 1950, that their records reveal that Ralph Fertig was a member of the University of Chicago Chapter of the YPA during the 1948-1949 school year, as well as the fall quarter of 1949 and the winter quarter of 1950.

CG T-3 during 1952 made available a list of names and addresses which he had obtained on June 28, 1952, and which had been in the possession of the National Student Conference for Academic Freedom, Equality and Peace. The name and address of Ralph Fertig, 8043 South Rhodes, Chicago, Illinois, appears on this list.

CG T-2 advised on September 15, 1952, that the October 28, 1949 issue of the "Chicago Maroon", University of Chicago student newspaper, revealed that Ralph Fertig was Program Director of the "Political Forum" at the University of Chicago. This group was attempting to chart an independent but left of center course and the group's general orientation according to them is that of radicalism in the American tradition.

On May 9, 1952, Albert Jonas Kaplan, present address 19545 Heminway, Reseda, California, furnished numerous cards among which was one which contained the following:

F 1ph David Fertig
1343 South Rhodes Avenue
tudent - Writer Theater Div.)
149 - $2.

Kaplan advised that these cards contained both names of members of the Chicago Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions (CCASP) for 1951 and 1952 together with the names of individuals who were interested in the work of the CCASP.

By letter, dated September 16, 1952, the Fifth Army Regional Office, 205 West Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised that Ralph David Fertig, white, male, was interviewed on September 9, 1952, at his residence at 8043 South Rhodes Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, by Special Agents Theron B. Miner, Jr., and Milton M. Schiff. During the course of the interview, books and pamphlets written by Karl Marx and Lenin and an anarchist calendar were observed to be in Fertig's room.

CG T-4 on April 28, 1953, made available a list of members of the YPA at the University of Chicago for the summer quarter of 1950 and Ralph Fertig is listed as a member of the YPA.

CG T-5 advised on July 9, 1953, that Ralph Fertig attended a picnic sponsored by the Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born on July 4, 1953, at Chicago.

CG T-6 on February 25, 1955, made available a list of names and addresses which were in the possession of the Chicago Branch of the Young Socialist League and the name and address of Ralph Fertig, 5722 South Maryland Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, appears on this list.

CG T-7 on July 20, 1955, made available a copy of a letter to The Rector, Moscow University, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, dated February 1, 1954, from Ralph David Fertig, 5219 South Drexel Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

In this letter Fertig stated he wished to apply for advanced study in the social sciences at Moscow University and stated that by June 1, 1954, he would have completed the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Sociology at the University of Chicago. Fertig also stated he was studying the Russian language through private tutoring. In this letter Fertig also stated: "It is my fervent hope that an interchange of information concerning the people and their institutions in your country and in mine may help to ease the tensions between these two great powers. And it ought to be of value to people and to learning everywhere to demonstrate that social scientists of different political identifications can communicate with one another."

CG T-6 advised on January 16, 1957, that a meeting of the Chicago Branch of the Independent Socialist League was held on January 19, 1957, at Chicago. Ralph Fertig was not in attendance at this meeting. During this meeting there was a discussion regarding the coming elections of officers for the Hyde Park Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and one of the persons at this meeting stated that they should vote for Ralph Fertig as an officer for the Hyde Park Chapter of the NAACP.

An article which appeared in the "Chicago Tribune" newspaper, Chicago, Illinois, issue dated June 3, 1961, datelined Montgomery, Alabama, June 2, 1961, stated that a group of Freedom Riders had left Montgomery, Alabama, by bus for Jackson, Mississippi, and that Ralph D. Fertig, a white male, age 33, 4845 Kenwood Avenue, Chicago, was a member of this group and was arrested at Selma, Alabama, and charged with assault and disturbing the peace.

B. APPROX.

On July 24, 1963, Investigative Clerk Richard H. Krueger checked the records of the Bureau of Records and Communications, Chicago Police Department, and no arrest record identifiable with Fertig was located.

CHICAGO COUNCIL OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS

Albert Jonas Kaplan, former member of the Chicago Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions (CCASP), advised on March 6, 1952, that the CCASP was an affiliate of the National Council of the Arts. Sciences and Professions (NCASP).

Another source advised on November 4, 1952, that he learned that the CCASP had disbanded recently because of no money and poor attendance.

The NCASP was cited as a Communist front.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1954 on the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace arranged by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions and held in New York City on March 25, 26 and 27, 1949, April 26, 1950, originally released April 19, 1949, p. 2.)

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL), formerly known as the Workers Party (WP)

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action", then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action", an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned "The ISL Program in Brief". The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its everpresent struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy."

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RALPH FERTIG

A source advised on October 10, 1958, that the Chicago Branch of the ISL, which was an affiliate of the national organization, was dissolved in September, 1958, and all active members joined the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation on October 9, 1958.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MIDWEST COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

The Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (MCPFB) since the latter part of March, 1962, has maintained an office in Room 422-424, Manhattan Building, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

On July 16, 1947, JOSEPH ALBERT POSKONKA, a member of the Communist Party (CP) from 1944 to about 1948, advised that the MCPFB was founded at a comference held in Chicago, Illinois, on May 25, 1947, and the MCPFB was to operate as the midwest organization of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB).

On May 5, 1955, a source advised that in a "Statement of Principles" issued in April, 1955, by the MCPFB, it was noted that "The purpose of the Midwest Committee shall be to seek to perpetuate for the foreign born the fundamental concepts of equality, regardless of race, color, creed, nationality, political belief or place of birth, and to preserve the basic ideals of liberty and hospitality which serve as the guarantees of democracy for all Americans."

A second source as of May 14, 1963, advised that the MCPFB continued to function as the midwest organization of the ACPFB and still adhered to its "Statement of Principles" last published in 1955.

The ACPFB has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NATIONAL STUDENT CONFERENCE FOR ACADEMIC FREEDOM, EQUALITY AND PEACE

A source advised in April, 1952, that the National Student Conference for Academic Freedom, Equality and Peace (NSCAFEP) was held at Madison, Wisconsin, April 25-27, 1952.

This source advised in August, 1952, that Harvey Cohen, one of the originators and most prominent leaders of the NSCAFEP, had stated its object was to promote unity of student action, thereby enabling the "left force" to extend its influence. Cohen further stated, according to the source, that the object of Labor Youth League (LYL) members within the organization would be to control it.

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second source advised in September, 1953, that the NSCAFEP had ceased to function in New York City due to general apathy of original participants.

The first source advised in October, 1953, that the NSCAFEP was for all practical purposes defunct.

SOCIALIST YOUTH LEAGUE (SYL)

A source advised that the Socialist Youth League (SYL) began in 1945 when several militant members of the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL), the youth organization of the Socialist Party, accepted a proposal that they become affiliated with the Workers Party. The first issue of the group's newspaper, "Youth Action for Socialism," in October, 1945, contained an article which indicated that "...Only socialism can answer youth's needs for jobs, peace, education and a fuller life...Our organization is the only national revolutionary youth group in America."

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Independent Socialist League, contained an article concerning the creation of the Young Socialist League (YSL) which pointed out that ataunity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the YPSL and the SYL. The new organization was named the YSL.

A second source on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. Siteman, "Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes.

YOUNG PROGRESSIVES OF AMERICA

source advised during October, 1949, that the Young Prof essives of America is the Youth Division of the Progr ssive Party of Illinois.

This source advised on February 6, 1951, that the Progressi e Party of Illinois is under the control of the Communist Party (CP) and has been under its control since the inception of the Progressive Party in Illinois.

Another source advised on May 14, 1956, that from all indications the Progressive Party of Illinois was no longer in existence inasmuch as there have been no recent meetings or campaigns for funds held since early 1955.

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RALPH FERTIG

YOUNG SOCIALIST LEAGUE (YSL)

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Independent Socialist League (ISL), contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). The new organization was named the YSL.

On June 15, 1954, a source made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. Siteman, "Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL". He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes.

On April 9, 1956, a second source advised that the YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In may instances YSL members are also members of the ISL. The YSL and the ISL utilize the same printing house in New York City and the YSL publication is printed as an insert in "Labor Action." Frequently, lecturers before the YSL are ISL members.

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Young Socialist Challenge", which appeared as page five of "Labor Action," contained an undated statement from the National Action Committee of the YSL which indicated that the YSL had been dissolved. The statement appeared under the caption "Join the Young People's Socialist League."

RE: MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RALPH FERTIG

The YPSL is publicly known as the youth affiliate of the Socialist Party-Social Democratic Federation.

A third source advised on October 3, 1958, that the Chicago Branch of the YSL, which was an affiliate of the national organization, was dissolved in September, 1958, and all active members joined the Chicago unit of the YPSL.

Hobson described Goff as a trouble maker and hard to handle and stated he was contacting James Farmer, President, National CORE, in New York and requesting Farmer to issue a letter expelling Goff from CORE in Washington, D.C. RACIAL MATTERS

On July 29, 1963, PD T-1 advised that on July 21, 1963, at a meeting of the Communist Party (CP) Youth Club, Portland, Oregon, DONALD HAMERQUIST suggested that a railly ad passenger coach be rented and that Portland participants in the march on Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, favoring civil rights for Negroes, travel to the City of Washington together, HAMERQUIST expressed the hope that his proposal for "freedom trains" will catch on elsewhere in the nation. He himself is very hopeful of participating in the march.

PD T-1 further advised that DANNY RUBIN reportedly had issued a Party directive sometime prior to July 21, 1963, calling on all CP members to arrange for participation in the march, including as many Caucasians as possible.

On July 29, 1963, PD T-2 identified DONALD HAMERQUIST as a current active member of the Oregon CP state board and a member of the CP Youth Club, Portland.

According to PD T-3 on June 19, 1962, MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN is national youth director, CP, USA, and a representative of its national committee.

On July 29, 1953, PD T-2 reported that on the afternoon of July 28, 1963, at a meeting of the Oregon CP state board, Portland, DONALD HAMERQUIST referred to plans underway to organize a contingent from the Portland area for HAMERQUIST disclosed that he was taking an active part in organizing a local "freedom train," which would involve the WAACP, the Urban League Takor, party and church groups in Portland. HAMERQUIST further indicated that a local group of which he is a part, unnamed, is trying to form a coordinating committee involving the above group. The coordinating committee is also as yet unnamed.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a confidential source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member, SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty - bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On May 6, 1963, a second confidential source stated that the headquarters of the Workers World Party were located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

RACIAL MATTERS

Although statements of the leaders of organizations involved in the march on Washington set for August 28, 1963, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., plus facts reported by our sources toy date indicate a "peaceful demonstration" and that violence may be averted, nevertheless, we are bending every effort to secure in advance detailed information as to the make-up. size, and the mode of transportation of local groups which will attend, are keeping the Department and interested agencies advised of all pertinent developments, have arranged for visual and photographic coverage by Washington Field Office, and have re-emphasized security precautions with our employees should any demonstrations occur in the Federal triangle area.

Apparent through the lack of coordination existing between the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the oftentimes divergent vertebrae providing principal support to racial demonstrations, is the possibility that since organizations sponsoring the march on Washington many times have not presented a unified front on a local basis, it will be even more difficult for the march leaders to establish a cohesive operation on a nation-wide basis. For example, information received 7/24/63 from our Little Rock sources specifically pointed up such a situation when the CORE representative issued statements concerning an "ultimatum" which was going to be forthcoming if racial conditions were not improved while NAACP leaders in the area separated themselves from this position with "no comment" answers to press

Our source at a principal focal point of racial activity, Albany, Georgia, indicated exhortations were being made to recruit marchers on a pay-your-way basis. Although local authorities have been gravely beset with demonstration problems, by the same token demonstrators have experienced a drain on funds and energies which may have developed a recruiting problem.

All divisions have been ordered to alert Klan and hate informants, racial informants, and other sources to obtain specific details concerning the formation of delegates, mode of travel, and other pertinent details. All divisions have likewise been instructed to maintain close liaison with security informants for information as to possible participation of subversive organizations. Each SAC has been impressed with the fact this is a personal and continuing responsibility.

The Domestic Intelligence Division has learned that an official of the Communist Party USA at a meeting of functionaries held 7/11/63 stated the party should finance people to attend the march on Washington, although no formal organization exists along these lines. The possibility of communist participation has been furnished to the Civil Rights Division and the Internal Security Division of the Department by Domestic Intelligence. Any further developments along this line will be made known immediately to interested divisions of the Department and other appropriate agencies.

The assurance of orderly activity given by demonstration leaders is complemented by recognition of their right to demonstrate announced publicly by the Administration, the incentive that violence might prejudice possible passage of favorable legislation plus advanced planning by the Washington Metropolitan Police Department. Washington Field is maintaining close liaison with the Metropolitan Police Department so as to be informed of plans of local police authorities.

Reports from a confidential source which has been authorized to provide close coverage of Clarence Jones, the attorney for Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., will be watched closely by the Domestic Intelligence Division for pertinent information for our own intelligence and dissemination purposes. Initially the Attorney General requested such coverage of the Reverend Mr. King but later indicated he had decided not to authorize such.

The Laboratory Division is alerted personnel-wise and equipment-wise as to the special needs for photographic coverage and other possible demands for urgent laboratory examinations as well as communication needs of the Washington-Field Office and has coordinated this matter with Washington Field.

The Special Investigative Division, which occupies first floor space in close proximity to the public entrances and public corridors, has especially alerted all employees to the need for the utmost discretion in their conduct both in and out of the building, the need for security precautions, and the desirability of remaining away from windows and continuing in their normal duties during any demonstration which might occur. Pursuant to my memorandum of 7/19/63 all other divisions also have been alerted to emphasize to all employees the need to be most circumspect in conduct in and out of the building and to re-emphasize our security precautions which are always in effect.

As previously indicated Washington Field Office is coordinating the investigative activities necessary for coverage of events which may take place, and pursuant to my memorandum of 7/19/63 Supervisor Joseph C. Trainor, Room 2266, is correlating information concerning the demonstration at the Seat of Government.

The suggestion of the Laboratory Division that some Seat of Government Bureau automobiles should be dispersed away from the building so that any bottling up may be prevented has been referred to the Administrative Division for consideration.

As a matter of information, WFO has advised the cars of the Washington Field Office will be operated out of the usual storage facilities, located out of the proposed demonstration area, and controlled from the investigative headquarters of the field office, being deployed as the need for coverage develops in the event of a demonstration.

The Administrative Division, in addition to alerting all employees, has noted the possibility that a larger-than-usual number of applicants for Bureau employment might appear on August 28, 1963, and, therefore, has made arrangements for a sufficient supply of materials and the presence of Special Agent Supervisors to conduct applicant interviews called for.

The Administrative Division has also been in contact with the Superintendent of the General Services Administration Protection Branch for the Justice Building which has advised that maximum available guard force will be arranged for August 28 through adjusting reporting hours, changing days off and in some cases cancelling annual leave of guards. Superintendent of the Protection Branch has advised that if developments appear to warrant it, consideration will be given to closing all entrances of the Justice Building with the exception of the Ninth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue entrance and the Tenth Street automobile entrance, both of which are patrolled by guards.

The Inspection Division has alerted all personnel with reference to security precautions and conduct and is submitting a separate memorandum to that effect.

Although separate memoranda are not being submitted at this time by divisions other than those named above, the following action has been taken by these divisions as of July 29, 1963.

The Identification Division, although housed in a building to which the public is not generally admitted, has arranged to establish extra security patrols on each entrance. In addition, Special Agent Supervisors will be stationed in the vicinity of entrances during the duration of the demonstration. However, so as to avoid generating a premature wave of alarm among clerical employees of the Identification Division, actual discussions of special security precautions will be withheld until a later date.

The Training Division has, in addition to alerting employees, instituted considerations as to whether a possible training schedule change will be necessary in view of the problem of traffic congestion and demands on housing which may occur during the demonstration. The Training Division will be in contact with the Administrative Division on this point.

Files and Communications Division, in addition to alerting personnel, will take extra precautions with respect to the courier service between the Riddell, Justice and Identification Division Buildings noting it may become necessary to reroute or suspend this service temporarily. The security patrol force will be especially alerted and consideration will be given to locking the doors to this division's space if developments so warrant.

The Crime Records Division has advised that no additional action is being taken at this time in addition to the general alert already in effect.

ACTION:

We will continue to disseminate promptly all pertinent information received from our racial, Klan and hate-type informants and other sources to the Department and other interested agencies and you will be immediately advised of pertinent developments in this matter.

On July 31, 1963, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the following occurred at a meeting of "The Worker" Bazaar Committee on July 29, 1963 at Adelphi Hall, New York City:

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Louis Weinstock announced the Communist Party (CP) would obtain a bus with a banner "Freedom of the Press" to be sent to Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963 and that the people who would distribute "The Worker" and other literature would probably be on that bus.

The masthead of the July 28, 1963 issue of "The Worker" reflects Louis Weinstock is the Business Manager of that publication.

Bernice Finton and Rebecca Lerner stated they planned to go to Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963, and Linton indicated "The Worker" and other CP literature would be distributed there.

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in May 1962, advised that on May 15, 1962 a meeting of the Garment Region, Industrial Division, New York State CP, was held in the apartment of Rebecca Lerner, 210 West 21st Street, New York City, and that Lerner was present at this meeting.

Marian Knight stated she and her husband, Arthur Knight, were going to Washington, D.C., with the Negro American Labor Council group. According to Marian Knight, Negro leaders have stated no literature of any sort should be distributed and that busses should be unmarked. Knight said the people riding on their bus would be escorted from the bus to the Lincoln Memorial, and back to the bus.

On January 7, 1963, a fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Arthur and Marian Knight attended a New York County CP Conference on January 5, 1963 at 575 6th Avenue, New York City. According to the source, those attending the meeting were there by, special invitation of the New York County CP leadership and were reported to be the leading active CP members of the clubs which made up the New York County CP.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RACIAL MATTERS

On July 26, 1963, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Student Civil Rights Planning Group met at the Central Baptist Church, 2200 Wylie Avenue, Pittsburgh 19, Pa., on July 25, 1963. Above group was formed to promote the "March to Washington" on August 28, 1963. Joseph Kransdorf, son of Herbert Kransdorf, the Communist Party of Western Pennsylvania (CPWP) Organizer, was one of the organizers present.

It was pointed out at the above meeting the March on Washington was needed; that a march is an outward protest against the indignities and injustices suffered by the American-Negro; that it was the responsibility of both the white and Negro citizens to register a protest against discrimination; and that whites and Negroes alike should support the present administration's Civil Rights Bill.

It was brought out at the above meeting that a door-to-door solicitation for funds would be necessary to defray the expenses of chartering a train or bus; and the Pittsburgh youth must be aroused to the urgency of supporting the march.

Source pointed out that mention was made that above planning group was negotiating with similar planning groups of the Americans For Democratic Action and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The above source advised that on July 24, 1963, a meeting was held at the residence of Herbert Kransdorf, 5555 Beeler Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., the primary purpose of which was to consider reactivating the Western Pennsylvania Constitutional Liberties Information Center (WPCLIC); that Herbert Kransdorf suggested that the WPCLIC should operate in the fields of civil rights and labor; that the WPCLIC should promote the March on Washington, D. C., operating with existing civil rights groups such as, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; that the WPCLIC should formulate petitions to congressmen, send delegates to Washington, send a commission to visit the Mayor of Pittsburgh, and formulate ways to raise money.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES INFORMATION CENTER

On February 5, 1962, a source advised that the Western Pennsylvania Constitutional Liberties Information Center (WPCLIC) was formed in Pittsburgh, Pa., in the Fall of 1961 by Herbert Kransdorf, Organizer, Communist Party of Western Pennsylvania, for the purpose of disseminating literature attacking the McCarran and Smith Acts and the U.S. Supreme Court decision regarding the Communist Party-USA.

On February 9, 1962, another source advised that Herbert Kransdorf, Secretary to the WPCLIC and its only official, had disseminated literature opposing the McCarran and Smith Acts through Post Office Box 7482, Pittsburgh 13, Pa., which literature was issued by the WPCLIC and the Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties in New York City.

On April 26, 1963, the first source advised that Kransdorf continued to be active as Secretary of the WPCLIC at Pittsburgh and that his WPCLIC activities are closely related to his responsibilities of carrying out the Communist Party's program in the Pittsburgh area.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of National Committee member, SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On April 18, 1962, the source stated that the head-quarters of the Workers World Party were located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP and the CP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

March on Washington August 23, 1963 —

All sources mentioned herein have furnished reliable information in the past.

Source Number One reported on July 18, 1963, that in a discussion during a Marxism-Leninism class held on July 17, 1963, at 2632 Glendale Street, Detroit, Michigan, between Carlinter, William Allan and others, the fact that President Kennedy had endorsed the pending freedom demonstration in Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963, was discussed. It was mentioned that the Communist Party, USA, (CP), will do everything possible to participate and to use this demonstration. Carl Winter made it clear the CP is not happy at all because President Kennedy spoke out in favor of the demonstration since this will insure its peacefulness and diminish CP participation.

Source Number Two advised on September 10, 1962, that as of July 19, 1962, Carl Winter was a member of the CP, USA, National Committee, and the CP, USA, Executive Committee.

Source Number Three advised on June 11, 1963, that William Allan is a member of the Coordinating Committee of the Michigan District CP.

Source Number Four advised that on August 1, 1963, Carl Winter mentioned he had made an effort in Detroit on the previous day to try and find out about the march on Washington, scheduled for August 28, 1963, and no one seemed to know anything about the affair. Winter said the only thing he could find out at the NAACP Office in Detroit was that they have a train schedule to Washington. Winter commented that the only thing he knew of at the present time was that one train holding 750 people would be going from Detroit to Washington and that this was not sufficient participation.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON (MOW) August 28, 1963

A confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised August 6, 1963, that the Jewish Commission of the Southern California District Communist Panty (SCDCP) met August 5, 1963, in Los Angeles, and WILLIAM C. TAYLOR and BENIDOBBS were present.

WILLIAM C. TAYLOR is Chairman of the Negro Commission, SCDCP and BEN DOBBS is presently Executive Secretary of the SCDCP.

TAYLOR discussed the position of the Jewish Commission in the Negro struggle, and in discussing the above MOW he recommended that the SCDCP send a representative. He advised those present that a group which he did not further identify, is making plans for a Los Angeles delegation of about 150 persons to go and participate in the MOW and mentioned they intend to charter an airlines flight to leave Los Angeles for Washington, D. C., the night of August 27, 1963. TAYLOR added that this unidentified group plans a large demonstration at the Los Angeles Airport prior to flight time.

Another source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 5, 1963, that she heard Reverend MAURICE DAWKINS, a Los Angeles minister and member of the Executive Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Poeple (NAACP)-United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), Los Angeles, state publicly on August 5, 1963, that a "March on Washington Committee" Los Angeles, had been formed with DAWKINS as its local head.

DAWKINS was heard to state there will be about 150 Los Angeles delegates to the MOW representing various local civil rights groups, but he did not discuss their mode of Reference is made to memorandum, dated August 5, 1963.

On August 9, 1963, Edward P. Gleeson, Trans World Airlines (TWA), Account Executive, 37 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised that Reverend Richard Prosser, Chicago, Illinois, representing the Chicago Area Committee for the March on Washington, has chartered a TWA plane that will carry ninety-one passengers. This plane will depart O'Hare Airport, Chicago, Illinois, at 6:00 a.m. on August 28, 1963, and arrive at the Washington National Airport, Washington, D. C., at 6:45 a.m. on August 28, 1963. The plane will depart Washington. D. C., at approximately 6:00 p.m. on August 28, 1963, and will arrive at Chicago at 8:45 p.m. on August 28, 1963. He added that a passenger list will not be available until several days before August 28, 1963.

He added that they have been gaining a lot of support in Chicago for this March and various churches and unions have offered their help. He stated that arrangements are being made with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in Chicago to charter a train to leave during the afternoon of August 27, 1963, from Chicago, Illinois, and this train will leave Washington, D. C., for Chicago after the March on August 28, 1963. He stated he plans to go to Washington, D. C., on this train and that undoubtedly other people will travel by plame, bus and private automobile. He said he believes that at least 2,000 persons from Chicago will participate in the March and they expect to receive instructions regarding the March itself when they arrive at Washington, D. C. He said it is hoped that the delegation from each state will be able to use a church in Washington, D. C. as their headquarters.

Chicago T-1 advised on August 8, 1963, that Martha Starr, 536 West Arlington Place, Chicago, Illinois, has stated she is going to the March on Washington, but did not indicate her mode of travel.

Chicago T-1 advised during August, 1963, that Martha Starr was currently a member of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

Chicago T-2 advised on August 5, 1963, that Harry Canter and his wife, Frieda Canter, 5301 North Kenmore Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, are planning to drive to Washington, D. C., for the March on Washington, although it is not known when they plan to Leave or when they plan to return.

Chicago T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during September, 1960, that as of September, 1960, Harry Canter was a member of the CP of Illinois.

WOMEN'S PEACE AND UNITY CLUB, Formerly known as the Chicago Women for Peace

The aims and purposes of the Chicago Women for Peace (CWP) as set forth in its self-identified publication, "Chicago Acts for Peace" (CAP), May, 1951, issue, describes this organization as a "service center for women working for peace." This publication described the CWP as being affiliated with the American Women for Peace and as cooperating with the American Peace Crusade (APC).

The January, 1954, issue of "CAP" announced the dissolution of the American Women for Peace and the affiliation of the CWP with the APC Council in Chicago.

A source advised in November, 1956, that the CWP remained affiliated with the APC, Chicago, until that organization dissolved in September, 1955. The CWP continued with no national affiliation until September, 1956, then 2 "reorganization and name change took place," and it became known as the "Women's Peace and Unity Club" (WPUC). The reason given for this "reorganization and name change" by DOROTHY HAYES, Secretary of the organization at that time, was that the CWP had been formed to end the Korean War, and since that war was over and there was a "measure of peace in the world," women's interests were more centered on such issues as civil rights, desegregated and better schools, juvenile delinquency, equal opportunities for women, housing, and cost of living. Source advised that the only actual "reorganization" of the CWP was the change of its name to "Women's Peace and Unity Club."

A second source advised in October, 1956, that the Communist Party (CP), Illinois-Indiana District, had ordered the dissolution of the CWP because it no longer served the purpose of the Party since it was a "left-wing" peace group. Though the CWP refused to dissolve and chose to continue in the form of the "Women's Peace and Unity Club," it continues to be a "communist front organization" whose policies and activities are directed by CP members.

A third source advised on May 14, 1963, that the WPUC, as of that date, continued to operate in the Chicago area as a peace organization under the direction and control of CP members and its objectives continued to be the same.

The American Women for Peace and the APC have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This article set forth substantially the same information as appeared in the above mentioned article in the "Pittsburgh Post--Gazette" newspaper. It did state, however, that the Civil Rights March on Washington was expecting about 2000 Pittsburghers to take part; that according to Frank Montero, Pittsburgh was a little behind the other cities on the Eastern Seaboard in getting ready for the demonstrations, but from what he had seen, Pittsburgh should not have any trouble in catching up; and that it was going to be the largest effort of its kind but was going to be a peaceful demonstration to show that unemployed workers, both Negro and white, in this country want sound and meaningful

D.C. MOLLY CARDYGHILLY

The 1959 Pittsburgh City Directory lists a Sylvester (Molly Y.) Garrett, chairman, Board of Arbitration, as residing at 509 South Linden, Pittsburgh, Pa.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group, under the leadership of national committee member SAM BALLAN, known in the SWP as SAM MARCY, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved cooperation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery - individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to the source, advocates the unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, the source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party with headquarters located at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MONROE DEFENSE COMMITTEE (MDC) CLEVELAND, OHIO

A source advised on February 16, 1962, that GERALD QUINN, a member of the Workers World Party (WWP) from New York, was sent to Cleveland, Ohio, in October, 1961, by the Monroe Defense Committee (MDC) of New York to organize an MDC in Cleveland, and that QUINN, with the aid of TED and FRANCES DOSTAL, members of the WWP, and WILLIE MAE MALLORY, organized an MDC in Cleveland, with headquarters at 1289 East 115th Street.

On May 29, 1963, source related that the purpose of the MDC in Cleveland is to aid in the support of WILLIE MAE MALLORY in her fight against extradition to Monroe, North Carolina.

On August 31, 1961, two true bills of indictment were returned against WILLIE MAE MALLORY by a Grand Jury in Superior Court, Union County, Monroe, North Carolina, charging MALLORY with two counts of kidnapping of Mr. G. BRUCE STEGALL—and MAYBELL STEGALL on August 27, 1961.

A second source on May 26, 1963, related that the headquarters of the MDC in Cleveland is located at 10517 Superior Avenue, with CLARENCE SENIORS as Chairman.

A third source in November, 1962, related that CLARENCE SENIORS is a member of the WWP.

LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD CONFERENCE, formerly known as the Labor-Negro Vanguard Party

In a press release dated November 18, 1961, the LABOR-NEGRO VANGUARD PARTY (LNVP) stated:

"The growing influence of the irredentist forces upon the policies of our nation as indicated by the alarming drift towards war and the outlawing of the COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) has accentuated the need for all radical, progressive and liberal forces to unite in a common party."

In a leaflet entitled "Call to Progressive Minded America" issued by the LNVP, its founding convention was scheduled for November 25, 1961, in New York City. The aims and purposes were listed as:

- 1. For the resurgence of the American Labor Movement.
- 2. For the winning of the struggle for Negro rights.
- 3. For an end of the cold war.
 - 4. For economic security and higher mass living standards.
 - 5. For the end of the exploitation of man by man.

A third source advised on March 7, 1962, that the SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (SWP) and the LNVP are working closely in efforts to bring disgruntled CP members to their respective camps and are working jointly in the political field. FARRELL DOBES, National Secretary of the SWP, has asked SWP members to support the LNVP.

On June 28, 1963, the first source stated that the LNVC does not exist on a national scale; and although CLARENCE COGGINS, Chairman of the LNVC, has traveled through the eastern portion of the country to promote the LNVC, the only organized group to date exists in New Jersey.

The SWP hopes to dramatize this incident nationally and internationally through the CAMD and thus attract individuals to the SWP aims and principles by playing a leading role in the integration struggle.

According to the source, the organization and impetus of CAMD activities throughout the various parts of the United States such as obtaining sponsors and the raising of funds, are the results of the efforts of various SWP branches.

CG T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 8, 1963, that Samuel Davis, who resides at Chicago, Illinois, has stated that he and is wife Ellen Davis and William Allan from Detroit, Michigan, will be going to the March on Washington. Davis said he and his wife are going on a vacation trip by car and will stop someplace and leave their car and go on to Washington, D.C. by train. Davis said that they hoped to get to Washington, D.C. a day or two before the March takes place and they hope to stay in either the Hamilton Hotel or the Lake Tower Motor Inn in Washington, D.C.

cG T-1 added that Davis stated that a special edition of "The Worker" will be issued on August 22, 1963, regarding the March on Washington and Davis said that probably no literature would be distributed during the official program in Washington, D.C. MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RACIAL MATTERS

A final summary of information pertaining to a Minnesota delegation to participate in the above captioned March on Washington, hereafter referred to as the March, was obtained from a confidential informant, MP T-1, on and between August 8 and 12, 1963. MP-T-1 together with all other sources designated by T symbols in this memorandum and all sources in the appendix thereto have provided reliable information in the past. MP T-1, except as noted, advised as follows:

The March is being sponsored in the State of Minnesota by the Minnesota March to Washington Committee.
The principal officers are Matthew Little, Chairman;
Marilyn Muller, Secretary; Doctor Thomas Johnson, and Rabbi Hoses Sachs, Treasurer. These individuals, according to MP T-1 and MP T-2, are well known in the Twin Cities, Minnesota area and are deemed loyal and trustworthy individuals.

In preparation for the March a great deal of publicity material was distributed requesting the recipients to register to attend the March in person or to make donations so that others who could not afford the journey could participate. A newspaper report published locally requested that any contributions be sent to the Minnesota March to Washington Fund at the Chicago-Lake State Bank, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The Minnesota March to Washington Committee is supported, MP T-1 continued, by a number of small Negro groups and by the local organization of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP). Curtis Chivers, a ranking officer of the local NAACP, was at first reluctant to throw the support of his group behind the Washington March Committee. Reverend Lovell Johnson, a Pastor in a Minneapolis church having a predominantly Negro membership is known to have commented that, the March having been given so much publicity, it would be difficult to keep out the communists and other subversives. Mr. Chivers, however, ultimately did bring the support of the NAACP behind the Minnesota March Committee and was given assurances that every possible measure would be taken to keep the Minnesota delegation free of subversive influences.

ATIONAL SECURITY INFOLUTIONS

The contributions made to the Minnesota Committee have not as yet been completely tabulated. It is known that a number of labor groups have promised support.

Thusfar, according to both MP T-1 and MP T-2, there has been no appreciable nor effective communist or otherwise subversive influences on the activities of the Linnesota March to Washington Committee.

In July 1963, Betty Smith, who is an active and leading member of the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party (MDDCP), had made attempts to place certain individuals which as yet have been unnamed by her on the committee and in the delegation from Minnesota which will go to Washington. It is known that on the morning of August 12, 1963, Ralph Taylor, Chairman, MDDCP, approached another member of the MDDCP to discuss the possibilities of having a person named by Taylor go to Washington with the Minnesota delegation. MP T-1 has indicated that the participation of this individual in the March is an extremely remote possibility.

The Minnesota delegation will depart Minneapolis-St.Paul International Airport on a chartered American Airlines plane between 3 A.M. and 4 A.M. on August 28, 1963. Before any person will be permitted to board the plane that person will be required to execute a formal non-violence pledge which restricts that person from engaging in violence of any character whatever the provocation might be. The pledge cautions that any participant in the delegation who is involved in violence will be summarily abandoned by the remainder of the delegation and will not be permitted to return to Minneapolis aboard the chartered plane. The delegation will return to Minneapolis on the evening of August 28, 1963.

Present plans are that a vehicle, probably a bus, provided by the Washington, D.C. committee, will pick up the Minnesota delegation at the Washington, D.C. airport.

Upon their arrival in downtown Washington the Minnesota delegation will meet with all or at least several members of the Minnesota Congressional delegation. Subsequently they will march to the Capitol in accordance with the plans to be made by the organization handling the details of the March at Washington.

All reservations to take the chartered airliner to Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963, are made with Mr. Frederick E. Smith, an official of the Minneapolis Urban League, Northwest Federal Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota. As of August 12, 1963, the following named persons were listed as holding reservations to attend the March at Washington. It should be borne in mind, however, that in some instances the person named will not attend but will designate a substitute. In those instances where substitutions are possible or likely notations will be made at the end of the list. In reference to the reservation of Reverend Max A. Shapiro, he has asked for three seats. It is unknown whom he will designate to attend.

Anthony DeMaio mentioned below holds one reservation. He has not indicated whether he will attend in person or nominate a substitution.

In regard to Anthony DeMaio:

MP T-3 on December 23, 1957, advised that at a meeting of a club of the MDDCP at Minneapolis, on November 21, 1957, membership in the CP was discussed. In connection therewith it was mentioned that Anthony DeMaio had dropped out of the CP after a fight with Leo Giovannini.

MP T-2 advised on July 12, 1956, that DeMaio and Giovannini had had a fight at a picnic on July 4, 1956.

MP T-3 advised on August 12, 1963, that in 1956 and thereafter Giovannini had been and is an active member of the MDDCP.

In regard to Robert Baum:

MP T-4 advised on April 8, 1963, that Robert Baum, Excelsior, Minnesota, had held a subscription to "The Worker", expiring on March 9, 1963.

On July 3, 1963, MP T-5 advised that Robert Baum attended a National Council meeting of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC), which is characterized in the appendix and thereafter attended the annual PYOC School at Camp Midvale in New Jersey, from June 25 to June 30, 1963.

During February and March 1962, MP T-6 advised that Baum attended seven functions of the New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSMS) between February 7, 1962 and March 27, 1962. The NYSMS is characterized in the appendix.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 18, 1962, a second source advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held in New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years.

On May 7, 1963, a third source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

APPENDIX

THE NEW YORK SCHOOL-FOR MARXIST STUDIES Formerly known as The People's School for Marxist Studies

In September, 1960, a source advised that Betty Gannett announced at a meeting of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CP, USA) New York District (NYD), Staff, held September 16, 1960, that the People's School for Marxist Studies (PSES) was founded in September, 1960, as the result of a decision of the CP, USA, NYD.

"The Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper, in its issue of December 11, 1960, identified Betty Gannett as a full-time member of the New York State CP Staff in the capacity of Organizational and Educational Director.

"The Worker" of September 18, 1960, included an announcement regarding the PSMS, Room 1922, 853 Broadway, New York, New York, reflecting that the Fall Term would extend from October 17, 1960, through November 23, 1960, and that the SCOPE (Youth) Classes would extend from October 7, 1960, through November 11, 1960.

"The Worker" of October 16, 1960, announced the opening of the New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSES) with general classes beginning October 17, 1960, and SCOPE (Youth) Classes beginning October 14, 1960. The address of the School is Room 1922, 853 Broadway at 14th Street, New York. New York.

During April and May, 1962, a second source furnished information that the MYSMS was then in operation at 853 Broadway, New York, New York.

The Spring Term, 1962, Bulletin of the NYSMS reflects Dr. Herbert Aptheker as the Director of the School.

A third source advised on December 14, 1959, that at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA held December 10 - 13, 1959, Herbert Aptheker was elected a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA.

APPENDIX

THE NEW YORK SCHOOL FOR MARXIST STUDIES, Formerly known as The People's School for Marxist Studies

The April, 1962, issue of "Political Affairs," self-described as the theoretical organ of the CP, USA, reflects that Herbert Aptheker is the Editor.

A characterization of SCOPE is included in the appendix.

STUDENT COMMITTEE ON PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION (SCOPE)

A confidential source advised on June 16, 1958, that the Student Committee on Progressive Education (SCOPE) was formed in early 1958, by a group of individuals who were believed to be, by the source, sympathizers of the former Labor Youth League (LYL).

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second confidential source advised on November 20, 1958, that at the third day's session of the National Executive Committee (NEC), Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), held that day in New York City, Robert Thompson, Executive Secretary, CPUSA, stated that in New York there is a group of about 21 youths who have been a very active force in youth and formed a group called SCOPE, a Student Committee on Progressive Education, which has run for the last year with young people with a Marxist character. Thompson stated that approximately 8 or 10 of this group are CP members.

A third confidential source advised on March 24, 1959, that during a meeting of the NEC, CPUSA, held on March 21, 1959, Hyman Lumer, CPUSA Educational Director, stated that in New York most of the discussions on youth are between the National Office (CP) and two groups of young people who function in New York which are either Party groups or pro-Party groups. The first group is called SCOPE (Student Committee on Progressive Education) and this group stands closest to the CP leadership.

A fourth confidential source made available on March 23, 1961, a mimeographed letter signed by "The SCOPE Committee." This letter sets forth that last fall SCOPE became a part of the newly formed New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSMS) as its autonomous youth division.

APPENDIX

The Spring Term 1963 Bulletin of the NYSMS states that SCOPE is trying to provide conditions in which youth can broaden their knowledge and improve their understanding of this changing, perplexing, and exciting age. The goal of SCOPE is "to provide a unique opportunity for the study and discussionof Marxism."

On May 17, 1963, the fourth source advised that SCOPE continues to share the office space in Room 19622, 853 Broadway, New York City, with the NYSMS.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON August 28, 1963

SL T-1 advised on August 9, 1963 that the headquarters of the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) in New York City was sending to the St. Louis area approximately 8,000 leaflets and 500 three to four page booklets pertaining to the March on Washington. These were for dissemination among people possibly interested, however, none of them have arrived as yet. This source stated that other organizations in the St. Louis area were being invited to participate in the march and these organizations included integrationist organizations, labor and social organizations. Source stated that attempts are being made at this time to raise funds to finance the trip to Washington inasmuch as it had been ascertained that the chartering of a bus would cost approximately $800.00 or more from St. Louis. This source said no bus had yet been chartered inasmuch as personnel willing to go are lacking.

This source also stated that the plans call for the hiring of a Greyhound Bus which would take the group to Washington, D.C., where they would remain during the daytime only and immediately return with no stopover. The source stated that there was a feeling among NALC leaders that the Committee on Racial Equality (CORE) was attempting to take over a part of this march and this was resented on the part of NALC officials. This source reiterated that there is no enthusiasm in St. Louis for this trip. He knew of no one who was going.

SL T-2 advised on August 8, 1963 it was his opinion there would be a very small representation from the St. Louis area in view of the great distance to Washington, D.C. and the cost involved. SL T-2 advised that he felt attempts were being made to make the trip a peaceful one in every respect and that at least from the St. Louis area there was a feeling that any demonstration in Washington which might take place might center around the United States Senate inasmuch as it was felt the greatest problem with civil rights legislation and civil rights matters was encountered in the Senate of the United States rather than any other branch of the Government. This source knew of no one who was making the trip.

SL T-3 advised that to his knowledge no one was going from the St. Louis area on the Washington, D.C. trip on August 28, 1963 and he felt the reason for this was the cost involved especially as it applies to those who might make the trip not being financially able to do so.

SL T-4 advised on August 8, 1963 that it was his understanding nearly forty people had expressed an interest in making the trip to Washington, D.C., and that this number would be one bus load. This source stated that it is his understanding there would be three drivers on the one bus in order that the bus would not make a stop en route to Washington or on the return trip. This was to avoid the possibility of incident. This source stated that the bus, which would be Greyhound, would not be in Washington, D.C. more than twelve hours and it was anticipated no problems en route except possibly in the immediate suburban area around Washington, D.C.

On August 9, 1963, SL T-5 advised that Ower Lutz, whom the informant described as a member of the Freedom of the Press Committee (characterized in the attached appendix), stated that he had attempted to contribute to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), St. Louis, Missouri, sufficient money for the transportation of Dolores Richardson for the trip on August 28, 1963. This source described Dolores Richardson on August 9, 1963 as a member of the Communist Party, St. Louis, Missouri.

SL T-5 also advised at this time that Owen Lutz was refused by the NAACP in his offer for a contribution to have Dolores Richardson go. The source said that the NAACP had advised

Lutz that they would not take his money nor would they permit Dolores Richardson to make the trip under any circumstances in view of the fact that she was a woman of loose morals and one whose character was no good and could only bring discredit upon the NAACP. This source knew of no one who was making the trip to Washington, D.C.

SL T-6 advised on August 8 and 9, 1963 from information available to him even though there have been two inquiries made regarding bus transportation to Washington, D.C., no plans have yet been made to actually charter or reserve a bus to go to . Washington, D.C. from the St. Louis area. This source advised that it was his understanding inquiry has also been made in Kansas City, Missouri regarding the chartering or reserving of a bus to leave from Kansas City, Missouri and a second bus to leave from Kansas City, Kansas for Washington, D.C. on August 28, This source advised that only inquiries have been made and no actual reservations. The source stated that the cost of chartering a bus would be somewhere between $800.00 and $900.00 and that no bus could be reserved until this money were actually deposited. This source also advised that if a Greyhound Bus were chartered for the occasion, the bus would go non-stop from St. Louis to Washington, D.C., and non-stop return and takes approximately 24 hours for the trip one way. This source stated that the only stops the bus would make would be for rest periods and food and the food facilities where the bus would stop would only be those utilized by Greyhound. This source also advised on August 9, 1963 that unless a bus were reserved or chartered about ten days before August 28, 1963, it would be very difficult to charter one after that time for the 28th.

ST. LOUIS FREEDOM OF THE PRESS COMMITTEE

On October 29, 1951, a source advised that the Freedom of the Press Committee was organized in St. Louis in the fall of 1951 for the purpose of increasing the circulation of "The Worker" and the "Daily Worker".

On March 8, 1954, Reverend OBADIAH JONES, who was a witness for the Government in the St. Louis Smith Act trial in March, 1954, advised that the principal activities of the Communist Party in the St. Louis area at that time were concentrated in various front organizations of which the Freedom of the Press Committee was one.

In May, 1963, a source advised that the Freedom of the Press Committee is one of the front organizations in the St. Louis area in which the activity of the Communist Party is concentrated; that the Committee's purpose continues to be distribution of "The Worker"; and that the organization has been continuously under the complete control and domination of the Communist Party in the St. Louis, Missouri area since he became acquainted with it in 1955.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON August 28, 1963

An article in the Cleveland "Plan Dealer," daily Cleveland, Ohio, newspaper, on August 12,1963, stated that the United Freedom Movement is seeking 362 responsible citizens with a sincere interest in civil rights make a trip to Washington, D. C., for the August 28, 1963 demonstration.

It is noted that the United Freedom Movement is an amalgamation of over thirty organizations in the Cleveland area interested in civil rights and desegnation matters. Clarence H. Holmes, President of the Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), is head of the United Freedom Movement, and Harold B. Williams, Executive Secretary of the Cleveland NAACP, is coordinator of the Movement.

According to the article, officials of the United Freedom Movement announced that troublemakers would be screened out and would not be allowed to make reservations.

The article also stated that reservations could be made at the local NAACP office and that contributions were being solicited to pay the fare of jobless Negroes who would be part of a delegation of the unemployed to present a bill of particulars at the White House.

The article further reflected that no children under fourteen years of age will be permitted to go, and the use of private automobiles is being discouraged because of congestion on the highways.

The United Freedom Movement announced that seven buses will be chartered and each will carry a volunteer doctor and nurse. In addition to the buses, which will carry 300 persons, a chartered plane will take 63 passengers to the rally. The bus fare for the trip was quoted as $15 and the plane fare as $40.

Re: MARCH ON WASHINGTON August 28, 1963

The article stated that the buses will leave Cleveland at 7:00 PM on August 27, 1963, and will leave Washington as soon as the demonstration is over on August 28, 1963.

On the same date, another article in the Cleveland "Plain Dealer," reflected that the Cleveland chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) plans to send a total of 78 persons on two chartered buses to the August 28, 1963, demonstration. The article reflected that the buses will leave Cleveland at 12:00 midnight on August 27, 1963.

On August 12, 1963, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the buses sponsored by CORE will return to Cleveland as soon as the march is over in Washington on August 28, 1963. He stated he had heard that two or three members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) might go to Washington for the demonstration but did not know as yet if they would go with the CORE group. He stated that these SWP members do not plan to cause any trouble and would not make their identities as SWP members known if they go with a group.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

An article in the August 12, 1963, issue of the "Chronicle-Telegram," an Elyria, Ohio, daily newspaper, reflected that the Reverend George Short, President of the Elyria chapter of the NAACP, announced that his group would hire a bus to take Elyrians to Washington for the march on August 28, 1963.

Re: March on Washington August 28, 1963

The Bennington, Vermont daily newspaper "Bennington Banner," issues of July 31, 1963 and August 6, 1963, reported the formation of the "Vermont March for Civil Rights" at a gathering in Bennington on July 30, 1963 to organize participation in the March on Washington to be held August 28, 1963.

Irving Adler (also known as Isaak Adler) and his wife, Ruth Adler, were mentioned as being active in the organizing group.

These news articles indicated efforts have been made to enlist endorsement and support by local church groups and by the Bennington Labor Council. It was reported that as of August 6, 1963 15 persons have indicated their intention to make the trip to Washington, D.C., traveling by bus (Yellow Coach Lines, Inc. of Pittsfield, Massachusetts), leaving Bennington the morning of August 27, 1963 and returning late on August 28, 1963.

On January 24, 1952, Patrick J. O'Halpin, Bayside, Long Island, New York, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP), advised he knew Ruth Adler, wife of Isaak Adler, to have been a member of the Bayside club of the CP in 1945-46. O'Halpin stated most of the meetings of the Baycide club were held in the homes of 2 members, 1 of them being Isaak Adler.

He advised Ruth Adler attended meetings of the Bayside club during 1945 and 1946, during which time O'Halpin observed the CP membership cards of Adler and other members of that group many times, when they paid their dues at club meetings. O'Halpin advised that Ruth Adler's husband, Isaak, was the first chairman of the Bayside CP club.

On August 11, 1954, Confidential Informant AL T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Ruth Adler was a subscriber in 1954 to "The Worker" and "The Daily Worker."

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

"The Daily Worker" was an East Coast daily communist newspaper, which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

Confidential Informant AL T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 30, 1953 that Isaak Adler, husband of Ruth Adler, was a CP member from at least 1943-49.

The Burlington, Vermont daily newspaper,
"Burlington Free Press," issue of August 7, 1963 reported the Burlington Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) had called upon all northern Vermont civic, religious and labor groups to join in plans for the August 28, 1963 "March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom." It was reported an NAACP representative had announced individual round-trip bus reservations would be accepted through August 1, 1963, costing $22.00, payable by check to the Burlington Branch, NAACP. It was stated the bus would leave Burlington Tuesday evening, August 27, 1963, arriving Washington, D.C. the next morning, leaving that night and arriving in Burlington early Thursday morning, August 29, 1963.

dent of the Burlington Chapter of the NAACP, stated that chapter is composed of approximately 100 paid members, but he did not know at the present time how many of these members would participate in the March on Washington. He said Burlington and Bennington, Vermont were the two coordinating areas for participants in the March on Washington. Dr. Haynes advised that plans for the trip to Washington hinge upon the number of persons going and said August 17, 1963 had been set as the deadline for reservations.

An article appeared in the Albany, New York daily newspaper "Times Union," issue of August 11, 1963, or page C1, entitled "Rally in Troy to Spur March on Washington." The article reported that a "Capital District Marchers on Washington Rally" was to be held in Troy on August 21, 1963, to bolster enthusiasm for the March on Washington, August 28, 1963. The article reported that state officers of the NAACP were expected to join NAACP branch members of Albany, Troy and Schenectady, New York at this rally. It was further reported that an initial meeting of the Tri-City Coordinating Committee was held August 9, 1963 in Albany, at which time plans were made for the rally on August 21, 1963, to be held in Troy, and arrangements made to obtain announcements from church pulpits and other publicity. Support was to be solicited from the Council of Churches, YMCA, YWCA and labor organizations of Albany, Troy and Schenectady. According to this article, it was announced the fare for the trip to Washington and return by bus would be $12.00, with a deposit of $5.00 to be made on or before August 23, 1963 and the final payment to be by August 26, 1963. Travelers would be expected to bring their own food and thermos bottles and alcoholic beverages were to be prohibited. Buses would be boarded in Albany, Troy and Schenectady and leave shortly after midnight, August 28, 1963 and return from Washington the same date.

An NAACP representative was reported as having stated it was hoped that the number who would travel to Washington would comprise the minimum of one bus load each from Albany, Troy and Schenectady, and possibly more.

Members of the coordinating committee were identified in this article, and among those named was Mrs. Jeanette Dworkin, described as Executive Board member of the Albany NAACP branch.

Confidential Informant AL T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 19, 1959 that Jeanette Dworkin was Treasurer of the Albany, New York CP until 1957, when she withdrew from the CP because of factionalism and since then had refused to register in the CP. AL T-3 has stated that her husband, Michael Dworkin, is currently Educational and Literature Director of the Albany-Schenectady CP.

PH T-1 advised on August 7, 1963, that a meeting of the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC) was held August 6, 1963, at 3617 Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., for the purpose of formulating plans for the March on Washington August 28, 1963. The following Communist Party (CP) members were present:

ELSIE DICKERSON / MELVIN "MICKEY" METEL NOLA WHARTON GLORIA STOREY JIM DOLSEN ARNOLD COLDMAN

DICKERSON told the group that JULIE BLOCH, Secretary of the ICC, had been instructed to contact and had contacted the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) to let them know the ICC was interested in working with them. She said JULIE BLOCH had attended the kick-off meeting of the Coordinating Committee which featured A. PHILIF RANDOLPH as the guest speaker. The ICC had been asked to be a sponsor of the March on Washington but had to refuse because it would have meant subscribing $500; however, they agreed to support the March. On August 9, 1963, PH T-1 said a meeting of the subcommittee of the ICC to plan the March on Washington was held August 8, 1963, at the home of JULIA BLOCH, 5437 Angora Street, Philadelphia. The following CP members were present: ELSIE DICKERSON and NOLA WHARTON. Also present was JULIA BLOCH.

The group decided the trip would cost $4.25 but the ICC would charge $5.00 in order to meet expenses. Canvassing would be done the week of August 12, 1963, at night except Friday and Saturday, to obtain participants in the March. On August 13, 1963, GEORGE WILSON, Passenger Service Representative, Pennsylvania Ratifood, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that the NAACP has chartered six cars, with a capacity of 125 passengers each, for August 28, 1963, to go to Washington, D. C., and return. The equipment is to leave Philadelphia at 6:40 a.m., from the 30th Street Station, and arrive in Washington, D. C., 9 a.m. Arrangements have been made to use 14 buses of the District of Columbia Transit Company to transport people away from the train station. The train is to leave Washington, D. C., on its return, at 7:50 p.m., and arrive in Philadelphia at 10:10 p.m. No provision has been made for the charter group to be transported back to the station for the return trip to Philadelphia after the demonstration.

WILSON, said that 2,000 tickets have been given to S. L. EVANS, the over-all coordinator for the NAACP, but that the understanding with the NAACP and the railroad is that only the car capacities of 125 each for the six cars will be honored by the railroad. The charter service must be paid for by August 20, 1963.

Characterization of Organizations

INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMITTEE (ICC)

A source advised the Independent Citizens Committee (ICC) was initiated and formed by the Communist Party, Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD) in October, 1962, to build a left-center organization which would be able to initiate political activity. As of May 22, 1963, the policies of the ICC were dominated by the CPEPD through Communist Party members who were officers and members of the ICC.

SOCIALIST YOUTH UNION OF PHILADELPHIA (SYU), aka Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP), Sunday Study Group, Winter Discussion Series 1957-1958

On July 8, 1962, BARBARA L. TICHONUK, 22 Cedar Street, Potsdam, N. Y., whose husband, JOHN M. TICHONUK, testified before the Subversive Activities Control Board on June 5, 1963, that he and his wife had been Communist Party (CP) members for the past seven years during which time they furnished information to the FBI, advised the SYU was the Philadelphia affiliate of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee. Mrs. TICHONUK advised this group had been known during 1957 and 1958 first as the "Winter Discussion Series 1957-1958" and later as the "Sunday Study Group."

A source advised on March 19, 1958, the above group adopted the name Socialist Youth Union of Philadelphia (SYU) at a meeting held March 16, 1958.

A second source advised on April 25, 1958, that DOROTHY RUBIN, a member of the Youth Club, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), reporting on CP youth to the Fourth Congressional District Section Committee, CPEPD, on April 23, 1958, stated the purpose of the SYU was to train young selected progressives for ultimate development into good Marxist-Thinking CP members who will be capable of assuming leadership in the CP.

On January 6, 1961, a third source advised the SYU had changed its name to Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP), then decided against this name and reverted to SYU.

On June 21, 1963, a fourth source advised SYU maintains a headquarters at 1426 West Bristol Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and continues to be the Philadelphia affiliate of the PYOC.

CONTINUE

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization.

On June 18, 1962, a second source advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years.

On May 7, 1963, a third source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York.

containing an application to be executed by those wishing to participate. The application states that arrangements will be made when applications are received and no accurate count will be available until approximately five days prior to the March on Washington.

The August 8, 1963, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" carried an article entitled "Scott, Clark Meet March Leaders." The article set forth that a special train would carry 1,000 to 1,550 Pittsburgh area residents to Washington for the August 28 march or behalf of civil rights for Negroes. Henry R & Smith, of Pittsburgh, the Pennsylvania State Chairman of the NAACP, headed a delegation which met with State Senators and Congressmen and participated in a legislative strategy conference with NAACP leaders from other states. The article stated that the delegates were assured that both Senators Joseph S. Clark, Deomorat, and Hugh Scott, Republican, will do what they can to help get a strong civil rights bill through the Senate this session.

On August 9, 1903, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that according to Herbert Kransdorf, the Pittsburgh local NAACP is raising money for the March on Washington and that present plans call for all Negroes and supporters to leave Pittsburgh by train about midnight and arrive at Washington, D. C., prior to 7 a.m. August 28, 1963. They will then proceed to a designated Federal Building. Kransdorf mentioned that "they" must support the NAACP in Washington and help out financially.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 12, 1962, that at a Communist Party meeting held near Baltimore, Md., on January 7, 1962, it was stated that Herbert Kransdorf was the Communist Party chairman and organizer in Pittsburgh, Pa.

On August 12, 1963, Mr. Joseph Healy, Regional Passenger Manager, B & O Railroad, 12 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, Pa. advised that on August 5, 1963, Mr. Herbert Wilkerson, Executive Secretary of the Pittsburgh Chapter NAACP, made arrangements through the Alexander Travel Service, Pittsburgh, Pa., for the B & O Railroad to transport approximately 900 persons from Fittsburgh to Washington and return on August 28, 1963. Mr. Healy stated that the train will leave Pittsburgh about 12:01 a.m., August 28, 1963, and return to Pittsburgh about midnight or 1 a.m., August 29,1963. He also advised that the B & O has arrangements for two trains to depart from Chicago with approximately 1300 persons for Washington, D. C., and one train from Detroit to Washington, D. C., to carry approximately 500 persons for the March on Washington, August 28, 1963.

On August 13, 1963, Mr. Richard Steck, Manager of the Alexander Travel Service, Room 902 Grant Building, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that he was approached by Mr. Herbert Wilkerson, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, Pittsburgh, to make arrangements for between 1,000 and 1,500 people to be transported from Pittsburgh to Washington and return on August 28, 1963. Mr. Steck stated that to date the only definite arrangement that has been made is for a 15 coach train, approximately 60 persons to a coach, total 900 persons, on the B & O Railroad, which will leave Pittsburgh and return to Pittsburgh on August 28, 1963. Mr. Steck stated that the B & O Railroad has quoted a one-day rate of $12.75 per person to Washington and return, which. .. will include one diner to serve cafeteria style meals. Steck advised that he has made several inquiries of bus companies but at the present time, no specific arrangements have been made until they determine whether the 15 car train will be filled. He stated that if more persons than the train can accomodate put up their money then additional arrangements will be made with bus companies. He stated that he has already contacted bus companies such as Continental Trailways, Greyhound and DeBolt Transit Company in Pittsburgh and they have advised him that they have no equipment available on that date. Mr. Steck stated that he knows of no other groups except the NAACP who are interested in making this He also advised he has been informed that the NAACP intends to conduct various social functions and sell lapel pins to raise money to pay for the transportation.

On August 12, 1963, Mr. H. E. Hussing, Passenger Sales Representative, Pennsylvania Railroad, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that on August 8, 1963, he had an inquiry from Mr. William Turner of the NAACP in Cleveland, Ohio, requesting chartered railroad transportation for approximately 400 people from Cleveland to Washington on August 28, 1963. Mr. Hussing advised that he had to refuse Mr. Turner's request because the Pennsylvania Railroad had no equipment available for that date.

On August 12, 1963, Mr. J. A. Dagnel, Terminal Manager, Greyhound Bus Company, and Miss Elsie F. Klingensmith, Tour Agent, Continental Trailways Bus Company, both Pittsburgh, advised that they had had inquiries to charter buses to Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963, but had to refuse because they had no equipment available for that date, and both advised the reason they had no equipment available was because it was so close to their peak season of Labor Day. Both advised they did not know the identity of the individuals or organizations requesting such service.

CONFIDENTIAL

On August 12, 1963, Mr. E. Conard, Superintendent of Traffic, DeBolt Transit Company, Homestead, Pal, advised that on August 2, 1963, that company had a request from the Alexander Travel Bureau in Pittsburgh for sufficient buses to transport approximately 1,000 people to Washington, D. C. on-August 28, 1963.—Mr. Conard stated that they did not have the equipment available to handle that request.

. August 28, 1963

On August 15, 1963, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that on August 13, 1963, a meeting was held in Seattle of the executive board of the adult chapter of Fair Play for Cuba Committee (See Appendix). At this meeting a girl, who was visiting in Seattle from San Francisco, was introduced as CONNIE HAHN or HUNN (phonetic). This individual advised members attending this meeting that she is planning to attend the March on Washington, D. C., on August 28, 1963 It is presumed she will travel from San Francisco, since she stated that free transportation to Washington, D. C., is available for the unemployed in California, and that she is temporarily unemployed. She did not further explain this remark.

The source advised that CONNIE HAHN stated she is a member of a Young Socialist Alliance (see appendix) in Ban Francisco.

The following description of CONNIE HAHN was furnished by the source:

Race Sex Age Height Weight Hair Negro Female 25-28 B. APPROX. 5'2" 135. Black

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

;;

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence in negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799
Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by Vincent "Ted" Lee, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed Lee has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, Lee has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. Lee feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

SEATTLE FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

On April 20, 1961, a source advised that as of this date, no formal adult chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had been organized in Seattle, Washington; however, in early 1961, the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) formed a temporary committee of the FPCC in Seattle which was headed by an active member of the Seattle SWP and was for the purpose of promoting the appearance in Seattle of a speaker on behalf of the National FPCC.

On September 25, 1961, this same source advised that an official active adult chapter of the FPCC had recently been organized in Seattle which is dominated and controlled by the Seattle Branch, SWP. As of this date, according to the source, the Seattle FPCC, an affiliate of the National FPCC, had no office headquarters and did not have a large membership.

The same source, on May 21, 1963, reported that the Seattle FPCC continues to operate in the Seattle area as an active organization. It has no office headquarters, but uses the mailing address of Box 743, 507 Third Avenue, Seattle, Washington, which is the address of a mailing service.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APFENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (YEA)

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

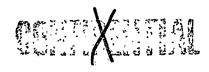

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 10, 1962, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise, almost exclusively, the national leadership of the YSA. The YSA, in reality, is the youth section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

A source advised on September 17, 1962, that the headquarters of the Young Socialist Alliance are located at 125 - 4th Avenue, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

Lieutenant BENJAMIN GOLDSTEIN, Hartford, Connecticut, Police Department, advised on August/15, 1963, that he had heard from the Reverend RICHARD BATTLES that approximately 1,050 persons would be leaving Connecticut to participate in the March on Washington, August 28, 1963.

Lieutenant GOLDSTEIN stated that this information had been received from Reverend BATTLES who is the coordinator of this movement in Connecticut. GOLDSTEIN stated that BATTLES advised that he had attended a meeting in Bridgeport on August 14, 1963, of state-wide committees concerning this—"march".

On August 14, 1963, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had received through the mail a mimeographed invitation entitled "An Evening For Freedom". This invitation revealed that on August 17, 1963, at 8:00 P.M., a chicken barbecue would be held at the home of IRVING ROSENTHAL, Little Meadow Road, Guilford, Connecticut, and that such affair would be by reservation only. It was revealed that minimum contribution for the affair would be $3.50 per person, that additional contributions would be gratefully accepted and that the contributions were for the New Haven Chapter, Congress of Racial Equality, and the "Freedom Rally" to be held at Washington, D.C., on August 28, 1963.

The invitation set furth telephone numbers of "ROSENTHAL", "KURTZ" and "DIMOW" from whom information could be obtained as well as reservations for the affair.

On January 28, 1958, IRVING ROSENTHAL,

Guilford, Connecticut, advised Special Agents of the FBI that he has held "socialistic" beliefs in the past, some of which coincided with ideas espoused by the Communist Party (CP). He said, however, that he has never been a CP member and that a socialistic program such as outlined by the CP would not be right for the United States.

On October 1, 1947, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that JULIE KURTZ was a committee member of the Sections Executive Committee, CP/Garment Section, New York City.

On April 7, 1957, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that JOSEPH DIMOW attended as a delegate the 1957 State Convention of the CP of Connecticut.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON August 28, 1963

On August 16, 1963, Sergeant JOHN J. UNGVARY, Cleveland Police Department, advised that in making inquiries concerning captioned matter, he determined that ERIC J. REINTHALER listed himself as "Contract Agent" in making arrangements to charter two buses from the Greyhound Bus Company in Cleveland for the use of the local chapter of Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) in sending persons to captioned march.

ERIC J. REINTHALER was one of seven defendants who were convicted in U. S. District Court, Northern District of Ohio, in 1958 on a charge of conspiring to file fraudulent non-Communist Union Officer Affidavits with the National Labor Relations Board in violation of the Labor-Management Relations Act of 1947. REINTHALER was sentenced to 18 months in custody of the Attorney General and fined $2500.00. During the course of this trial, REINTHALER testified in his own behalf and stated that he was a member of the Communist Party from 1946-54.

In July, 1963, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, described ERIC J. REINTHALER as a sympathizer of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Another source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 16, 1963, that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, Ohio Communist Party Chairman, was highly critical of REINTHALER's taking a major role in the arrangements for the August 28 demonstration. KRCHMAREK stated that this would only serve to scare people who might be hesitant in joining the demonstrators. KRCHMAREK stated that REINTHALER was no longer associated with the Communist Party and that no effort was being made among local CP people to have them take part in the March on Washington.

It is noted that the "Cleveland Plain Dealer," daily Cleveland newspaper, in its issue of August 16, 1963, carried a front page story concerning REINTHALER's involvement in making arrangements for the CORE bus and set forth information concerning his admitted former CP membership. The article quoted local CORE officials who stated they knew nothing of REINTHALER's background prior to the disclosures by the above newspaper.

With reference to the estimated number of persons, MP 2304-S, who is a member of the Minnesota Committee for the March on Washington, has indicated that in her opinion there may be a large number of added reservations received over the week-end since a committee meeting is scheduled to be held on Saturday or Sunday, August 17 or 18, 1963, following a demonstration sponsored by the NAACP at the Minnesota State Capitol in St. Paul, Minnesota.

There are attached hereto for the Bureau and Washington Field eight and four copies respectively of a letterhead memorandum pertaining to current developments in connection with the March on Washington.

MP 2304-S and her husband, MP 2310-S, will attend the March. The names of participants have largely all been secured, however, it should be borne in mind that many of the names reported in the attached letterhead memorandum may be replaced by substitutes. The final and accurate list of participants should be obtainable no later than August 23, 1963, which is the last date American Airlines will accept the manifest listings. On that date, a final list will be submitted containing all of the names appearing on the manifest.

The attached memorandum has been classified confidential since it contains information from MP T-1 and MP T-2 which if disseminated could lead to the identification of the informants and impair their future value.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963 RACIAL MATTERS

On August 15, 1963, Miss Barbara Thoeng, American Airlines Sales Office, Northwestern Bank Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota. advised as follows:

Arrangements had been made through a Mr. Paul Muller for the charter of an American Airlines plane to take a group to Washington, D.C., leaving St. Paul-Minneapolis International Airport at 3:00 A.M., Central Daylight Savings Time, August 28, 1963, and to depart Washington, D.C., for Minneapolis at 7:30 P.M., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, for St. Faul-Minneapolis International Airport. The passenger manifest list has not as yet been compiled since the sponsoring group has not submitted a passenger list. The passenger list has been requested to be submitted by August 20, 1963, however, it will be acceptable if the passenger list is submitted by August 23. 1963.

On August 14, 1963, Mr. Jack Gardner, United Airlines Sales Office, 119 South Tenth Street, Minneapolis, advised that he has no manifest list for passengers traveling to Washington, D.C., on or about August 28, 1963. He advised that he will remain on the alert for any indications of passengers leaving the Twin Cities area for Chicago, Illinois, or Buffalo, New York, which passengers might be proceeding to Washington.

past few days she had had conversations with Rose Tillotson Renaud and Betty Smith in connection with the March on Washington affair. They both had indicated that the Communist Party (CP) should not be identified with the trip. However, on August 14, 1963, it was learned that Rose Renaud had made a reservation in her own name to travel to Washington, D.C., to participate in the demonstration (1) [1] [1]

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

MP T-2, on August 14, 1963, advised that Betty Smith was an active member in, and Rose Renaud was secretary of, the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, USA (MDDCP).

MP T-1 further advised on August 14, 1963 that on the evening of the previous day, Gunnar Shanks of Minneapolis, Minnesota, had deposited $75.00 with a member of the Minnesota March to Washington Committee for the transportation costs to Washington of Robert Baum of Excelsior, Minnesota.

Joyce Shanks, a former member of the CP from 1947-1952, advised on February 13, 1952 that Gunnar Shanks, her husband, was then a member of a unit of the MDDCP.

MP T-3 advised on September 18, 1952 that during that month, Gunnar Shanks was enthusiastic about the aims and purposes of the CP and followed all suggestions he read in CP publications.

MP T-4 advised on April 8, 1963 that Robert Baum, Excelsior, Minnesota, had held a subscription to "The Worker", which expired on March 9, 1963.

On July 3, 1963, MP T-5 advised that Robert Baum attended a National Council meeting of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC), which is characterized in the appendix, and thereafter attended the annual PYOC school at Camp Midvale in New Jersey from June 25 to 30, 1963.

During February and March, 1962, MP T-6 advised that Baum attended seven functions of the New York School of Marxist Studies (NYSMS) between February 7, 1962 and March 27, 1962. The NYSMS is characterized in the appendix.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

A few days previous to the time Gunnar Shanks made the payment on behalf of Robert Baum, Gunnar Shanks visited the home of a member of the MDDCP for the purpose of obtaining material for a news item concerning the March on Washington to be placed in "The Worker". Shanks had been unsuccessful in this effort.

MP T-1 further advised on August 14, 1963 that on the previous day, Ralph Taylor, Chairman, MDDCP, had indicated to a member of the MDDCP that he desired to secure a reservation on the chartered flight to Washington for Oscar M. Mahlke, who resides at 351 Morse Avenue, Excelsion, Minnesota. It was not indicated whether or not Mahlke's fare was to be paid by the MDDCP.

On January 4, 1963, Norman John Boehnke advised that at a meeting of the MDDCP at the residence of Betty Smith, Minneapolis, Minnesota, on December 20, 1962, it was stated by those present that Oscar M. Mahlke was a member of Ralph Taylor's CP group. Norman Boehnke testified in behalf of the Government at a Subversive Activities Control Board hearing at Washington, D.C., on January 29, 1963.

On the same day, according to MP T-1, Betty Smith made a statement that trains were leaving for the March on Washington from Chicago, Illinois. Smith expressed the hope that some Twin Cities unemployed should be sent to Chicago to travel on one of the trains to Washington. She did not indicate that she had been successful in obtaining any such persons to go to Washington.

On August 13, 1963, MP T-1 advised as follows:

On that date, a member of the MDCP in Minneapolis received a letter from Sam Davis, former secretary of the MDDCP and currently a figure in the Chicago, Illinois, CP, in which Davis stated he had received a telephone call on August 12, 1963, the date of his letter, apparently from someone in Minneapolis asking if it would be possible for someone from Minneapolis to join the chartered trains leaving from Chicago on the afternoon of August 27, 1963. Davis wrote that he had telephoned a Miss Judy Margolis of the staff of the Chicago March to Washington at 4859 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago. Miss Margolis had informed Davis that an application blank for passage on the trains would be necessary. The cost by train, Davis wrote, was $27.00 round trip. Davis added that many from the UAW would go to Washington for the March from Chicago.

Davis wrote that he and his wife, Ellen Davis (who, while she resided in Minneapolis, was an active member of the MDDCP), both hoped to be in Washington for the March on August 28, 1963. He said he and his wife might not go by train, their hope being that they could leave by car while he was on vacation. His plans were to leave his car in some town outside of Washington and to proceed therefrom by train or bus.

On August 14, 1963, MP T-1 advised that she had received additional names of a number of persons scheduled to travel to Washington, D.C. for the March on Washington on the plane chartered by the Minnesota March to Washington Committee. The name of Rose Renaud is no: being included in this list since MP T-1 feels that the committee might object to her accompanying the group since some weeks ago the above mentional Norman Boehnke publicly exposed her as a communist on a radio program over a local radio station, WCCO.

The additional names are as follows. All addresses are Minneapolis, Minnesota, except when otherwise indicated:

Reverend C. E. Vaughn, 1213 Olson Highway.

Cathy Finley, Northwestern Hospital

Patricia L. (Mrs. John) Pritchard, 2415 33rd Avenue. John Pritchard is a laborer.

STUDENT COMMITTEE ON PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION—(SCOPE)

A confidential source advised on June 16, 1958, that the Student Committee on Progressive Education (SCOPE) was formed in early 1958, by a group of individuals who were believed to be, by the source, sympathizers of the former Labor Youth League (LYL).

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second confidential source advised on November 20, 1958, that at the third day's session of the National Executive Committee (NEC); Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held that day in New York City, Robert Thompson, Executive Secretary, CP, USA, stated that in New York there is a group of about 21 youths who have been a very active force in youth and formed a group called SCOPE, a Student Committee on Progressive Education, which has run for the last year with young people with a Marxist character. Thompson stated that approximately eight or ten of this group are CP members.

A third confidential source advised on March 24, 1959, that during a meeting of the NEC, CP, USA, held on March 21, 1959, Hyman Lumer, CP, USA Educational Director, stated that in New York most of the discussions on youth are between the National Office (CP) and two groups of young people who function in New York which are either Party groups or pro-Party groups. The first group is called SCOPE (Student Committee on Progressive Education) and this group stands closest to the CP leadership.

A fourth confidential source made available on March 23, 1961, a mimeographed letter signed by "The SCOPE Committee." This letter sets forth that last fall SCOPE became a part of the newly formed New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSMS) as its autonomous youth division.

MARCH ON WASHINGTON AUGUST 28, 1963

On August 16, 1963, PH T-1 advised of the formation of the State College Committee for the March on Washington for the stated purpose of getting local participants in the March on Washington.

MILNOR ALEXANDER, Instructor, Department of Political Science, Pennsylvania State University, is Chairman of the State College Committee for the March on Washington.

PH T-2 on August 21, 1961, advised that JEAN FRANTJIS, a member of the Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPFPD), advised that a letter had been received from MILNOR ALEXANDER, who was very much upset concerning recent publicity regarding the Morton Sobell case which appeared in newspapers throughout the country. ALEXANDER was upset in that she recently received a teaching position at Pennsylvania State University and was afraid she would lose her job at school, so she was leaving the Philadelphia Sobell Committee and will take part in no further activity of the Committee.

A characterization of the Fhiladelphia Sobell Committee appears in the appendix.

It was not known how many intended to participate in the March on Washington from State College, Pa. Transportation arrangements will be made after it is learned how many people wish to participate. It is expected the group will leave via chartered bus which will depart State College, Pa., early enough on August 28, 1963, to arrive in Washington, D. C., by 10 a.m.

HYMAN DAVID JENKINS

Reference is made to FBI memorandum dated August 8, 1963 at Washington, D.C. entitled "March on Washington, August 28, 1963, Racial Matters", which states that DAVID JENKINS plans to be in Washington, D.C. for the March.

On September 17, 1954, a source furnished the following information concerning HYMAN DAVID JENKINS. This information pertained to matters which had been handled by the Security Review Commission District 13, Communist Party (CP), USA, during the years 1945 - 1950. It referred to JENKINS as a man with a working class background who joined the CP in 1932 and was at times a full-time functionary.

A second source advised on January 22, 1954 that he knew JENKINS to be a CP member from 1944 to 1950 and that he was formerly Director of the California Labor School (CLS), which has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A third source advised on December 10, 1954 that DAVE JENKINS was then nationally in charge of setting up defense committees for the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union.

A fourth source advised on December 7, 1956 that JENKINS had dropped out of the CP because of disillusion-ment with the leadership. This source stated that JENKINS still wanted to work for socialism but did not think the CP would be able to bring it about.

RE: HYMAN DAVID JENKINS

A fifth source reported that at a meeting of the CLS on March 25, 1957 held for the purpose of discussing the school's future, JENKINS said that he was the person who had started the CLS and had for many years devoted a tremendous amount of time and work toward the school. JENKINS said that during the past few years the school had adopted a policy with which he did not agree and that if the school continued to teach the present courses he did not see why he should assist it. JENKINS said that if the CLS would change its political orientation from pushing a pro-Marxist line and evote itself simply to educating the working people in the San Francisco area along the lines of general educational courses he would again be willing to support the school.

A sixth source advised on September 25, 1957 that at a CP meeting held in September, 1957, it was mentioned that JENKINS dropped from the Party but was not an enemy of the Party.

A seventh source has in recent years advised that JENKINS was working from time-to-time in attempting to raise funds for the defense of officials of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers who were convicted of violation of the Labor-Management Relations Act, 1947.

CG T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 15, 1963, that the Jewish Cultural Clubs of Chicago (JCCC), Chicago, Illinois, plan to send three delegates to the March on Washington of the JCCC and pay their expenses. These delegates have not been chosen yet, but will be designated in the near future. Celia Farmilant, also a member of the JCCC, also plans to go to the March on Washington with these three delegates from JCCC, although the JCCC will not pay Farmilant's expenses. Farmilant and above three persons plan to travel to Washington, D.C. by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad train at Chicago, which is being chartered by the Chicago Committee for the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom.

A characterization of the JCCC is attached hereto.

CG T-2 who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on August 5, 1963, that as of July, 1963, Celia Farmilantywas a member of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

CG T-3 advised on August 16, 1963, that at the August 11, 1963 meeting of the Chicago Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), a report was given regarding the March on Washington scheduled for August 28, 1963.

Beatrice Hansen, Chicago Branch, SWP member, who gave this report read a letter from Farrell Dobbs, SWP National Secretary, to all branches which stated that Claude DeBruce, New York City SWP member and Ed Shaw, Detroit, Michigan SWP member, will coordinate all work for the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and SWP members participating in the March on Washington. Dobbs advised that there would be a special issue of "The Militant" for this demonstration which would carry an appeal for independent political action; demand a strong civil rights stand by the administration and demand the immediate desegregation of all V. S. schools.

Beatrice Hansen stated that between 150,000 and a quarter of a million individuals would probably participate in the Harch on Washington. She said that members of the Chicago Branch of the SWP who would be able to sell "The Hilitant" at the March on Washington should give her their names. She also said that one delegate from the YSA and one delegate from the Chicago Branch of the SWP will attend the March on Washington with one of the civil rights groups going from Chicago. She added these delegates would be chosen later and at that time they would decide on the type of transportation that they would use.

During the above meeting, Jack Barnes, Chicago Branch SWP Organizer, stated that intervention in the March on Washington was planned by the SWP, just as at the Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley speech at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People meeting in Chicago recently where individuals heckled Mayor Daley until he was unable to speak and therefore Mayor Daley left the meeting. Barnes added that the Democrats will not be allowed to turn this demonstration into a rally.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

JEWISH CULTURAL CLUBS OF CHICAGO

A source advised on December 7, 1961, that the Jewish Cultural Clubs of Chicago (JCCC) which initially rented space at 177 North State Street, Chicago, Illinois, during 1956, moved to 3300-3314 West Lawrence Avenue, Chicago, on December 1, 1961.

A second source advised on June 26, 1963, that the JCCC is not responsible to any other organization of a similar character. It pays no dues or receives directives from a national office. The JCCC does request speakers and suggestions for programs from their counterparts in other midwestern cities and especially New York City. A loose-knit coordinating committee in the midwest operates with delegates from the larger midwestern cities.

This source advised on May 14, 1963, that the JCCC has nine affiliated clubs. The membership of the club includes many former members of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order - International Workers Order (JPFO) (IWO).

This source on October 25, 1961, made available a copy of the Perspectives and Proposals presented at the annual JCCC conference held October 22, 1961. The aims and purposes set out in the Perspectives and Proposals are as follows:

As a progressive Jewish organization, it is our task to be alert; and to react to all matters concerning the welfare of our-people and our country. The guestion of peace, civil rights and growing anti-Semitism, the rising pro-Nazi tendencies and organizations... are of paramount importance to our organization. In presenting our program, we urge active support and cooperation with peace movements against the threat of a third nuclear war; an all-out campaign to help expose and eradicate organized anti-Semitic groups; to study bills pertaining to the health, security and welfare of our senior citizens; to intensify our cultural activities and to support Jewish children's schools as a means of perpetuating this heritage. On June 26, 1963, this source advised that the aims and purposes of the JCCC continue

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nation-wide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 10, 1962, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise, almost exclusively, the national leadership of the YSA. The YSA, in reality, is the youth section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The "Young Socialist," a monthly publication self-described in the April, 1960, issue, as the official organ of the YSA, discloses the headquarters of YSA as 10 East 23rd Street. New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE-CHICAGO, Also known as Young Socialist Supporters, University Young Socialists

A source advised in late November, 1959, that the Young Socialist Alliance-Chicago (YSA-C), formerly known as Young Socialist Supporters, had its origin in a series of informal discussions held in Chicago prior to June, 1959, among individuals who were close to the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

The YSA-C as of November, 1959, proclaimed itself to be a city-wide revolutionary youth organization designed to build socialism in America and aimed toward youth on college campuses in the Chicago area and as being independent of all adult groupings.

According to a second source in May, 1963, the YSA-C, also known as the University Young Socialists, was considered the youth group of the Chicago Branch SWP and affiliated with the national organization of the YSA in New York. The YSA-C officers as of May, 1963, were current members or sympathizers of the Chicago SWP.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
